Moreover the Pope sent this Bull to the Archbishops of Rhean, Auxerre, and the Abbot of Saint Denys in France, that they might constrain (and therefore our English Archbishops, Bishops, Abbots, by like reason) the Clergy and religious persons under their Jurisdictions, to yield aids and Subsidies to the Kings of France, to defend or rescue them or their sonnes from their enemies, especially if taken prisoners by them, notwithstanding his Constitution, without any license from him or his successors, which our K. Edward did without any such Bull, license or declaration.

What further oppositions this French King, his Nobles and Subjects made against this proud Popes Bull and usurpations, I shall relate in its due series of time.

Whiles our King Edward was busied in proceeding against his undutifull Prelates and Clergy, to reduce them to obedience, by putting them out of his Protection, seising their Temporalities, goods, chattels, and imprisoning the persons of those who published the Popes Bull, or excommunicated his Officers for executing his Writs issued against them, the Archbishop of Canterbury, with some other Prelates and Clergymen, by their clandestine instigations and disobedient refractory examples, stirred up sundry of the Nobility and Commons of the Realm against the King, by reason of divers extorsions, which the Clergies denial of a timely ayd to supply his want of Monies to carry on his Wars, enforced him to exercise, against the Laws of the Realm, and the liberties and properties of his Subjects, thus related by * our Historians;
*Hoc anno auxit Rex tributum de lanis, accipiens de quolibet sacco quadraginta solidos, cum prius ultra marcam dimidiam non daretur. Illo quoque tempore voce præconaria proclamatum fuit per Angliam, ut possessores lanarum exponerent eas venditioni infra mensem in civitatibus assignatis, alioqui, tanquam forisfactura cederent ipsi Regi. Que quidem in die S. Georgii quasi modo prælocuto callide congregata, pro forisfactura Regis in Flandriam sunt transvectæ, (or as Henry de Knyghton expresserit it) Ministri Regis omnes saccos lane quinarium numerum excedentes, datis tal-lis, ad opus Regis acceperunt. Et ab unoquoque sacco quinarium numerum non excedente, ab eis nomine malæ tollis 40 s. extorserunt. Et multæ oppressiones fiebant in hunc modum in populo. Rex quoque habuit de quolibet Comitatu duo millia quarteria frumenti, et totidem de avenis, et carnes salas similiter, ad gravem oppressionem populi, videlicet, porcinas, bovinas, vaccinas, multonum sal-

The Writs then issued for that purpose as well to Archbishops, Bishops, Abbots and other Ecclesiastical persons, as to Earls and Lay-men, who held Lands in Capite or Grand Serjeanty, or had 20 l. lands or rents by the year, are thus recorded.

<sup>a</sup> In festo S. Matthæi quibusdam convocatis Optimatibus regni absque Clero, Rex tenuit Parliamentum suum apud Salysbyriam, ubi rogavit quosdam Magnatum, ut in Vasconiam transfretarent: Et ceperunt singuli se excusare. Indignatusque Rex comminabatur quibusdam eorum, vel quod trent, vel quod terras eorum daret aliis ire volentibus. Et in hoc verbo scandalizati sunt multi, & scisma cepit oriri inter eos. Comes etiam Mareschallus & Comes Herfordiæ excusaverunt se dicentes, Quod officia sua quæ sibi jure Hereditario competeant libenter facerent eundo cum ipso Rege. Iteraque præce rogavit Rex Comitem Mareschallum ut iret, & ait; Libenter tecum vadam, O Rex præcedendo faciem tuam in acie primâ, sicut mihi competit jure hereditario. Et Rex, etiam sine me ibis cum aliis. At ille, Non teneor, nec est mea voluntas, O Rex, sine te iter arripere. Et iratus Rex prorupit in hæc verba, ut dicitur: Per Deum, ô Comes, aut ibis aut pendeabis. Et ille, Per idem jurementum, ô Rex, nec ibo nec pendebo. Et licentia non accepta recessit; dissolutumque est Concilium pro illo die. Confestim vero duo Comites isti Herfordiæ & Mareschallus associati sibi multis Magnatibus, & plus quam 30 Baneris electis creverunt in populum multum, numeratique sunt in equis armatis mille quingenti viri expediti ad bellum. Et cepit eos timere Rex, dissimulavit tamen. Illi profecti in terras suas, noluerunt Spinifros Regis permittere, nec lanas, nec coria, nec extraordinarium quicquam capere, aut aliquid exigere ab iubitis, quinimo interdixerunt eis terras suas sub pœna capitis et membrorum, et sic resistebant Regi et suis.

About the same time the King of France invading Flanders with a puissant army to conquer it, to divert the King of England from assisting the Earl of Flanders his confederate, stirred up the perfidious Scots, (immediately after their* new premised Abjurations of all Confederacies with the French) to rebel and war against him, by the instigation of William Walleys his instrument. <sup>b</sup> Eodem anno mense Maio, ceperunt coti (instigante eos Willielmo Walleys, qui ut fertur latro publicus fuerat) rebellare. Justiciarius Scotiæ, Willielmus de Ormesby, præceptum Regis exequens, multos qui Regi Angliæ homagium et fidelitatem facere recusabant, exilto condemnabit. Qui præfatum Willielmum Walleys sibi in Principem eligentes, associato sibi Willielmo Douglas qui in reddendo castrum Berwici se Regi dederat, in magnam turmam creverunt. Comite autem Surrie & Thesaurario in Anglia existentibus. Willielmum de Ormesby Justiciarium apud Scone opprimere cogitabant, sed ille licet præmunitus, suis omnibus penè relictis ad spolia hostium, eorum vix evasit infidias, Willielmus Walleys cum suis palam debacchando in Anglicos, quoscunque invenire potuit trucidavit. De quibus viros religiosos Anglicos dormitus suis quibus profecti erant violenter extrahentes, ex his spectaculum facientes, et scēminas quas specialiter referabant ad hoc, ligatis ad dorsum manibus vel pedibus, ne forsitim natando evaderent, ex ipsius pontibus, coegit saltare, vel præcipitari faciebat in flubium, eorum submersionem in ludibrium convertendo, in interitu eorum et subbersione lstantes. Hæc ideo scribere curavi ferocitatem improbe gentis referare, quæ in iniquis taliter super omnes alias Nationes terræ, quasi naturaliter contra Anglicos posita est, writes Henry de Knyghton, who more largely relates their cruelties, perjuries, treacheries, rebellions, then any other of our Historians, to whom I refer you; only I shall insert one observable fresh president of Robert de Bruys a Scottish Earl his desperate perjury, treachery and cruelty out of him, soon after the breaking forth of this new Scottish rebellion and warre against King Edward. <sup>c</sup> Interim dum talia gererent Carliolensis Episcopus, et super gladium sancti Thomæ juramentum præstitit, quod Regi nostro et suis contra Scotos et omnes inimicos suos fideliter assisteret in consiliis et auxiliis, damnaque sua impediret in quanto se posset sua facultas extendere, factoque juramento reverberatus est in locum suum. Et congregato populo ut colorem fingeret processit in terras Willielmi Douglas, & partem earum combussit igni, & uxorem ejus & parvulos se-cum adduxit in vallem Anandiz. Cito tamen post dum à conspiratione Scotorum reverteretur ad propria, convocatis militibus patriis sui de terra vallis Anandiz (nam pater ipsius in australibus partibus Angliæ moram faciebat) hujus fraudis nescias, & dixit eis. Charissimi mei, scitis, & verum est, quod nuper apud Carlionem juramentum præstiti, de quo scitis et audistis, nullum quidem et hi extortum, nam timore ducens hoc feci corpe sed non mente, unde contristor et poeniteo balde, spero tamen me beneficium absolutionis consecutum in bebi. Verum quia carnem suam nemo unquam odio habuit, nec ego habeo, oportet ut vadam ad populum meum et nationi meæ adjungar, et qua procreatus sum, rogo autem vos ut illud facientes placeat vobis venire mecum, eritisque mihi consiliarii et amici charissimi.

 Cumque differrent responsum in crastinum, eadem nocte latenter recesserunt, potius eligentes damna quæcunque magna ad tempus sustinere, quam fidelitatem Regi Edwardo factam cum nota infamiz infringere. Ipso vero aspirans ad regnum, sicut publicè dicebatur, adjunctus est ad populum perversum, et cum Episcopo Glasguensi et Seneschallo Scotiz, qui totius mali fabricatores extiterant, confederatus est.
 Et tunc vero generatio illa perfida et infidelis Scoti, omnes Anglicos quos invenire poterant trucidabant, inter quos tres Anglici viri in villa S. Andree, qui cum à facie Willielmi Waleys & suorum fugissent in lapidem illum, qui dicitur petra vel acus Sancti Andree, credentes se posse lapidis immunitate muniti, cum sancta mater Ecclesia præbilegium perdidisset, a Scotis interfecti sunt, et in eodem lapide interfecti.
 * He instanceth in sundry other presidents of their treachery and cruelty; wherof this towards Hugo de Cressingham, Rector Ecclesie de Ruddeby, & capitalis Justiciaclesiis et multarum haberet curam animarum, nunquam tamen arma spiritualia indidit, sed galeam et loriceam in quibus (in bello) coaruit, et qui gladio lingue fuz (as a Judge, not Evangelist) multos olim extriberat in iudiciis multis, gladio tandem perverborum occisus est. Quem excoziantem, Scoti dibiserunt inter ipsos pellem ipsius per modicas partes, non quidem ad reliquias, sed in contumelias;

 erat enim pulcher & crassus nimis, vocaveruntque eum non Thesaurarium sed Traiturarium Regis, & virius quam credebant; multos enim seduxit in die hac, sed & ipse seductus est, qui levis et lubricus, elatus superbia & avaritia deditus. Rex commotio-ne audita, militiam totam ultra Trentam fluvium assignavit Comiti de Warennæ, præcipiens, ut Scotorum audaciam celerius opprimeret, et auctores mali debita justitia castigaret, scripsit etiam Johanni Comyn de Badenau, & Comiti de Bowan, ut memo-res fidelitatis suæ reverterentur in Scotiam & populi sui suscitatum jam tumultum sedarent. Qui juxta mandatum acceptum in Scotiam revertentes, quæ pacis erant seg-

The King being engaged and peremptorily resolved to go in person into Flanders to ayde the Earl against the French, thought it expedient before his departure out of England to endeavor to reconcile all domestick differences then between him his Prelates, Clergy, Nobles and Commons; for which purpose Parliamentum factum est Londonus in sedo Santi Petri ad vincula, ubi in primis Rex recepit Archiepiscopum in gratiam suam (the prime author of the Clergies, Nobles, Commons oppositions and insurrections against him) omnibus qui ejus erant restitutis eidem usque ad ultimam quadrantem (by the f premised Writ) Deinde precipis Magnatibus qui tunc aderant, ut fidelitatem filio suo facerent, ipsumque regni heredem et suum futurum recognoscerent Dominum. Rex vero de exactionibus in regno factis, per necessitates guerrarum diversarum se erga populum excusabit. Comes vero Marescallus & Herefordensis se subtrahentes, cum venirent ut sua officia transendo in Flandriam exercerent, se super hoc per Nuncios excusabant. Eodem tempore admissio Archiep. Cantuariensis in gratiam Regis atque reddita sibi Baronia sua, Rex emirancore deposito ipsum cum suis in specialitatem recepit pristinam & majorem adjunxit. Et confidens a bonitate ejus & constantia, curam & custodiam Edwardi filii sui & totius terre Angliz, (as Knyghton stories) adjunxit sibi D. Regis. de Gray commisit. Pridie Idus Julii ante magnam aulam Regiam Westminster. elevatus Rex super gradum ligneum cum filio suo & Archiepiscopo, necnon Comite Warwic. ut populum decedens deliniret, coram eoistente populo, erumpentibus lacrymis veniam de commissis humiliter postulavit: Dicens, Se minus bene et tranquille quem Regem deceret ipsos regisse, potiusunculas facultatum suarum quas sibi dederent, seu quas ministri ejus ipso inscio extorserant, adea accepisse, ut injurias hostium conatus, sitientium sanguinem Anglicanum, sumpta licentia particula, massa quictius possidenda, potentius expugnaret: Et addens, Ecce expositurus me ipsum discrimini propter vos, peto, si rediero, suscipiatis me velut in presentia habetis, et ablata omnia reddam vobis. Quod si non rediero, in Regem vestrum meum filium coronetis. Hac autem, Archiepiscopo resolutio in lacrymas, pollicente se fideliter obsequere, totus populus fidelitatem extensis manibus stipulatur. Henry de Knyghton addit, Rogavitque populum accepta licentia, ut omnia condonarentur ei, et orarent pro eo: et orabant quidam publice, alii vero sic, alii vero occulte, pauci vero bene. Absentibus interim sponte prefatis Comitibus usquequo eorum petitio pro allebatione patrie audiretur. Dixerunt quidam, non fuit proficuum Regi in Flandriam transire, neque ipsos sibi illuc terbitia, ab antecessoribus suis insue- ta præbere; præsertim ipsis Scotis jamdudum more Wallensium adhuc se præsentem, recidivatis ad pugnam. Postularunt etiam, allegata primitus communitatis exinanitione, ne de cætero per Angliam tallagia usurparet. Rursum, ut libertates contentas in Magna Charta ac de Foresta, in usu extunc efficacius haberentur, et voluntarias super his inductas exactiones, de cætero quasi in irritum rebocaret: super quibus non protinus exauditi cum indignatione recesserunt dicti Comites et Barones. Quo viso, Rex instinctu charitatis consolvenda, suasque viatorias acquirenda, articulos in prædictis Chartis contentos innobari insuper et obsequari mandabit, exigendo pro hac concessione ab incolis octavum denarium sibi dari. Qui mox concessus est ei a plebe, in sua tunc Camera circumstante. Petiit etiam a Clero subsidium, qui respondit, Se velle Summo Pontifici literas supplicatores dirigere pro conferendi licentia obtinenda. Igitur datis induciis inter Regem & Comites, ut uniformes fierent, & non presentantibus se prefatis Comitibus conspectui Regis, cernens ipse mora sua amicis suis in transmarinis partibus, ejus adventum expectantibus periculum imminere non modicum, Comitibus prefatis se subtrahentibus, cum votis Regis non parerent ab eorum officiis absoluti sunt, dedique Rex eorum officia aliis quibusdam qui ministrarent ei. Thoma de Berkeley Constabulario, & Galfrido de Monibolza Mareschallo factis, versus mare Rex in Flandriam profecturus iter suum dirigit, atque juxta Wynchelsiam ubi portum eligerat, confedit, milites virosque bellatores de being highly offended that they were thus displaced ; the King to encrease his forces and friends, <sup>h</sup> de discretorum consilio Radulphum de Moynhermer militem, quem filia sua Johanna Comitissa Gloverniz, clam maritum accepit in gravem patris offensam, de castro Bristoliz fecit educi, & uxori suæ reddi, restituens eis omnes terras ad Comitatum Gloverniz spectantes, servitium quinquaginta Militum in Flandria im-ponens eisdem. Liberavit etiam de carcere Comites de Ascales & de Menteth, & Johannem de Comyn, cum quibusdam aliis Militibus de Scotia qui in Castro de Dunbar, capti fuerunt, ut secum in Flandria militarent, who serving him a perfidious Sco-tish trick, <sup>i</sup> Cum enim Rex Angliz ad propria reversurus venisset ad villam quæ Arde-burgia dicitur, Scoti fere omnes quos secum in Flandriam duxerat in expeditionem, ab ipso Rege discedentes, Parisius abierunt, revolting from him to the French. Before his departure into Flanders, Rege moram adhuc faciente apud Wynchelseyam, venerunt ei Nuntii ex parte Comitum sui regni petitiones hujusmodi in scriptis proponentes, ( printed both in French and Latin in <sup>k</sup> Henry de Knyghton, and in Latin only in <sup>l</sup> Thomas Walsingham ) & rogaverunt eum ut subscriptos Articulos pro se, et pro populo emen-dare juberet ; adjiciens, quod si Chartam Libertatum confirmare vellet & articulos cor-rigere, parati erant omnes eum sequi et in vitam et in mortem.

Hæc sunt documenta quæ Archiepiscopi, Episcopi, Abbates et Priores, Comites et Barones, et tota terræ Communitas monstrant Domino nostro Regi, & humiliter rogant eum, ut ea ad honorem suum et salutem populi sui velit corrigere et emendare. In primis, videtur toti Communitati terræ, quod præmonitio facta eis per breve Domini Regis non erat sufficiens, quia non exprimebatur certus locus, quo debebant ire, quia secundum locum oportebat facere providentiam, et pecuniam habere. Et si deberent servitium facere, siue non ; quia dictum est communiter, quod Dominus noster vult transfretare in Flandriam, videtur toti com-munitati, quod ibi non debent aliquod servitium facere, quia nec ipsi, nec præde-cessores sui seu progenitores unquam fecerunt servitium in terra illa. Et quamvis ita esset, quod deberent ibi servitium facere, ut alibi, tamen non habent facultatem faciendi, quia nimis afflicti sunt per diversa Tallagia, auxilia, prisas, &c.
videlicet, de frumentis, avenis, hærto, lanis, coziis, bobus, vaccis, carnibus, salis, sine solutione alicujus denarii, de quibus se debuerant sustentasse. Prop-ter hoc dicunt, quod auxilium non possunt facere propter paupertatem in qua sunt, propter Tallagia et prisas antedictas, quia vix habent unde se sustentent ; et multi sunt qui nullam sustentationem habent, nec terras suas colere possunt.
Propter hoc tota terræ communitas sentit se valde gravatam, quia non tractantur secundum leges et consuetudines terræ, secundum quas tractari antecessores sui so-lebant habere, sed voluntarie excluduntur. Sentiunt etiam se multi gravatos super hoc, quod solebant tractari secundum articulos contentos in Magna Charta, cujus articuli omnes sunt omitti, in majus damnum populo universo. Propter quod rogant Dominum Regem, quod velit ista corrigere ad honorem suum et populi sui sal-vationem. Propter hæc communitas terræ sentit se nimis gravatam de assisa Forestæ, quæ non est custodita sicut consuevit, nec Charta Forestæ observata, sed sunt attachiamenta pro libitu extra assisam, aliter quam fieri consuevit. Præterea tota communitas sentit se gravatam de vectigali lanarum, quod nimis est onerosum, videlicet de quolibet sacco quadraginta solidos, et de lana fracta de quolibet sacco septem marcas : lana enim Angliz ascendit fere ad valorem medietatis totius terræ.
Quia vero communitas optat honorem et salutem Domino nostro Regi sicut tenetur velle, non videtur eis quod sit ad bonum Regis quod transeat in Flandriam, nisi plus esset assecuratus de Flandrensibus pro se et pro gente sua, et simul cum hoc propter terram Scotiæ, quæ rebellare incepit ipso existente in terra, et assimanti quod pejus facient cum certificati fuerint, quod Rex mare transierit. Nec solum pro terra Scotiæ, sed etiam pro terris aliis quæ non sunt adhuc modo debito sta-bilitæ.

Hæc petitiones cum Rex apud Odemar juxta Wynchelsyam recepisset, respondit, se talibus sine suo consilio non posse respondere, cujus pars aliqua jam transit in Flandriam, pars verò aliqua Londoniis esset relicta. Rogavit autem per eosdem nuncios præfatos Comites, quod si secum transire nollent, saltem ipsi vel regno suo in sua absentia non nocerent ; sperabat enim ( Deo favente ) reverti, & regnum suum modo de-

Soon after, * 12 Cal. Septembr. Rex Anglix naves ingressus (paratis 300 navibus) indissoluto classe sulcato mare, sexto die sequenti applicuit in Flandria. Itaque Rege Anglix in Flandria commorante, locum ejus in Anglia tenuit filius suus Edwardus; cui quia minoris etatis erat, pater rectores consiliariosque deputaverat Richardum Episcopum Londinensem, & Willielmum Comitem Warwicensem, necnon & Milites Reginaldum de Gray, Johannem Giffardi, Alanum Plokenet, viros emerita militia providos & discretos. Per idem tempus, (the same day the King set sail towards Flanders) Comites Herefordiæ & Mareschalli, cum suis complicitibus, accedentes ad Scaccarium Domini Regis apud Westmonasterium, Theaurario & Baronibus de Scaccario inhibuerunt, ne levari facerent octavum denarium a populo qui Regi concessus fuerat apud Sanctum Edmundum, dicentes, de conscientia suorum non emanasse, sine quorum assensu Tallagium non debet exigi vel imponi. Induxerunt etiam Cives Londoniarum, ut pro recuperandis suis libertatibus secum carent. Comitibus itaque & Baronibus pariter conglobatis & confederatis, necnon majoritate populi eis inclinante, factus est timor super habitatores patriæ, & imminente periculo; (by reason of the revived Scots Rebellion, who entered and wasted England with fire and sword, against their promised Oathes, Charters, Truces so frequently and lately made to the King; whose successes in that Rebellion by reason of our domestick discords, are at large related by Henry de Knyghton.) * Cum à gente Scotorum perfidatilia agerentur, Consilarii Regis nostri Edwardi, qui cum Edwardo filio Regis erant, magnum videntes periculum non tantum Regi in remotis agentis, sed etiam toti terræ Anglicanæ imminere, insisterunt apud filium Regis qui Londoniæ morabatur infra muros Civitatis, ut Comites predictos Mareschallum & Herefordensem, qui a patre suo in parte deciderant, rogaret et interpellaret ad pacis unitatem et amorem. Missis igitur literis suis, rogavit eos, ut ad Parlamentum suum (eo quod sui patris tenebat locum in Anglia) venirent Londonias 10 die Octobris celebrandum.

By which returns it is evident; 1. That most of the Knights elected found 2, or 4. Manucaptors a pece to appear and attend at the day and place appointed for the Parliament, whose names were particularly endorsed on the Writs. 2ly. That one of them was distreined by his goods to appear. 3ly. That the Knights elected who were employed to defend the Realm against the Enemeis before their elections, and could not desert that service, found no Manucaptors to appear and attend in Parliament. 4ly. That those of Suffex refused to elect any Knights for the reasons mentioned in the return; and that those of Surrey who elected a Knight employed in the defence of the Sea coasts against the French. would not alter their election, nor elect another in his place, though he could not then attend in Parliament.

These Charters being thus granted and confirmed by the King, were accordingly sent to the Sheriffs of every County to proclaim, with Writs commanding that all persons should firmly and inviolably observe them, in this form.

REX Vicecomiti Buckhamie salutem. Quia in relevationem omnium Incolarum & populi regni nostri pro Nona nobis à Laicis de Regno nostro in subsidium defensionis ejusdem regni concessa, concessimus et confirmabimus pro Robis et hære. Clauſ. 25 E. 1. m. 2. corlo. De publicando Magnam Chartam, &c. Magnam Chartam de libertatibus Angliæ, et similiter Cartam de libertatibus Forellæ, easque innobavimus; Volentes et concedentes, quod Cartæ illæ in omnibus et singulis articulis suis firmiter et inviolabiliter obserbentur: Tibi præcipimus, quod Cartas prædictas per totam Ballibam tuam, in locis ubi expedire videris, sine dilacione publicari, et eas in omnibus et singulis suis articulis, quantum in te est obserbari facias firmiter, et teneri. T. &c.

Soon after the Archbishops and Bishops meeting together, in pursuance of this Act, composed and published this publike Excommunication against the infringers of the Great Charter, and Charter of the Forest; to which at its next publication that year, (exceeding their Commission) they superadded some new clauses, against the Distreiners of any goods within the Granges or possessions of Clergymen, without the owners free consent; as this ancient Manuscript in Sir Robert Cottons Library of the Archbishops Letters to the Bishop of London and his other Suffragans, and theirs to their inferiour Officers attest.

Dei gratia Episcopo London. salutem & fraternam in Domino caritatem. Frequenter exigit repentina necessitas, & congrua futurorum cautela, ut & præordinata pro periculis evitandis remedia, sed forsitan negligenter omissa vivacius iterentur, & nova superaddatur in hujusmodi executione medela, in hiis præcipue qua sanctorum patrum jamdudum sanxit auctoritas, et quæ non possunt a nobis Episcopis, qui eorum statuta servare tenemur, absque periculo nostræ professionis omitti. Nuper siquidem in quadam Convocatione Prælatorum & Cleri London. celebrata post festum sancti Hillarii anno domini 1296. per nos et Coepiscopos nostros communi exitit ordinatione conditum, et eis per nos in virtute obedientiæ ad quorundam eorum excitationem injunctum, ut in Cathedralibus Ecclesiis et cæteris locis insignibus per Episcopos ipsos; in aliis vero Ecclesiis singularum Diocesarum per alios viros idoneos ad Diocesanos mandatum denuntiarentur publice et in genere, majoris Excommunicationis sententia innodari, omnes qui Ecclesiastica bona sine grata permissione Dominorum eorundem vel Ballivorum suorum diriperent, vel a domibus aut aliis locis Ecclesiarum per violentiam amoverent. Sed ut ex post facto didicimus, & graviter exinde dolemus, executiones hujusmodi non absque multorum periculo, et eorum præcipue qui ad id ex obedientiæ debito tenebantur, ab aliquibus Coepiscopis nostris in toto, ab aliis autem in parte hætenus sunt omittas; (Because these Constitutions, Excommunications were then made, enjoined only by the Popes & his own usurped Archiepiscopal authority without the King & Parliament,) per quod quamplures malevoli quandoq; sumpserunt, et imposterum forsitan sument majorem audaciam taliter delinquendi. Quia insuper Dominus Rex in innovatione prædictæ Prælati & toti Communitati Regni promiserat, quod pro nullo negotio quicquam nomine ipsius Domini Regis de bonis alicujus caperetur, sine totius Regni Communi assensu. Et si contingeret (quod absit) aliquos malefactores de Domibus, Grangiis, aut aliis locis Ecclesiasticis bona Ecclesiasticarum personarum auferre, abducere, vel aliquantulum asportare sine grata permissione Dominorum bonorum hujusmodi, vel ballivorum suorum (quod ut præmittitur de voluntate Domini Regis nullo modo procedere præsumatur) difficile erit & sæpe damnosum personis sic spoliatis, aut læsis ad suos Episcopos semper habere recursum, tam nobis nostrisque Coepiscopis et Prælati et Clero prædictis bivedatur expediens, et per eos in eadem Congregatione consensus extitit et conditum; ut singulis inferioribus Prælati, Rectoribus, etiam Vicariis Parochialium Ecclesiarum detur per suos Diocesanos expressa potestas denunciandi publice et solemniter malefactores hujusmodi, qui per facti evidentiam notorie et manifeste maleficium hujusmodi perpetrare præsumunt, una cum eorum complicitibus dicta Excommunicationis sententia innodatos. Quemoratam vero sententiam contra infringentes articulos dictarum Chartarum, per nos et nostros Coepiscopos, ut supra, consensu Regis interveniente prolata, secundum formam in præfata ultima congregatione prævisam, dictis diebus & locis, scilicet, bis in anno, festivitatis præscriptæ, faciat in forma, quæ superius tangitur publicari, et in Anglico seriatim in omnibus, ac patenter exponi; pulsatis Campanis, et Candelis accensis, ut propter solemnitatem hujusmodi (quam laici magis quam effectum hujusmodi sententiarum attendunt) amplius timeatur. Detur etiam per vos, sicut in dicta ordinatione ultima concorditer extitit ordinatum inferioribus Prælati et Rectoribus, ac Vicariis, ac etiam Capellanis parochialibus plena et expressa potestas denunciandi publice et nominatim cum dicta solemnitate malefactores prædictos; scilicet occupatores et invasores bonorum Ecclesiasticorum, si qui in hujusmodi Prælatorum locis aut Rectorum Vicariorum parochiis in futurum bona hujusmodi invaserint, occupaverint, aut amoverint, seu se invadi occupari, aut amoveri fecerint, in notoria evidentia ipsius maleficii, majoris Excommunicationis sententia innodatos. * Tunc Rex Edwardus (immediately after his ratification of the Great Charter and premised Acts at Gann) per literas suas speciales rogavit eosdem Comites & cæteros Magnates qui remanserunt in Anglia, ut sicut suum & totius Angliæ honorem diligenter, cum festinatione parati procederent in Scotiam cum Comite de Warennam quem suo loco præferebat, ut Scottorum audaciam castigaret & reprimerent, præfixitque eis terminum, scilicet in Octavo sancti Hillarii apud Eborum, ut interim pararentur, & convenirent ibidem extunc in suos hostes processuri. Misit etiam Rex literas suas ad Magnates Scotiæ, ut si in fide et fidelitate sua manerent, sicut in recessu suo se remanere promiserunt, ad Parliamentum suum apud Eboracum quod per Comites suos in Crastino sancti Hillarii celebrandum statuerat, absque omni cavillatione venirent, alioquin extunc velut hostes publici teneantur. Ad quem quidem diem conveniunt nostri Comites, illi scilicet, Comes de Warennam, qui locum Regis tenebat, personam illius præsentabat in hoc, Comes Gloucestrix cum Comitissa uxore sua filia Regis, Comes Herefordensis, Comes de Arundel & Guydo filius Comitis de Warwyk, Johannes de Segrave, & Magnates plures. Communicatoque consilio voluerunt, ut constaret communi populo de confirmatione Magnæ Chartæ et Chartæ de Foresta. Comites Herefordiæ & Marescalli, quia confirmatio Cartarum fuit facta in terra aliena, petiverunt ad majorem securitatem eas iterum confirmari: spondederunt autem pro Rege Episcopus Dunelmensis ac Comites, Johannes Surryæ, Wilhelmus Warwici, Radulphus Glovernix, quod obienta victoria, Rex eas post suum reditum confirmaret. Unde facta Magna Charta cum suis articulis insertis, quos enim ravimus supra, de præcepto eorum, Karliolensis Episcopus pontificalibus indutus, Excommunicationis sententiam in omnes ejus violatores fulminavit. Cumque non venirent Scoti neque mitterent, statuerunt, ut in Octabis sequentibus apud Novum Castrum super Tynam, omnis munitetur populus expeditus ad pugnam; & sic continuo procederetur in hostes; Whom they soon after encountering at Fowkirk, slew above * sixty thousand of these perjured treacherous and rebellious Scots in that Battel, reduced their Kingdom once more to the Kings obedience, who soon after reconfirmed the great Charter and Charter of the Forest, with new additions; of which more in its Chronological order.

* Tho. Walsingham Hist. Angl. p. 43.

* Hist. Angl. pag. 41.

From these last recited Histories, Records and Parliamentary proceedings, concerning the violations and confirmations of the great Charter and Articles thereto annexed, we may observe. First, that the Archbishops, Bishops and Clergy who originally occasioned, excited, fomented all the premised insurrections and seditions against the King, were the greatest losers, sufferers of all others by them; whence * Thomas Walsingham thus concludes his History of this year, Transit annus iste Clero Angliæ importabilis, quia de protectione Regia est exclusus, et per Regem nichilominus deprivatus. 2ly. That Parliaments and Convocations refusals or delays to grant our Kings competent necessary speedy ayds of monies and provisions to defend their rights, Crowns, Kingdoms against invading enemies, do usually enforce them to exercise forcible illegal courses, rapines, purveyances, seizures of their monies, goods, chattels, to the great oppression, discontent and grievance of their subjects. 3ly. That our Kings violations of the great Charters, laws, liberties and properties of their subjects, and abuses of their prerogative or regal power, to supply their necessities in cases of extremity, do commonly occasion great insurrections, seditions against them, alienate their Nobles, Clergies, Commons hearts and affections from them, deprive them of their military assistance, armes,

armes, when they most need them, to their great detriment, danger, disappointment, and give great advantage and encouragement to their foreign enemies. 4ly. That insurrections and commotions on such occasions frequently end in the Kings dishonour, loss, being seldom cordially and finally allayed, but by the Kings public acknowledgements, recantations of such exorbitances, and passing new Charters, Oaths, Acts, Excommunications & other securities to their subjects, for their greater security against subsequent grievances, exorbitances, oppressions of like nature; as all our successive Grand Charters, with their several confirmations, additional Articles, reiterated sentences of Excommunication against the infringers of them, and new Oaths for their defence, accompanied with Acts of general Pardon, indemnity and oblivion to their greatest opponents, in this Kings, his predecessors and successors reigns abundantly evidence. Which should caution Kings, their Counsellors and State-Officers carefully to avoid all such impolitick oppressing extravagancies, and to remember that sacred Maxim of the wisest of Kings, "It is an abomination for Kings to commit wickedness, for the throne is established by righteousness." 5ly. That Kings may justly displace their greatest Ecclesiastical, Military and Civil Officers, Prelates, Peers, when they contemptuously oppose, or neglect their duties to them; and put them out of their Royal protection. 6ly. That our Archbishops and Bishops have no legal authority to denounce any public Excommunication against the Kings subjects for any misdemeanors or offences, but when and in such cases only as they are specially required, authorised by the King, Lords, and Acts of Parliament to do it; whose prescribed bounds they have been alwayes prone to exceed, to enlarge their own jurisdiction. 7ly. That the premised Charter of Pardon to Humphrey de Bohun and others, and the Statute de Tallagio non concedendo, were made, granted in the 25 year of King Edward the 1. not in the 34 of his reign, as all our printed Statute-books, and † Sir Edward Cook very grossly mistake: which the premised Historians, the Statute-Roll in the Tower, the dates of passing them in England, of confirming them at Caunt and Tork, the Subsidy granted by the Nobles, Commons, and Clergy for their confirmation, the Excommunications denounced against the infringers of them, (all in the 25 year of Edw. 1.) with the deaths of Humphrey de Bohun Earl of Hertford and Essex, Gulielmus de Bello campo Earl of Warwick, and Gulielmus de Luda Bishop of Ely, Anno 1298. 26 E. 1. (as Mattheus Westminster and others story) mentioned in this Charter, Statute, as parties named, concerned in, or Witnesses to them, infallibly evidence beyond contradiction. Which I desire our Students of the Law, and publishers of Statute-books, when reprinted, to take notice of, to rectifie their former mistakes.

During the Wars abroad, and seditions at home, the Popes forementioned Legates, though at first denied, yet at last obtained Procurations and Commissions from the Kings of England, France, and their Confederates, to treat and conclude a Truce between them, with a submission to Pope Boniface as a private person and arbitrator only, voluntarily chosen by them, not as Pope by his Papal authority, to hear their differences, and settle a Truce and firm Peace between them; thus related by our Historians. *"Fuit Rex Edwardus apud Gandavum, ad quem venerunt in festo Sancto-rum Innocentium Magister Ordinis Predicatorum, & Magister generalis Fratrum Minorum sub eadem forma, qua ante Regem Francie, et parte Domini Papae rogaverunt, supplicantes, quatenus Sanctos solemnes ad Curiam Romanam, concessa eis plena potestate tractandi, ordinandi et perficiendi omnia quae pacis reformationem tangerent destinarent; et ipse Apostolicus non tanquam Index, (which neither party would admit him then to be) sed ut bonus pacis mediator in nullius praedictum satageret ad pacem et tranquillitatem regnorum, Regum amicitiam in statum pristinum reformare. Et quia hoc absque treugis fieri non posse sciebat Dominus Papa, ideo per hos Sanctos biennales inducias, quas per Cardinales impetraverat, induxit de novo sub poena Excommunicationis et Interdicti terrarum suarum. Whereupon, Rex Angliae perpendens se in Flandria periculose commorantem, illaque per informationem Comitum Flandriae minus prudenter attractum, regnumque proprium intestina scissione turbatum, fiduciamque suam a Rege Romanorum, per Papam sibi minus benevolam regnum Teutoniarum turbantem, frustratam, b Walsingham Hist. Pope Boniface the eighth, to settle a firm Peace between the two Kings and their Confederates, upon hearing their solemn Nuncios sent to his Court at Rome, (who diligently related and debated the business and differences before him) made this Award and Decree between them: The beginning of which is recited in † Henry de Kynghton; who then subjoynes, Copiam sequentium de hac materia diligens lector inquirat, nam ego sollicitus investigator nequivi pro tempore invenire, The intire Award, not extant in any History, I found in the Rubbish in the White Tower exemplified in a Parchment Roll attested by a publike Notary, which I shall here present you with, as a rarity: wherein you may discern this Popes Antichristian fraud, practise, in usurping to himself, as a private person and arbitrator chosen by these Kings, a Papal power to excommunicate their Royal persons, interdict their Realms, and award the possession of Aquitaine to be delivered into his own hands and power.

Ad hanc autem Pacem confirmandam, roborandam atque servandam infra tempus quod duxerimus moderandam, præfatus Rex Anglia Margaretam sororem prædicti Regis Francie recipere ac ducere, cum dotalitio Quindecim millium librarum Turron. assignando per ipsum Regem Anglie in locis competentibus, de quibus inter partes fuerit concordatum, vel ubi partes ipsæ non concordarent per nos arbitratum fuerit, in uxorem. Et idem Rex Francie eandem Sororem suam eidem Regi Anglie in uxorem dare ac tradere cum dispensatione Sedis Apostolicæ teneatur. Quodque Isabella filia prædicti Regis Francie, quæ infra annum septemennem dicitur constituta, suo tempore Edwardo prædicti Regis Anglia filio, qui jam 13 ætatis suæ annum exegit, cum simili dispensatione matrimonialiter, cum dotalitio decem & octo Millium librarum Turron. similiter assignando per eundem Regem Anglia pro dicto filio suo in competentibus locis, de quibus concordaverant ipsæ partes, vel de quibus nos duxerimus arbitrand. si super hoc inter eos non proveniret concordia, copuletur. Idque firmetur atque valleretur exnunc modis inferius annotatis, videlicet: quod idem Rex Anglia pro filio suo, idemque filius pro se (qui ad hoc sufficienter habet ætatem) contrahant Sponsalia prædicta eorundem Regis et filii juramenti firmanda; et Rex Francie nomina filie suæ prædictæ contrahat hujusmodi sponsalia pro eadem, Quæ ut valida fuerit & firma, volumus, dicimus, & arbitramur, quod Rex Francie promittat per juramentum pro ipso in animam suam præstandum, se tradere dictam filiam suam prædictam Edwardo nuptui tempore quo extiterit concordatum inter ipsos, vel per nos arbitratum fuerit vel laudatum. Pro quibus attendis firmiter & fideliter adimplendis, dicimus, laudamus, & arbitramur, quod pena de qua inter partes fuerit concordatum, vel ubi partes ipsæ non concordarent per nos arbitrand. et taxanda firmetur, et ab utraque parte præmissa balletur, solvenda parti parenti a parte non parente, per quam penam negotium istud in tuto ponatur; & partes ad ejus finalem executionem efficacius inducantur: Cujus pænæ promissionem et obligationem efficaciter valere volumus et decernimus ac tenere; Non obstantibus juribus quæ pro libertate matrimoniorum pænæ inhibent, quæ ex certa scientia pro tanto bono tollimus in hac causa; Addentes nihilominus, quod Reges prædicti aliquos de Baronibus suis notabiliores per juramenta faciant obligare ad desponsalia prædicta et matrimonia procuranda, et ad tollenda impedimenta pro viribus, quæ possent circa hoc vel contra hoc inveniri. Quia vero Sponsalia prædicta tanto amplius desideramus habere felicem effectum & efficacem eventum, quanto per hæc probabiliter credimus pacem prædictam firmiter & fidelius observari, pro tanto pacis bono decernimus auctoritate Apostolica, quod terra Regis illius, cui culpa vel malitia dederit quominus contrahantur prædicta Sponsalia, et matrimonium consummetur, Ecclesiastico subiaceat Interdicto, nisi super requisitis prædictis ejus effectu coegerit infra mensem. Et Rex Francie similiter, si qua talia ante dictam guerram capta vel ablata apud ipsum vel in sua potestate existentia reperta fuerint, similiter ad plenum restitui faciat, à præfato Rege Anglia vel ejus Nuncio requisitus. De ablatiis vero non extantibus sed deperditis & consumptis, laudamus, arbitramur & etiam diffinimus, quod Rex Anglia ad requisitionem Regis Francie vel ejus Nuncii satisfieri faciat, & ad faciendum etiam teneatur sine lite ac figura iudicii, & omni fraude cessante. Conditionibus et modis et securitatibus per nos imponendis et adhibendis in terris, vassallis et bonis et aliis, quæ per nostram pronuntiationem seu concordiam partium præfatos Reges Anglia habiturus est de prædictis, ne amodo idem Anglia Rex vel successores ejus contra Regem Francie vel successores ipsius valeant rebellare. Dicimus etiam, laudamus ac arbitramur, seu etiam diffinimus, quod ex nunc omnes terræ, vassalli et bona prædicta, et alia tam quæ tenet Rex Francie de hiis quæ tenebat Rex Anglia ante guerram præsentem, quam quæ tenet Rex Anglia in regno Francie, bona fide ac sine omni fraude, absolute ac libere * in manibus ac posse nostris ponantur et assignentur, tenenda a nobis nomine Regis Francie quæ ex parte sua, et nomine Regis Anglia quæ ex parte ejusdem nobis fuerint assignata. Ita tamen quod per hoc in possessione vel proprietate nihil novi juris accrescat alterutri parti, vel antiqui decrescat. Super quorum assignatione, si qua fuerit exorta dubitatio vel ambiguitas inter partes, illam nostre declarationi et arbitrio reservamus. Quod si forsan dicti Reges de ipsis terris & bonis adinvicem concordaverint, volumus, laudamus & arbitramur ex nunc id in quo concordaverint perpetuo ac inviolabiliter observari. Alioquin nos ex compromissi prædicti virtute apponemus ad illud remedium, quod Dominus ministrabit, & extradita nobis potestate licebit. Si vero casu aliquo contingente, hoc facere non possemus, volumus, dicimus & arbitramur, quod utrique parti pristina jura sua salva remaneant & illasa. Porro per hujusmodi assignationem faciendam nobis de terris, vassallis et bonis prædictis nullam ipsi Regibus vel eorum alteri, quoad possessionem vel proprietatem seu detentionem vel aliter præjudicium generetur. Omnia autem & singula supradicta per nos arbitrata, laudata, diffinita, & arbitraliter sententiata & pronuntiata dicimus, arbitramur & precipimus, sub penis in compromissis contentis, et aliis de quibus * nobis videbitur; arbitrio nostro nihilominus firmiter manente a partibus inviolabiliter observari. Et insuper reservamus nobis liberum arbitrium et plenariam potestatem, prout ex forma compromissorum prædictorum nobis competit, super omnibus et singulis quæ inter eosdem Reges ex compromissis prædictis arbitranda, laudanda, componenda, diffinienda et pronuntianda restant, et hic arbitrata, laudata, diffinita et pronuntiata non sunt, arbitrandi, laudandi, diffiniendi, arbitraliter sententiandi, precipiendi, ordinandi, disponendi atque pronuntiandi, necnon et tam in omnibus et singulis arbitratis, laudatis, diffinitis, et pronuntiatis in præfatis arbitrio atque laudo, quam in hiis quæ arbitranda, laudanda, arbitraliter sententianda, diffinienda et pronuntianda, ut præmittitur restant, addenti, minuendi, corrigendi.

This Award and Decree I find briefly mentioned in sundry other Records in the White Tower; as likewise in <sup>a</sup> Mat. Westminster, and <sup>b</sup> Thomas Walsingham, who relate: Anno 1297. in vigilia quoque Apostolorum Petri & Pauli, Romæ Papa Bonifacius submissionibus Regum receptis, pacem & concordiam per Dominum Papam Bonifacium inter Regem Angliæ & Franciæ ordinavit, ita ut Rex Angliæ sororem, & filium ejus filiam Regis Francorum ducerent, certis pro utrisque dotibus definitis; et quod Ducatus Aquitanie in manus Domini Papæ redderetur; & quod Rex Angliæ naves superfluitas cum navibus de illa qua rapta fuerant restituerit. Sed super his duobus articulis intercedit magna dilatio, Rege Francorum partem quam in Walconia occupaverat trahere rennente, by reason whereof, pax non fuerat totaliter solidata. Dominica secunda Quadragesima, citatu Magnatibus regni apud Westminsterium, fecit Rex Edwardus recitari formam pacis bullatam per Papam Bonifacium, tanquam arbitrium inter Regem Angliæ et Franciæ ordinatum, et alias Bullas statum suum tangentes: Cui assensum præbuit plebs omnis et Clerus.

What Protestations Philip King of France made against the latter clauses of this Popes award, when presented to him by his Legates, before it was read, to prevent all Usurpations upon his Supremacy in the Temporal Government and Rights of his Crown, I find thus reported by <sup>c</sup> John de Serres, Grimston out of him, and <sup>d</sup> Peter de Pithou. Pope Boniface inclined to the peace of Christindome (as the Lord Haillan writes) more puffed up with glory and vanity, then good zeal to the peace of Christian Princes, he commanded Philip by his Nuncios, to reſtore to the English and Flemings what they demanded; and for not obeying, he cites him to appear at Rome upon pain of Excommunication. Philip a wise and valiant Prince, although he were discontented with this course, yet he sent an honorable Embassage to Rome by the Archbishop of Rhemes, and the Earl of St. Paul, to lay open his right before the Deputies of the King of England and Earl of Flanders, who were then at Rome to complain as being wronged. All parties being heard, Boniface decrees, that Philip as the fountain and cause of all the miseries and inconveniences that had hapened, should yield to King Edward and Earl Guy

An. 25 & 26 E. 1. Guy all they demanded both in Guienne and Flanders, charging the Archbishop of Rhemes to signify this Bull to the King, under pain of Excommunication for not obeying. This was the first blow given by Boniface against Philip; who after these great threats, prepares for deeds, not suffering himself to be daunted with words; and as Peter de Pitbou stories, he entered this solemn Protestation before the reading of the Popes award by his two Cardinals, to preserve his Prerogative; who thus attested it by a publick Instrument under both their Seals.

Whiles this Pope for his own premised ends was making these Truces and a Peace between these two Kings and their Confederates, he was very active in raising rebellions and wars against the Emperor Adolphus in Germany, to depose him, and set up another in his stead; which Matthew Westminster and others thus story.

<sup>a</sup> Eodem etiam Anno Adolphus Rex Alemannie, vacuus amicis fiduciam in se habentibus, & precipue, quod nequius est dicendum, Regis Angliz pactum prebericans; (by Pope Boniface his request and instigation) orta dissensionis materia inter se & Albertum filium Rodolphi Ducis Austrie, (whom this perfidious antimonarchical Pope stirred up to rebell and war against him) belloque indito juxta Moguntiam, coram sanctis, & regnavit idem Albertus pro eo. <sup>b</sup> Abbas Uspergensis writes; Moguntiz convenerunt Electores & Adolphum desitunt imperio. Nam centum milia marcarum argenti, vel, ut alii volunt, 75. millia pendo argenti acceperat Adolphus a Rege Angliz, ut sibi esset auxilio cum Principibus Germanie contra Regem Galliarum: Cum vero Adolphus hanc pecuniam non divideret inter Principes, sed sibi retineret, & comitatum hinc emeret, nec militem conscribere poterit, nec ferre Anglo auxilium: thereupon, Albertus falling out with him, ut qui fidem non servaret Regi Angliz, confederated with the Archbishop of Mentz and other German Bishops; who deprived Adolphus of the Empire, elected Albertus in his stead at Mentz, swore obedience to him, and raising great forces against Adolphus slew him in battel. Some Authors write, Victor Albertus illum appellat, Hinc (inquiens) dimittis Imperium; respondit Adolphus; Hoc situm est in Dei manu: for which answer he was slain by Albertus command, and the lives of all of his party saved, being only taken Prisoners: After which victory, he was crowned Emperor at Aquisgrani by Gerhardus Archbishop of Mentz.

And as this turbulent Pope persecuted this Christian Emperor in Germany, so at the same time he degraded and persecuted with armed souldiers some of his own Cardinals at Rome, as <sup>c</sup> Walsingham, <sup>d</sup> Matthew Westminster, and <sup>e</sup> others thus relate. Per hoc tempus Cardinales de Columpna, per Papam Bonifacium depositi, ad urbem se conserunt Nepefinam; contra quos damnatos tanquam scismaticos et excommunicatos Papa viros bellatores in Italia cruce signabit; as if they were Turks or Saracens. Illis etiam diebus, Dominus Papa fides et orationum quae erant beati Petri oblitus, assumens quae non erant ejus, tam aurum videlicet de viduis et orphanis, quam argentum, non viduis et orphanis, sed militibus bellicosis illis erogare curabit contra scisma quorundam Cardinalium, eos denique degradando, et contra Regem Siciliae guerram movendo. Sed dicti Regis exercitus de galeatis turmis Domini Papae multa millia necaverunt: Who thereupon to recruit his Treasure, Forces, cheated, robbed the Franciscan Preers of no lesse than forty thousand Florens of gold; and sold the confirmations, translations, and his provisions of English, Scotish, and Irish Archbishopricks, Bishopricks, to those who would give most money for them: nulling the elections of those who were duly chosen to them, if they came not up to his Simonical rates demanded for them, or to resigne them into his hands to dispose of at his pleasure.

Upon the Liberties of the Kings and Subjects of Engl. & Irel. K. Edward 1.

The Chief Justice of Ireland refusing to restore the Temporalities to Malachy Bishop elect of Elphin, whose election the King and Archbishop of Tuam had confirmed, for certain causes which he certified into England to Prince Edward the Kings Lieutenant, and the Kings Council: they examining and finding the causes certified to be insufficient, and receiving his Fealty, issued this second Writ to him to deliver the Temporalities accordingly.

REX dilecto & fideli suo Johanni de Wogan Justic. suo Hibernia salutem. Re-cepis & visis Recordo & Processu, quæ nobis super negotio restitutionis Temporalium facienda, dilecto nobis in Christo fratri Malachia Clerico Elphin.
misisit, ac rationibus ipsius negotii, propter quas dicta Temporalia sibi restituere hæcenus distulisti coram Edwardo filio nostro, locum nostrum in Anglia tenente, & Consilio nostro, examinatis et plenius intellectis, eadem causæ et rationes insufficientes reputatæ fuerunt: Et ideo, cum venerabilis pater Archiepiscopus Tuamen.
electionem factam de præfato Malachia in Episcopum Elphin. cui prius Regium assensum addidimus et favorem, confirmaverit, sicut per literas patentes ejus-

De Temporalibus restitutis.

By which it is apparent, that the Kings Chief Justice in Ireland; and the King and his Council in England had then a legal power to examin and determine the legality of Bishops elections, with all causes about, and objections against the restitution of their Temporalities, after their elections confirmed.

Upon a Certiorari issued in the 1. year of King Edward the 2<sup>d</sup> to remove the Record of a Judgement given in Ireland in the case of the Bishop of Down, An. 25 E. 1. I finde this memorable Judgement given against the Bishops encroachments upon the Kings prerogative Royal in two particulars, expressed at large in the record and Certificate thereupon made to the King.

Com. Placita apud Dublin. coram Johanne Wogan Justic. Hibern. a die Pasche in 15 dies Anno Regni Regis Edwardi vicesimo quinto.

Dublin. ff. Episcopus Down. præsens allocutus super eo, quod ipse simul cum Ar-chiepiscopo Ardmaccano quasdam Ordinationes seu Provisiones constituerunt in Dioc. suis; in quibus implicite continetur, quod Clerici in Ang- lia oriundi non reciperentur in Monasteriis infra eorum Dioc. &c. in præjudicium Coronæ D. Regis, &c. Episcopus venit, et deadvocat hujusmodi Constitutiones, &c.
Et bene concedit, quod Abbas de Saballo & ejus Conventus & omnes alii Abbates; Priores & Conventus sua Dioc. possint recipere Clericos in Anglia oriundos, quos recipere voluerint suo periculo, salva sui visitatione sua consueta, &c. Et mancepit hic,

An. 25 E. 1. quod statim prefatas Constitutiones, & quæ fuerint, et mandata quæ extierant, per se et suos de huiusmodi Constitutionibus omnino rebocabit, &c.

Item Episcopus allocutus super eo, quod ipse appropriet sibi Placita Coronæ Domini Regis, et capit redemptionem de felonibus pro morte hominis Anglici & alius Felonis, &c. venit; Et dicit, quod ipse placitat omnia Placita Coronæ præterquam quatuor Placita, excepta in Lagen, &c. et invenit Ecclesiam suam seistam, &c. Et omnes Prædecessores sui Episcopi Dun. huiusmodi Placita tenere et habere consueverunt. Et hoc offert verificare, sicut Curia consideraverit. Clamat etiam habere redemptionem de Feloniis pro morte hominis Anglici & alius Felonis de quibus ipse cognitionem habere potest. Et dicit, quod ipse et omnes Prædecessores sui, a tempore quo non existat memoria huiusmodi redemptionem capere consueverunt. Et hoc offert verificare, &c. Et quaestus, quis Prædecessorum suorum cepit huiusmodi Redemptionem, & à quo? Dicit, quod quidam Ranulphus quondam Episcopus Dun. tertius Prædecessor suus cepit Redemptionem de quodam Thoma Balyagh & de Johanne Balyagh, pro morte Roberti Tyrel, &c. Et quaestus, si huiusmodi redemptio unquam fuit in Curia Domini Regis sibi aut alicui prædecessorum suorum allocata? vel etiam si pax quam concesserunt feloni fuit in Curia Domini Regis acceptata? ad hoc nichil dicit, nec potest ostendere: sed dicit, quod ipse fuit allocutus coram Iusticiariis, in itinere, Quo War. clam. habere Placita de Corona, &c. Et allegavit, quod à tempore quo non existat memoria: et hoc idem verificatum fuit ibidem per veredictum Patria, &c. Et super hoc venit Elyas de Berkeley una cum Johanne de Ponte, qui sequitur pro Domino Rege; Et dicit, quod tempore Roberti de Ufford quondam Capitalis Iusticiarii hic, fuit ipse Elias constitutus Coronator & Custos Placitorum Corona in Crocis Ulton, & ipse tunc fecit Inquisitiones & Visum de inierfectis, & illa presentavit Nicholao Tass tunc Iustic. &c. et hunc statum habuit Dominus Rex ibi per sex annos, quousque Nicholaus de Clere tunc Theol. &c. ipsum ammovit, & postea prædictus Episcopus, & etiam Prior Domus Sancti Patricii de Dun. occupaverunt huiusmodi placita Coronæ, et capiunt Redemptiones, &c. Et quod ita est parati sunt verificare pro Domino Rege, sicut Curia consideraverit.

Et Episcopus dicit, quod ipse et omnes prædecessores sui Episcopi Dun. a tempore quo non extat memoria semper consueverunt habere huiusmodi Placita et capere Redemptionem, sicut prædictum est; Et hoc paratus est verificare, &c. Et quaestus est à prædicto Episcopo, si habeat Coronatorem? Dicit, quod non; sed Seneschallus (nisi inquirat et facit vis. &c. Et quaestus, si Sen. (nisi sit iuratus Domino Regi? Dicit, quod non. Postea prædictus Episcopus pro se & successoribus suis remisit et quietum clam. Domino Regi et Heredibus suis omnia Placita Coronæ in Crocis sua imperpetuum. Et postea, &c. transgressio quam fecit Domino Regi de Placitis huiusmodi tenend. sine War. de gratia Curie eidem perdonatur. Et quoad Redemptiones capiendas de Felonibus, &c. pro Feloniis, &c. quia prædictus Episcopus docere non potest, quod pardonatio facta paci de felonis unquam fuit ipsi Episcopo vel alicui prædecessorum suorum, vel alicui Feloni in Curia Domini Regis allocata, &c. prædictus Episcopus abjudicatur de huiusmodi Redemptionibus capiendis imperpetuum. Et sit in misericordia qui falso clam. &c. Et misericordia pardon. per ipsum Iustic. &c.

In the Plea-Rolls of Eaſter Term, Anno 25 E. 1. Magiſter Henricus de Naſſington attach. fuit ad reſpondendum Radolpho de Honylane & Emma de Honylane de placito, quare ipſi ſimul cum Roberto Archiepiſcopo Cantuarien. tenuit placitum in Curia Christianitatis, de catallis et debitis, quæ non ſunt de Teſtamento vel Partimonio contra prohibitionem, &c. Et unde iidem Radolphus & Emma per Attornatum ſuum querantur, quod cum Rogerus de Arderue, Robertus filius Thomæ le Lyndraper, Allicia & Juliana ſorores ejusdem Roberti traxiſſent ipſos Radolphum & Emmam in placitum in Curia Christianitatis, coram præſatis Archiepiſcopo et Magiſtro Henrico, de triginta marcis, quæ non ſunt de Teſtamento vel Partimonio, &c. & ipſi die Mercurii proxima ante Paſch. floridam, anno regni Domini Regis nunc viceſimo quarto, in Ecclia Beate Mariæ de Arcubus London. in præſentia Richardi de Hoſham, Steph. de Hereford poſtceſſent eidem Magiſtro Henrico Regiam prohibitionem, ne prædictum placitum teneret in Curia Christianitatis, &c. Idem Magiſter Henricus ſimul, &c. ſpæta prohibitionem illa, nihilominus tenuit placitum illud in eadem Curia, et ſecit ipſos ſuſpendi ab ingreſſu Eccleſiæ, et poſtea excommunicari, in contemptum Domini Regis, &c. Unde dicunt quod deteriorati ſunt, et dampnum habent ad valentiam 40 marcatum: Et inde producunt ſententiam, &c. Et ſimiliter iidem Richardus et alii idem placitum in eadem Curia Christianitatis ſecuti ſunt verſus eos, quouſque ſententia in ipſos Radolphum et Emmam ad ſententiam ipſorum Rogeri et aliorum promulgata, ipſos excommunicare ſecurrunt. postea Breve Regium de ipsis Radulpho et Emma sic Excommunicatis, tanquam claves Ecclesie contemnentibus capiendis; eisdem Vic. porrerit (ut dicitur) in Coronæ et dignitatis Regis lisionem, Curie Regis contemptum, et ipsorum Radulphi et Emma dispendium non modicum et gravamen, prout ex gravi querela ipsorum Radulphi et Emma accepit Dominus Rex. Et quia tanta contemptum et malitia (si commissa fuerunt) transire nolumus impunita; præceptum fuit Vicecomiti Kanc. quod si prædicti Radulphus & Emma, &c. tunc attach. prædictos Archiepiscopum et alios, quod essent hic ad præfatum terminum Sancti Martini, ad respondendum tam nobis quam prædictis Radulpho et Emma de prædictis transgressionibus et contemptu, &c.

Magister Johannes de Harington attachatus fuit ad respondendum Roberto de Rothewell de placito, quare ipse simul cum Radulpho de Rothewell Capellano, Thoma Vicario Ecclesie de Cokewell, et Saero le Personseriamur secutus fuit placitum in Curia Christianitatis de catallis et debitis, quæ non sunt de Testamento vel Patrimonio, contra prohibitionem, &c. Et unde queritur, quod cum idem Magister Johannes coram Magistro Nicholao de Wytchirch, Magistro Waltero de Wetton, & Magistro Henrico de Weingworth, Commissar. Official. Archidiaconi Lincoln. in Curia Christianitatis transisset ipsum in placitum, exigendo ab eo triginta solidos, qui non sunt de Testamento vel Patrimonio: ac idem Robertus die Sabbati proxima post festum Sancte Trinitatis, anno regni Regis nunc vicelesimo tertio apud Northr. in Ecclesia omnium Sanctorum; in præsentia Simonis Scot et Gilberti de Hedon, detulisset ei Regiam prohibitionem, ne placitum illud ulterius in eadem Curia sequeretur. Idem Magister Johannes, spreta Regia prohibitione prædicta, nihilominus in eadem Curia sequebatur placitum illud in tantum, quod idem Robertus suspensus fuit ab ingressu Ecclesie, et postea Excommunicatus, ad sedam ipsius Magistri Johannis. Unde dicit quod deterioratus est, et dampnum habet ad valentiam quadraginta solidorum. Et inde producit sedam, &c.

King Edward returning into England out of Flanders, Anno 1298. Dominica secunda Quadagesima citatis Magnatibus apud Westmonaster. petierunt Comites, Barones et Prelati, ut Magnam Chartam de Libertatibus et illam de Foresta, una cum deforestatione jam facta ratificaret, et pro rato et grato haberet; (they always distrusting his future, by reason of his former violations of them, and thinking them never too frequently ratified.) Qui confirmatis duobus primis prædictis Chartis, super deforestationis roboranda obtinuit autem, elongavit se discedens ab eis, tanquam se fugiens longius ire. Ipsi autem sese asstantes quasi derelictos contempti, ad loca propria cum indignatione maxima redierunt.

Soon after, Anno 1299. Margareta soror Philippi Regis Francorum, (who by the premised Articles of Peace between England and France made by Pope Boniface, was to be married to King Edward) applicuit apud Doveriam in festo Nativitatis beatae Mariz, quam post biduum Rex Angliæ, auctoritate Summi Pontificis, apud Cantuariam sibi matrimonialiter copulavit: Which Walsingham thus relates; Rex Angliæ

Hereupon the Archdeacon of Exon (most likely by the Bishops encouragement and direction) upon false surmises excommunicated John de Crancumb and William de Hamelton to whose Prebendaries the Church of Axminster was annexed, who had received it in the Kings Court, and interdicted the Church and their prebendaries, whiles they were employed by the King in his service, to his and their notable prejudice, dishonor, grievance and contempt: whereof the King being deeply sensible, issued this memorable Writ to the Sheriff of Devon, to summon the Archdeacon to appear before him to answer this high contempt and injury both to himself and his Clerkes.

Although the Bishops, their Courts Christian and Clergie did thus usurp upon the Kings Crown, Dignity, Courts and Subjects liberties, by holding, prosecuting these manifold suites of which they had no Jurisdiction; yet they were very careful to remove all Layforces out of Churches by the Kings Writs, which might hinder the exercise of their own Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction in them; as is evident by this memorable Writ this year De vi Laica amovenda, in the White Tower, to omit others.

John Bayliol late King of Scots, by large bribes, and clandestine solicitations of the King of France his confederate, procured Pope Boniface to commission this Bishop and Legate amongst other things, to importune King Edward at his special instance and request, to deliver his person into his hands and custody; which the King condescended to, upon the conditions therein expressed, and the Popes engagement to him, that it should not be any way prejudicial to him or his Realm; the manner and form whereof is thus recorded in a special Record made thereof, which I lately found in the White Tower Chappel.

<sup>a</sup> Thomas Walsingham and Matthew Westminster render us this account of his delivery to this Popes Nuncios. In translatione beati Thomæ Martyris venerunt Sancti Pape ad Regem Cantuariam, rogantes, ut Johannem quendam Regem Scotie sua liberaret custodia; sperantes, quod Regem & regnum ab omni quod per hanc liberationem posset contingere periculo præservarent. Quorum petitioni Rex condescendens, respondit; se ipsum Johannem tanquam seductorem salutem et periculum ad Papam missurum: (as false and peridious as he.) Ad quem Nuncios responderunt; & nos eum pro tali accipimus Summo Pontifici presentandum. Cumque dictus Johannes cum prefatis Nunciis venisset Doveriam, & cista sua in navem deferretur, quidam regales qui eos ad mare deduxerant, dixerunt, quod voluerunt videre, qua continebantur in clisella dicti Johannis. Quibus apertis, inventa est una corona regia regni Scotorum aurea, & multa vasa aurea & argentea, & pecunia non parva summa; qua universa Angliæ Regi sunt allata. Rex illis coronam auream offerri iussit beato Thomæ Martyri (as great a Traytor as this Scottish King) & sigillum commune Scotie quod repertum est ibidem inter cetera, iussit sibi reservari: pecuniam vero totam remisit dicto Johanni, ad expensas itineris inchonati. Nuncios vero plurimum commendantes Regis sapientiam & regalem magnificenciam, trausterunt eundem Johannem in terram Ballholi, quam habuit in regno Francie, & ibidem reliquerunt eum, sub certorum custodia Prælatorum. Posthac & alii captivi à Regibus detenti, hinc inde secundum condiciones in Transgarum concessione postas, liberantur.

The King having ratified the election of his Chancellor John de Langton to the Bishoprick of Ely the * year before, elected only by the minority of the Covent and Chapter, rejected their Prior chosen by the majority, whereupon there was an Appeal to Rome by the Chancellor, whom the King not only licensed to repair to Rome in person to prosecute his undue election, but likewise writ Letters of credence to the Pope in his favor, wherein he highly extols his great services, fidelity, and expressed his cordial desire that he might speedily effect his business, and return to his presence to advice him in the grand affairs between him and the King of France; as these Records assure us.

Yet notwithstanding these Letters, his own presence and bribes, he miscarried in this suit; for the Pope by a quadruple Usurpation on the Kings Prerogative and Royalties, translated the Bishop of Norwich to Ely, created the Prior elected Bishop of Norwich, the Archdeacon of Canterbury Archbishop of Dublin, and bestowed the Archdeaconsry on the Chancellor to stop his mouth, by his own Provisions, to gain quadruple rewards to himself, and Fees to his Officers, by this their ambitious contest for Ely; thus related by * Mat. Westm. Post Magistrum Gulielmum de Luda Episcopum Eliensem, a majori parte Capituli electum est Prior ejusdem loci, à residuis Johannes de Langtona, Cancellarius Domini Regis. Disputata causa coram Archiepiscopo Cantuariensi, et paulo minus pro Prioris terminata, appellavit Cancellarius ad Apostolicam sedem, personam propriam itineri exponendo. Et Prior licet multisarè impediretur à nonnullis, ipse iter est aggressus, causam Ecclesiæ defensurus. Quibus in presentia Summi Pontificis, una cum Procuratoribus illius Collegii Eliensis, constitutis, atque utriusque partis jure in maribus Papæ resignatis, (a device then introduced in such cases, by the policy and delays of Popes, that they might dispose of all litigious Elections by their own Papal Provisions at their pleasures) ipse favorabilis existens Procuratoribus prædictis Collegii, annuit eis gratiam eligendi unum de Abbatibus exemptis illius ordinis, nominatis Abbatibus de Westmonasterio, de S. Edmundo, de S. Augustino, & de S. Albano. Quibus abnegantibus tantum oblatum, motus Papa de improbitate ipsorum, transtulit Episcopum Norwicensem (Radulphum Walpoole) in sedem Eliensem, et Priorem Eliensem in sedem Norwicensem. Defunctoque tunc tempore fratre Gulielmo Ottonino (Hothum) Archiepiscopo Dublinensi in redeundo de Curia Romana, dedit Papæ eundem Archiepiscopatum Magistro Ricardo de Feringes Archidiacono Cantuariensi, & Domino Johanni de Langtono Cancellario Angliæ, dedit Archidiaconatum prædictum; by his usurped Papal authority.

The Chancellor not satisfied with this Archdeaconsry, and his former Ecclesiastical preferments, procured Pope Boniface (to gratify both the King and him, whom he had disappointed and disgusted in this business of the election to Ely) to grant him a license to hold all the Ecclesiastical Benefices and Promotions he had before, either with or without Cure, and likewise to receive two more Benefices with Cure, if he should canonically procure them; which privilege and indulgence of the Pope the King approving, ratified by this ensuing Patent, wherein he highly extols his Chancellors merits.

REX omnibus ad quos, &c. salutem. Cum sanctissimus in Christo pater Dominus Bonifacius Papa 8. nostram in dilecto Clerico nostro Johanne de Langton Cancellario nostro volens honorare personam, cum eo super pluralitate beneficiorum suorum cum cura et sine cura, quæ obtinet nostri consideratione duxerit dispensandum, Regis.

sanctum, nihilominus sibi ex dono gratiæ amplioris indulgens, ut si de beneplacito nostro processerit, ac expedire viderimus, adhuc etiam duo alia beneficia Ecclesiastica curam habentia animarum, si ea dicto Cancellario nostro Canonice offerantur, licite recipere, ac una cum prædictis prioribus beneficiis retinere valeat et habere, prout in literis Apostolicis nobis specialiter inde directis plenius continetur. Nos attendentes præfati Johannis Cancellarii nostri fidele servitium quod nobis impendit, & obsequiosam fidem quem ad nos habet & habuit, necnon conversationem ejus laudabilem vitæque honestatem, & aliarum gratiarum & virtutum dona quibus eum Altissimus insignivit: Et ex hiis eundem Johannem præfata gratia per præfatum summum Pontificem sibi facta et longe majori dignum esse censentes, omnibus et singulis quorum interest tenore præsentium intimamus; quod de nostro beneplacito procedit, ac nobis expedire videtur, gratumque habemus pariter et acceptum, ut idem Johannes prædicta duo beneficia, si sibi Canonice offerantur, licite recipere, et eadem una cum omnibus prædictis prioribus beneficiis retinere valeat et habere, juxta prædictarum Apostolicarum continentiam literarum. In cujus, &c. Teste Rege apud Cantuar. 9 die Julii.

By which dispensation of the Pope we may observe, 1. How little regard he had either of the peoples souls, Gods worship, service, or of the Canons and Decrees of former Councils, Popes, Prelates, or his own made against Pluralities from time to time, which he dispensed with for money and favour, beyond all bounds of moderation to this great Officer of State, who neither could reside upon, nor officiate in any of them: 2ly. This Chancellors unconscionable avarice in procuring dispensations for such a multiplicity of Benefices with Cure for filthy lucre, which he neither did, nor possibly could reside on, nor discharge his pastoral duty in them to Gods honour, or the edification or salvation of peoples souls, which he never minded, but only the augmentation of his own annual revenues: 3ly. That the Popes dispensations to hold pluralities of Benefices with Cure, in England, were held invalid in that age, without the Kings approbation and confirmation of them.

Pope Nicholas the 4th. having by his Provision conferred the Prebendary of Massam, belonging to the Kings donation by reason of the Temporalities of the Archbishoprick of Tork in his hands, on John de Columpna, which Provision Pope Boniface the 8th confirmed, and at his solicitation issued two successive Mandates to the Archbishop of Canterbury, and also to special Delegates to induct him into possession thereof, and to admonish the King's Clerk after two years peaceable possession, either peaceably to acquit the possession thereof to this Italian, or else personally to appear before the Pope within a prefixed time; against his Crown and Royal dignity; the King thereupon to preserve the rights and prerogative of his Crown against this Papal usurpation, issued these two Prohibitions to the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Popes Delegates, and likewise sent this ensuing Letter to the Pope, to revoke his Provision and Mandates to the disinherison of his Crown and ancient right, which he neither would nor ought to suffer or connive at, and if he should, yet his Nobles would by no means suffer it.

The King marching this year with an Army against the Scots who invaded England, out of his Ecclesiastical Sovereignty and piety, issued these Writs to the Provincials of the Freers Prædicants, and Minors to enjoin all the Freers of their order in their respective Monasteries in England to make devout prayers to God for his grace to and protection of him, his children and Realm, as he had done to the Archbishop and Bishops, to excommunicate them, and pray for him and his forces.

The King having then discontented his Nobles and Commons, by delaying the Perambulations and setting out the bounds of the Forests as they desired; to regain their affections and ready assistance against the Scots, sent Writs to the Sheriffs of every County to proclaim to the Commonalty thereof in all Cities, Burroughs, Market Towns, and other convenient places, that he had appointed Commissioners to meet at Northampton, at the feast of St. Michael then next ensuing, without further delay to proceed in the perambulation.

Edward Dei gratia Rex Anglia, Dominus Hibernia, & Dux Aquitania, Vicecomiti Hereford salutem. Mittimus tibi quasdam literas nostras patentes directas Communitati Comitatus predicti, per quas mandamus eidem Communitati, quod illi quos ordinavimus ad faciendam Perambulationem Forestarum, erunt apud Northampton in festo Sancti Michaelis proximo futuro, cum plenaria potestate procedere ad Perambulationem illam faciendam absque dilatione majori, prout in literis illis plenius continetur: Tibi precipientes, quod assumpto tecum aliquo probro viro Religioso de balliva tua, qui testificari poterit factum tuum; Literas Patentes in Civitatibus, Burgis, Villis Mercatoribus, et locis aliis infra Ballivam tuam, ubi melius videris expedire, omni dilatione postposita, legi et publice clamari, et universis et singulis de Balliva tua, prout melius fieri poterit, fieri facias illarum literarum tenorem. Et cum id sic feceris, nobis inde sub sigillo tuo & sigillo viri predicti distincte & aperte constare facias indilate. Et hoc nullatenus omittas. Teste meipso apud Lewes 25 die Junii, Anno regni nostri 27.

On which Writ the Sheriff endorsed this return; Dorso, Assumpto mecum Radulpho de Foresta Priore Sancti Guthlaci Hereford, mandatum vestrum executum prout in hoc brevi plenius continetur.

The Return of the Sheriff of Salop. and Stafford, is thus endorsed on his Writ, Assumpsi mecum Philippum Priorem de Bombrugge de Balliva mea, & in Civitatibus, Burgis, Villis mercatoribus, & locis aliis infra Ballivam meam, ubi melius viderim expedire, legi & publice clamari feci, & universis & singulis de Balliva mea (prout melius fieri poterit) scire tenorem literarum patentium mihi inde directarum.

And because some people had then reported, that the King would not keep nor observe the Great Charter of Liberties, nor of the Forest, nor permit the perambulation to be made according to his promise, (by reason of his former violations of them, and delays in doing it) he issued out this further Proclamation to all Sheriffs to disprove these false reports, inform his people of the reasons why he was enforced to delay it, and assure them that he would really observe these Charters, and make the perambulation at the time appointed at Northampton.

From whence we may observe; That it is a very difficult matter for Kings to pacifie or satisfie the minds of their discontented people, or induce them to believe their publike proclamations to them to keep and maintain their Great Charters and Liberties, when they have formerly violated, or delayed the real performance or execution of them from time to time, upon real or pretended emergencies. In pursuance of this proclamation, * in principio Quadragesima Rex Angliz Parliamentum tenuit Londoniis; ubi rogatus à Comitibus sapeditis, ut Chartarum confirmationem renobaret, secundum quod in Scotia promiserat; post aliquas dilationes instantiam eorum adquebit, hac additione, salvo jure Coronæ nostræ, in fine adjecta. Quam cum audissent Comites, cum displicentia ad propria discesserunt. Sed revocatis ipsis ad Quindennam Pascha, ad horum eorum absolute omnia sunt concessa. Perambulatio Forestæ, concessa est per Angliam tribus Episcopis, totidem Comitibus, Baronibusque eodem numero; ut ipsi Deum habentes præ oculis executionem facerent, et si quæ emergerent dubia, illa secundum Deum et justiciam declararent.

In a Bundle of Petitions, Letters and Writs I found in the White Tower, there is this memorable Remonstrance and Petition of the Bishop of Bangor, concerning the contempts and oppositions made by the Kings Officers and others of that Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction which he and his Officials claimed, in the probate of Testaments, Mortuaries, Excommunications, and in some Temporal matters, for which he prayed remedie from the King, as Supreme Judge next under God in all Ecclesiastical as well as Temporal causes.

Monstrat Episcopus Bangoren, suo illustrissimo Domino, Domino Edwardo Dei gratia Regi Anglia, quod ipse sentit se et libertatem Ecclesiæ suæ gratum in articulis subscriptis.

Secundò, de Portuarts et Westibus et Palefredis decedentium ab intestato tam Clericorum quam Laicorum, de quibus habere consuevit temporibus retroactis. (without claiming the Administration or distribution of the Intestates goods to pious or other uses; which is observable.)

Tertiò, de Excommunicatis capiendis; viz. quod excommunicati capientur de cætero, sicut capi consueverint temporibus Principum, maxime Wallenses.

Quartò, quod quidam Ministri vestri male obserbant Cartas Libertatum, quas vestra magnifica benevolentia eidem Episcopo et Ecclesiæ suæ concessit.

Quintò, quod Vicecomes de Cærn. prohibuit, quod homines vestri venirent ad Mercatum suum apud Bangor. ad vendendum nec emendum mercaturas, sicut facere consueverint.

Et quia idem Episcopus est senex, & valetudinaris, nec habet ad alium refugium, nisi ad Deum, et ad vos, (not to the Pope) petit pro salute animæ vestræ super hiis et articulis aliis per vestram benignam dominationem remedium adhiberi.

Petit etiam, quod homines sui habeant communem Pasturam in terris vestris sicut habere consueverunt temporibus Principum.

Item petit, quod Officiales sui non impediuntur facere correptiones in billis vestris nobis apud Conwry, Cærn. & Belum. Mariscum et aliis billis, sicut hactenus fecerunt, et adhuc faciunt; licet aliqui Ministri vestri minantur eisdem.

Magnifico Principi Domino Edwardo Dei gratia illustri Regi Anglia, Domino Hibernia, & Duci Aquitania, ejus fideles, humiles & devoti, Subprior & Conventus Sancti Trinitatis London, cum omni reverentia et honore, salutem in eo per quem Reges regnant. Literas Magnificentie vestre per Thomam de Hansted dudum recepimus, ut eundem Thomam in Confratrem nostrum, et Conversum Domus nostre admitteremus; quem in Domo nostro admisimus; volentes (ut moris est) ipsius probare mores & perseverentiam. Verum quia quaedam mulier asserens ipsum Thomam cum ea matrimonium contraxisse, ipsum petiit in virum et benedixit, ipsum in Confratrem nostrum & Conversum admittere non potuimus: sed ob reverentiam precum Majestatis vestre eundem Thomam in Domo nostra in omnibus necessariis exhibuimus, quousque locum nostrum sacrum idem Thomas per adulterium pollueret. In quo nocturno tempore infra sceptrum Domus nostre cum quadam fatua muliere in lecto suo nudus cum nuda exstitit deprehensus: super quo crimine dum ante fuerat in domo nostra & extra inter vicinos nequiter diffamatus: propter quod eundem Thomam a Domo nostra amovimus: Et nihilominus ob reverentiam Magnificentie vestre, ipsum extra Domum nostram existentem singulis diebus in necessariis exhibuimus, quousque intrudit se in Domum nostram, & quandam Cameram infra sceptrum Domus nostre ingrederetur, volens in eadem per vim et contra voluntatem nostram morari et manere. Et tunc demum occasionebus antedictis suam sibi subtraximus liberationem. Postmodum autem literas Majestatis vestre recipientes, ut de causa & modo subtractionis necessariorum ejusdem Thomae in Domo nostra, vos redderemus certiores; Causas predictas & modos Regie Dignitati vestre significamus, humiliter supplicantes & devotè, quatinus dictas causas quæ veræ sunt, & notoriè in illis partibus London, ubi sita est Domus nostra, placeat Regie Excellentie vestre nos in hac parte habere excusatos. The Bishop of Chichester pretending, that the Prebendaries of the Kings Free Chappel of Hastings were under his Jurisdiction, and all the Prebends ought to be presented to and admitted by him, as they were to his predecessors, against the privilege of all other the Kings Free Chappels, the King thereupon issued this Writ to the Warden of the Cinque-ports to inquire of and certify the truth of the premises to him at the next Parliament to which he had adjourned the Bishop, and to cause all the Prebends then to attend, to defend his and their own privileges.

Salutem. Non sine multis laboribus (prout dominationi vestra alias scripissē meminimus) procuratum est in Romana Curia, quod vir venerabilis Decanus Aricenis, præsentiam exhibito, Domini Papæ Capellanus, et familiaris Domini Mathæi, nullam (sicut credo) coercionem habens, renitens et compulsus a Domino Papa in Angliam mittitur, ad inducendum (si fieri poterit) serenissimum Principem Dominum nostrum Regem Angliæ super liberatione Domini Amariæ de Montesfort concedenda; qua liberatio, si casu fortuito, cum colore aliquo, denegata fuerit, non credo Dominum Papam ad præsens in dicto negotio ulterius processurum. Provideat igitur vestra discretio de condigna & celeri responsione ad honorem Domini Regis etiam Decano faciendam. Ceterum memoratum Decanum, qui in dictum recepit negotium, ob reberentiam sedis Apostolicæ, et Domini Mathæi, qui multum potest esse utilis in postulationis articulo reverendi patris Bathoniensis Episcopi, recommendatum habere velitis, eundem (ut expedit) honorabiliter recipiendo et tractando. Sane si mihi fiat justitia de facto meo, credo reportare finem optatum. Sed quia Dominus Papa plus imittitur propriæ voluntati quam rigori iustitiæ, timendum est quem suum meum negotium sortietur. Bene & diu valeat, &c.

The Popes Bulls and proceedings in the great Contests and costly Appeals between the Archbishop of Canterbury, and Abbot and Monks of St. Augustines this year, will most fully demonstrate the Bribery and Injustice of this Pope, his Cardinals, Officers, together with the pride, ambition, violence, turbulence of the Archbishop, Abbot and Monks of Canterbury in that age; thus registred to posterity by a Monk of that Monastery.

Quamdiu illa quæ in natiuitate sua libera fuit, quomodo jam videtur ancillare! Pro veritate, inquit, ad tales injurias evitandas, aut pristina libertate Deo iuvante gaudebit, aut communi legi ut cætera subjacebit. Quid plura? * magna summa denariorum tam de diversis dividendis per Conventum receptis et recipiendis, quam de forniceis omni qua potuit via ad opus hujusmodi lebantis, directi fuerunt ad Curiam Romanam, propter hujus negotii expeditionem, fratres Willielmus de Remen, & Robertus de Fekenham, Procuratores cum procuratorio eorundem. Insuper concessa est prohibitio, per quam inhibuitur fuit Archiepiscopo, ne pendente lite in Curia Romana indecessa, aliquo contra dictos religiosos attemptaret. Bonifacius Episcopus Servus servorum Dei, dilectis filiis Abbati & Conventui Monasterii Sancti Augustini Cant. ad Romanam Ecclesiam nullo medio pertinents, Ordinis Sancti Benedicti, salutem & Apostolicam benedictionem. * Anno Domini 1300. die Luna in vigilia sancti Eusebii Archiepiscopi, ad Abbatem primo pervenit istud novum privilegium, cum bulla conservatoria ejusdem, cujus forma talis est.

Bonifacius Episcopus Servus servorum Dei, dilectis filiis Westmonasterii, de Waltham, & de Sancto Edmundo Monasteriorum Abbatibus, Londoniensis & Norwicensis Diocesis, salutem & Apostolicam benedictionem. Circumspecta sedis Apostolicæ (ut supra.) Quocirca discretionis vestræ per apostolica scripta mandamus, quatinus vos, vel duo aut unus vestrum, per vos, vel per alium seu alios, Abbatem, Conventum, Monasterium, personas, membra, Ecclesias, Capellas, Senodochia, Hospitalia, cantarias, castra, villas, maneria, domos, grangias, possessiones, terras, redditus & bona omnia supradicta contra huiusmodi absolutionis, exemptionis, liberationis, irritationis, & constitutionis nostræ tenorem non permittatis a quoquam indebite molestari. Potestates huiusmodi auctoritate nostra appellatione postposita compescendo. Non obstantibus supradictis, seu si aliquibus a præfata sit sede indultum quod interdicti, suspendi, vel excommunicari non possint per literas apostolicas non facientes plenam et expressam, ac de verbo ad verbum de indulto huiusmodi mentionem.

Auctoritate huius privilegii & præcepto conservatorum ejusdem, resumpsit Dominus Abbas cum consensu Conventus sui omnem statum antiquum quoad jurisdictionem exercendam. Sub protestatione tamen, quod si forsau contingeret illum aliud facere, quam procederet de Summi Pontificis voluntate, paratus esset cum hoc sibi constaret, resumpta revocare. Die Luna proxima ante festum Apostolorum Philippi & Jacobi anno supra dicto dicta Bulla conservatoria exhibita fuit Abbati Westmonasterii apud le Neyte juxta Westmonasterium per Ricardum de Cant. & alios; & die Lune sequenti Abbati de Waltham per fratrem Willielmum Byholte & alios. Qui quidem Abbates mandatum apostolicum reverenter admiserunt; eorumque processum & tenorem venerabilibus patribus Archiepiscopo Cantuariensi & Episcopis Londoniensis & Rossensis eorumque Archidiaconis, Capisulis, & Commissariis universis scripserunt; primo Archiepiscopo sub tali forma.

& Conventus Sancti Augustini Cantuar. literas conservatorias recepimus in hæc verba. Bonifacius Episcopus, &c. Considerantes igitur, quod si privilegii & literarum prædictarum vobis & cæteris quibus convenit notificatio fiat debita, & notificatio manifesta sanctæ & Apostolicæ voluntatis, benigna liberalitas ipsorum beneficiorum S. Augustini in præscriptis de novo impetratis, verum antiquis ipsorum privilegiis ex decreto Apostolico in suo robore duraturis, tam personalis quælibet quàm realis contenta immunitas & libertas, vobisque executionis vel conservationis officium quod incumbit, liberius, plenius, ac quietius debitum consequentur effectum; ea omnia & singula vobis Pater reverende notificamus, publicamus ad certitudinem præsentium & memoriam futurorum. Vobisque nihilominus autoritate Apostolica, condigna tamen reverentia monemus & exhortamur in Domino, et in virtute obedientiæ qua dicitur sanctæ Sedi tenemini, firmiter injungimus et mandamus, quatinus dictis Religiosis Sancti Augustini suisque subjectis qualiscunque conditionis eriscent, quamquoad Monasterium ipsum, membra, Ecclesias, Capellas, Hospitalia, Cantarias, Villas, Maneria, possessiones, redditus, et quæcunque alia bona sua ubilibet in Diocesi et Provincia vestra Cantuar. constituta, quæ in præfenti optinent, vel auctore Domino in futurum adquirent, una cum dependentibus in eisdem quacunque conditione, compositione, statuto, consuetudine editis vel factis non obstantibus in aliquo, libera exemptione gaudere ob indulgentiis et sanctæ Sedis reverentiam permittatis, nullum omnino verbo vel facto perpetrantes obstaculum, quominus tam modernæ indulgentiæ quam privilegiorum et status antiquorum ipsius Monasterii Clericorum et subditorum suorum prout per eandem redeuntur ad primævi roboris firmitatem. Et quid in hac parte decreveris faciendum infra 8. dies, in virtute sanctæ obedientiæ nobis rescribas.

Et similiter scripserunt Episcopi Londoniensi & Roffensi, & aliis prout visum fuerat eisdem expediendum. Præmissis vero literis Prælati prædicti, omnes & singuli certificaverunt. Primo Archiepiscopus sic.

Religioso viro & discreto Abbati de Waltham, executori seu conservatori in hac parte à sede Apostolica deputato, Robertus permissione divina, &c. salutem in omnium salvatore. Mandatum infrascriptum 4 Non. Maii super recepimus sub hac forma. Venerabili in Christo patri, &c. Cuiquidem mandato prout tenemur et de iure artamur parere intendimus, sicut decet. Valete. Episcopus Roffensis sub hac forma. Venerabilibus viris & discretis Dominis Dei gratia Westmonasterii & de Waltham Monasteriorum Abbatibus, executoribus vel conservatoribus à sede Apostolica deputatis in hac parte, frater T. ejusdem permissione Roffensis Episcopus, salutem, reverentiam & honorem. Literas vestras recepimus, &c. Hinc ergo mandato paremus reberenter, quatinus possumus et de iure tenemur.

Ipsius sic habitis anno supradicto, die Lunæ prima die Junii, Dominus Thomas Abbas hujus loci in Ecclesia sua pro tribunali sedens, assidentibus ei multis discretis viris, comparuerunt coram eo ex citatione Rectoris Sancti Andree Cant. qui recepit in mandatis hoc facere, omnes Rectores & Vicarii, & omnes curam animarum habentes. Et hii omnes et singuli recognoscebant eundem Dominum Abbatem ordinarium suum et non alium, sub Domino Papa. Et ipso instanti sponte Canonicam obedientiam in scriptis, et inspectis Sacrosanctis Evangeliiis eidem Abbati corposita, litter fecerunt, in forma qua talis est.

Ego N. ero obediens sanctæ Romane Sedi, & Domino Abbati Sancti Augustini Cant. qui pro tempore fuerit, & ejusdem Domini Abbatis Officialibus & Ministris quos de consilio fratrum suorum ad jurisdictionis suæ exemptæ exercitium assignabit, in Canonicis mandatis; Sic me Deus adjuvet & Sancta Dei Evangelia. Cum vero idem pater sic per Decanatus suam jurisdictionem divisisset, & in singulis eorundem Decanum prefecisset, ab omnibusque obedientiam recepit, omnes et singulos sibi subiectos tam presentes quam absentes monuit, et eis firmiter injunxit, ut decenter in verbis, gestis, et omnibus aliis erga venerabilem patrem Archiepiscopum Cantuariensem se haberent, ac reverentiam sibi et suis facerent, nec ipsum Archiepiscopum vel suos in aliquo contempnerent, & quod in Ecclesiis & alibi se bene gererent, & hac eadem voluit de omnibus Parochianis subiectis suis; protestans pro se & Monasterio suo extunc se ita existere paratum in omnibus honoris disti patris & suorum sicut unquam prius ante exhibuerat. Demum ordinavit eis Commissarium per talem formam.

Thomas permissione divina, &c. discreto viro fratri Willielmo Ecclesie nostrae elemosinario, salutem. In omnibus causis & negotiis ad jurisdictionem nostram pertinentibus, una cum consilio fratrum nostrorum exercendam in Civitate & Diocesi Cantuar. vobis vices nostras committimus cum canonicæ coercionis potestate. Institutionibus & destitutionibus personarum Ecclesiasticarum, ac visitatione Cleri & populi nobis specialiter reservatis. Proviso tamen, quod jurisdictione moderate utamini, et excessum quemlibet evitatis. Eodem anno in Ecclesia de Membre idem Willielmus pro tribunali sedens congregatis coram eo & congregatis ejusdem Decanatus, Rectoribus & Vicariis, necnon Clericis & Laicis in multitudine copiosa, Capitulum suum solemniter, pacifice & quietè, & sine contradictione aliqua ibi celebravit, faciendo omnia quæ jurisdictionis erant, specialiter et generaliter exercendo quæ in Consistoriis et Capitulis consimilibus per regnum Angliæ ordinari, fieri et exerceri consueverunt.

From which Relation, Bulls and Proceedings we may observe: 1. That the contests between the Archbishops, Abbots and Monks of Canterbury, about Exemptions, Privileges and Jurisdiction, was a principal cause of advancing the Popes usurped Jurisdiction over them both, and over the Rights, Prerogatives of the Crown, and Church of England. 2ly. The insolency, injustice, corruption, and preposterousness of this Boniface and other Popes, in exempting the Abbots, Monks of Canterbury, and all their Lands, Hospitals, Churches, Improvements, Priests, Tenants from all Archiepiscopal, Episcopal, and other Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction whatsoever, and subjecting them solely and immediately to the See of Rome; as likewise in subjecting the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishops of London and Rochester, to the imperious commands, censures of the Abbots of Westminster, Walsingham, and St. Edmunds. 3ly. The pride and insolency of the Abbots, in erecting Deaneries, Officials, Ecclesiastical Consistories, and prescribing Oaths of Canonical obedience upon the Priests and Curates of the Churches belonging to their Monastery. 4ly. The strange injustice and contradiction of Popes Bulls, nulling, repealing each other by Non obstantes, with all former Privileges granted by themselves, and contracts, compositions, agreements made or ratified by others, through bribery and corruption: Whence

1002, 1003.

* Will. Thorne records of this ambodexter Boniface; Iste Bonifacius magnis thesauris ab ista Ecclesia (Cantuar.) exhaustis, eandem quam lucere privilegiabat, per partem aduersam amplioribus sibi impensis concessum privilegium irritabit, et quasi ad perpetuam enervationem hujus Monasterii, perpetuiter rebocabit. 5ly. The atheistical impiety and hypocrisie of Popes, in pretending such Bulls, Exemptions, proceedings to issue merely from the Apostolical authority conferred on them by Christ, for the good of the Church, the conscientious discharge of their Pastoral duty, &c. when as they proceeded merely from their own ambition, avarice, bribery, injustice, and tended to the Churches disorder, ruine, by engendering new controversies, schisms, unchristian animosities, suits, appeals between them; as this Historian thus further records.

* Chron. Wil.
1977, 1978.

* In pacifica vero possessione resumpta jurisdictionis fuerunt ipsi Abbas & Conventus per duos menses & amplius nullo reclamante vel contradicente, quousque idem Archiepiscopus & Capitulum Ecclesie Christi Cantuar. & Archidiaconus opposuerunt se, appellantes unanimiter ad sedem Apostolicam, dicentes se enormiter esse gravatos de tali jurisdictione resumpta, per quam fuerat ab eisdem plebs rebocata, nec ipsi

ipsis intendebat, ut solebat. Et ista lite sic inter partes pendente, idem Archiepiscopus An. 27 E. 1. constituit quatuor Commissarios, qui vice sua rigide procederent contra Rectores et Vicarios, Clericos et etiam Laicos, qui in predicta jurisdictione resumpta ipsis Abbati et Conventui intendebant. Et insuper inhiberi fecit Archiepiscopus per eosdem sub pena Excommunicationis, ne quis Parochianorum ipsius Rectores et Vicarios decimas aut proventus solbat, aut eis de suribus Parochialibus responderet. Item Ecclesiam beatae Mariæ Magdalene, beatae Mariæ de Castro, & beatae Mildredæ de Civitate Cantuariæ, & Ecclesiam de Kenynton de facto contulit etiam non vacantes. Item prefatus Archiepiscopus fratres Willielmum de Byholte, & W. de Elham Monachos, Magistros Willielmum de Roucebi, Johannem de Beles Notarium publicum, & W. de Castro Clericos & familiares ipsius Abbatis excommunicavit, et excommunicari fecit, pro eo quod in subditos ipsius Abbatis jurisdictionem exercebant. Item idem Archiepiscopus pretendens Rectores & Vicarios Ecclesiarum Parochialium, quæ de patronatu nostro existebat in excommunicationis sententia, quam in eos ut premissis tulerat, et eo quod nobis parebant et intendebant, per annum et amplius perseverasse, ipsos Rectores & Vicarios citari mandavit, & fecit quod coram eo comparerent, quicquid haberent pro se proposituri pro termino peremptorio, & ostensuri quare ipsos de Ecclesiis et Vicariis ipsorum non debet perturbare. Commissarii suprascripti imponebant Abbati quamplures abusus & excessus privilegii concessi, & statum & exemptionem ipsorum sive privilegium sinistra interpretatione coram Clero & populo ad hoc in Ecclesia Christi Cantuariæ specialiter convocato interpretantes, propter quæ populum et Clericos simplices Archiepiscopo majus obedire quam privilegiis Apostolicis informarunt. Idem Archiepiscopus facto publico sermone in Ecclesia sua, excommunicavit omnes qui Ecclesiæ suæ suribus, libertatibus, vel possessionibus minuerant, quæ prius habuerat vel consueverat obtinere. Item corpora quorundam qui a sententia excommunicationis appellaverunt defata decesserant, quique in articulo mortis positi a Sacerdotibus eorum confessiones ipsorum audientibus absolutionis beneficium fuerant consecuti, humati in Sandmaria fecit expiari, et extra Cimiterium positi. Item una vice lxxx. homines Abbatis et Conventus, quia recusabant expellere Monachos in Ecclesia de Chislelet existentes, carceri Cantuariæ fecit mandari. Propter quas injurias tam innoxias et graves, suggestum fuit Domino Papæ, Quod scriberet Regi pro defensione hujus Monasterii; Quod & factum est. Unde petum fuit ab ipso Rege, quod ratione dicti privilegii scriberet Archiepiscopo, quod non molestarit ipsum Abbatem vel Ecclesiam suam in hominibus & rebus suis. Item supplicatum est Regi, quod provideret, ne homines dicti Abbatis per aliquam Excommunicationem per ipsam Archiepiscopum latam, quambis pro ipsorum captione Regis Pæssati scribatur, nullo modo capiantur. Item quod vellet scribere Vicecomiti suo, quod si Archiepiscopus per violentiam laica potestate de facto vellet eosdem expellere de Ecclesia sua, hujusmodi laica potestate, auctoritate regia, dictum Monasterium a quoquam offendi non permetteret, sed defenderet eisdem, prout est per Apostolicum rogatus. Habita vero aliqua deliberatione, Rex in propria persona respondit sic; Libenter scribemus Domino Cantuariensi pro defensione vestra. Ad secundam petitionem respondit; Quod nullus caperetur potestate regia ad requisitionem Archiepiscopi. Ad tertiam petitionem sic respondit; Quod non potuit credere, quod tam discretus Prelatus, sicut est ipse Archiepiscopus, ipsos Abbatem & Conventum per vim & laicam potestatem auctoritate propria expelleret, & propterea non videbatur sibi, quod super hiis Vicecomiti esset scribendum. Adjecit postea idem Rex, dicens Abbati in hunc modum; Domine Abbas, requiramus, consulimus, et precipimus, quod viriliter defendatis bona vestra et possessiones vestras, et nos cum opus fuerit defendemus et vos iuvabimus in hac parte.

Medio hujusmodi tempore & anno supradicto, scilicet 1300. idem Abbas subdelegatus Magistri Petri Roderici super prapositione de Wyngham per summum Pontificem Bonifacium 8. constitutum, cum rite in Ecclesia de Kenyngton processisset contra eandem Archiepiscopum Cantuariensem & pro sua contumacia & offensa manifesta, primo ad ingressu Ecclesiæ, et subsequenter a divinis, et tandem ejus crescente contumacia, juxta traditam sibi formam auctoritate apostolica excommunicabit, et excommunicatum denunciabit, pro eo, quod quendam Clericum nomine Amadrum ad dictam prapositionem promovendam multipliciter impedivit; unde idem Archiepiscopus aduersus istud Monasterium acriter insurgens, et non obstantibus nostris privilegiis, et præcipue nobis exemptionis, cuidam Roberto Paulym primam tonsuram habenti minus voluntarie Ecclesiam prædictam de Kenynton quæ plena fuit duxit conferendam. Qui vi armata & manu hostili cum magna multitudine armorum, pridie Non. Martii anno supradicto, fractis hostiis et fenestris tam ipsius Ecclesiæ quam Rectoriæ, non sine violenta manu insecione et sanguinis effusione Clericorum et Laicorum Abbas inibi existentium, in eandem Ecclesiam violenter ingrediens nequiter se intravit. Similiter Ecclesiam beatæ Mariæ Magdalene cuidam Jacobo Presbytero & Rectori; Ecclesiam beatæ Mildredæ cuidam Willielmo; prædictam Ecclesiam beatæ Mariæ juxta Castrum cuidam Thomæ Pycard. Qui quidem omnes hiis intrusores ad prædictas Ecclesias accedentes, manupotenti, hostia cum malleis ferreis cum suis complicitibus fregerunt, Monachos, Clericos, et alios inibi existentes nequiter expellentes, non sine sanguinis effusione atrociter vulneraverunt. So little did this Archbishop regard either the Popes precedent Bulls, exemptions, Mandates, or his Delegates censures thus denounced against him, in opposition to his own Archiepiscopal authority and jurisdiction, or the Canons of the Church against Layforce, and laying violent hands on Priests, which must all give place to his violence, will and pleasure in defence of his Primacy and Metropolitocal Sovereignty.

Cum dudum prefatus Vicarius non vi nec metu, sed sponte, una cum aliis Rectoribus & Vicariis, nobis Abbati Sancti Augustini tanquam Ordinario suo fecisset & jurasset ad sancta Dei Evangelia, talis & inspectio sacrosanctis, occasione ipsius Vicaria canonicam obedientiam, sub hac forma. Ego Petrus ero obediens sanctæ Romanæ sedis & Domino Abbati Sancti Augustini Cant. ad eandem sedem nullo medio pertinenti qui pro tempore fuerit, & ejusdem Domini Abbatis officialibus & ministris quos de consilio fratrum suorum ad suæ jurisdictionis exemptæ exercitium assignabit, in Canonicis mandatis. Sic me Deus adjuvet.

Nuper vero idem Vicarius juramento obedientiæ penitus derelicto, Domino Archiepiscopo tanquam Ordinario suo pro eadem Vicaria corporale præstiterat obedientiæ sacramentum; & in signum hujusmodi subjectionis unum denarium optulerat in magna altare Ecclesiæ Christi Cantuariæ. Pro quibus sic actis idem Abbas assignavit sibi diem peremptorium, videlicet proximum diem juridicum post festum Exaltationis Sanctæ Crucis in Ecclesiâ Sancti Augustini Cant. committens vires suas Commissario suo generali sub hac forma.

Thomas permissione, &c. discreto viro fratri Willielmo, &c. in omnibus causis & negotiis, ut supra in omnibus; præter quod hic non dicitur. Proviso, &c. Cujus auctoritate mandati prædicti Commissarius citavit eum per Decanum de Lenham, cujus tenor talis est. Commissarius venerabilis patris Domini Th. Dei gratia Abbatis Monasterii Sancti Augustini Cant. ad Romanam Ecclesiam nullo medio pertinentis in sua jurisdictione exempta de fratrum suorum consilio deputatus, Decano de Lenham salutem, in salutis auctore. Cum Petrus Vicarius de Faversham proximum diem juridicum post festum Exaltationis proximo præteritum ex præfixione legitima coram Domino Abbate vel suo Commissario habuisset in Ecclesiâ Sancti Augustini, ad faciendum & recipiendum secundum formam præactorum quod juris foret & rationis; Qui Petrus die & loco legitime proclamatus & diu expectatus, nullo modo comparere curavit, pronuntiavimus contumacem, & propter ejus contumaciam ab ingressu Ecclesiæ suspendimus iustitia exigente. Idcirco vobis injungimus & mandamus, quatinus ipsum sic suspensum in Ecclesiâ de Faversham denunciatis seu denunciari faciatis publice et solemniter; ipsum nihilominus citetis peremptorie, quod compareat coram Domino Abbate vel ejus Commissario in Ecclesiâ Sancti Augustini Cant. proximo die juridico post commemorationem Animarum proximo futuram; facturum & recepturum quod juris fuerit & rationis. Quid autem super hiis feceritis nos die & loco per literas vestras patentes harum seriem continentes, certificetis.

Certificatorium.

Venerande discretionis viro Commissario venerabilis patris Dei gratia Abbatis Ecclesiæ Sancti Augustini Cant. suis humilis & devotus Decanus de Lenham obedientiam, reverentiam & honorem. Mandatum vestrum suscepi in hæc verba, &c. Auctoritate cujus mandati prefatum Vicarium, quod compareat coram vobis dictis die & loco peremptorie citavi, dicitur tamen vulgariter, quod est absens & vagabundus. Et sic mandatum vestrum secundum sui formam & effectum reverenter quatinus potui sum executus.

Set cum pluries proclamatus & debite expectatus per se vel per responsalem aliquem minime compareret, dictus Dominus Abbas ipsum reputavit contumacem, & de jurisperitorum consilio contra eum processit, & pronuntiavit in scriptis & forma quæ talis est.

In Dei nomine Amen. Nos Thomas, &c. Magistrum Petrum qui se gerit pro Vicario Ecclesiæ nostræ de Faversham, quem alias pro sua manifesta contumacia, ab ingressu Ecclesiæ, et etiam a divinis, iustitia exigente suspendimus et suspendi mandabimus, pro sua multiplicata contumacia excommunicabimus in his scriptis; decernentes eum sic suspensum et excommunicatum in dicta Ecclesiâ de Faversham necnon in aliis Ecclesiis Decanatus de Lenham fore publice denunciandum diebus Dominicis & festis, donec absolutiois beneficium meritis optinere.

* Anno quo supra in Ecclesiâ Sancti Augustini Cant. in loco publico ubi jus reddi consuevit, prædictus Commissarius sedens pro tribunali fecit publicè præconia voce prefatum Petrum ad eisdem diem & locum peremptorie citatum, & diu expectatus noluit aliqualiter

Qualem injuriam tam manifestam nona die mensis Julii in Ecclesia Sancti Gregorii coram Archiepiscopo ibidem tunc existente, Vicarius Ecclesie Sancti Pauli, Procurator Rectorum & Vicariorum, scilicet Sancti Andree, Omnium Sanctorum, Sancti Johannis Fordewico, de Swaleclive, de Stonore, de parva Mongeham, de Estlangedon, de Wynelesberge, de Borewarmerthe, de Brocklond, de Fritindenne, de Kingesdon, de Westbere, Ecclesiarum Rectores de Littleburn, de Preston, de Menstre, Sancti Laurentii, de Nordburne, de Tenterdenne, de Lenham, de Middelton, de Cheldwich Ecclesiarum Vicarii, habentes virtute mandati sui procuratorii inter cetera potestatem agendi, defendendi, provocandi & appellandi, et ibidem coram eodem Archiepiscopo pro defensione prædictorum appellavit et apostolos petiit cum effectu.

Quandabit insuper Archiepiscopus, hujusmodi appellatione non obstantè, Archidiacono suo, quod compelleret omnes parochianos Decanatus de Westbere, quod non solberent Decimas et Obventiones dictarum Ecclesiarum, nisi Collectoribus per ipsum assignatis, per talem formam. Vacantibus olim Ecclesiis de Westbere, de Swaleclive, de Chisleter, de Menstre, Sanctorum Laurentii et Johannis in Thaneto, et adhuc tanquam vacantibus in custodia nostri Archidiaconi existentibus, perceptione fructuum & obventionum ipsa vacatione durante ad ipsum Archidiaconum, et non ad alium notoriè pertinente; Vobis mandamus quatinus monitis canonicè, et efficaciter inducatis omnes et singulos parochianos dictarum ecclesiarum, et omnes tam seculares quam religiosos cujuscunque conditionis aut status existant, terras & bona in parochiis dictarum Ecclesiarum habentes, ut decimas tam bladi quam frum in campis dimittant per collectores percipiendas, et minutas Decimas, et alia quæ ipsis Ecclesiis et Vicariis debentur fideliter persolvant custodibus vel collectoribus per nos deputatis, sub pena excommunicationis majoris, quam in non parentes proferimus in hiis scriptis, Rege, Regina, et eorum liberis ab ista sententia duntaxat.

An. 29 E. 1. et exceptis. Unde propter ista & multa alia gravamina per Archiepiscopum, Archidiaconum, & eorum Commissarios, Officiales & Ministros, directi fuerunt iterum ad Curiam Romanam Fratres Robertus de Fekenham, et Adam de Rydenne Procuratores, qui prædicta gravamina contra tenorem privilegii sui, dicto Monasterio, et subiectis ejusdem illata Domino Papæ in scriptis palam demonstrarunt. Et nota, quod durante ista gravissima tribulatione Abbates supradicti privilegii concessi conservatores ministerium suum fideliter adimplentes, canonicam ultionem fulminando dicto Archiepiscopo, Archidiacono, Commissariis, Officialibus et ministris eorundem, ne talia attemptarent sub interminatione prohibuerunt; Protestantes palam & publice, quod non intendunt officium suæ conservationis excedere, nec aliud seu ad aliud quam privilegium erigit ex parte Religiosorum Sancti Augustini vel subditorum suorum procedere in hac parte. Unde ex parte Archiepiscopi ante portam sancti Augustini extitit appellatum in forma quæ sequitur.

Licet Westmonasterii & de Waltham Monasteriorum Abbatibus, una cum Abbate Sancti Edmundi, Londoniensis et Norwicensis Diocesis, super exemptionibus religiosi viri Abbati et Conventui sancti Augustini ut prætendunt innovatis, et eisdem de novo concessis a Sede Apostolica, prout asseritur conservatoribus deputatis, pro eo quod idem conservatores potestatem & modum conservationis hujusmodi contra venerabilem patrem Archiepiscopum Cantuariensem patenter exceßerant, nec non et ex aliis probabilibus conjecturis nomine patris ejusdem, et pro eo adhaerentibus, dudum ad sedem Apostolicam extitit provocatum, ne per prædictos conservatores vel religiosos viros sancti Augustini, vel eorum nomine aliquid attemptetur, aut aliquid hujusmodi fieri quoquo modo: dicti tamen Abbas et Conventus sancti Augustini, præmissis nequaquam obstantibus dictas exemptiones, si quæ sint et vires earum contra justiciam excedentes, jurisdictionem ordinariam nedum in Ecclesiis quas dicunt sibi appropriatis, et parochiis et parochianis earundem, sed etiam in Ecclesiis in quibus jus patronatus habere se asserunt in earum parochiis parochianis ipsarum, cum tamen nulla jurisdictio ordinata vel delegata eis competere liqueret in hac parte, sibi temere usurpare, Officiales et Decanos rurales ceterosque ministros ad exercitium jurisdictionis hujusmodi præficere, Rectores et Vicarios in Ecclesia sui Patronatus instituere in Cantuariensi Civitate et Diocesi notanter præsumperunt, ac jurisdictionem eandem de facto exercentes inhibuerunt seu inhiberi fecerunt, tam Clero quam populo dictarum ecclesiarum, ne Domino Archiepiscopo seu suis officialibus in aliqua obediant vel intendant. Dictarum enim Ecclesiarum Rectores, Vicarios et Presbyteros ad faciendum et jurandum eidem Abbati et Conventui tanquam suis Ordinariis obedientiam compulerunt et indies compellere moluntur.

De Processione Pentecostes ad istam Ecclesiam.

Solempnes insuper processionem qua à Clero & populo dictarum Ecclesiarum sicut à cæteris dictæ Cantuariensis Diocesis singulis annis in hebdomada Pentecostes ad Ecclesiam Christi Cant. matricem, & in ea publice fieri consueverint sic fieri nuper impediunt vel impediri perperam procurantes, ipsam processionem ad suum Monasterium in ultima Pentecoste publice fieri procurarunt, subjectionem debitam et honorem consuetam dicti Archiepiscopi Ecclesie suæ nequiter subtrahendo et ipsius jurisdictionem minus prohibere perturbando.

* Anno igitur Domini 1303. volens Dominus Papa uno dierum partes inibi constitutas audire, fecit eas vocari in privato Consistorio 15 Kal. Februarii. Et fuerunt tunc pro parte Archiepiscopi advocati Dominus Fornya, & Robertus de Casula, Romani, & duo Monachi Ecclesiae Christi procuratores, & duo juris Civis Anglici. Pro parte vero Abbatis fuerunt Domini Jacobus de Casulis, & Benenutus de Pulyo advocati Curiae Romanae, & duo Monachi, scilicet Robertus de Fekenham, & Adam de Rydenne procuratores, & Magister Johannes de Sancto Claro, Anglicus. Constitutis igitur partibus in praesentia Domini Papa iussit partem Archiepiscopi proponere primo; Qua proposuit, quod privilegium fuit impetratum per falsi suggestionem; & quod privilegia eorum antiqua fuerunt falsa; similiter Abbas & conventus excesserunt nimis per abusum, jurisdictionem exercendo, capitula celebrando, Clerum etiam & populum ab obedientia & jurisdictione Archiepiscopi nequiter subtrahendo. Obiecit etiam, quod ipsi constituerunt Decanos rurales & etiam alios Officiales ad exercitium huiusmodi jurisdictionis contra consuetudines & libertates Archiepiscopi & Ecclesiae suae antiquas. Pro parte vero Abbatis fuit propositum de gravaminibus ipsis & eorum subditis per Archiepiscopum & suos Commissarios illatis, eos videlicet suspendendo, excommunicando, et denique eorum captionem apud regiam potestatem procurando, contra privilegium eisdem a Domino Papa indultum. Et propter ista & multa alia gravamina ipsis Religiosis illata, petita fuit instanter dicti Archiepiscopi vocatio personalis & suorum Commissariorum. Postquam vero fuerat, ut dictum est, pro utraque parte sic propositum, dixit Dominus Papa; Ego plantavi, Apollo rigavit. Ego, supple Gregorium Papa; Ego, sedes ista Romana plantavi illam Ecclesiam Sancti Augustini; Apollo rigavit, hoc est beatus Augustinus per Christi gratiam & suam praedicationem Anglos baptizavit; Deus incrementum dedit per beatum Thomam martyrem. Et adiecit, Utraque Ecclesia nobilis est; & ita bene novimus iura & libertates utriusque Ecclesiae sicut illi Monachi qui ibi stant, erigens faciem ad Monachos procuratores superius nominatos. Una inquit Ecclesia utitur jure communi, alia gaudet privilegio singulari. Et ideo in signum susceptae libertatis ab Ecclesia Romana in adventu Legati ad illam terram debet Abbas mittere unum Monachum obdum illi usque ad medium maris, qui portabit secum Crucem, et ibi erigent eam, et incipient cantare, Te Deum Laudamus. Ipse vero Monachus portabit Crucem erectam ante Legatum, dummodo fuerit in illa terra. Ad hoc quod vos dicitis, quod privilegium fuit impetratum per falsi suggestionem, & quod privilegia eorum antiqua sunt falsa, non est verum. Nos dedimus ipsis illud privilegium. Praeterea nos inspicimus privilegium beati Bonifacii quarti, satis amplum pro suo tempore, et nos illud corroboravimus; et si adhuc esset dandum, adhuc eisdem daremus; et si non esset eorum Monasterium exemptum de nobo erimeremus. In fine dixit partibus, quod ipsi ponerent in scriptis ea quae voluerunt proponere & probare; & sibi liberarent. Sicque recesserunt a Consistorio. Atque fuerunt hac coram Domino Papa & Cardinalibus in privato Consistorio.

* Chron. Wil.
Thorne, col.
1989, 1990.

* In primis, Pater Sanctissime, exponitur quod prefatum Monasterium Sanctissimorum Patrum Gregorii & Augustini monitu & instantia, beatus Ethelbertus Rex Angliæ, quem dictus pater Augustinus cum sua gente ad fidem Christi convertit, in sepulchrum sui & successorum suo: um Regum Angliæ & Prasulum prefata Urbis Cantuariæ à fundamentis construxit, & bonis propriis ditavit, & ibidem congregationem Monachorum collocavit. Cui Monasterio dictus pater Augustinus primo prefecit auctoritate sedis Apostolica Petrum Abbatem confessorem per beatum Gregorium secum missum ad convertendum Anglicos. Quo Petro mortuo, Apostolica sedes prefecit Johannem, Item prædictum Monasterium, ut præmittitur, sic fundatum dictus Anglorum Apostolus & sanctissima sedis Romanæ Legatus Augustinus, auctoritate beati Papa Gregorii, & ex ore ejusdem, dominicum esse voluit, et Apostolicum ordinavit, ac terras et Ecclesias ad ipsum pertinentes ab omni ordinaria potestate potentato, dominatu aut impetto eremit et privilegavit, prout in ejusdem privilegio latius continetur. Item prædictum Monasterium sanctus pater Dominus Bonifacius Papa quartus, ad preces dicti Sancti Ethelberti Regis, & Sancti Melliti confessoris tunc Londoniensis Episcopi, Sancti Regis ad hoc Nuncios & Legati, in generali Concilio Italiæ perpetua libertate munivit & privilegiavit. Item prædictum Monasterium virtute dictorum privilegiorum & ipsorum cujuslibet pro tempore suo ab initio foundationis sue, ita liberum fuit et exemptum ab omni ordinaria potestate, tam in capite quam in membris, et omnibus ad idem pertinentibus latus et extra, et notorie habitum pro exempto, et solum sanctissimæ Romanæ Sedis immediate subiectum, quod nullus præter Romanum Pontificem, vel cui ad hoc specialiter committeret, quicquam jurisdictionis vel potestatis in dictum Monasterium, Abbatem vel Monachos, et Clericos, homines vel tenentes de dominio, vel de subjectione ipsorum Abbatis et Conventus, nec in aliquos ipsi Monasterio tributa vel redditus quomodolibet exsolventes nullatenus exerceat, verum Abbas cum suo Conventu omnem Jurisdictionem in omnibus Ecclesiis suis et Parochianis earum, tam in Clericis quam in Laicis, pacifice et plene exercuit et habuit, Clericos in Ecclesiis suis tam suis alibus appropriatis, quam aliis instituit et destituit. Causas etiam Patrimoniales audivit, et omnimodam Jurisdictionem exercuit acut Episcopi in suis Diocæbus exercere consueverant. Et istum statum pacifice & notorie habuit istud Monasterium per 300 annos, & ultra; scilicet, usque ad tempus Lucii Papa tertii, cujus tempore licet Archiepiscopus Cantuariensis ipsius Monasterii statum exemptionem & jurisdictionem inquietaret, dictus tamen Dominus Lucius mandavit per Bullam suam Archiepiscopo Cantuariensi, quod non intromitteret se de aliqua jurisdictione quantum ad Clericos vel homines spectantes ad jurisdictionem ipsius Abbatis. Item mandavit Abbati, quod jurisdictionem hujusmodi exerceret; et simili modo mandavit Clericis et Laicis dictæ Jurisdictionis, quod non obedirent Archiepiscopo Cantuariensi in aliquo, verum dicto Abbati, præsertim pendente inquietatione prædicta. Postea Dominus Celestinus 3. quoad prædicta jura & alia dictum Monasterium privilegialiter confirmavit. In quo statu dictum Monasterium usque ad tempus Gregorii Papa 9. permansit & usum est suis libertatibus, ut supra. Iste Gregorius mandavit per scripta Apostolica & præcepit tunc Archiepiscopo, quod dictos Abbatem et Conventum aliqua non gravaret sententia, et quod ipsorum Ecclesias, Clericos vel homines interdiceret vel excommunicaret non præsumeret, vel census sibi debitos solvi minime impediret. Item tempore ipsius Domini Gregorii propter nimias vexationes & gravamina, qua sentivit ipsum Monasterium per potentiam Archiepiscoporum, intervenit compositio anno sui Pontificatus 12. qua adeo derogavit præmisso statui illius Monasterii & juri, quod extunc Archiepiscopus Cantuariensis & Archidiaconus ibidem inceperunt prætextu dictæ Compositionis habere institutionem & destitutionem in Ecclesiis ipsius Monasterii, ad præsentationem Religiosorum, & in suos Clericos & homines jurisdictionem omnimodam exercere, reservatis tamen quibusdam prerogativis præterita jurisdictionis & exemptionis Abbatis prædicti. Item istius Compositionis forma hinc inde fuit servata, usque ad tempus Domini Roberti nunc Cantuariensis Archiepiscopi, qui etiam contra Compositionem prædictam innumeris gravaminibus ipsum Monasterium solito plus vexavit. Primo videlicet recusavit admittere quendam Clericum idoneum præsentatum

ab ipsis ad Ecclesiam eorum de Fritendenne, set mandavit ipsis Religiosis per literas suas, quod presentarent certam personam quem in literis suis nominavisset; & adjecit, quod nullum alium vellet admittere illa vice. Item subsequenter petiit ab ipso Abbate obedientiam, tam contra prætacta privilegia quam Compositionem præmissam, quam debuit illis temporibus observare. Item fecit citari dictos Abbatem & Conventum ad terminum nimis brevem & ad locum incertum, nulla abbreviationis causa expressa, ita quod ipsi comparerent coram ipso ubicunque esset in Civitate, Diocesi vel Provincia Cantuar. proposituri, ostensuri, necnon probaturi premissis, quo jure vel titulo Ecclesias de Middleton, de Littleburne, de Preston, de Menstre, Sancti Laurentii & Petri, de Chistelet, de Faversham, de Scheldwich, de Selling, de Tanterdenne, de Nordborne, de Lenham, & Sancti Pauli Cantuar. in usus proprios possiderent, necnon portiones & pensiones quas finxit eosdem habere in certis locis, licet in veritate, nullas haberent ibidem, ac etiam ut dicto termino privilegia super appropriatione Ecclesiarum nostrarum & aliis libertatibus ipsius Monasterii cum gravi periculo delationis exhibendorum pro termino premissis exhiberetur, & ulterius de die in diem processuri, ubicunque idem Archiepiscopus se transferret. Item ad magis gravandum dictos Religiosos, excitavit adversus eos plures adversarios, citando in Ecclesiis in quarum Parochiis ipsi Religiosi pensiones vel portiones habebant; ac etiam in aliis ubi nichil perceperunt omnino, quod omnes quorum interesset coram ipso Archiepiscopo comparerent se ipsis Religiosis in hujusmodi pensionibus efficaciter opposituri, ita quod à dicta perceptione expelli possent in posterum & excludi. Item licet eidem Archiepiscopo oblatum fuisset multis vicibus ex parte Religiosorum, & ante eorum citationem & post, super omnibus quorum occasione fatigavit eosdem, loco & tempore congruis, & ipsum in illis debite informare, ipsos tamen in hoc audire sapienter recusavit, nec detulit, quambis sibi constaret de eorum appellationibus sed Ecclesias ipsorum Religiosorum nullo juris ordine servato vacantes esse pronuntiavit, & mandavit eisdem, quod ad ipsas Ecclesias tanquam ad vacantes infra 40 dierum spaciis idoneos Clericos præstarent; denunciando eisdem Religiosis, quod aliquin Ecclesias conferret easdem. Item, dum dictarum appellationum negotia apud hanc sanctam Sedem de precepto vestro, Pater Sanctissime, remanserunt, inhibuit sibi eidem auctoritate vestra, ne quicquam in dicti Monasterii seu dictarum appellationum præjudicium attemptaret lite pendente; quibus tamen appellationibus vel inhibitioni Papali non detulit, nec etiam vestre Sanctitatis privilegii, licet sibi constaret ad plenum de singulis eorundem. Item, cum dictum vestrum privilegium esset eidem necnon Capitulo suo per conservatores super hoc deputatos ostensum, & in eorum presentia lectum, idem conservatores per suum Commissarium virum providum & discretum, facta tamen sibi prima fide de privilegiis antiquis & de statu antiquo quem habebat ante dictas Compositiones quantum ad institutionem & destinationem Clericorum in beneficiis, injunxerunt Abbati quod ipse omnem statum antiquum, tam quoad exemptionem quam jurisdictionem, plenè resumeret, ac omnia & singula quæ fieri consueverunt ante prædictam Compositionem liberè exerceret; dictum verò Abbas sciens statum Ecclesie sue antiquum fuisse ita plenum & liberum, ipsum resumpsit secundum modum observatum antiquum, & quatenus vestro credebatur privilegio convenire. Postmodum idem Archiepiscopus per Officialem suum & alios misit Cantuariam, mandans quod Abbas & Conventus coram ipsis in Ecclesia Sancti Pauli exemptionem, & privilegia quibus vellet uti contra ipsum, coram ipsis Commissariis notoriè suspectis, & dicti Monasterii inimicis etiam tempore messum exhiberent. Qui Commissarii imponebant Religiosis quamplures abusus & excessus privilegii concessi. Tamen ex parte Abbatis & Conventus facta fuit protestatio, quod non intendebant in aliquo excedere vel illo quoquo modo abuti; verum si quid dubii circa vestrum privilegium emerisset, vel in futurum emergere, vestra Sanctitatis declarationem humiliter expectares, & petebatur quod hoc faceret pars adversa cum effectu. Item, dicti Commissarii præmissa omnia dissidentes, Clericos et homines ipsius Monasterii tributa et redditus solventes, necnon ceteros exemptos in locis ejusdem degentes, excommunicaverunt et præceperant sub pena excommunicationis, ne quis Parochianorum suorum de suorum Ecclesiarum præsentibus vel iuribus Parochialibus responderent. Et ne plus viderentur inimici vestroque privilegio inobedientes, de die in diem tam contra personas exemptas quàm loca exempta processerunt. Propter quod licet per conservatores vestri privilegii fuissent moniti, quod à talibus excessibus notoriè desisterent, & errata corrigerent, sub pena excommunicationis latæ in eosdem si secus agerent; tamen

Item dictus Archiepiscopus facto publico sermone ad populum in Ecclesia sua, excommunicabit omnes qui statum suæ Ecclesiæ in iuribus, libertatibus vel possessionibus minuerant quæ prius haberat vel consueverat optinere. Item Clericos eorundem per ejus Commissarium de facto non de jure excommunicatos, non obstante quod processus et sententia prædicta essent auctoritate vestri privilegii nulla et irrita, etiam per conservatores ex habundanti debite revocata, fecit mancipari custodiæ carcerali, regia potestate mediante. Istis articulis audientia Apostolica sic traditis & liberatis, procuratores Abbatis recesserunt.

* Anno quo supra per spacium temporis, videlicet Idus Martii, vocata fuit pars Abbatis & Conventus per se in secretiori Thalamo coram Domino Papa, qui dixit quasi increpando; Non secundum voluntatem nostram, ut intelleximus, fecerunt ipsi Abbas & Conventus in Ecclesiis juris patronatus eorum, qui instituerunt & destituerunt in eisdem. Responsum fuit; Pater Sancte, Non: sed posuerunt ibi personas idoneas, ut ipsis deservirent quousque aliud scirent de vestra voluntate. Quantum ad pulsationem contra Archiepiscopum, negatum fuit expresse quod nunquam fuit prohibitum, quin pulsaretur contra eum. Tertio inquirebat de Ecclesiis appropriatis quid sentirent: Ad illud fuit allegatum de prescriptione & de statu Monasterii antiquo, ad quem redacti fuerunt per suum privilegium. Tunc dixit Dominus Papa; Non ponatis vos in talibus, quia talia possunt esse privilegia quæ jurisdictionem populi simul cum appropriatione Ecclesiarum sapiunt, & alia quæ non. Ad illud quod objecit de excessu quoad institutionem & destitutionem, responsum fuit; Pater Sancte, conservatores privilegii vestri viso statu Monasterii antiquo injunxerunt Abati, quod ipse resumeret omnem statum antiquum quoad exercitium jurisdictionis; & ipse hoc fecit sub protestatione tali, Quod si contingeret illum aliud facere, quam quod de vestra procederet voluntate, paratus esset cum sibi constaret resumpta revocare. His dictis, jussi sunt recedere. Et continuo vocata fuit pars Archiepiscopi & discessit cum eum: Denique vocata fuit pars Abbatis. Constitutus vero partibus coram Domino Papa, objecit pars Archiepiscopi illa qua superius sunt ostensa. Tunc dixit Dominus Papa, Taceatis; non curamus de talibus, quia totum negotium ad iria parva restringimus, videlicet, ad jurisdictionem, pulsationem, & processionem; & de istis volumus deliberare & ordinare, sicut nobis videbitur expedire; Neque totum negotium sibi prima vice reserabit; deinde locutus est Procuratoribus Archiepiscopi, dicens: Nos audivimus de illo Cantuariensi, quod male se habuit in Parlamento Lincolniz, quia ipse seminavit zizania inter Regem et Barones; et nisi fuisset sapientia Regis, terram suam imperpetuum amississet; ipse corruet et finaliter ipse corruet, et per Deum bene vindicabo Regem de eo. Respondit Magister Johannes de Ros Procurator Archiepiscopi; Pater Sancte, nisi fuisset sua constantia et prædictio, multa majora scandala fuissent in illo regno exorta. Papa respondit; Tu mentiris, tu mentiris, bene scimus veritatem. Tunc jussa sunt amba partes recedere.

* Popes can swear, and take Gods name in vain, even in Cathedra, and yet not erre therein.

* Nota.

Post aliquot vero dies, pecunia mediante Episcopali, traditum fuit dictum negotium ad Notarium, ut expediretur. Perpendit autem pars Abbatis, quod nota non fuerat bene concepta pro parte ipsorum, & vehementer instabat, quod posset habere accessum ad Dominum Papam. Tandem intervenientibus amicis ingressi sunt, supplicantes sibi pro Dei misericordia, quod sibi placeret habere pietatem de Monasterio suo; & respondit, Ecclesia beati Augustini est antiquior in illo regno; & ideo magnum vituperium esset Curie Romane, si non esset exempta ex quo plura Monasteria sunt ibi exempta; nec decet quod sit peioris conditionis quam alia Ecclesiæ, quæ sunt prima inter eas. Initio ibidem religionis Christianæ, antiquitas loci, & veneratio beati Augustini Anglorum Apostoli monet nos ad fovendum jura illius Monasterii in quantum possumus cum justitia. Et his dictis recesserunt. Insuper firmiter promissum fuerat eisdem per organum Domini Papa, quod negotia bene expedirentur pro parte illorum; tamen quia Curia fuit in motu versus Agnaniam, dicebatur, quod nihil expediretur quousque illuc venirent. Igitur venientibus Procuratoribus Abbatis post Pascha Agnaniam, requirebant à referendario, quod negotia expedirentur secundum quod promissum eis fuerat. Qui respondit verbis dissimulatis; se ad plenum non scire de voluntate Domini; unde prædicti Procuratores insisterunt.

An.29 E.1. ejusdem. Quando verò dicti articuli liberati fuerunt, petita fuit eorum copia instanter per Procuratorem Abbatis. Et incontinenti petita fuit per eosdem, quod Dominus Papa vellet subsequenter audire partem, causam & articulos Abbatis. Et respondit, Satis est; & adjecit, Nos ob reverentiam beati Augustini Anglorum Apostoli statum illius Ecclesiæ renovavimus, corroboravimus, & multa addidimus. Merum tamen Abbas et ipsi Monachi nimis sunt elati, et faciunt multos excessus; et similiter Archiepiscopus aliquantulum est elatus, et utinam aliquantulum, quia nimis magnus Theologus est; ipse est de Rypariis, bene novimus eum. Et dixit, Consulimus quod utraque pars contenta finibus suis, & placeret nobis quod bona pax esset inter eos: quia si contingat nos tangere illas, utraque pars dolebit. Et sic recesserunt à Consistorio illa vice. Quibus Articulis Archiepiscopi quanquam nobis omnino contrariis à Domino Papa conceptis, jussit Notam qua alias fuerat Anagninæ concepta procedere. Quod videns Procurator Abbatis, insitit viriliter quatinus habere posset copiam dictæ Notæ, dicens, Se posse proponere & probare per rationes efficaces, quod illa Nota non posset transire. Quod cum nunciatum fuisset Domino Papa, jussit copiam liberari prædicto Procuratori. Tamen Procurator Archiepiscopi constanter egit, quod prædicta Nota transiret. Cui tamen responsum fuit, quod Dominus intellexit quod pars Abbatis haberet plures rationes probabiles & efficaces quare prædicta nota transire non deberet; & ideo voluit audire partes, & dictum negotium ampliori deliberatione tractare.

Et scito, quod illa Nota qua dicitur fuisse concepta Anagninæ erat hæc: Habeant præsentationem Rectorum & Clericorum, tum, &c. quæ sequuntur in bulla declarationis. Contra quam notam Procuratores Abbatis rationes produxerunt efficaces in forma quæ talis est; Habeant Præsentationem, &c. Hæc dictio tantum absorberet jura Monasterii, quia de jure communi alia competunt patronis quam præsentatio sola, quia Abbas & Conventus habent custodiam vacantium Ecclesiarum de Patronatu, & percipiunt medietatem fructuum ipsarum tempore vacationis, & etiam sequestrorum. Item retinent claves ipsarum Ecclesiarum vacantium. Item pulsantur Campana propter reverentiam Abbatis, quando transit per loca. Et hæc competunt, & competierunt ab eo tempore quo memoria non extat, & etiam per compositiones fuerant reservata expressè. Item Archiepiscopus habeat Spiritualia in eisdem, hoc excepto, quod propter privilegia & compositionem interdicere & suspendere non potest, sicut patet per Compositiones, quinque Ecclesias in Compositione nominatas, ut superius in eadem compositione patebat. Nec aliàs quam eis ex præsentis declaratione. Hoc est limitandum quoad spirituales jurisdictionem, quia temporalem habuerunt & habent in prædictis ab eo tempore quo non extat memoria. Permittitur; Ex hac concessione nihil permittitur, quod jurisdictionem sapiat. Præterea eadem jura habent in hoc genere appropriatarum Ecclesiarum quæ habent in illis quæ sunt de solo patronatu. Et ideo oportet hoc mutari. Et aliarum quarumcunque Ecclesiarum Cantuar. Civitatis & Diocesis. Si hoc ita generaliter ponatur, extendetur ad Ecclesias pleno jure eisdem subjectas; & sic inducitur servitus super rem omnino exemptam. Qualemcunque jurisdictionem habere noluunt, quæ sunt ista? verendum est, ne ex his verbis detur materia in posterum litigiis. In cæteris contentis in eo. Impropria videntur hæc verba, quia de hiis quæ declarata sunt nichil de privilegiis continetur; & Exceptio non fit, nisi de eo de quo est regula.

Petitiones Procuratoris Archiepiscopi subsequenter productæ, quæ tales sunt.

Abbas & Conventus Monasterii S. Augustini Cantuariensis asseruerunt coram vobis Quod licet Monasterium eorum à principio foundationis ipsius cum omnibus membris suis fuisset exemptum per sedem Apostolicam à jurisdictione qualibet ordinaria, eis tamen postmodum exactionibus et angustiis fatigatis per nonnullos Archiepiscopos Cantuarienses super exemptionibus eorundem, quædam Compositiones intervenerint inter partes, ex quibus dicti Abbas et Conventus dicentes plurimum derogari libertatibus eorundem, supplicaverunt se reduci ad plenitudinem libertatis exemptionis. Unde vos decrevistis Privilegia, Libertates, et Exemptiones, ipsis à dicta Sede concessa, in suo robore permanere, ac nichilominus ipsos et dictum Monasterium cum omnibus membris suis ab omni potestate, jurisdictione, subjectione, et dominio Archiepiscopi et Capituli Cantuarie, et omnium aliorum absolvestis, exemptistis, et perpetuo liberastis, et decrevistis ea omnia totaliter et immediate Romano Pontifici subjacere, ita quod nec Archiepiscopus nec quævis alia persona

Thus this controversy between the Archbishop, Abbot and Monks, (which continued near 8. years space, to their vast expence, trouble, vexation) received this final determination. Wherein we may observe, 1. The detestable Corruption of Pope Boniface, his Cardinals, Notaries, and other Officers in the Court of Rome, in taking great bribes, rewards, and summes of money from both parties, and thereupon varying, nulling, repealing their Judgements, Sentences, Letters, Orders, Bulls,

Upon the Liberties of the Kings and Subjects of Engl. & Irel. K. Edward 1.

Bulls, Priviledges, in favour, disfavour, to the advantage or prejudice of either party, according to the greatness or prevalency of their Bribes, without any regard to justice. 2ly. Their manifold arts to procrastinate the final decision of the controversies between them, to exhaust their purses, and gain new bribes, rewards from them and their Proctors. 3ly. The strange ambitious, proud, contentious, turbulent spirits of the Archbishops, Abbots, Monks of Canterbury, in that and precedent times, evidenced by the manifold controversies, violent proceeding, costly long-lasting successive suits between them, by reason of Popes contradictory Bulls of Priviledges and exemptions granted to, and purchased by them at dear rates; which did but renue, increase, perpetuate their contests and appeals to Rome, instead of determining them. 4ly. The publike contempts, slighings of Popes Bulls, Mandates, Sentences, both by the Archbishop, Abbots, Monks, when they entrenched upon either of their claimed Priviledges or Jurisdctions. 5ly. Their gross, frequent abuses of Excommunications and Interdicts, fulminated, denounced against each other, upon every pretended contempt or violation of their claimed Priviledges or Jurisdctions.

After the premised Declaration of Pope Boniface in favour of the Archbishop, he proceeded so violently against the Abbot, Monks and their adherents, by Excommunications, Interdicts, and other Ecclesiastical Censures, that he enforced them to submit, and sue unto him for absolution and a friendly agreement between them, thus related by * William Thorn. *Qua quidem Declaratio sic publicata Anno supra dicto, scilicet 1303. die Sancti Dunstani Archiepiscopi, in Ecclesia Christi Cant. immediatè post factam ibidem processionem, presentibus tunc Clericis & Laicis in magna multitudine ad eundem diem specialiter vocatis & rogatis, Henricus Prior Ecclesie pradiæ predicavit populo, cujus thema fuit hoc: Fili, non dimittas legem matris tue, non transgredieris terminos quos posuerunt patres tui; Declarationem publicavit, notificavit, & in lingua materna publicè exposuit. Postea vero Dominus Archiepiscopus, Archidiaconus et eorum Officiales compellebant omnes Parochianos nostros et tenentes. ac alios qui nobis medio tempore adhaerunt, visibiles et importabiles poenitentias facere, fustigantes circa Ecclesias, et per Perketas, ac ad deferendum cereos ad feretrum Sancti Thomæ contra voluntatem eorum, videlicet unumquemque secundum facultatem bonorum suorum, pro eo quod medio tempore nobis et nostris fuerant intendentes et obediētes. Igitur ista publicatione facta, omnes et singuli Rectores et Vicarii, qui prius Abbati adhaerebant, se a obsequio cessabant, resistentes se de querendo gratiam et presentiam Archiepiscopi. Qui in presentia ipsam constituti, bi et metu ducti, fitebantur se ipsos sententia majoris excommunicationis per ipsum et suos Commissarios fuisse innodatos, et petierunt reformationem status sui. Factaque sibi resignatione et cessione beneficiorum suorum, et facto juramento de stando mandatis Ecclesie, juxta eorum petitionem obtinuerunt. * Et sic omnia beneficia absque Pastozibus manserunt desolata, et dicti Rectores et Vicarii irregulares ibidem pronuntiati per Archiepiscopum supradictum. Similiter et Capellani Parochiales et alii annalia celebrantes a divinis cessarunt, gratiam et benevolentiam ejusdem humiliter petentes, confitebantur se ipsos sententia excommunicationis fuisse ligatos, petentes reformationem status sui, præstatoque juramento de stando mandatis Ecclesie, optinuerunt. Et aliqui eorundem pronuntiati fuerunt ibidem irregulares, quidam vero postmodum gratiam optinuerunt. Sed Rector de Brockland & Vicarius de Mense, non reputantes se aliqua sententia fuisse ligatos, non statim submiserunt se, quia processum Archiepiscopi tunc pendente causa in Curia Romana indecisa, aliquo modo credebant non posse valere. Rector Ecclesie Fritindenne volens ab animarum Cura exonerari, prout spontè & absolute in manus Domini Abbatis in Hospitio suo apud Suthwerk resignavit.*

Missis istis doloribus, grabaminibus et angustis, Rectozibus, Vicariis, Capellanis, Parochialibus et Annalia celebrantibus, necnon tenentibus Parochianis et aliis ante Declarationem Abbati adhaerentibus per Archiepiscopum, Archidiaconum, Commissarios et alios ministros eorundem illatis, et qualiter gravioza in posterum comminantur inferre, pradiæ Abbas & Conventus miserunt ad eum Dominum Johannem Tavy Militem, duos Monachos, cum aliis, tunc apud Colcestriam existentem; Et post salutationem sibi factam, idem Dominus Johannes dixit Archiepiscopo,

An. 29 E. I. Archiepiscopo, qualiter solebat esse amicus Ecclesia Sancti Augustini, & rogavit eum ex parte Abbatis & Conventus, quod illam suam amicitiam antiquam vellet continuare in futurum, et quod placeret ei aliquam bonam hiam ordinare, quod pax et concordia esset de cetero inter ipsum et Abbatem, et quod placeret sibi nulla gravamina inferre Clericis vel Laicis adhaerentibus praedictis Abbati et Conventui ante publicationem declarationis antedictae pro dissensionibus, discordiis, et contentionibus inter ipsos prius habitis. Cui respondit Archiepiscopus, quod Charitatem habuit essentialem, sed eam in effectum ostendere non poterat, quia gravatus fuit per eos sumptibus expensis et laboribus. Et quando super hiis competens emenda sibi per eosdem fuerit facta, tunc foret amicus sicut solebat esse.

Paucis vero diebus transactis, Abbas accessit eum apud Donemow; & cum rogasset eum, ut omnem indignationem ab eis placeret amovere, et multa alia pro pace et benevolentia sua captanda sibi proferret: Archiepiscopus respondit, Quod super hiis nondum se deliberaverat. Et cum idem Abbas, ab ipso parumper declinasset, & quasi ad propria licenciatus divertere incepisset, & postea confestim rediret ob ipsius reverentiam, petebat ab eo, ut sibi benedictionem impenderet. Qui dixit, quod hoc tunc non faceret, quia non erat in statu benedictionem recipiendi, cum esset excommunicatus. Et Abbas respondit, quod hoc non credebatur. Et sic ab eodem Archiepiscopo cum omnibus suis ad propria declinavit. (Such was their pride and implacability towards each other.)

Sire, nous sumes a vous venuz a la requeste del Abbe & du Covent de Seint Augustin de Canterbirs, qe nous ount pris & requis, que nous vous vossiffomes dire acune choses que touchent et vos et caus de contekes et debaths qe sont moiez entre vous a damage de montz gentz que coupe nen ount. Tunc dictus Dominus Comes & alii secum existentes Archiepiscopum humiliter requisierunt, quod vellet habere tractatum de bona et firma pace. Qui respondit, quod hoc utile esset, & talis tractatus bene sibi placeret. Et dixit, quod voluntas sua fuit, & etiam ratio & aequitas hoc praetendunt, quod praedicti Abbas et Conventus facerent sibi emendam supra infra scriptis gravaminibus; et aliter non potuit ostendere versus eos aliqua signa amicitiae vel pacis. Quae sunt haec.

In primis, Religiosi de Sancto Augustino Ecclesiae parochiales Cantuariensis Civitatis & Diocesis, nedum quae sibi pretendunt fuisse & esse appropriatas; verumetiam Ecclesias in quibus jus Patronatus duntaxat habere se asserunt, earumque Rectores, Clericos, Ministros & populum ab obedientia debita Archiepiscopo quoad omnem jurisdictionem ordinariam, nisi sunt totis viribus contra iustitiam subtrahere, jus et possessiones Archiepiscopi et Ecclesiarum suarum injuste perturbando.

Item, inhibuerunt tam Clero quam populo dictarum Ecclesiarum nedum eidem Archiepiscopo vel Ministris suis obediant in aliquo vel intendant.

Item, ne fierent in Ecclesia Cantuarii processiones Pentecostes, quae a Clero et populo dictarum Ecclesiarum retroactis temporibus consueverunt, processiones eandem, necnon oblationes procurarunt fieri ad suum Monasterium, ubi nunquam fieri consueverunt.

Item

Item, in eisdem Ecclesiis inhibuerunt campanas pulsari in transitu ejusdem Archiepiscopi, et omnia dictarum Ecclesiarum ignominiose claudi fecerunt honorem et subjectionem nequiter subtrahendo. An. 29 E. 1.

Item, licet nullo modo liqueat eisdem Religiosis aliqualem jurisdictionem aliquam competere in personis aliquibus dictæ Diocesis; Idem tamen Religiosi jurisdictionem ordinariam sibi vendicabant et usurpabant in Ecclesiis prædictis, earumque Parochianis constituerunt et præfecerunt Officiales, Decanos rurales, ceterosque Ministros ad exercitum hujusmodi jurisdictionis adulterine.

Item, compulerunt Rectores, Vicarios et Presbyteros dictarum Ecclesiarum ipsis Religiosis tanquam Ordinariis præstare obedientiæ juramentum, jurisdictionem Archiepiscopi minus prohibere perturbando.

Item, Rectores et Vicarios, quorum institutio ad Archiepiscopum solebat pertinere, et ad quas vacantes Ecclesias solebant dicto Archiepiscopo personæ idoneæ præsentari, eisdem Religiosis instituere et destituere in eisdem temere præsumserunt.

Item, in Ecclesia de Faversham sibi appropriata per sanguinis effusionem polluta, dicti Religiosi celebrabant et fecerunt celebrari divini et alia Sacramenta et Sacramentalia in eadem ministrari, ac mortuos in Chæmisterio ibidem ante reconciliationem sepeliri.

Item, Petrum dictæ Ecclesiæ Vicarium eadem Vicaria præbant, et præbatum esse publice nuntiabant, ipsam a domibus dictæ Vicariæ sententialiter amoventes.

Item, in quibusdam aliis Ecclesiis sibi appropriatis, et etiam sub patronatus nostræ auctoritate Ecclesiastico subpositis interdicto, per Monachos suos et alios Presbyteros auctoritate nostra majori Excommunicatione innodatos fecerunt divina celebrari, et in eis Sacramenta et Sacramentalia per eosdem Presbyteros sic excommunicatos, Parochianos etiam abhorrentes ipsorum excommunicationum missas audire vel Sacramenta ab eis recipere excommunicari fecerunt de facto, et excommunicatos publice nuntiari.

Itaque non post multos dies venit Abbas ad Episcopum Dunelmensem qui tunc apud Wintham hospitatus fuit, qui & erat huic Ecclesiæ amicus fidissimus. Ille Episcopus ibidem exposuit Abbati, quod Archiepiscopus fuit multum offensus, & quod ipse replicaverat gravamina sibi illata per ipsum Abbatem & suos. Et Abbas Episcopo respondit, quod non videbatur rationabile quod in aliquo offenderetur, quia ipse protestatus fuerat ius suum et causam suam sicut tenebatur pro defensione juris Monasterii sui. Veruntamen multum afflictabat habere pacem cum ipso & suam bonam voluntatem. Propter hoc citò post misit sibi per sollemnes Nuncios quosdam Articulos, ut si placeret sibi eosdem concedere libenter sibi de suo serviret.

Imprimis, supplicavit Abbas & Conventus, quod placeret Domino Archiepiscopo quoad Ecclesias eis appropriatas, sic testificari & ratificare statum eorundem, quod non possint in posterum super eisdem inquietari, quamquam super prædictis habeant sufficientem titulum per sedem Apostolicam.

Item, quod velit informari super privilegiis qua habent de suis familiaribus Clericis & Laicis, & illum statum acceptare, ita quod de cetero lis sive contentio minimè oriatur.

Item, quod ius presentandi sit eis saluum in Ecclesiis nunc de jure vacantibus.

Item, quod possent pacifice habere custodiam & fructus colligere Ecclesiarum sui patronatus, per mortem vel alio modo debito vacantium.

Item, quod antiqua consuetudo qua dicitur Bilage, esset usitata ubicunque & quandounque necessitas postulaverit.

Item, pro pace fovenda quod illa qua in posterum forent dubia hinc inde possent examinari, declarari & certificari per commune consilium utriusque partis amigabiliter absque aliqua lite bona fide, ita quod ius utriusque partis hinc inde semper servetur.

Ad primum articulum, de ratificatione Ecclesiarum illis appropriatarum, respondetur per Archiepiscopum, quod visis appropriationibus Ecclesiarum suarum, paratus erit facere eis quod secundum Deum & bonam conscientiam facere potest, quantum ad hoc.

Ad

An. 29 E. 1.

Ad sextum articulum petitur, quod intelligitur per hunc dictionem Bilage, dicunt, quod quidem usus vel consuetudo qui Bilage in partibus Kancie vulgariter appellatur, sic se habere consuevit. Quod cum contentio vel controversia aliqua suborta fuerit inter aliquos super finibus seu limitibus, debent Senescalli seu Ballivi partium vel alia persona fidedigna ad hoc per partes specialiter deputata, in loco de quo est contentio convenire, remque oculis subicere, informationeque per viros vicinos fidedignos habitu absque strepitu judiciali & figura iudicii mox totam dirimere questionem. Ad istum articulum respondit, quod vellet facere per consilium suum & non aliter.

Ad ultimum articulum, de rebus dubitabilibus examinandis & discutiendis per consilium utriusque partis, respondetur, Quod in hiis in quibus probabilis dubietas emergerit, intendit in eventum providere quod conveniens fuerit & opportunum. Verumtamen pacis & concordie fervidi zelatores eundem Archiepiscopum, ut a verattonibus Clericis et Laicis Abbatis, ut prædictum est, inhumaniter illatis, & ab actione de demandis per prædictos Abbatem & Conventum ut præcedit pro gravaminibus sibi factis una cum confirmatione status eorundem cum stabilitate pacis perpetua rogantes, sedulo ipsorum interventu placuit eidem Archiepiscopo ipsis Religiosis pro pacis tranquillitate querenda & impetrandum auctore Domino conservanda concedere infra scripta.

* Concessionibus Archiepiscopi.

In primis, concedit idem Archiepiscopus pro se & successoribus suis, quod electis in Abbates Sancti Augustini in Monasterio eorundem cum ad hoc fuerit requisitus per Archiepiscopum impendatur munus benedictionis, sine exactione professionis ejusdem Abbatis, quam solebant recipere sui prædecessores.

Item, quod cum veniens ad dictum Monasterium pro electo benedicendo, cum processione & pulsatione receptus fuerit à Conventu, nil juris ea vice vel alia infra septa dicti Monasterii vendicabit, per quod possit ipsorum Religiosorum privilegiis in aliquo derogari.

Item, quod Clerici sive servientes capitales in maneriis ipsorum Religiosorum cum sine de familia Abbatis, si aliquando fecisse dicantur aliquid, quod excommunicationem inducat majorem vel minorem ante discussionem facti, nisi forte factum esset notorium, vel antequam confessi, convicti, vel in opere deprehensi, aut contumaces post legitimam citationem extra septa ipsius Monasterii sibi factam, per Archiepiscopum vel suos Ministros non excommunicabuntur nec suspendentur, nec excommunicati vel suspensi denunciabuntur nominatim, dum tamen Abbas vel hic qui pro tempore præerit Monasterio extra septa taliter delinquentem, et ad ipsum Monasterium confugientem, coram dictis Ordinariis compulerit stare iuri, vel ipsum expulerit de Abbacia.

Item, cum Personam vel Vicarium in Ecclesiis dictorum Religiosorum mori contigerit, vel aliter cedere, liceat ipsis Religiosis habere retentionem clavium penes se vacationis tempore, donec ad presentationem eorum alius instituat in eisdem, salvo jure Archidiaconi Cantuariæ qui pro tempore fuerit, quoad jurisdictionem medio tempore in eisdem Ecclesiis exercendam, & quoad medietatem fructuum & sequestrorum interim perceptorum, ita quod claves ei qui vice Archidiaconi presentatos inducet in corporalem possessionem, à dictis Religiosis tradantur.

Item, quod dictas quinque Ecclesias, non obstantibus dictis contentionibus & litibus, eidem Religiosis confirmabit, salvo Vicariis earundem.

Item, quod fiat pulsatio campanarum in Ecclesiis ipsorum contra Abbatem, secundum quod fieri consuevit.

Item, Archiepiscopus Anacortas non faciet de cetero in Ecclesiis dictorum Religiosorum, nisi de consensu Abbatis memorari.

Postremo protestatur Archiepiscopus, quod nondum ad tractatum pacis est paratus, licet sepe dicti Religiosi ut videtur aliud facere non intendant, sed ipsius pacis dulcorum gustare deproperant, ipsam bonis conditionibus & honestis quantum poterit per se & suos satagis procurare, et sub tali pacis dissimulatione nec oblata pro pacis tranquillitate ex parte Abbatis vellet admittere, vel super concessione sua eos permitteret aliquantulum deliberare. Sed quod superius concessit & admisit, velut improbus et contemnitorum amator subdole denegabit; unde et ad lites eturgia ad tempus conbolantur. Improbam eorum negationis Monachi Cantuariæ suscitaverunt. So that all mediations for, and propositions between them for a cordial reconciliation of their suits and differences, vanished into smoak, through the pride and oblinacy of both parties, to the great disturbance of the publick peace.

I finde by two parchment Rolls in French in the White Tower, (one side of which is purrified, but the other entire) that the King being at Dover, in the 30th. year of his reign the Archbishop of Canterbury complained to him against the Sheriff of Kent, the Constable of Dover, (Robert de Bombers) and their Officers, that they had diversement & en mont des maneres invaded and infringed the Liberties of the Church of Canterbury, against the Franchises thereof conferred on them by Popes & Kings themselves; which the King commanded his Counsil to examine, and enquire the truth thereof by Commission, and then to report it to him in writing, which was done accordingly, and comprised in these two Rolls: The substance of his complaint against the Sheriff of Kent was, That whereas the Archbishop and his Archdeacon in the premised differences between the Abbot and Monks of Canterbury and him, had deprived and removed divers Vicars, placed by the Abbot in the Impropriations and Churches belonging to the Abby of St. Augustine, and instituted and inducled others in their places; the Sheriff upon the Abbots complaint, had removed them out of the Churches, Vicaridges, restored the former Vicars to them, and would suffer no vicuals to be brought to his Vicars who kept possession in some Churches, and attached, imprisoned others of them; and that he and the Lieutenant of Dover had entred into, and executed Writs within his Franchises and Liberties. To which the Sheriff answered, That the Archbishop had no right to place or displace those Vicars, but only the Abbot; that the Vicars therein placed by the Archbishop being indicted for breaking the publick peace, and forcible entries into the said Churches, and keeping them by Lay force, he did thereupon according to Law and his duty, by vertue of the Kings Writs, remove, attach and imprison them for their contempt, and despite against the Kings Writs and authority, and for felonious taking away the Goods of the Vicars, which the Archbishop by his Archdeacon had insuriously sequestred. As for entering into the Archbishops Franchises, the Sheriff and Constable of Dover justified it by sundry Rolls and Presidents, especially when the Archbishop was a party, as he was in this contest between him and the Abbot of St. Augustines. Wherewith it seems the King and Counsil rested satisfied. So troublesome was this Archbishop not only to the Pope and Court of Rome, but to the King and his Counsil, and to the Sheriff of Kent and Constable of Dover, in this hot contest between the Abbot, Monks and him. But to leave them, I return to my Chronological series, which their long-lasting suits have interrupted. Anno 30 E. 1. in Turie London.

How prone the Englishmen in this time were to pillage Italian Clerks and their Proctors, and keep them out of our Churches by armed force, this Writ will in some measure instruct us, issued upon a complaint thereof to the King and his Counsil.

You heard before, that the King to satisfie his discontented Earls, and people (whom the Archbishop instigated and abetted against him) issued Writs and Proclamations this year, concerning his Confirmation, and the due observation of the Great Charters of their Liberties and of the Forest in all their Articles, and the Perambulations of the Forest to be made with all convenient expedition. For their further assurance whereof to remove their fears and jealousies, he sent these ensuing Writs to the Sheriffs of Launcester, London and all other Sheriffs of England, and likewise to his Treasurer and Barons of the Exchequer, his Chief Justices and other Judges of the Kings Bench and Common Pleas, publickly to read, proclaim and observe, reciting in them at large the Articles concerning the Forest, which he had new granted and confirmed to them, and his resolution speedily to proceed in the perambulation.

The Writ to the Sheriff of Launcester is thus recorded in the Statute Roll.

Edwardus Dei Gratia Rex Anglie, Dominus Hibernie, & Dux Aquitania, Vicecom. Lanc. salutem. Cum nuper ante transfretationem nostram in Flandr. apud Westm. nos habentes respectum ad grandes misas & expensas quae populus Regni nostri fecerat & sustinuerat diversis modis pro nobis, tam tempore pacis quam guerrae, habuissimus non modicam voluntatem & desiderium populum ipsum respicere, prout tunc temporis potuimus, concessimus eidem populo de nostra propria voluntate pro nobis & heredibus nostris, quod Magna Charta de Libertatibus observetur in omnibus punctis suis, & similiter Charta de Foresta servetur. Salvis tamen iuramento nostro, iure Coronae nostrae, et rationibus nostris, ac etiam aliorum: * quae quidem per Venerabilem patrem & Archiepiscopum Cantuar. ex parte nostra & in nostra praesentia tunc pronunciari fecimus, & deinde apud Odimeri in ipso passagio nostro in Flandr. eandem concessiorem sub sigillo nostro observari precipiendo mandavimus et teneri per totum regnum nostrum in quolibet Comitatu. Et quia a tempore illo citra per actionem & distractionem guerrarum eramus occupati multipliciter & distracti in diversis partibus & longinquis, per quod scire nequibimus statum Regni nostri. Inquisitio vel visus de expeditione Canum existentium in Foresta de cetero fiat, quando fieri debet regardum; scilicet de tercio anno in tertium Annum, & tunc fiat per visum & testimonium legalium hominum, Et ille cuius Canis inventus fuerit tunc non expeditus det pro misericordia tres solidos. Et de cetero nullus Bos capiatur pro expeditione. Talis autem fiat expeditio per Assisam Forestarum, quod tres Cotelli abscondantur sine pelota de pede anteriori. Nec expedientur canes de cetero nisi in locis ubi consueverunt expeditari tempore primæ Coronationis Regis H. avi nostri. Nullus Forestarius vel Bedellus de cetero faciat Scotallas, vel colligat garbas vel avenam, vel bladum aliquod, vel agnos vel porcellos, nec aliquam collectionem faciat; Et per visum & Sacramentum duodecim regardatorum, quando faciunt regardum. Tot Forestarii ponantur ad Forestas custodiendas quot ad illas custodiendas rationabiliter viderint sufficere. Nullum Swaynimotum de cetero teneatur in regno nostro, nisi ter in anno, videlicet in principio quindecim dierum ante festum Sancti Michaelis quando Agistatores nostri conveniunt, ad agistandum Dominicos boscos nostros, & circa festum Sancti Martini, quando Agistatores nostri debent recipere pannagium nostrum, & ad ista duo Swaynimota conveniant Forestarii, Viridarii, & Agistatores, & non alii per distractionem: & tertium Swaynimotum teneatur in initio quindecim dierum ante festum Sancti Johannis Baptiste pro Venatione bestiarum nostrarum, & ad illud Swaynimotum tenendum conveniant Forestarii, Viridarii, & non alii per distractionem.

Præterea singulis quadraginta diebus per totum annum conveniant Forestarii & Viridarii ad videndum Attachiamenta de Foresta, tam de Viridi quam de Venatione per presentationem Forestariorum ipsorum & coram ipsis attachiatis. Prædictæ autem Swaynimota non teneantur nisi in Comitatibus in quibus teneri consueverunt. Unusquisque liber homo Agistet boscum suum in Foresta pro voluntate sua, & habeat pannagium suum. Concedimus etiam, quod unusquisque liber homo ducere possit porcos suos per Dominicum Boscum nostrum liberè & sine impedimento ad agistandum, eos in Boscis suis propriis, vel alibi ubi voluerit. Et si Porci alicujus liberi hominis una nocte pernoctaverint in Foresta nostra non inde occasione, unde aliquid de suo perdat. Nullus de cetero * amittat vitam vel membra pro venatione nostra. Et si quis captus fuerit & convictus de captione Venationis, graviter redimatur, si habeat unde redimi possit. Si autem non habeat unde redimi possit, jaceat in prisona nostra per unum annum et unum diem, et si post unum annum et unum diem plegios invenire possit, exeat a prisona, sin autem, abjuret regnum Angliæ. Quicumque Archiepiscopus, Episcopus, Comes vel Baro veniens ad nos ad mandatum nostrum transierit per Forestam nostram, liceat ei capere unam bestiam vel duas per visum Forestarii, si præsens fuerit. Sin autem, faciat cornari, ne videatur furtiva hoc facere. Idem liceat eis in redeundo facere sicut prædictum est. Unusquisque liber homo de cetero sine occasione faciat in bosco suo vel in terra sua quam habet in Foresta, molendinum, vivarium, stagnum, marleram, fossatum, vel terram arabilem extra coopertum in terra arabili. Ita quod non sit ad nocumentum alicujus vicini. Unusquisque liber homo habeat in boscis suis accipitrum, Espervariorum, & Falconum, Aquilarum & Heyronum. Habeat similiter mel quod inventum fuerit in boscis suis. Nullus Forestarius de cetero qui non sit Forestarius de feodo firmam nobis reddens pro balliva sua, capiat Chiminagium aliquod in balliva sua. Forestarius autem de feodo firmam nobis reddens pro balliva sua, capiat Chiminagium, videlicet pro cavellia per dimidium annum duos denarios. Pro Equo qui portat summagium, per dimidium annum obolum, et per alium dimidium annum obolum, & non nisi de illis qui de extra ballivam suam tanquam Mercatores venient per licentiam suam in ballivam suam ad buscam, maeremium, corticem vel carbonem emend. & alias ducend. ad vendendum ubi voluerint. Et de nulla alia cavellia vel summagio aliquo chiminagium capiatur: Et non capiatur chiminagium nisi in locis in quibus antiquitus capi solebat & debuit. nem utilitatem populi regni nostri, as the Writs of Summons import, to satisfie his Prelates, Nobles, People, and engage them to assist him with their armes and purses in his Wars against the rebellious and perfidious Scots, not only ratified the Great Charters of Liberties and of the Forest, and all other Charters, which he had formerly thrice confirmed at their importunity, but likewise prescribed new penalties against the infringers of them, constituting Justices in every County to punish all offences against them (not formerly punishable) in a summary way, from day to day, enacting New provisions for their better observation, with additional Articles super-added to them, commonly titled Articuli super Cartas: which although printed in our Vulgar Statute Books, and Sir Edward Cookes 2 * Institutes, who hath largely commented on them, I shall here insert for the most part out of the Statute Rolls in and Writs relating to them and the Perambulation of the Forests, (not formerly printed) for the benefit of the Students and Professors of the Law, and such other Gentlemen and Members of Parliament who at any time may make use of them, for the maintenance of these Charters and their hereditary Liberties, when ever viola-

The Writs for the Perambulation of the Forests in several Counties, issued to these ensuing Commissioners, in this form.

REX dilecto & fideli suo Rogero de Brabaton, salutem. Cum assignavimus vos una cum quibusdam aliis fidelibus nostris, ad Perambulationem in Forestis nostris infra Comitatus nostros Salop, Stafford, & Derb. faciendam: Vobis mandamus, quod sitis Litchfield, in crastino Ascensionis Domini proximo futuro, parati exinde cum dictis fidelibus nostris profficiet ad Perambulationem illam faciendam; quibus mandavimus, quod tunc ad hoc faciendum modis omnibus personis liter sint ibidem. Et hoc nullo modo omittatis. Ita quod per vestrum defectum expeditio dicti negotii infecta non remaneat quoquo modo. Teste Rege apud Westm. primo die Aprilis.

Eodem modo mandatum est Radulpho de Hengham, ad Perambulationem in Forestis Regis infra Comitatus Essex, Bucks, Oxon. faciend. assignato, quod sit apud — die predicto.

Eodem modo mandatum est Magistro Johanni Lovell, ad Perambulationem in Forestis Regis infra Comitatus Somerset, Dorset, Devon. faciend. assignato, quod sit apud — die predicto.

Eodem modo mandatum est Johanni de Berewick, ad Perambulationem in Forestis Regis infra Comitatus Smth. & Wiltes. faciend. assignato, quod sit apud — die predicto.

Eodem modo mandatum est Willielmo Inge, ad Perambulationem in Forestis Regis infra Comitatus Gloucestr. Hereford, Wigorn. faciend. assignato, quod sit apud — die predicto.

Eodem modo mandatum est Johanni Dene, Willielmo Bretenhne, & Henrico de Gildesford, assignatis ad Perambulationem Forestarum cum Rogero de Erabazon, videlicet cuilibet eorum per se, quod personaliter sit apud Litchfield ad diem predictam.

Eodem modo mandatum est Willielmo Trussell, Stephano de Gravesend, & Willielmo de Sutton, assignati ad Perambulationem faciend. una cum Radulpho de Hengham, vid. &c. quod sit personaliter apud, &c.

Eodem modo mandatum est Gilberto de Knovill, Johanni Gurbod, & Hunfrido de Walden, assignati ad Perambulationem faciend. una cum Magistro Johanne Lovell, vid. &c. quod sit personaliter apud, &c.

Eodem modo mandatum est Waltero de Gloucestr. Waltero de Fovely, & Johanni de Crokefly, assignati ad Perambulationem faciend. una cum Johanne de Berewick, vid. &c. quod sit personaliter apud, &c.

Eodem modo mandatum est Henrico de Cobham, Willielmo de Martino Mari, & Nicholao Fernham, assignati ad Perambulationem faciend. una cum Willielmo Inge, vid. &c. quod sit personaliter apud, &c.

REX dilecto & fideli suo Johanni de Litchgrayne, salutem. Cum assignavimus vos una cum quibusdam fidelibus nostris, ad Perambulationem in Forestis de Shirewood, Inglewood & Galtes faciendam: Vobis mandamus, quod sitis apud Ebor. coram Thefurario & Baronibus nostris de Scaccario in die Pasche in 15. dies, parati exinde cum dictis fidelibus nostris profficiet ad Perambulationem illam faciendam; quibus mandavimus, quod tunc ad hoc faciendum modis omnibus personis liter sint ibidem. Et hoc nullatenus omittatis. Ita quod per vestrum defectum expeditio dicti negotii infecta non remaneat quoquo modo. Teste Rege apud Westm. primo die Aprilis.

Et mandatum est Johanni Bynn, Michaeli de Hartecle, Harsculpho de Oresby, Ade de Croke dayk, & Rickardo Oysell, assignatis ad Perambulationem faciendam, una cum predicto Johanne, videlicet quilibet eorum per se, quod ad diem predictum modis omnibus personis liter sit apud Ebor. coram predictis Thefurario & Baronibus. Teste ut supra.

Yet all these Writs and Commissions would not satisfie the jealous Earls and others, that the Perambulation of the Forests would be really effected, or speedily accomplished by the King: Whereupon, as * Walsingham and Knyghton story, Rex Angliæ sub his diebus Parliamentum tenuit Stamford, ad quod convenerunt Comes & Barones

After the death of Henry de Newerke, **Thomas Corbridge* being elected Archbishop of Yorke, repaired to Rome for his confirmation, where after long attendance, for expedition sake, he was enforced to resigne his right of election into the Popes hands, and to receive the Archbishoprick from him by way of provision; who thereupon not only confirmed, but consecrated him Archbishop at Rome and gave him his Pall, and this ensuing Bull, the Original whereof I found in the White Tower, directed to King Edward, wherein he relates all the proceedings concerning his election and consecration, praying the King to restore his Temporalities.

In this memorable case the Kings Judges resolved, 1. That where the Kings legal Writs or commands came in competition with the Popes Mandates or Provisions, our Archbishops and Bishops (though then sworn and devoted to the Pope) ought to obey the King, before the Pope; & not to dispute, but execute the Kings Writs, as well as his Temporal Officers, according to St. Pauls and St. Peters resolutions, Rom. 13. 1. to 8. 2 Pet. 2. 13, 14, 15, 17. 2ly. That their not obeying the Kings Royal Writs and Legal Mandates, is such an high offence, contempt against the Kings Crown and Dignity, that the King by the Lawes of England might then justly seise and confiscate their Temporalities during life. Bishop * Godwin in his life hath this memorable passage, He ſate in all but 3. years, 7. moneths, and 10. dayes. Whether it be that few mens mindes be ſo great, as to ſuſtain the burthen of a Princes diſpleaſure, or that God who promiſeth a long life to ſuch who obey their Superiours, in his juſt judgement doth ſeaſt cut off ſuch as are backward in this duty; So ſurely it hath fallen out for the moſt part, that thoſe Biſhops who have preſumed moſt in oppoſing themſelves againſt their Princes, have leaſt time endured, and ever ſen quickly taken away, to whereof I could yield infinite examples.

5 die Januarii.

Per ipsum Regem, nunciante W. Cov. & Lych. Episcopo.

Pope Boniface the 8. confirming the election of Richard Archbishop of Dublin, and inserting some words into his Bull to the King concerning his promotion thereunto, and the Temporalities thereof, which seemed prejudicial to the Kings Crown and Royal dignity, in the judgement of the King and his Council, when presented to them by the Archbishop; the King thereupon refused to restore his Temporalities, untill the Archbishop publicly renounced all clauses in the Popes Bull, openly or tacitly, directly or indirectly prejudicial and derogatory to his Crown and Royal dignity, as this memorable Patent for his restitution attests to posterity.

Nos igitur hujusmodi excusatione et renunciatione receptis, ipsius Archiepiscopi supplicationibus annuentes, cepimus fidelitatem et usum Archiepiscopi, et temporalia Archiepiscopatus prædicti eidem Archiepiscopo restitimus de nostra gratia speciali. Et ideo vobis mandamus, quod ipsi Archiepiscopo vel ejus certo attorney, temporalia dicti Archiepiscopatus sine dilatione liberetis, de nostra gratia supradicta. Teste Rege apud Rykehale primo die Junii.

Eodem modo mandatum est Waltero de Gloucestr. Escaetori ultra Trentam, quod eidem Archiepiscopo, &c. temporalia, &c. Teste Rege ut supra.

The original renunciation of the clauses in Pope Boniface his Bull, prejudicial to the Kings Crown and dignity, made by this Archbishop, mentioned in this Patent to restore his Temporalities, I found extant under his own Archiepiscopal Seal in a bundle of Writs and Privy Seals in the White Tower, which I shall here present you with as a rarity.

Excellentissimo Principi Domino Edwardo, Dei gratia illustri Regi Angliae, Domino Hibernia, & Duci Aquitania, sui humiles & devoti fratres, Johannes Abbas de Coggeshale, & ejusdem loci Conventus, (si placet) salutem, cum omni reverentia & honore. Cum nuper per vos fuimus requisiti, ut Ricardo de Rye vitæ necessaria in domo nostra, quoad viveret, ministraremus; ac nos, ob reverentiam vestram, & ad mandatum vestrum, eidem Ricardo concesserimus, quod sit in domo nostra ad aulam nostram, & ibidem comedat cum libera familia, & habeat ibidem vitæ necessaria, quoad vixerit; et super hoc literas nostras eidem Ricardo fecimus patentes. Quam quidem Concessionem nimis nudam reputatis, pro eo, quod in dictis literis nostris, quid de quotidiano victu, et quid pro roba et calceatura, per annum percipere debeat, nihil est expressum, et super hoc vos certiorare nobis mandastis. Excellentia vestra significamus, quod aliis servientibus per vos, seu per vestros Progenitores in casu consimili ad nos missis, temporibus retroactis, (a good evidence of the Kings ancient right to Corodies in that Monastery and others) nihil certum fuerat concessum; nec scimus quid certum exprimere, præter illud quod patria dederit, seu quod venale in confinio repertum fuerit; nec aliud certum, qui in domo nostra pro suo dando modo consimili perhendinant. Pro sua roba & calceatura certitudinem eidem Ricardo assignavimus & providimus, de qua se non contentum arrogando & minas inferendo protestatur. Dominationem igitur vestram, omni qua possumus humilitate & devotione, requirimus, Quatinus pietate ducti, spiritu compassionis indigentia nostra miserere dignemini, quia indebitati sumus in Quingentis et XL libris Sterlingorum, præter multas et magnas liberationes, quæ quotidie deferuntur per diversos extra domum nostram. This Pope not content with these arrears, out of his insatiable avarice and rapin to carry on his Wars against the King of Aragon,<sup>a</sup> Hoc anno Dominus Papa Bonifacius Decimam omnium bonorum Ecclesiasticorum in Anglia, (and likewise in Ireland, as the b Annals of Ireland relate) per triennium usurpavit, as a Subsidie to the Church of Rome against her Enemies. Porro illis diebus (as Matthew Westminster complains) sal terræ, et caput bulgi in magnam hydropem ceciderunt: quanto enim plus pecuniarum (humorem nequam) hauriebant, tanto amplius eam sitiebant. Et quod iste de temporalitate, non sponte suam imminutum reliquerat, ille non coactus de spiritualitate contaminatum carpebat. What usurped Jurisdiction this avaritious bribe-taking Pope Boniface exercised this year over the Bishop of Chester, Walter de Langton the Kings Treasurer, and other Bishops elect in England, Matthew Westminster thus relates. * Dominus Walterus de Langtona Episcopus Cestrie & Thesaurarius Angliæ, apud Dominum Papam super variis facinoribus et facinorosis criminibus graviter diffamatus, responsurus in propria persona super eisdem coram Summo Pontifice citatur. Qui exhausta in Curia non modica pecunia, quia noverunt ipsum per multis bobem balde peraguerunt, tamen parum profecit. Remissus namque fuit ad Archiepiscopum Cantuariæ ut ipse in absentia sua, per certas personas purgationem sumeret accusari, et per eundem Walterum, negotii inscium, rescriberet Summo Pontifici, quid gestum fuerit, quid ob factum. Quid ob plura? sumpta purgatione sua per Archiepiscopum a laicis et clericis bonæ opinionis super aliquibus criminibus, et a viris religiosissimis magnæ famæ de reliquis, prout decuit hos et illos cognoscere, ad Papam iterum est reversus. Papa autem intelligens Purgationem Episcopi sagacem et ordinatam per Archiepiscopum sibi missam, Episcopum Walterum famæ præstinæ restitutum cum uberiori gratia remisit ad propriam. Porro Miles qui eum accusaverat Johannes, post non multum temporis, & ipse super homicidio & aliis facinoribus accusatur. Conscius vero sibi vendicat jus Ecclesiæ; Qui etsi sit uxoratus, ait se Diacolum fuisse priusquam eam duxisset. Tandem condemnatus, carceri Episcopali liberatur, in per dies quinque nec amplius superbiit. Sumat sibi ex eo speculum malitia laicalis, viros Ecclesiasticos accusare. Obierunt hoc anno Eliensis & Wygornienensis Episcopi, & electi sunt duo Monachi in loco ipsorum. Qui non inveniunt gratiam consecrationis ab Archiepiscopo Cantuariæ, ad Sedem Apostolicam persequuti sunt. Duo cum perbenissent discussio electionis utriusque ordine coram Papa, electio Wygornienensis est confirmata, Wygornienensis autem Monachi penitus est quassata. Dedit ergo Dominus Papa Episcopatum illum cuidam de Ordine Fratrum Minorum, by his own Papal Provision: to wit, to † William de Gainsborough, Sacri Palatii Lector Romæ. Et quia hanc in Concionibus & Scholasticis congressibus defendebat doctrinam, Papam non posse errare, neque a quoquam esse judicandum, licet mille Christianorum animas ad ozum detruserit, factus est a Bonifacio 8. erectabilissimo Romane sedis monstro Wygornienensis Episcopus, et Franciscanus prodigiosus Pontifex, as John Bale relates.

Sancto Patri in Christo & Domino reverendo R. Dei gratia Cantuar. Archiepiscopo, totius Anglia Primati, sui filii humiles & devoti, Thomas Prior & Conventus Bathon. salutem, & devotus obedientie & reverentie spiritus, cum omni honore debito tanto Patri. Ad petendum et recipiendum a vestra clementia sanctitatis, beneficium Absolutionis super Excommunicationis sententia quam incurrisse veremur, ex eo quod contra Constitutionem Sanctissimi Patris et Domini Bonifacii divina providentia Papae octavi editam, contra omnes qui collectas et orationes a Ministris, Punctis, seu Collectoribus Illustris Regis Anglia perhiberunt nolentes vel inhibiti, protectionem Domini Regis super hoc impetrantes recipientes; dilectum nobis in Christo Hugonem Godmer Praetorem Ecclesie nostrae Bathoniae Commonachum nostrum, nostrum in hiis constituimus Procuratorem. Dantes eidem liberam & plenam potestatem, vestra in hac parte recipiendi mandata, quae secundum Deum ad salutem animarum nostrarum iuxta tenorem, formam, vim et effectum mandati Apostolici super hoc vobis directi, nobis duxeritis injungenda, una cum potestate jurandi in animas nostras, secundum quod postulaverit ordo iuris. In cujus rei testimonium sigillo nostro communi signari fecimus hanc scripturam. Datum Capitulo nostro Bathon. 5 Idus Novembris, Anno Domini 1300.

Universis presentes literas inspecturis pateat evidenter, quod nos Thomas Prior Bathon. & ejusdem loci Conventus, ordinis Sancti Benedicti, Bathon. & Wellen. Diocesis, bona fide promittimus, et sub ppotheca omnium bonorum Monasterii nostri habemus, quod nos semper Romanae Ecclesiae et Domini Papae mandatis parebimus, super Excommunicationis et Interdicti sententiis quas incurrimus, pro eo quod dudum contra Constitutionis tenorem Sanctissimi Patris nostri Domini Bonifacii Papae octavi, Punctis seu Ministris Domini Regis Anglia subsidium de bonis nostris Ecclesiasticis contribuimus, propter vim et metum qui cadere poterit in constantes. In cujus rei testimonium, &c. Datum in Capitulo nostro Bathon. 5 Idus Novembris, Anno Domini 1300.

Universis presentes literas inspecturis, Robertus permissione divina Cantuar. Archiepiscopus, totius Anglia Primas, aeternam in Domino salutem. Literas venerabilis patris Domini Matthaei Dei gratia Portuensis & Sancti Rufinae Episcopi, Sanctissimi Patris Domini Bonifacii Papae 8. Pœnitentiarum, recepimus, tenorem qui sequitur continentes. Venerabili in Christo patri R. Dei gratia Archiepiscopo Cantuariensi, vel ejus Vicario in Spiritualibus, Frater Matthaeus miseratione divina Portuensis ac S. Rufinae Episcopus, salutem & sempiternam in Domino caritatem. Ex parte Prioris et Conventus Monasterii Bathonienensis, ordinis Sancti Benedicti, fuit propositum coram nobis, quod ipsi olim vi et metu qui cadere poterit in constantem, Ministris, Punctis, seu Collectoribus Illustris Regis Angliae, contra Constitutionem et tenorem Sanctissimi Patris et Domini, Domini Bonifacii divina providentia Papae octavi, nobiliter editae, contra tales, collectas et orationes sibi impositas persolverunt; propter quod Excommunicationis incurrunsententiam ex ipsius Constitutionis tenore in omnes et singulos contra facientes generaliter promulgatam: Et sic ligati in suis, non tamen in contemptum cladium, ministraverunt Ordinibus, et aliis divinis se ingererunt officiis, sicut prius. Tunc cum parati sint Sanctae Romanae Ecclesiae in omnibus obedire mandatis, supplicari fecerunt humiliter eis per Sedem Apostolicam salubriter prohiberi. Nos igitur ipsorum supplicationibus, quantum cum Deo possumus, libenter annuentes, auctoritate et mandato Domini Papae, cujus Pœnitentiarum curam gerimus, providentiae vestrae praesentium tenore committimus, quatinus si est ita, ipsos et eorum quemlibet a reatu excessus huiusmodi et excommunicatione quam propter hac incurrunsententiam, absolvas, iuxta formam Ecclesiae consuetam: Interdictum ab ipso Monasterio amovendo, et injuncta eorum cuilibet procul modo poenitentia saluari, et alia quae talibus debent et consueverunt injungi; quodque stabunt mandatis Ecclesiae, et facient illam poenitentiam, quam Sedes Apostolica eis duxerit injungendam; Super Irregularitate ex praemissa contracta dispensetis auctoritate et mandato praedictis, alio non obstante Canonico impedimento misericorditer Venerabili in Christo Patri Domino R. Dei gratia Cantuar. Archiepiscopo, totius Anglia Primati, suus filius devotus Jordanus, Vicarius Ecclesie de Weston juxta Bathon. obedientiam & reverentiam debitam cum honore. Gravi corporis zgritudine perpetua detentus, ad vestram venerabilem praesentiam accedere non valens, dilectum mihi in Christo N. Clericum, ad petendam meam absolutionem pro excommunicatione, quam contraxi pro protectione Regia quam recepi compulsus; necnon ad dispensationem super irregularitate, & quam contraxi in immiscendo me divinis sic ligatus, coram vobis meum constitui Procuratorem. Dans eidem potestatem liberam & plenam recipiendi mandatum vestrum, super his quae in mandato Apostolico super hoc vobis directo continentur; et jurandi in animam meam, et omnia facere alia vel facienda quae ad salutem animae meae, juxta dictum mandatum Apostolicum volueritis ordinare. In cujus rei testimonium sigillum meum, una cum sigillo Archidiaconi Bathon. praesentibus est appensum. Dat. apud Weston. 8 Idus Novembris, Anno Domini 1300.

No doubt all the rest of the Prelates, Abbots, Priors, Covents, Parsons, Vicars and Clergy of England purchased the like Absolutions, under the self-same hard terms and conditions, for obeying God and the King, against this Popes Antichristian Constitution; such Vassals were they to the Papal Chair.

This year I finde this exemplification of Pope Boniface his Bull for prolonging the Truce between the Kings of England and France, attested before the Archbishop of York, and Bishop of Covenry and Litchfield, entred in the * Patent and Almain Roll.

During the Negotiations of the Kings Ambassadors at Rome to settle a final Peace, the Kings Proctors sent to the King of France, concluded this temporary Truce between them, wherein the French King cunningly included the late King of Scots and the Scotish Nation, as his allies, by virtue of their former League with him, which they* had publicly abjured before King Edw. and his Nobles, thus published by King Philips Letters, which I found in the White Tower, with this brand of dislike prefixed to it.

These Letters Patents of King Philip concerning the Truce being brought to King Edward by his Messengers, the King before they were read, made a publike Protestation against the clauses that concerned the King of Scots and the Scottish Nation, thrust into them by the King of France in favour of the Scots, against his Commissioners wills and protestation, as dishonourable to his former Judgement and proceedings against them, and derogatory to his Sovereign Dominion over them and the Realm of Scotland, which Protestation he caused to be solemnly registered and drawn up by the Popes publike Notary, which I found in this Original Instrument in Parchment in the White Tower.

I find 2. or 3. distinct Records more in K. Edward the 3<sup>d</sup> his reign, wherein these Articles which concern the Scots are particularly recited, & extracted out of K. An. 28 E. 1. dicto Lombardo, quem invenit contra Scotos demercentem. Ostendit et igitur papale mandatum, cuius tenor fuit, ut Rex resisteret Scotos inquietare le cetero, quorum regio et personæ exemptæ specialiter suæ Capellæ, ut asseruit, pertinebant. Neque prout dicebat, esse poterat, quin Civitas Jerusalem suus Ethes protegeret, et confidentes in Domino sicut Mons Sion confoderet. Rex autem intellectus hiis apicibus, mox alta voce sic respondit; Per sanguinem (inquit) Dei propter Sion non tacebo, & propter Jerusalem non quiescam, dum spiritus fuerit in naribus meis; quia ius meum toti mundo cognitum toto posse defendam. Post aliquot dies Scoti freti Papali favore, superciliose mandaverunt Regi Angliæ, ut permitteret illos tranquille videre donec pares suos et Regem Franciæ consulissent; communicantes nisi faceret, quod Papa pro illis interponeret suas partes. Ad hac Rex indignando subrisit, dicens; Ex quo vos omnes et singuli mihi fecistis homagia tanquam præcipuo Domino Regni Scotiæ, putatis me tenendum per ampullosa mendacia, ut (tanquam carens vobis) ius quod in vos habeo prætermittam? Cavete ne de cetero coram me cum tali mandato comperatis, quod si feceritis, Dominum testor, a mari usque ad mare totam Scotiam devastabo: (An heroick answer.) E contra Scoti satis audacter offerunt, se in hac causa sanguinem suum fusuros pro defensione iustitiæ & patriæ libertatæ. Rex Angliæ (upon this occasion) direxit Nuncios ad Papam, Comitem videlicet Lincolniam, & Dominum Hugonem le Spencer, qui declararent injurias sibi magnas per Scotos, & eorum falsitatem manifestarent. Insuper & Dominum Papam deprecantur, ne mendacii fabricatoribus, Scotis videlicet veritatem ostenditibus prociptis et homicidiis suum aperiret de cetero protectionis, quorum fraudulenta falsaque persuasio Papalem sollicitudinem circumbenerat fraudulenter. Papa vero cuius stomachus a corruptione Scotorum nondum gestus fuerat, etsi nosset iustam petitionem Regis, tamen preces armat et Regi mandat, ut sui contemplatione, Scotis treugas indulgeat, à die Omnium Sanctorum usque ad Pentecosten; quod & factum est.

Soon after, as <sup>a</sup> Walsingham, <sup>b</sup> Mat. Westm. str., and <sup>c</sup> Henry de Knyghton story, Eodem anno Papa Bonifacius per Scotos informatus, direxit literas Regi Angliæ secundarias, in quibus asseruit, Regnum Scotiæ ad ius Romanæ Ecclesiæ pertinere, Regemque Angliæ subjectionem ejus, contra Deum et iustitiam, et in præiudicium Sedis Apostolicæ vindicare. (against his own concession but the year before, upon the delivery of John Baliol to his Legate, whereof I found two special Records in the White Tower) allegans subscriptas rationes. Primò, quia cum Rex Henricus pater istius obtinisset auxilium in terra sua contra Simonem de Monte forti à Rege Scotorum Alexandro, ne hoc auxilium iure subjectionis ejuslibet, aut debiti petiti, aut præstitum putaretur, idem Henricus per literas suas patres recognovit, non ex debito recipisse, sed ex gratia speciali. Item, ad coronationem huius Regis vocatus per literas, ut ei præsentiam amicabilem in tantis solemnibus tanquam amicus exhiberet, non venit ex debito, sed ex gratia speciali. Insuper pro terra de Tindale & Penreth in regno Angliæ positis, cum Rex Scotiæ ad præsentiam Regis Angliæ se personaliter contulisset, eidem fidelitatem impensurus pro eisdem terris, tanquam in Anglia sitis, non ut Rex Scotiæ, nec pro Regno Scotiæ, fidelitatem eandem exhibuit, quia palam coram protestatum erat, quod pro Regno Scotiæ fidelitatem Regi Angliæ facere non debebat. Item, quod prædictus Alexander Rex reliquit puellam heredem, nomine Margaretam, nepem Regis Angliæ, tunc minoris ætatis, cuius custodia non ad Regem Angliæ, velut ad Dominum Supremum pervenit, sed ad certos ejusdem Regni Scotiæ Proceres, ad hoc electos. Redarguebat etiam Papa Regem, eo quod post mortem dicti Alexandri Regis, Scotos tanquam acerbalos et ducis suffragium non habentes, ipsos per vim sibi subjugavit et metum, in præiudicium et gravamen non modicum Romanæ Ecclesiæ. Adjiciens, quod cum Dominus Papa officium Legationis assensu committit erequendum in regno Angliæ, causa solutionis Decimæ, vel etiam quavis alia causa rationabili, et huius Legatio literis et privilegio speciali Apostolicæ Sedis ad dictum Regnum Scotiæ se non extendat. Resistendum est & obfistendum huiusmodi Legationi, prout tempora felici recordationis Adriani contigit evidenter. Nam Legatus ipse ad præfatum Regnum Scotiæ aliquatenus admissus non extitit, donec per literas Apostolicas speciales, sibi Legationis officium fuit in eodem commissum. Item addidit, quod idem Regnum duciam obtinemus, quod regalis sublimitas verba nostra benignè recipiat, diligenter intelligat, efficaciter prosequatur. Sanè ad Celsitudinem Regiam potuit pervenisse, & in tua libro memorie nequaquam ambigimur contineri, qualiter * ab antiquis temporibus regnum Scotia pleno iure pertinuit, et adhuc pertinere dinoscitur ad Ecclesiam supradictam; quodque illud sicut accepimus, progenitoribus tuis regni Anglia Regibus, sibi tibi feudale non extitit nec existit. Qualiter etiam, claræ memoriæ Henricus Rex Anglia, pater tuus, tempore discordiæ sive belli inter ipsum & quendam Simonem de Montforti suosque fautores & complices suscitata, à recolendæ memoriæ Alexandro ejusdem Scotia Rege, ac ipsius Henrici genero auxilium sibi petiti exhiberi. Et ne hujusmodi auxilium iure cussu debet subjectionis aut debiti petiti seu præstitum notaretur, præfatus Henricus eidem Regi Scotia suas patentes duxit literas concedendas, per eas firmiter recognoscens, prædictum auxilium recepisse, vel se recepturum duntaxat de gratia speciali. Præterea, cum successu temporis præfati Regis Scotia, tui sorori, tunc viventis, in tua coronationis solemnibus habere præsentiam, non ex debito, sed tantum ex gratia intendebas. Et cum etiam Rex ipse pro Tindalia ac de Poynerre, terris in regno Anglia positis, se ad præsentiam tuam personaliter contulisset, tibi fidelitatem solitam impensurus, idem in præfatione fidelitatis hujusmodi, multis tunc præsentibus, vivæ vocis oraculo publicè declaravit, quod pro terris ejusdem sitis tantum in Anglia, non ut Rex Scotia, neque pro Scotia regno fidelitatem exhibeat eandem, quinimo ipsam exitit protestatus, quod pro regno ipso tibi fidelitatem præstare seu facere aliquatenus non debebat, utpote tibi penitus non subiecto. Tuque sic oblatam fidelitatem hujusmodi admisisti. E tua quoque non creditur excidisse memoria, qualiter eodem Rege de medio quondam sublato, Margareta puella, nepte tua, tunc minoris ætatis, hærede sibi relicta, non ad te velut ad Dominum perbenit custodia memorati, sed ceteri ejusdem regni Proceres, ad ejus custodiam extiterunt electi, quodque pessimum dispensatione ab Apostolica sede obtenta super matrimonio contrahendo inter dilectum filium nobilem virum Edwardum natum tuum et Margaretam prædictam dum haberet, si ad id Procerum dicti regni accederet vel haberetur assensus, tu eisdem Proceribus per tua scripta cavisse dinosceris, priusquam vellent hujusmodi matrimonio consentire, quod regnum ipsum penitus liberum, nullique subiectum, seu quobis modo submissum in perpetuo remaneret, quodque in prædictum seu talem ipsius statum restitueretur omnino, si ex hujusmodi matrimonio contrahendo liberos non extare contingeret, ac nomen et honorem, ut prius, pariter retineret, tam in suis sibi servandis legibus et præficiendis officialibus dicti regni, quam Parliamentis tenendis, tractandis causis in ipso, et nullis ejus incolis extra illud ad iudicium evocandis. Et quod in * tuis patentibus literis inde confectis hæc plenius & ferrius contineri noscantur. Præfata insuper Margareta de præsentis luce substracta, & tandem super successione dicti regni Scotia suborta dissensionis materia inter partes, ipsius regni Proceres, metuentes sibi dictoque regno posse occasione hujusmodi præjudicium generari, non aliter ad tuam præsentiam extra ipsius accedere limites voluerunt, nisi per te patenti scripto caveretur eisdem, quod id non fiebat ex debito, sed ex gratia speciali; Quodque nullum exinde ipsius regni libertatibus posse dependium imminere. Et licet (ut dicitur) super statu ejusdem regni Scotia, ac ejus prius habita libertate, regno ipso tunc carente præsidio Defensoris, per ipsius regni Proceres, tunc velut acephalos, et ducis vel aurigæ suffragium non habentes, sibi per illum cui præfati regni regimen, licet indebitè, diceris commississe, contra morem solum aliqua fuerint hætenus innobata, ea tamen, utpote per vim et metum, quæ cadere poterant in constantem * illicita, nequaquam debent de jure subsistere, aut in ejusdem regni præjudicium redundare. Cæterum nobis nullatenus venit in dubium, quin potius certi sumus, quod cum Apostolicæ sedis præcelsæ auctoritas per suas literas in Anglia ac Scotia regnis simul alicui legationis committit officium erequendum, vel pro quavis causa, quam rationabilem reputat, Decimarum solutionem indicit, hujusmodi Apostolicæ literæ ad præfatum Scotia regnum se aliquatenus non extendunt, speciali prædictæ sedis præbileo Scotia indulto penitus obfistente, prout tempore felicis recordationis Adriani Papæ Prædecessoris nostri, tunc Sancti Adriani Diaconi Cardinalis, & per ipsius Sedis literas simul in regnis ipsis legati, cum quo familiariter tunc eramus, contigit evidenter. Nam Legatus ipse ad præfatum regnum Scotia aliquatenus admissus non extitit, donec per Apostoli venerandas reliquias, non sine superni numinis grandi dono acquisitum, et conversum eritit ad fidei catholicæ unitatem. Qualiter etiam antiquis temporibus Eborum Archiepiscopus, qui tunc erat, mota per eum super jure Metropolitico adversus Prælatos Scotie quæstione, in qua dictum antiquitus fuisse commemorat; Memento quod sumus tui, ut cætera quæ inde sequuntur silentio relinquamus, pro se sententiam obtinere nequivit, quamvis alia plura & varia, quæ in hac parte rationabiliter proponenda se offerunt, ex quibus ad hæc tibi scribenda movemur, prætereat calamus, ne inde forsitan sensibus Regiis tardium generetur. Hæc profecto (sibi charissime) infra claustra pectoris sollicite considerare te convenit, & attendere diligenter, ex quibus nulli in dubium veniat, regnum Scotie prælatum ad præfatam Romanam Ecclesiam pertinere, quod tibi nec licet nec licuit, in ipsius Ecclesiæ ac multorum præjudicium, per violentiam subjugare, tuæque subicere ditioni. Cum autem, sicut habet fidedigna, & nostris jam pluries auribus inculcata relatio, famæque præcurrentis afflictiis divulgatur, tu præmissa (ut debueras) non attendens, neque debita consideratione discutiens, et ad occupandum et subjugandum ditioni Regiæ regnum ipsum, tunc Regis auxilio destitutum, vehementer aspirans, et tandem ad id exercens potentia tuæ vires, venerabilibus fratribus nostris Roberto Glasguensi & Marco Soderensi Episcopis, et nonnullis Clericis et aliis personis Ecclesiasticis dicti regni (ut dicitur) captis et carceralibus vinculis traditis; quorum aliquos (sicut asseritur) squalor Carceris violentis extingit: Ac etiam occupatis Castris, et (prout fertur) Monasteriis, aliisque Religiosis locis quampluribus dirutis, seu destructis, ac dampnis gravibus ejusdem regni habitatoribus irrogatis, in ejusdem regni partibus Officiales Regios posuisti, qui Prælatos, ceteros Clericos, et Ecclesiasticas ac etiam Seculares dicti regni personas, multimodis perturbare molestiis et afflictionibus variis et diversis impetere non verentur, in divina Majestatis offensam, Sedis memoratæ contemptum, Regiæ salutis et famæ dispendium, Juris injuriam, et grave Scandalum fidelium plurimorum. Regalem itaque Magnificentiā rogamus et hortamur attente, et obsecramus in eo, qui est omnium vera salus, quatinus solerter attendens, quod ex debito Pastoralis Officii nostris humeris incumbens, ad conservanda et gubernanda sollicite bona et jura omnia Ecclesiæ supradictæ tenemur, quodque homini plus quam Deo deferre non possumus nec debemus, prædictos Episcopos, Clericos, et personas Ecclesiasticas, quos adhuc Carcer Regius tenet inclusos, pro Divina et Apostolica Sedis, ac nostra reverentia (sublato difficultatis et dilationis objectu) benigne restitui facias prædictæ libertati, dictosque Officiales de regno Scotie reboces memorato. Sic te in hiis prout speramus et cupimus promptis et efficacibus studiis habiturum, ut apud cœlestem Regem pro minimis grādia rependentem, non immerito reddaris acceptior, gratior haberis, et præter laudis humanæ præconium tibi proinde probenturum, Apostolicæ sedis favorem et gratiam possis uberius promereri. Si vero in eodem regno Scotia, vel aliqua ejus parte jus aliquod habere te offeris, volumus, quod tuos Procuratores et Runcios ad hoc specialiter constitutos, cum omnibus iuribus et munimentis tuis, hujusmodi negotium contingentibus, infra sex menses a receptione præsentium numerandos, ad nostram præsentiam mittere non omittas; cum parati sumus tibi tanquam dilecto filio plene super præmissis exhibere iustitiæ complementum, et Jura, (si qua habes) inviolabiliter observare. Nos enim nichilominus extunc lites, quæstiones, et controverfias quaslibet inter te denique et regnum Scotie, ac Prælatos, Clericos, et personas Seculares ejusdem subortas, et quæ possunt in posterum ex quibusvis causis prædictis eroriri, totumque negotium prædictæ contingens, aut aliquod eorundem, ad cognitionem et determinationem sedis ejusdem, præsentium tenore reducimus, et etiam reservamus. Sanctissimo in Christo Patri & Domino suo reverendo, si placet, Domino Benifacio, divina providentia Sacrosanctæ Romanæ ac universalis Ecclesiæ Summo Pontifici, suus filius devotus Robertus permissione divina Cantuariensis Ecclesiæ Minister humilis, pedum oscula beatorum, cum promptitudine iuxta posse parendi mandatis papalibus ac præceptis. Mandatum sanctæ & reverendæ paternitatis vestræ sub Bulla plumbea nuper recepi, tenorem continens infrascriptum. Bonifacius Episcopus, &c. (de verbo ad verbum recitando totam Bullam proximo præcedentem.) Cujus delator quasdam alias literas Apostolicas nobili Principi Domino Edwardo Dei gratiâ Regi Angliæ illustri directas, et per me et injuncto paternitatis vestræ præsentandas incontinenti exhibuit, quasi sub eodem contextu. Quo quidem mandato vestro, una cum literis infrascriptis reverenter admissis, ac statim coram me recitato, præparavi sartinnuculas, vestitus & sumptus, extunc de die in diem, & familiam ordinavi ad veniendum pro expeditione & expeditione eorum, quæ mihi per vos mandabantur ad ipsum Dominum Regem, qui tunc agebat in remotioribus partibus regni sui, versus Scotiam distantibus, à loco ubi mandatum vestrum receperam, per viginti vel circiter moderatas dietas. Et antequam venirem continuatis dietis cum omni festinatione ad Civitatem Carleolum, quæræ in Marchia Scotiæ, ingressus suis idem Rex cum exercitu suo partem regni Scotiæ, quæ vocatur Galvedia. Cumque diligenter explorando recepissem à viris fidedignis, secularibus & religiosis, ipsius patriæ notitiam habentibus, quod ad Regem usque ad Kriandbright, in arduissimis locis Galwedix, mihi tutus non patebat accessus; tamen propter Scotos sine capitis regimine existentes, & alios latrunculos, pradas & sanguinem Anglorum facientes, qui cum duce exercitus eorundem occupaverant media loca inter Carleolum et ipsum Dominum Regem, distantem ab eadem Civitate serè per quadraginta Milliaria, cum propter vestitus & hospitii defectum, qui in itinere medio, vastata tota patriâ, reperire vel per eam asportare nequibant; Ego per obedientiæ necessitatem ex parte una, et per tanta pericula in tam longinquis partibus de mea Diocesi & Provincia, quæ ex altera nimium non urgebant arctus, maxime non invento inter Seculares vel religiosos quoquam, qui adventus mei causam ipsis Scotis verbotenus, vel per literas meas propter mortis periculum auderet deferre, et mihi securum conductum petere ab eisdem; aliud remedium prout potui exquirens, direxi duos de familiaribus meis ad Dominum Regem prædictum, cum literis meis, navigio per quosdam periculosos transitus maris, significans sibi per eandem adventum meum & ejus causam, et petens, quod propter reverentiam sedis Apostolicæ, cuius eram nuncius sibi, significaret ubi, qualiter, et quando, ad eum tute accedere possem propter vicinarum discrimina, quæ sibi per eandem meas literas nunciavi. Cujus responsio ab eisdem Nunciis, non minima pericula in mari & itinere eundo & redeundo evasis, per literas Regiæ mihi delato, quibus continebatur, quod ipse Dominus Rex nihil (cui pro mihi fecit ad vitanda dicta pericula, quàm quod cum Domina Regina uxore sua, pro qua miserat, venirem ad partes Gerewikes, ad locum ubi disposuit eodem Domina obviare, deficiente navigio, quo una cum equis et familiaribus meis necessariis vebi possem per mare, quod dum nuncii mei transferunt tam periculosè versus Regem, ventis etiam quasi continuis validis & contrariis existentibus, morabar in confiniis Scotiæ, quærando de loco in locum vestitus sufficientiam potius quam abundantiam, circa sex septimanas securioris progressus ad Regem opportunitatem non tam dispendiosè quàm anxie expectando. Denique cum audirem diligentius explorando, quod idem Dominus Rex cum exercitu suo in redeundo versus Castrum de Caerlandrock, quod prius ceperat, in Scotia fixisset tentoria, juxta novam Abbathiam de Duzques in Galvedia, malens periculo me, meos ac mea erponere, quàm in tam longinquis partibus quodammodo vacuis, extra meam Diocesium & Provinciam diutius sic languere, latitans in quibusdam locis secretis juxta mare, quod dividit Angliam & Galvediam, captata temporis opportunitate in refluxu maris, auctus ab hiis, quos non oportebat via transitus ignorasse, transivi per quatuor meatus aquarum maritimos cum equis et phaleris, nomine magis (ratione profunditatis aquarum) quam litoris & vivorum sabulorum introitu & exitu periculosos; & quasi inopinatè veni die Veneris proximo post festum sancti Bartholomæi Apostoli, ultimo jam transacto, ad dictum Regem, in medio exercitu suo tunc in prandio existentem & quia non potuit, ut dicebat, eo die vacare, mandavit mihi illo die in sero per duos de majoribus Comitibus, qui tunc assistebant ei, quod in crastino, videlicet Sabbato sequenti audi-

Adveniente igitur ipso die Sabbati coram devotissimo juveni Domino Edwardo filio dicti Regis, Comitibus, Baronibus, & aliis Militibus sui exercitus in magna multitudine confluentibus, ac dicto Domino Regi assistentibus, recitato mandato vestro predicto mihi transmissio, literas Sancte Paternitatis vestre prefato Domino Regi directas, auctoritate ejusdem mandati presentavi eidem, quas ipse Dominus Rex reverenter receptens, eas publice legi coram omnibus, et in Gallica lingua fecerat patenter exponi. Quibus auditis patienter à singulis, antinabi ipsum et induci modis quibus potui et scivi, quod vestris exhortationibus, quoad ea quæ in dictis literis proponebantur, pareret in omnibus reberenter. Postmodum me secedente ab eo cum Clericis meis ad mandatum suum, dum deliberaret super hiis cum dictis Proceribus suis, ac demum revocato, respondis mihi coram eisdem per interpositam personam sub hac forma.

* Responsio Regis Archiepiscopo Cantuar. ad literas Apostolicas.

* Mat. Westm.
P. 426, 427.

Domine Archiepiscopo, fecisti ex parte superioris & reverendi patris Domini Pape, quandam monitionem, contingentem statum & jus regni Scotiæ; verum quia consuetudo est Regni Angliæ, quod in negotiis contingentibus statum ejusdem Regni, requiratur consilium omnium quos res tangit, ac instans negotium Regni Scotiæ tangit statum et jus Regni Angliæ, pluresque sunt Prelati, Comites, Barones, et alii Regni Angliæ Proceres absentes, qui non sunt nec fuerunt in isto exercitu, quos dictum contingit negotium; quibus etiam inconsultis respondere non poterit dicto summo Patri nostro aut vobis finaliter; In hac parte intendit Dominus noster Rex super contentis in literis dicti patris, quam citius poteris commodè, eosdem absentes & nunc presentes simul consulere, & cum eisdem deliberatius tractare, ac per Nuncios proprios eidem Summo Pontifici super hiis de communi eorum consilio respondere. Quod quidem responsum idem Dominus Rex sic in sua presentia nomine suo factum ratificavit, & etiam expressè approbavit. Dum igitur cum tali responso coram tanta multitudinem Magnatum & aliorum fidedignorum mihi facto, licentiatum diversissem ab eo, & versus propria revertissem, audiivi, quod idem Dominus Rex statim infra quatuordecim post recessum meum, rediit cum exercitu suo ad partes Angliæ, & singulis quasi de exercitu suo ad propria cum equis & armis remeantibus, idem Dominus Rex exercitu sic disperso, paucis enim comitantibus & sicum retentis, perhennare disposuit, ut dicebatur communiter, apud quandam Abbatiam, qua vocatur Holmcoltram, in confiniis Scotiæ super mare. Et sic mandatum vestrum cum omni qua potui diligentia, sum reberenter in omnibus executus. Valeat semper & crescat in Domino ad sua Ecclesia regimen Apostolica Celsitudo vestra. Datum apud Ottesford 8 Idus Octobris, Anno Dom. 1300.

Thus we see how over-diligent and officious this Archbishop was in executing the Popes imperious Antichristian Mandates, in high derogation of his own Kings Crown, Dignity, and Sovereign Dominion over Scotland, which this Pope laid claim to by a false pretended antient Right, as a part of St. Peters Patrimony, and the Church of Romes Demefn.

The King upon the receipt of this Bull from the Pope, delivered to himself by the Archbishop, (on which I finde this Memorandum endorsed; Memorandum quod Dominus Rex tradidit Domino J. de Langeton Cancellario suo apud Northampton. 24 die Decembris, anno regni sui 29. Bullam quam Archiepiscopus Cantuariensis tulit eidem Domino Regi apud Cartanoks in Scotia, cujus tenor Bulla continetur hic infra;) upon his return into England out of Scotland, summoned a Parliament at Lincoln, in Octabis Sancti Hilarii, to advise with his Prelates, Nobles and Commons how to defend the Rights of his Crown, against this New Papal claim: In the Writs of Summons to the Archbishops, Bishops, Abbots and Priors thereunto, as well as in those to the Earls and Barons, he inserted this memorable clause; Paxime cum ipsi ad observandum et manutenuendum jura Regis et Coronæ nostræ prefatæ una nobiscum, jaramenti vinculo sint affecti. Moreover he issued special Writs to several Deans, Archdeacons, and other learned Scholars to appear at Lincoln, to advise with the Lawyers and others of his Counsil concerning his antient Right to the Realm of Scotland, penned in this forme.

REX dilectis sibi in Christo Cancellario et Universitati Oxon. salutem. Quia super iure et dominio quæ Nobis in regno Scotiae competit, &c. (verbatim, as in the precedent Writ.) Eodem modo mandatum est Cancellario et Universitati Cantabr. quod mittant ad dictum Parlamentum duo vel tres de discretioribus et magis in iure scripto expertis Universitatis prædictæ, &c. Upon reading the Popes Bull, there were divers debates among the Kings Council and Parliament, how the King should proceed in answering the Popes Bull, or whether he should return any answer at all thereto; and how he might avoyd the perils and difficulties that might ensue upon his proceedings therein; as this memorable parchment Roll I lately found in the White Tower (then drawn up and presented to the King and his Council) will inform us: containing reasons pro & con- tra to 5. Quæres then propounded and debated concerning it; the first whereof, with the beginning of the second are torn or eaten off from this remaining part, which I shall present you with. It seems the second Quære then propounded, was; Whether the King should send any Messengers to the Pope to declare and defend his right to the Realm of Scotland? to which these Reasons pro & con- tra were propounded and engrossed in this Roll. The Reasons against it therein remaining, are these.

decernit irritum et inane si secus, ac. per quæ videtur interdicere manum militarem in subditos et rebelles regni Scotiæ, et auferre potestatem jurisdictionem, coactionem in eisdem iustitiam faciendi, et sua facta et jura regalia annullare.

Item, cum Papa asserit, in libro memoriarum Regis contineri, ipsius regnum Scotiæ ad Romanam Ecclesiam pertinere pleno jure; ac etiam concludit, dictum regnum in bonis seu de bonis Ecclesiæ Romanæ esse; periculosum esset apud Sedem Apostolicam eorum Papam litigare; maxime cum Rex contra Papam (qui Papa se asserit judicem et partem) nullum in Curia Romana consilium vel auxilium inveniret. Et periculosum esset ibi Instrumenta et Punimenta deferre, quæ etiam et si valida essent, ea contra se et suam assertionem forsitan nullatenus approbaret.

Si verò non mittat Rex Angliæ secundum formam mandati prædicti, deliberandum est cujusmodi possent ex hoc pericula evenire. Tamen videtur quibusdam, quod si illud verbum (volumus, &c.) importat vim denunciationis, tunc erit his effectus, quod Dominus Rex Angliæ prosequatur jus suum infra tempus præfixum; alioquin cedat ab actione, ut, sicut destitutus a possessione, excludatur a jure. Si verò illa verba (volumus, &c.) cadant in vim citationis vel citationis (ut quidam opinantur) tunc creditur posse evenire, ut sit Rex non mittente juxta formam litterarum prædictarum, contracta contumacia vel mittetur Ecclesia Romana in possessione regni Scotiæ, vel excluso Rege Angliæ et benedictione juris regni Scotiæ, per decretum declarabit, regnum Scotiæ ad Romanam Ecclesiam pertinere, vel ad alias pœnas Domino Regi præjudiciales, tam spirituales quam temporales saltem, de facto usurpando jurisdictionem, potest extendere manus suas in personam scilicet vel in rem; præsertim cum Papa offerat eidem Regi plene exhibere iustitiæ complementum, et jura si quæ habeat irrevocabiliter observare: Unde Rege non mittente, forsitan Papa reputaret Regem oblata sibi iustitiæ et auctoritatis sedis Apostolicæ contemptorem, et de observatione etiam jurium suorum similiter oblata nullo curare.

Circiterium: An sit mittendum ad declinandum judicium, cognitionem, jurisdictionem et forum; vel ad excusandum, quare non mittat secundum formam mandati? Deliberandum est ex quibus causis compunctibus Rex possit sic declinare vel excusare, et quæ possent ex his pericula evenire. Et videtur quibusdam, quod si Rex declinet Papam, quod non sit Juxta suus in temporalibus, quia Papa non debet judicare de Laico feodo, et Papa asserat Regem Angliæ esse Vassallum suum; posset forsitan esse periculum, quia Papa reputans eum negasse vassallagium suum, præsumperet in pronuntiationes Domino Regi præjudiciales super feodo, quod dicit eum tenere ab Ecclesia, et forte declinationem illam non admitteret, cum asserat regnum Scotiæ ad Romanam Ecclesiam pleno jure pertinere, et sic ipsum regnum sibi subesse in jurisdictione temporalis. Et si sic declinaret, quodammodo sibi attribueretur cognitio in dubio, an sua sit jurisdictio, cum unus asserat, et alius neget; nec est verisimile, quod pronuntiaret contra assertionem suam bullatam, immo potius pro eadem; et ulterius ad alia deteriora et Regi præjudicialia procederet.

Item, cum Papa reducat ad se omnes quæstiones et lites exortas inter Regem Angliæ et regnum Scotiæ, et quascunque personas de regno eodem; et in præcedentibus litteris Apostolicis narretur de injusta incarceratione Episcoporum, Prælatorum et Clericorum Scotiæ, et de destructione Monasteriorum et aliorum locorum Religiosorum regni ejusdem, et aliis excessibus et damnis datis, Rege comparente eorum Papam per Procuratores et Nuncios ad hoc specialiter deputatos, sicut in præfatis litteris Apostolicis continetur, quislibet in regno Scotiæ (ut videtur) posset contra Regem denunciare prædicta, et accusare eum de eisdem. Et sic haberet necessitas omnibus de se conquerentibus respondere in Curia memorata.

Circa quartum: Si vero se excuset, quia jura Coronæ suæ non potest in judicium deducere sine consensu Procerum et Magnatum regni sui; quodammodo videretur eum reputare Judicem suum.

Item, si excuset se, quia Proceres regni sui positi ad rationem, concorditer dicunt se nolle permitttere Regem jura Coronæ suæ, ad quorum conservationem et defensionem juramenti vinculo sunt affecti, contra libertates, leges et consuetudines regni Angliæ eorum Papam in judicium deducere, nec jus et possessionem suam regni Scotiæ, quæ clara sunt et certa, in judicium deducere, nec in dubium ac scrupulum quæstionis ponere quoquo modo. Et quod ipsi Proceres illud idem ita scribent: De liberetur an sit expediens; quia timetur, quod Papa reputaret istam excusationem frivolam, et procederet forsitan ad penas p̄judiciales p̄scriptas spirituales et temporales, in personam scilicet et rem, supponendo se esse suum judicem competentem.

Circa quantum verò, videlicet de mittendo informationes correspondentes literis Apostolicis, si hic videatur Consilio expediens, deliberetur de modo mittendis an per Puncium cum literis de credentia, qui extrajudicialiter p̄dictas informationes Papæ seriatiim exponat, et de periculis qui possent inde contingere. Et videtur quibusdam periculum esse, quod cum laicum sit mandatum credentia et incertum, per interrogationes subtiles et astutas faciendas a Papa, posset Puncius hujusmodi injuncta sibi excedere, et aliqua p̄judicialia forte fatari.

Item, cum Puncius credentiam plenam habens, quandoque major sit omni procuratore propter generalitatem credentia, posset forsitan compelli respondere et alia dicere quam sibi erant injuncta, quorum nulla vel difficiles valde foret rebocatis in futurum.

Item, sic mittendo Puncium cum talibus informationibus, sus quod habet in regno Scotiæ contingentibus, videretur parere quodammodo, cum ibi contineatur, quod mittat nuncios cum juribus, &c. et infra certum tempus; Nec protestationes facto contraria valerent.

Item, forsitan Papa tali Puncio talia proponenti p̄figeret terminum, vel Regi in persona sua, ad offendendum et probandum jura et allegata coram eo; vel forsitan si p̄posita insufficientia et tanquam probata resiceret et cassaret, et ulterius ad p̄judicialia procederet contra Regem et regnum Scotiæ.

Item, si mittantur informationes per literas Regias sub Regis sigillo, si videretur expediens, consilio deliberetur de periculis quæ possent accidere. Et timeatur, quod Papa informationes hujusmodi et literas tanquam insufficientia documenta et munimenta reputabit; et ob hoc procedens ad alia, pronuntiabit aliqua p̄judicialia, ut supra. Et cavendum est summopere, ne aliquid obscurum, scrupulosum, dubium, vel p̄judiciale, quod possit contra Regem interpretari, in dictis literis inferantur; pro eo quod ipse literæ, si mittantur ad Papam, ad perpetuam rei memoriam remanebunt.

Item, sic mittendo et informando, videretur quodammodo parere mandato et voluntati Domini Papæ, et sibi obedire in temporalibus, et ei tribuere facultatem examinandi jura sua in eisdem informationibus sibi missa; et forsitan Papa decerneret Regem fore hocandum, ad docendum et ostendendum jura in hujusmodi literis comprensa et allegata.

Si vero Rex Angliæ nullo modo compareat nec mittat Procuratorem, nec Puncios, nec informationes extrajudiciales, nec se excuset, nec judicium declinet, tamen quia literæ Apostolicæ non videntur habere hinc citationis nec monitionis, nec ipsum Regem artare ad mittendum, prout in ipsis literis continetur; p̄cipue cum Papa non reputetur Index in Laico secundo; tamen quia etiam hujusmodi literæ aspera, insolita, et inaudita, ac juri communi contraria videntur continere, (in quo casu etiam, etsi Papa esset Index competente, videretur secunda jussio expectanda) tunc forsitan Papa contra Regem, tanquam contra contumacem et indefensum, ad pronuntiationes, p̄clusiones, et juris Ecclesiæ Romanæ declarationes, et ad alia procederet p̄judicialia, prout supra.

After mature, serious debate, and consideration of these Questions and Reasons pro & contra in the Parliament at Lincoln, Rex Apostolica literis ex deliberato apud Lincolniam convocato Concilio, pro jure suo declarando, literas hujus tenoris rescripsit, (inrolled in perpetuam rei memoriam in the Records in the Tower, and registred at large to posterity, by <sup>b</sup> Matthew Westminster, <sup>c</sup> Thomas Walsingham, <sup>d</sup> Henry de Knyghton, and more briefly by <sup>e</sup> others.

An. 29 E. 1. *n*anda sanctæ paternitatis vestræ conscientia vobis transmittimus exhibenda. Altissimus inspector cordium, * nostræ scrinio memoriz indelebili stylo novit inscribi, quod Antecessores et Progenitores nostri, Reges Angliæ jure superioris et directi domini ab antiquissimis retro temporibus Regno Scotia, et * ipsius Regibus, in temporalibus et annexis eisdem præstiterunt, et ab eisdem Regibus pro regno Scotia, et ejusdem regni Proceribus, a quibus habere volebant, ligea homagia et fidelitatis juramenta receperunt: nos Juris et domini possessionem continuantes hujusmodi, pro tempore nostro, eadem * tam a Rege Scotia, quam ab ipsis regni Proceribus recepinus: quinimo tanta juris et domini prærogativa super regnum Scotia et ejusdem Reges gaudebant, quod regnum ipsum suis fidelibus conferrebant, Reges etiam ex justis causis amovebant, et constituerunt sub se loco ipsorum alios regnuros, quæ proculdubio ab antiquo notoria fuerunt et existunt *; licet aliud fortè paternis auribus per pacis amulos & rebelliones filios fuerit falsa insinuatione suggestum; quorum machinosa & imaginaria figmenta vestra providentia, quæsumus, aspernetur. (Which Maib. Westminster and Walsingham thus relate, Licet aliud forsitan paternis vestris auribus, &c. suggestum fuerit à quorum machinosi & imaginariis figmentis, ut vestræ Sanctitatis oculus avertatur, suppliciter quæsumus, & paternam clementiam & excellentiam devotis affectibus exoramus, ut brevitatis causa, gestis antiquorum temporum salvis, quædam exempli causa tangamus.) * Sub temporibus itaque Ely & Samuelis Prophetæ, viz. quidam strenuus & insignis, Brutus nomine, de genere Trojanorum, post excidium urbis Troje, cum multis nobilibus Trojanorum, applicuit in quandam Insulam, tunc Albion vocatam, à Gigantibus inhabitatam, quibus sua & suorum devictis potentia & occisis, eam nomine suo Britanniam; sociosque suos Britones appellavit, & ædificavit Civitatem, quam Troinovantium nuncupavit, quæ modo Londonia nominatur. Et postea regnum suum tribus filiis suis divisit, scilicet Locrino primogenito illam partem Britannia, quæ nunc Angliæ dicitur; & Albanacto secundo natu, illam partem quæ tunc Albania à nomine Albanacti, nunc vero Scotia, nuncupatur; Et Cambro filio minori partem illam, nomine suo tunc Cambriam vocatam, quæ nunc Wallia vocatur; reservata Locrino seniori Regia dignitate. Itaque biennio post mortem Bruti applicuit in Albania quidam Rex Hunorum nomine Humber, & Albanactum fratrem Locrini occidit: quo audito, Locrinus Rex Britonum persecutus est eum, qui fugiens submersus est in flumine, quod de nomine suo Humber vocatur, & sic Albania revertitur ad dictum Locrinum. Item Dunwalle Rex Britonum Scatarum Regem Scotia sibi rebellem occidit, & terram ejus in deditionem recepit: Item duo filii Dunwallonis, scilicet Belinus & Brennius inter se regnum patris sui dividerunt: Ita quod Belinus senior Diadema Insulæ cum Britannia, Wallia & Cornubia possideret; Brennius vero, sub eo regnaturus, Scotiam acceperet: (Petebat enim Trojana consuetudo, † ut dignitas hæreditatis primogenito perveniret.) Item, Arturus Rex Britonum Princeps famosissimus, Scotiam sibi rebellem subjecit, & penè totam gentem delevit; & postea quendam nomine * Anguselum, in Regem Scotia præfecit. Et cum postea idem Rex Arturus apud Civitatem Legionum festum faceret celeberrimum, interfuerunt ibidem omnes Reges sibi subiecti; inter quos † Anguselus Rex Scotia servitium pro regno Scotia exhibens debitum, gladium Regis Arturi detulit ante ipsum; & * successe omnes Reges Scotiæ omnibus Regibus Britonum † fuere subiecti. Succedentibus autem Regibus Angliæ in prædicta Insula, & ipsius Monarchiam & dominium obtinentibus, subsequenter (An. Gratiz 907.) Edwardus dictus senior filius Elredi Regis Angliæ, Scotorum, Cumborum, & Strege Wallorum Reges, sibi, tanquam superiori Domino, subiectos habuit et submissos. (Anno Gratiz 933.) Adelfanus Rex Angliæ Constantinum Regem Scotorum, sub se regnaturum, constituit, dicens, Gloriosius est Regem facere, quam Regem esse. Et * est dignum memoria, quod idem Adelfanus, intercedente Sancto Johanne de Beverlaco quondam Archiepiscopo Eborum, Scotos rebellantes ei † dimicavit, qui gratias Deo devotè agens, Deum exoravit, petens quatenus interveniente beato Johanne, sibi aliquod signum evidens ostenderet, quatinus tam succedentes quam præsentis cognoscere possent Scotos Anglorum regno jure subjugari. Et videns quosdam Scopulos juxta quendam locum propè Dunbar in Scotia prominere, extracto gladio de vagina, percussit in silicem; qui Lapis ad ictum gladii, Dei virtute agente, ita cavatur, ut mensura ulnæ longitudine posset coaptari; & hujus rei hætenus evidens signum appar-

*Anglia et Conbentione prædicta recederet, ipsi cum Domino Rege Anglia tenebunt, sicut cum ligio Domino suo, contra Regem Scotia, quousque ad fidelitatem Regis Anglia redeat. Quam quidem compositionem felicitis recordationis Gregorij Papa 9. in diversis rescriptis Regibus Anglia & Scotia directis, mandabit firmiter observari; continentibus etiam inter cætera, quod Willielmus et Alexander Reges Scotorum, Regibus Anglia Johanni et Henrico ligium homagium et fidelitatem fecerunt, quæ tenentur successores eorum, Comites et Barones regni Scotia, ipsi et suis successoribus exhibere. Et iterum, quod cum idem Rex Scotia homo ligius sit ipsius Henrici Regis Anglia, et eidem fidelitatis præstitit juramentum, quo se principaliter adstringit, quod in ipsius Regis et regni Anglia detrimentum nihil debeat penitus attemptare. Et Papa Clemens scribens Regi Anglia, pro Johanne Episcopo S. Andrea, expulso ab Episcopatu suo per Regem Scotia, inter cætera rogavit, quod Willielmum Regem Scotia moneret et induceret; et (si necesse fuerit) districtione Regali quæ ei præminet, et concessa suæ Regiæ Celsitudini potestate compelleret, ut dicto Episcopo omnem rancorem remitteret, et Episcopatum suum habere in pace permetteret. Et post Conventionem prædictam in Ecclesia beati Petri Eboracorum prædictis Regibus Anglia & Scotia, & David fratre suo, & universo populo, Episcopi, Comites, Barones, Milites de terra Regis Scotia juraverunt Domino Regi Anglia, & Henrico filio suo et hæredibus eorum, fidelitatem contra omnem hominem, sicut ligeis Dominis suis. Et (Anno gratiæ 1194) idem Willielmus Rex Scotorum ad mandatum Regis Henrici prædicti venit apud Northampton, ad Parliamentum Domini sui, adducens secum omnes Episcopos, Abbates & Priores totius regni sui. Et venit etiam ad ejusdem Anglia Regis mandatum in Normanniam. Et idem Rex Willielmus post decessum dicti Regis Henrici veniens Cantuariam, Ricardo Regi Anglia filio & hæredi dicti Henrici fecit homagium. Quo Ricardo viam universæ carnis ingresso, sequebatur Willielmus Johanni Regi Anglia fratri & hæredi prædicti Regis Richardi extra Civitatem Lincolnia supra quandam montem, in conspectu omnis populi fecit homagium, et juravit ei fidelitatem super Cruem Huberti tunc Cantuariensis Archiepiscopi; et eidem Johanni tanquam Domino suo per Cartam suam concessit, quod Alexandrum filium suum sicut hominem suum ligium maritaret; promittendo firmiter in Charta eadem, quod idem Willielmus Rex Scotorum & Alexander filius suus, Henrico filio Regis Anglia Johannis, tanquam ligio Domino suo contra omnes mortales fidem et fidelitatem tenerent; à quo quidem Willielmo Rege Scotorum postmodum, pro eo quod desponderat filiam suam Comiti Bolonie præter ipsius Regis Johannis Domini sui assensum, pro transgressionem et temerariam præsumptionem hujusmodi, debitam satisfactionem accepit. Item Alexander Rex Scotorum, sororius noster, Regi Anglia Henrico patri nostro, pro regno Scotia, & postea nobis, homagium fecit. Vacante deinde regno Scotia post mortem Alexandri Regis illius, & subsequenter per mortem Margareta ejusdem regni Scotia Regina & Domina, Neptis nostræ, Episcopi, Abbates, Priores, Comites, Barones, Proceres, & cæteri Nobiles & Communitates totius regni Scotia, ad nos, tanquam ad legitimum Defensorem, Ducem, Aurigam, Capitaneum, et Dominum capitalem ejusdem regni sic vacantis gratis et spontanea voluntate accedentes, prout tenebantur de jure, jus nostrum, progenitorum, et antecessorum nostrorum, ac possessionem superioris et directi domini in regno eodem, et ipsius regni subjectionem ex certa scientia pure, simpliciter et absolute recognoverunt, et præstitis nobis ab eisdem tanquam superiori et directo Domino Scotia debitis et consuetis fidelitatum juramentis, ac Cibitibus, Burgis, Villis, Castellis, ac cæteris munitio-nibus regni ejusdem in manu nostra traditis ad Custodiam, ejusdem regni nostri certos jure nostro Regio Officiales et Pinistros deputabimus, quibus ipsi tempore vacationis hujusmodi concozider fuerant obedientes et intendentes in nostris præceptis Regis et mandatis. Postmodum autem diversæ personæ super successione in dictum regnum Scotia jure hæreditario inter se contententes, ad nos, tanquam ad superiorem Dominum regni Scotia accesserunt, petentes super jure succedendi in regnum prædictum sibi per nos exhiberi iustitiæ complementum, volentes et expresse consentientes coram nobis tanquam superiore et directo Domino regni Scotia stare furi. An. 29 E. 1.

This memorable Epistle of the Earls, Barons, Great men, and Commons of England, sealed with * one hundred of their seals, together with the premised Epistle in the Kings name, unanimously agreed and sent to the Pope in a full and famous Parliament specially summoned upon this occasion, is 1. A most remarkable evidence of the King of England's ancient indubitable Right to, and Sovereign Dominion over the Kingdom and Kings of Scotland in all ages. 2ly. An irrefragable refutation of this Popes pretended Claim, Title to, and Sovereignty over it. 3ly. A pregnant proof of his usurped Antimonarchical Innovation, in summoning the King of England to declare and defend his Title to it before his Papal Tribunal. 4ly. A unanimous resolute Protestation against his Antichristian claim, judicially to determine the Right or Title of our Kings or other Princes to their Crowns or Temporal Dominions. 5ly. A clear demonstration of their admirable prudence in opposing this Antichristian Popes endeavoured Usurpations over the Kingdoms, Crowns, Kings of England and Scotland, with so much deliberation, resolution, magnanimity and unanimity, which they endeavoured with greatest care to perpetuate to posterity, as a president for all succeeding Parliaments and Peers upon the like occasions.

How and by what means, degrees, and for what ends the precedent Bulls of Pope Boniface were procured, by the confederacy of the Kings of France, Scotland, & Scots, this memorable Record thereof ( which I found in two several Rolls in the White Tower, compiled upon the like occasion in the reign of King Edward the 3d. by advice of his Council, and represented to the Pope ) will inform us; which I shall here insert, as worthy publick view, relating wholly to these Transactions by his Grandfather King Edward the 1.

gentem terræ Scotiæ prædictæ, super jure quocunque tam antiquo quam nobis dicto Regi Angliæ pertinente in terra Scotiæ prædicta. Et hoc fieri petebant virtute quorundam compromissorum factorum in dictum Papam, tanquam in præbatam personam et Benedictum Gaitanum, per dictorum Angliæ et Franciæ Regum Procuratores, super omnibus guerris et dissensionibus, causis, questionibus, actionibus realibus et personalibus, &c. ac etiam virtute treugarum prædictarum, et consensu confederationis initæ Anno gratiæ 1295. inter dictum Franciæ Regem ex una parte, et Regem et gentes dictæ terræ Scotiæ ex altera, contra dictum Regem Angliæ et nationem Anglicanam.

Item, quando illa via expedire non poterant, propter rationes & causas per dictum Angliæ Regem & Consiliarios ejus ordinatas, & coram dicto Papa per dicti Angliæ Regis Procuratores propositas, instabant pro cognitione via ordinarii processus in dicta Romana Curia habenda contra Regem Angliæ prædictum, super hujusmodi juribus terræ Scotiæ, et cæteris omnibus attemptatis prædictis. Et hoc fieri petebant virtute Superioritatis et directi domini, quæ suggerebant dicto Papæ ad Ecclesiam Romanam pertinere in temporalibus regni Scotiæ prædictæ, prout in Bulla dicti Papæ prædicto Regi Angliæ inde directæ, plenius continetur.

Item, quando illa via expedire non poterant, propter rationes et causas contentas in literis per Comites et Barones, et alios Nobiles regni Angliæ dicto Papæ directis, respondendo pro dicto Rege Angliæ ad defensionem juris Regis et Coronæ prædictæ, ad quædam ex contentis in Bulla prædicta, instabant pro cognitione habenda loco quo super via processus ordinarii super homicidiis, et Ecclesiarum et domorum Religiosarum incendiis, et omnibus dampnis datis per dictum Regem Angliæ et suos Episcopis, et aliis personis Ecclesiasticis terræ Scotiæ prædictæ. Et hoc fieri petebant virtute Superioritatis quam dictus Papa habuit in personis Ecclesiasticis et rebus Spiritualibus terræ Scotiæ prædictæ: Et alibi super omnibus guerris in terris quibuscunque inter Regem Angliæ et suos subditos, confederatos et adjutores ex una parte, et alios quoscunque Christianos ex altera inchoatis, ad destructionem sanguinis Christiani, et succursus Terræ Sanctæ impedimentum, prout in supplicationibus, denunciationibus, accusationibus, et querellis dicto Papæ factis et delatis ex parte dicti Franciæ Regis, et gentium terræ Scotiæ prædictæ, contra dictum Regem Angliæ et suos, ab anno gratiæ 1297. finitis, usque ad mensem Decembris anno 1302. plenius apparet.

Fines ad quos processum erat per tres vias prædictas.

In eodem
Rotulo.

In primis, ad compellendum dictum Regem Angliæ ad superlegendum in guerra sua contra inimicos suos inchoata.

Item, non solum ad annullandum omnes hujusmodi processus factos per dictum Regem Angliæ et Curiam suam, ad declarandum Superioritatem immediatam quam idem Abus habuit et habere debuit ratione forisfacturæ Domini Johannis de Balliolo quondam Regis Scotiæ, propter confederationem initam inter ipsum Regem Scotiæ ex una parte, et P. Francorum Regem tunc inimicum Regis Angliæ ex altera; una cum ceteris forisfacturæ causis alias plenus exprimendis; sed etiam ad annullandum omnes processus per dictum Regem Angliæ factos ad declarandum et superius dominium, quod ipse Rex Angliæ et ejus antecessores Angliæ Reges jure hæreditario habuerunt in terra Scotiæ prædicta.

Item, ad roborandam confederationem quondam initam inter ipsum Francorum Regem ex una parte, et dictum Dominum Johannem de Balliolo, ac Prælatos et Nobiles, et Universitates et Communitates Civitatum et Villarum dicti regni Scotiæ, pro ipsis et eorum hæredibus et successoribus ex altera. Et etiam ad includendum dictum Dominum Johannem et cæteros omnes terræ Scotiæ prædictæ in treugis inter dictos Angliæ et Franciæ Reges initis pro ipsis et eorum hæredibus, subditis, et confederatis ad fines infrascriptos.

Item

Upon the Liberties of the Kings and Subjects of Engl. & Irel. K. Edward 1.

Item, ad sustinendum Prelatos et Nobiles, ac alios supradictos dictæ terræ Scotiæ in libertate in secretis tractatibus eis promissa. An. 29 E. 1.

Item, ad acquirendum dictis Prelatis et Nobilibus ac cæteris omnibus incolis dicti regni Scotiæ, damna passis per Angliæ Regem et suos durantibus treugis supradictis, et eidem Francorum Regi huiusmodi damna passorum nomine, Actionem contra Regem Angliæ et suos, ad æstimationem damnozorū prædictorum.

Item, ad acquirendum eidem Francorum Regi et subditis suis et confederatis, bias et coheres intrandi regnum Angliæ, ac cæteras terras Domino Regi Angliæ subjectas, et ad complendum quasdam ordinationes factas contra nationem Anglicanam, ad finem universalis exheredationis et destructionis dicti Regis Angliæ et nationis Anglicanæ prædictæ, per Excommunicationis et Interdicti sententias, et per Crucisignationem, et invocationem barchi secularis. Quas quidem ordinationes et considerationes dictus Abus et ejus Consilarii magis timere solebant inter cætera omnia pericula nationi Angliæ imminencia, et contra quas magis laborabant remedia adhibere, ordinando, prosequendo et ad finem contrarium judicialiter et extra-judicialiter operando a tempore quo ipsis constabat de effectu finali proditoris, propter quam T. de Turbervill. erat suspensus, prout in dictis processibus & aliis, ac Procuratorum & Nunciorum ipsius Avi credentiis & Summis Pontificibus & Francia Regi expositis, & in aliis tractatibus literis & memorandis, & Nobilium regni Angliæ responsionibus super hiis factis plenius continetur. (Of which I found sundry Records and Memorials in the White Tower Chappel.)

Supra scripta ostenduntur ad præsens ad finem, quod consideratis literis Apostolicis et literis Francorum Regis dicto Domino nostro nuper directis, et articulis credentiarum Nunciorum eorundem dicto Domino nostro expositis, si appareat quod huiusmodi articuli tendant ad aliquem finem et suprascriptis, vel ad aliquem alium similem in effectu, idem Dominus noster et ejus Consilarii uti valeant defensionibus juris et facti, per Abum suum et ejus Consiliarios quondam ordinatis et observatis, contra pericula imminencia ipsis et Nationi Anglicanæ in præmissis, quousque defensiones meliores inveniuntur.

Item, ad finem quod Nobiles regni Angliæ, et Procuratores Communitatis Subditorum regni prædicti, admittantur per ipsum Dominum Regem ad huiusmodi defensiones proponend. prout eorum antecessores ab Avo dicti Domini nostri erant admitti. Et quod Consilarii et Puncii ipsius Domini nostri consilio et auxilio eis diligenter assistant, sub forma tempore Avi sui prædicti observata.

Item, ad quædam alia facienda et ipsorum nomina proponenda et prosequenda, quæ ex certis causis alias sunt secretius exprimentenda.

I likewise found two other Records in the White Tower Chappel, relating to and seconding the premises, in nature of a Popular Petition to the Kings Chancellor, thus relating all the proceedings in this affair.

Cancellario Domini nostri Regis;

Quia pro certis causis contentis in Rotulo signato per B. & ex aliis causis de quibus apparet in Rotulo de defensionibus et remediis contra tres vias procedendi signatos per B. videbatur Avo Domini nostri et ejus Consiliariis, quod dampnosum et periculosum esse poterit Episcopis et aliis personis Ecclesiasticis proponere aliqua tendentia ad declinand. cognitionem Domini Bonifacii quondam Papæ 8. inchoatam ad instantiam Franc. Regis & confederatorum suorum terræ Scotia, & aliunde servire Coronæ Angliæ in contingentibus terram Scotia prædictæ, virtute compromissi in ipsum Papam sancti per Procuratores Regum prædictorum; Et specialiter aliqua tendentia ad justificand. guerram dicti Regis Angliæ contra gentes terræ Scotia prædictæ, & ad continuand. guerram supradictam, Dominus Robertus de Burgherssch constitutus erat Procurator. dicti Regis Angliæ ad proponend. Articulum contentum in Cedula presentibus annexo, & alios articulos, tendentes non solum ad justificand. guerram prædictam, et etiam ad ipsam confirmand. contra rebelles suos in terra Scotiæ supradictæ, et ad retinend. dictam terram Scotiæ perpetuo

An. 29 E.1. tuo et immediate annexam Coronam Angliæ, et patrimonio Regum Angliæ incorporatum, ita quod nunquam poni poterat extra manus Regum Angliæ prædictorum, nec a dicta Corona segregari.

Item, quia postquam ad instantiam Procuratorum dicti Regis Franciæ & confederatorum suorum terræ Scotiæ prædictæ, dicto Papæ suggerentium, non solum superioritatem terræ Scotiæ in spiritualibus dictæ terræ set etiam in temporalibus ad Ecclesiam Romanam pertinere, processus per dictum Papam contra dictum Regem Angliæ erat inchoat. ad finem ipsum compellendi per excommunicationis et interdicti sententias ad supersedend. in guerra sua contra Scotos prædictos, necnon ad annullandum omnia iudicia per Curiam Angliæ lata contra dictos Scotos super corporum et bonorum forisfactura, sed etiam ad restituend. dictis Scotis omnes eorum terras per ipsum Regem Angliæ et suos, tam tempore guerræ, quam treugarum occupatas, et ad satisfaciend. eis de omnibus dampnis eis datis tempore treugarum prædictarum, necnon ad peiband. ipsum Regem Angliæ omnimoda superioritate quam habuit in terræ Scotiæ, et ad alios fines contentos in dicto Rotulo signato per B. Videbatur dicto Regi Angliæ et ejus Consiliariis, quod dampnosum et periculosum esse poterit non solum Episcopis et cæteris personis Ecclesiasticis regni Angliæ, set etiam sibi assumere. Unde per ordinationem Consilii in Parlamento Lincoln. Anno Gratiæ Millesimo Trecentesimo, omnes Comites et Barones, et cæteri Nobiles dicti Regi Angliæ ibidem præsentis, ipsum nomine et totius Communitatis regni prædicti dictum onus assumpserunt, ut apparet per eorum literas dicto Papæ directas sub sigillo eorundem, et contentas in dicto Rotulo signato per B.

Item, quia Anno Gratiæ 1301. quando Franc. Rex & ejus confederati tantum confidebant de solitis singularitate & dissensione, & aliis Consuetudinibus quarundam gentium nationis Anglicanæ, et aliarum terrarum Coronæ Angliæ annexarum, et specialiter de assensu seu conniventia quarundam personarum aliàs secretius nominandarum, quod noluerunt consentire ulteriozi prozogationi treugarum inter ipsos et Regem Angliæ prædictum, nisi dicti Scoti includerentur in dictis treugis, tanquam Francorum Regis confederati, & Comites & cæteri dicti Regis Angliæ confederati de terris Flandr. Barr. & Burgund. exciperentur a Treugis supradictis, prout per literas * Francorum Regis super hiis treugis factas, Anno 1302. & nunciorum & procuratorum dicti Regis Angliæ tractatus & excusationes plenius apparet.

Item, Quia Episcopi & alii solempnes nuncii & procuratores dicti Regis Angliæ per quos & alii ipsius Consilarii, de quorum Consilio & ordinatione compromissum fuit in Papam Bonifacium 8. super guerris & discordiis, &c. duæ primæ viæ tractandi et procedendi coram dicto Papa & aliis ad pacem reformand. inter dictos Angliæ & Franc. Reges et eorum subditos quondam ordinatæ fuerunt, & per septennium et amplius continuatæ, et informationes factæ dicto Papæ & Cardinalibus, & aliis Domini Papæ nunciis super hujusmodi guerrarum materia, et super hiis petita erant remedia primis duabus viis supradictis, in tantum reprehenßi fuerunt non solum per dictum Papam, set etiam per homines Nationis Angliæ, et specialiter per quosdam conquerentes de dampnis & gravaminibus eis datis durantibus treugis, tractatibus, et processibus morosis supradictis, non solum in laboribus et expensis, set etiam onerosis et Custumarum impositionibus insolitis.

Item, dicti Episcopi & cæteri prædicti tantum timebant hujusmodi conquerentium comminationes et guerras, resistentias & rebelliones quæ ex præmissis potuerunt in Angliam more solito provenire; et quia duæ primæ viæ prædictæ adeo erat desperata, ad tollendam principalem materiam guerrarum Scotorum & aliorum inimicorum Nationis Anglicanæ, seu impossibiles videbantur omnibus notitiam habentibus materiæ supradictæ, et conditionum personarum præstantium dictis inimicis auxilium & favorem contra rationem prædictam, & contra incolas terrarum Coronæ Angliæ annexarum dictæ Nationi adherentes, & eorum confederatos, adjuutores & amicos. Et quod via denunciationis vel querelæ ratione peccati procedere oporteret, contra inimicos prædictos. Et quod hujusmodi bia denunciationis vel querelæ tantum eret odiosa in Curia Romana et alibi, et periculosa esset personis Ecclesiasticis, et Comitibus et aliis Nobilibus regni Angliæ pro remediis necessariis impetrandis contra dictos inimicos prosequentibus, quod nullus ipsum audebat onera officii Procur. et Runcii assumere in præmissis; (Whereupon) Procurato-

res Nautarum Portuum regni Anglia, et aliarum terrarum & Insularum Coronæ Anglia annexarum, assumpserunt de ordinatione dicti Regis Anglia et ejus Consilii, onus defensionis Jurium Coronæ Anglia in præmissis contra dictæ Nationis Anglia inimicos, et eorum adjutores et confederatos, via denunciationis et querelæ, coram quibusdam Cardinalibus per Dominum Papam Bonifaciam assignatis hujusmodi guerrarum materiam in scriptis proponendo, et dictis inimicis prædictam materiam imponendo, unâ cum passagii transmarini impedimentis, & aliis dampnis quampluribus dicto Regi Anglia & suis per dictos inimicos præstitis & illatis per 17 Annos & amplius, contra protectionem Sedis Apostolicæ ipsi Regi Anglia et suis ratione cruce signationis concessam, et in dictæ Sedis contemptum, et totius Christianitatis præjudicium. Ac dictus Dominus Papa ad hujusmodi Procuratorum instantiam, contra dictum Francorum Regem et suos super propositis contra ipsos inimicos, ratione peccati inchoavit processum Mense Decembris, Anno 1322. Cujus virtute, dictus Rex Franc. excommunicatus erat, et regnum suum interdictum, ante diem Sancti Johannis Baptiste proximo sequentem. Et eodem die appellationum erat per dictum Franc. Regem et Prælatos et Nobiles regni sui prædicti ab hujusmodi Excommunicationis et Interdicti sententiis ad Generale Concilium, ad præsentationem Domini Willielmi de Neugaretto et aliorum denunciantium Crimen Hæresis et alia crimina contra Papam prædictam; de fine vero dicti processus nihil dicendum est ad præsens et causam.

Item, dicti Nautæ à tempore mortis dicti Papæ Bonifacii extra adeo singulares fuerunt, negligentes & remissi ad prosequend. coram Summis Pontificibus via denunciationis & querelæ, ad finem resumendi & continuandi processum supradictum, vel inchoandi similem in effectu contra dictæ Nationis Anglicana inimicos, et eorum hæreses, confederatos & adjutores, quod ex hujusmodi eorum singularitate & negligentia, dictæ Nationis inimici audaciam fumentes insurgendi, & tam in terra quam in mare guerras movendi contra gentes Nationis prædictæ, et incolas terrarum, Insularum Coronæ Anglia annexarum, ex quibus mala infinita pervenerunt, tam in personis quàm in bonis Gentium prædictarum, et adhuc provenire non cessant.

Placeat Paternitati vestræ reverendæ, instare erga Dominum nostrum Regem & ejus Consilium, quod mandetur dictis Nautis, quod constituent Procuratores sufficientes ad prosequendum coram Summo Pontifice & ejus Nunciis in Anglia tunc præsentibus ante ipsorum recessum, vel saltem unius eorundem, ad finem resumptionis & continuationis processus supradicti, & ad alios fines per dicti Domini nostri Consilium ordinand. & specialiter ad duos fines vel tres alias secretius exprimendos ex causa.

I shall conclude this History, with * Polydor Virgils Narrative. Bonifacius Pontifex à Scotis precibus fatigatus, et subiratus, quod Edwardo Balliolo filio Johannis non essent restituta possessiones, quas ille in Anglia habebat, interdixit Edwardo Regi, ne amplius post hæc Scotos bello vexaret, quod id regnum antea in Romani Pontificis fidem et potestatem a Scotis ipsis permissum fuisset, et ideo assererebat, sibi soli integrum esse cuicunque liberet dare auferre: Edwardus accepto Pontificis rescripto, habuit primo quoque tempore Principum Concilium, de eaque re maturè consuluit: postea, tam per literas quam per Nuncios Pontificem docuit, sus proprietatis terræ Scotiæ ad se pertinere, secumque facere, et propterea non passurum se eo perperam præbiri. His cognitis Bonifacius statim rescripsit, ut scilicet si pertinacius contenderet, ne inhoneste causa caderet. And so the imperious vapouring Bulls, and claims of this usurping Pope to the right and dominion of the Realm of Scotland, vanished into smoake; and King Edward vigorously pursuing his declared right thereunto, † In festo Pentecostes finitis Trengis quæ cum Scotis inita fuerunt, Rex contra festum Sancti Johannis Baptiste in Scotiam proficiscitur exercitu adunato, & in Scotia denique hiemavit.

REX dilecto & fideli suo Roberto Burghers custodi Quinque Portuum suorum, salutem. Datum est nobis intelligi, quod Abbas Pramonstratensis quosdam ex suis Canonicis in Anglia specialiter destinavit, ad petendum et levandum ad opus ipsius Abbatis quandam magnam pecunie quantitatem de Abbatibus ordinis Pramonstratensis in Anglia, et omnibus personis Ecclesiasticis quibus idem Abbatibus Ecclesiastica beneficia contulerunt; verum quia nunquam alias tale subsidium in regno nostro consuevit erigi absque nostra vel progenitorum nostrorum licentia et assensu, possetque huiusmodi subventionis inordinata subsidium in Abbatum praelatorum, ac totius regni nostri prejudicium de facili reboundare; Quoties mandamus firmiter injungentes, quod nullam Canonicum ordinis praelati, Walletum seu alium Banciam quemcunque pecuniam deferentem ad partes transmarinas transire permittatis, sine nostra licentia speciali. I found some Inquisitions issued to several Sheriffs to enquire what monies they had exacted and levyed in this kinde, to which an Ignoramus was for the most part returned, these Monks being unwilling or afraid to disclose the indirect practises, or incur the displeasure of their Superiors.

The Archbishop of Canterbury (during the * hot contest between him, and the Abbot and Monks of St. Augustines) having excommunicated no less then 17. Parsons and V. cars in Kent at once, and imprisoned most of them in the Goal at Canterbury upon a Writ of Capiat Excommunicatum, till they satisfied him for their contempts and injuries against him; upon their complaint thereof to the King, he issued this Writ of Privy Seal to the Bishop of Chester his Treasurer, his Chancellor and Counsil, to take good advice thereon, and then to certifie him what course he should take for their relief; as this Writ of Privy Seal I found in the White Tower Chapple attells.

Per Regem & Consilium.

From which Writ, as we may observe the excessive malice, vexation and impiety of the Archbishop, in excommunicating so many Rectors and Vicars of Parish Churches at once, upon the premised suits and contest between him and the Abbot and Monks of Canterbury, whereby the people of those places were long deprived of the spiritual food of their souls; so we may well inferre:

1. That it is the Kings Prerogative, Office, duty to examine, redresse and rectifie such vexations, abuses, and Excommunications of Rectors, Vicars, and other his Subjects,

Upon the Liberties of the Kings and Subjects of Engl. & Irel. K. Edward 1.

Subjects, even by the Archbishop of Canterbury himself, much more by other Bishops or their inferior Officers. An. 29 E. 1.

2ly. That such extravagant abuses and Excommunications are thought fit and worthy examination and redresse even in Parliament in that age.

3ly. That the King by his Prerogative might enlarge persons taken upon a Capital Excommunication out of Prison upon security, without any Oath, and supersedeat his Writs of Excommunication against others, not actually taken and imprisoned, till their causes were heard and determined by him in his Parliament, and that by the resolution of the King and his Council in Parliament, by whose order this Writ issued forth,

This year there fell out this memorable case in Law touching the Kings prerogative, contained in the ensuing Writ. The King presenting his Clerk to the Archbishop of Canterbury to admit him to a Benefice accruing to him by reason of a Wardship, the Archbishop refusing to admit him because he was under age, being contrary to the Canonons, he thereupon committed the Church to one of the Kings Chaplains till he should be of age: The Archbishop dying, his successor finding no person inducted therein, and so holding it voyd, admitted the Clerk of the right patron presented to it, contrary to the Kings prerogative, *against whom no time nor lapse incurs; who thereupon commanded him to admit his first presented Clerk (now of age) thereto, by this Writ. † See here, p. 331.

The like Writ issued to them upon a Petition of the Abbot of Peterburge in the same Parliament, who was bound, and secured by the Kings Counterbond for 500 l. more of that money which he had paid to the Popes agents, Clasf. 29 E 1. m. 3. to omit all others.

Thus the money pretended and collected for the Holy Land after the King had made use of it for divers years, was exacted and pursed up by this avaritious Pope at last, and never employed for its pretended end. An impious Papal fraud.

The Popes Italian Agent appointed by him to demand and receive Ten thousand markes of the money long before granted for relief of the Holy Land, which the King borrowed from the Popes Collectors upon the bonds of these Abbots, his sureties, to repay it within 2. Moneths upon the Popes demand, whom the King was bound to save harmlesse by his Counterbonds to them, exacting one mark in every hundred Marks for his expenses, or else refusing to give up their bonds till paid. The King upon complaint thereof issued this memorable Writ to him, prohibiting this his extortion, and commanding him to deliver up their bonds, the debt being his, upon payment only of the principal moneys; else he would take some other course for their relief against him.

Pat. 29 E. 1. m. 8. Pro Abbate & Conventu de S. Albano. REX omnibus ad quos, &c. salutem. Sciatis quod ob devotionem quam erga Sanctum Albanum gloriosum Christi Martyrem gerimus & habemus, & ut Monachi Abbatis de Sancto Albano de cetero possint quietius & tranquillius altissimo famulari, concessimus pro nobis & heredibus nostris Abbati & Conventui Abbatis predicti, quod Prior & Conventus Abbatis ejusdem & eorum successores, in singulis vacationibus ejusdem Abbatis, quociens videlicet ipsam exnunc vacare contingeret, habent et teneant eandem custodiam Abbatis illius, et omnium temporalium ejusdem, cum omnibus rebus et bonis ad Abbatis illam qualitercunque spectantibus, adeo plene et integre, sicut aliquis Abbas ejusdem loci Abbatis illam et temporalia, cum rebus et bonis predictis, sede plena aliquibus retroactis temporibus habere et tenere consuevit. Ita quod ipsi Prior & Conventus de temporalibus & bonis ac rebus illis plenam & liberam administrationem habeant, & inde disponere & ordinare possint, prout eis melius & utilius videbitur faciendum, & prout Abbas dicti loci inde posset ordinare & disponere sede plena; salvis nobis et heredibus nostris feodis illis quae tenentur de Abbatis predicta, et Advocationibus Ecclesiarum cum acciderint, temporibus vacationum predictarum. Ita tamen quod omnes redditus & servitia annua de feodis predictis in vacationibus illis provenientia remaneant Priori & Conventui predictis: Salvis etiam nobis & heredibus nostris escaetis quas accidere contigerit temporibus predictis, quae quidem escaeta singulis hujusmodi vacationibus finitis, videlicet post fidelitatem ipsius quem ibidem eligi, confirmari seu praefici contigerit in Abbatem, nobis vel heredibus nostris factam, liberentur & remaneant Abbati, Priori & Conventui, & successoribus suis dicti loci, sine occasione vel impedimento nostri vel heredum nostrorum quorumcunque: Reddendo nobis et heredibus nostris pro qualibet vacatione Abbatis predicti, sive duraverit per annum integrum, sive per minus tempus, mille marcas, infra annum a tempore quo Abbatis illa vacare inceperit computandum; videlicet, videlicet, quingentas marcas in fine primi dimidii anni illius, et quingentas marcas in fine ejusdem anni. Et si forte vacatio Abbacie illius duraverit ultra annum, tunc predicti Prior et Conventus pro proximo anno integro sequenti, si tanto tempore duraverit, solvant nobis et heredibus nostris mille marcas ad terminos predictos, et sic pro quolibet anno integro post primum annum, durante vacatione predicta, ad eosdem terminos mille marcas. Et si ultra annum integrum, vel annos integros duraverit, vel minore tempore quam per annum, tunc pro illo minori tempore de predictis mille maris minus pro rata temporis illius proportionaliter nobis solvant. Et volumus & concedimus pro nobis & heredibus nostris, quod predicti Prior & Conventus, & eorum successores, imperpetuum habeant & teneant custodiam Abbacie predictae singulis temporibus vacationum ejusdem in forma predicta. Ita quod nullus Vicecomes, Escaetor, seu quicumque alius Ballivus, vel Minister noster, vel heredum nostrorum de custodia Abbacie predictae, seu Cellarum suarum, Maneriorum, aut aliarum rerum seu bonorum quorumcumque ad dictam Abbaciam seu Cellas suas spectantium quoquo modo, ratione vacationis illius, se in aliquo intromittat. *Ecclesia utile in parte dextera exercendum, per quod & diabolus vincitur, & eidem An. 29 E. 1. Christo copia animarum adducitur. Certe sic labor sinistra partis navigii non se habet: quia in eo fides titubet, dominatur tristitia, cum quod inquirendo appetitur, minime inveniuntur. Quis enim credat, simul et semel posse servire Panimonæ atque Deo: ac suæ voluntati placere, et carnis ac sanguinis revelationibus inhaerere, et offerre Christo munera digna? Et dubio procul Pastor qui supra gregis adificationem non vigilat, aliunde rugienti leoni, quærenti quem debozet, parat biam. Vide (inquam) facta inaudita nuncupatibi filia Patris tui, qui bonos Pastores a caulis obitum amobet, et suos nepotes, consanguineos et parentes, aliosque nonnullos, literas ignorantes, et velut mutos et surdos, obitum earundem non intelligentes balatum, nec ne moribus luporum curantes, velut mercenarios bellera auferentes, et merentes semina et olivorum in ipsis, non ut profint, sed ut præstent, constituit pro eisdem, quorumque manus in copinis serbiunt, et ipsorum docta ab cneribus dibrantur. Ex quibus, liquet, quod Sacerdotium prætermittitur his diebus, obsequium dibrinum subtrahitur, et elemosinarum largitio annullatur; per quod Regum, Principum et Christianorum sancta debitorum evacuatur. Nonne debet in oculis omnium mirabile reputari, quod ubi * Christus pro se & Petro Regibus solvi iussit tributum, ipse regna et regnorum Principes contra voluntatem illius, cuius dicit se esse Vicarium, qui ab se regna et mundi iudicia abdicabit, suæ subicere nititur ditioni, dominio sui Appli, quia totum sibi vendicat quod scripserat esse suum? De te, filia, quid plus agit? Ecce a te trahit quod libet, nec tamen reputat se contentum, si partem rerum tuarum decimam a te sumat, nisi primos fructus beneficiorum tuorum habeat ministrorum, ut tam pro se quam pro suo sanguine nobis constitutur patrimonium, de eisdem abiectionis diuissimis voluntatibus fundatorum: et alia etiam execrabilia pro cursum suorum stipendiis, quos transmittit in Angliam iam imponit, qui non tantum tuum ac tuorum viduum auferat et besturas, sed eorum pelles ac carnes lacerant, sicut canes. Nunquid Nebuchodonosor Regi debeat comparari, qui templum Domini devastavit, & vasis suis argenteis spoliavit? quod egerat enim ille, agit et iste, et ille Domus Dei spoliabit Ministros, et ipsam destituebat auxilio: hæc et hic facit. Certe melius est occisus gladio, quam fame aliquo modo interfectis; quia illi sunt mortui statim, et isti sunt a terræ sterilitate consumpti. Compatiantur tibi filia omnes transeuntes per biam, quia non est dolor similis sicut tuus: iam enim præ dolore nimio atque effusione tua nimia lacrimarum super carbones, & facies tua denigrata ita, quod non est cognita amplius in plateis, in tenebris se tuus præfatus superior collocabit, inebriabit te absinthio et felle: afflictionem populi tui, esusque gemitum audi; vide domine et descende; quia cor dicti viri super cor Pharaonis est nimium induratum, quem populum abire liberum non dimittit, nisi in fortitudine manus suæ, non enim super terram flagitat miserabiliter, sed post mortem: quia quorumcumque Christianorum bona sub nomina tituli de Intestatis consistunt omnia, post decemum omnia debozat. Et enim Ecclesia Anglicana, qualiter retroactis temporibus Franciæ in regnum Angliæ suos concupiscentiæ oculos dirigentes, machinabantur illud suæ subsicere potestati: sed quod in ipsis hæcenus desinit, est timendum, ne suppleat prædicti viri nobis conjecturatio nobis hostis: quia regni deficiente thesauro, et ejus destructo sacerdotio, efficietur vere regnum impotentius contra hostes. Ne igitur tu (filia) tuque Sacerdotes in miseriam deducamini longiorum, expedit ut pro tua et tuorum salute, quod Rex tuus Christianissimus et regni Potentes, qui amplissimis beneficiis te ornauerunt, quique vos et beneficia huiusmodi haberent in hoc casu tueri, resistent conjecturationibus, conspirationibus arrogantibus ac superbis dicti viri, qui non Dei contemplatione, sed pro præmissis, et pro suis ditando parentibus, ac pro nido suo, quasi Aquilam exaltando per præmissa et alia imposita per eundem, totalem pecuniam Anglicanam nobis dominii genere iam compellit, ne dissimulata in hac parte simplicitas (in) regni huius subversionem auferat, velut suam, et addibatur sero remedii tunc cautela. Abertat nempè Dominus virtutum de corde viri illius belamen, sibi que cor contritum et humile largiatur, et agnoscere eum faciat vestigia veri Dei, per que à suis tenebris eruat, & præmissos labores sinistros dimittere compellatur: necnon & vinea quam plantavit Dei dextera, sacra fidei cultoribus repleatur. Animadvertite enim verba Domini, & Prophetiam Jeremix, ad propulsandum huiusmodi inchoata, qua disunt; Tu Pastor, qui populum meum dispersisti, & eum de suis habitationibus eie-*

What effect (writ-s * Mr. Fox) this Letter wrought in them to whom it was directed, is not a story expressed: This by the way may be conjectured, that no reason of persuasion could prevail, but that the Pope retained here still his Exactions, wherefore was said or written to the contrary notwithstanding.

In a broken Bundle of Writs Anno 30 E. 1. rot. 118. in the White Tower, I found only this one Writ of Attachment for a suit in Court Christian, against the Kings Prohibition. Edwardus, &c. Vic. Ebor. &c. Precipimus tibi, quod capias Walterum de Whyteby & Willielmum de Shyreburne Capellanum, si inventi fuerint in Balliva tua, & eos salvo custodias: Ita quod habeas corpora eorum coram Justiciariis nostris apud Ebor. in Obed. Agnetæ de Linc. de placito, quæ ipsi simul cum Waltero de Seteby secuti sunt placitum in Curia Christianitatis de catallis et debitis quæ non sunt de Testamento vel Patrimonio, contra Prohibitionem nostram, ut dicit, & unde tu ipse mandasti Justiciariis nostris apud Ebor. à die Pasche in 15. dies, quod predicti Walterus & Willielmus non sint inventi nec aliquid habent in Balliva tua per quod possint attachari. Et habet ibi hoc breve. Teste R. de Hengham apud Ebor. 25 die Maii, Anno regni nostri 30. On which this return is endorsed; Walterus de Whyteby, & Willielmus de Shyreburne Capellani, non fuerunt inventi in Balliva mea post receptionem istius brevis, nec aliquid habent per quod possint attachari. The rest are lost or perished.

In the Clause Roll of this year, I finde this memorable Writ of Prohibition sent by the King to the Archbishop of Canterbury, who had presumptuously excommunicated the Kings Constable of Dover Castle, and other of his Officers, for imprisoning the Abbot of Faversham in Dover Castle, (upon a Judgement given against him in the Court of Shipwey, the chief Court for all the Cinque ports, for certain Trespasses committed by him within that Jurisdiction) according to his office and duty, against his Crown, Dignity, and Customs of the Realm, to their great prejudice and scandal; commanding him forthwith to absolve them, revoke all his Citations and sentences denounced against them, upon his allegiance, or else he would proceed severely against him for this high contempt.

* Anno 30 E. 1. there fell out this memorable case. King Henry the 1. by his Charter in the year 1130. gave to William Archbishop of Canterbury and his successors the Church of St. Martin in Dover, with all the Prebendaries, Rents and Franchises thereto appertaining by Land or Sea, commanding him to place therein Religious persons to sing Masse for his ancestors, his own, and his heirs souls; and ordained in his Charter, That these Religious persons themselves should have the free election of the Abbot, and the Archbishop the examination and confirmation of their election: Whereupon the Archbishop began to found a New Monastery near Dover, intending to place therein Canons of the Order of St. Augustine, but dyed before it was finished. King Henry the 2. by his Charter renewed the grant of Henry the 1. to Archbishop Theobald and his successors, and commanded him according to the said Kings order, to place Monks of the Order of St. Benedict therein, and that he should give them all the Prebendaries, Possessions, Rents and Franchises belonging to the old Church of St. Martin; which Archbishop Theobald did accordingly, as intirely as he received them by gift from the King. Also he gave the Monks a Prior of the Convent of Canterbury, not perpetual, but removable at his pleasure, to teach the new Monks their order, and put the Monks into possession of all the Prebendaries but two which the Abby of St. Augustines held: Apres le dit Ercevesque Tibaud, sanz conge, et sanz assent du Roy, et contre le forme de la Chartre le Roy, et contre les privileges le Pape en Bulles, donna la Chartre au Prior et au Capitre de Canteburi, qe le Prior de Dove feust a touz jours fait del Convent de Canteburi, et nemi d'ailleurs. Ce d'un aleste encheison & matiere de confusion & destruction a la Maison de Dove a touz jours, de mal ou p[er]s. Nemy par ce un Ercevesque Baldwyn per noun, ne aboua mys cel noun, mes leur dona Prior de euz mesmes, cest assavoir Osberne, q[ui] moult amenda la Maison en son temps. After which, l'an de regne Edward 1. trespas, le Prior de Dove Anselme, Moigne de Canteburi, avoit tant degaste les biens de leur Eglise, qe les Moignes n'avoient dont vivre, ne estre vestuz; et si avoit il endette la Maison, de mil et centz marcs. Adonques il le encuserent de dissipation et le engetterent, come cele q[ui] n'estoit pas profitable: le Prior de la Trinite et son Convent maintenant aloient procurant l'Ercevesque Johan, q[ui] donast Prior a Dove un del Convent de Canteburi, et disoient qe ce estoit leur droit a touz jours usee puis la fondation de la Maison de Dove, les Moignes de Dove entenderent ce et fesoient assevoir au Conseil nostre Seigneur le Roy. Per quoy le Prior de Canteburi fust appellez en Juggement a monstrier per quoy droit il fesoit cel chalunge. A la fin il monstre la Chartre l'Ercevesque Tibaud, q[ui] leur avoit fait sanz assent du Roy, sicome dessus est dit; la chose fust despute, en la Court le Roy; et par ce qe l'Ercevesque avoit passe l'ordinance, a la volonte du donneur, agarde feust (nemy) qe cele Chartre n'avoit nule balour, et ensi fust le Prior et la Capitre en Canteburi forloge de leur demaunde: Et par ceo qe l'Ercevesque avoit tant mespris contre la forme de dit donn, agarde fust, qe le Prior de Dove feust pris en la meyn le Roy, et qe l'Ercevesque queist grace du Roy, s'il pouist mes soit la boeson de la dit Maison. Et adonques le Roy commanda q[ui] eussent franche election de leur Prior, et qe l'Ercevesque cele soit li reconst en noun du Roy; en q[ui] mein l'aboeson estoit adonques et uncoze est. Et l'Ercevesque Johan a leur nomination recoust, et fit Prior Robert Whitacre, Moigne de la Maison de Dove, q[ui] estoit Prior vint et neof ans, et plus; et oze darrein moast. Ensi ad le Maison de Dove estre en possession de Prior de euz mesmes per gard, et per Juggement de la Court nostre Seigneur le Roi, et d'illoques jusques a tant qe le dit Prior Robert se leste moir.

The Bishoprick of Ely becoming void by the death of Ralph Walpole, translated from Norwich thither by Pope Boniface his provision, the Monks of Ely by the Kings license unanimously elected * Robert Orford their Prior, to whom the King giving his Royal assent, the Archbishop of Canterbury deferred his confirmation, for which he appealed to Rome, and before his appeal could be tendred to him he nulled his election, whereupon he appealed the second time against him to the Pope; into whose hands he resigning his right, he thereupon conferred the Bishoprick on him by his provision, desiring the King to restore his Temporalities by this Bull, the original whereof I found in the White Tower Chapple, reciting the whole proceedings.

*Gentilem titulo Sancti Martini in Montibus Presbyterum, & Mathæum Sanctæ Maria in Parisien Diaconum Cardinales, examinari fecimus diligenter. Dicitur verò Robertus post factam nobis super hujusmodi examinatione à dictis Cardinalibus relationem fidem, volens expeditam Ecclesiam à dispendiis, quæ incurrere poterat per subdiles anfractus durante dicto negotio, præferbari, omne jus quod sibi ex præfata electione fuerat acquisitum, sponte ac libere in manus nostras resignabit: (as * Thomas Archbishop of York had done before him, through this Popes craft and delays.) Nos igitur hujusmodi resignatione recepta, cupientes regimini ejusdem Ecclesiæ illam personam, de cujus pœnitentia plenam haberemus notitiam per nostræ provisionis studium, præbere; quia constitit per confessionem ab ipso Roberto coram Archiepiscopo memorato factam, dum de dicta confirmatione facienda per ipsum Archiepiscopum agebatur, Excommunicationis sententiam latam à Canone dictum Robertum quodam tempore incurrisse, pro eo quod ipse manus injecerat in quendam Clericum temere violentas, et ab eadem sententia rite fuisse sine mora culpabili absolutum, licet id sen etiam aliud Canonum contra eundem Robertum objectum et nobis offensum non obstat, quo minus debuisset præfata electio confirmari. Nos ne occasione hujusmodi Excommunicationis quicquam detractiois circa statum suum ab aliquibus, qui nituntur interdum eas inevitare sincerum valeret impingi, nebe inde ipsius opinio gravata quomodolibet remaneret, omnem maculam sibi notam, si de Apostolicæ potestatis plenitudine abolentes, ipsum hiis nequaquam obstantibus nunciabimus habilem ad Episcopalem et quamlibet dignitatem Ecclesiasticam obtinendam; & deinde attendentes, quod sibi literarum scientia, vitæ mundities, morum honestas, regularis observantia, prudentia spiritualium, & temporalium providentia, & alia virtutum dona suffragari noscuntur, super quibus etiam multorum fidedignorum testimoniis multipliciter commendatur, considerantes insuper, quod ex præfata resignatione, ut prædictum, ab ipso facta præsumitur vehementer, ipsum ambitionis vitium quod est penitus reprobandum, potissime in promovendis ad dignitates Ecclesiasticas, fugere: ac per hæc, & ex eo etiam quod jam dicti Conventus præfatum electionem, ut prædictum est, concorditer acceptarunt, non immerito extimentes quod dicta Ecclesia per ipsum poterit salubriter gubernari, de fratrum nostrorum consilio, et ex nostræ plenitudine potestatis eundem Robertum præfecimus etiam in Ecclesiæ in Episcopum et Pastorem, curam sibi et administrationem ipsius Ecclesiæ in spiritualibus et * temporalibus committendo, & subsequenter sibi fecimus insuper munus consecrationis impendi; firma spe fiducias tenentes, quod eadem Ecclesia per ipsius industriam providentiæ à noxiis præservabitur, & adversis, optatis quoque prosperitatis commodis spiritualiter & temporaliter augeatur. Cum itaque hii charissime, sit virtutis opus Ecclesias et personas Ecclesiasticas, præsertim Pontificali prædicas dignitate, benigno favore prosequi, ac eas verbis & operibus pro Regis æterni gloria venerari; Serenitatem Regiam rogamus & hortamur attentè, quatinus dicto Episcopo pro nostra et Apostolicæ sedis reverentia, ejusdem Elien. Ecclesiæ quæ per te vacationis ejus tempore teneri dicuntur, sine qualibet libet difficultate restituens, alias ipsum & Ecclesiam sibi commissam habeas propensius commendatos, te reddens ipsis in regio favore munificum, et in cunctis necessitationibus gratiosum. Ita quod idem Episcopus tuo fultus auxilio, in commissa sibi cura Pastoralis officii possit Deo propitio prosperari, ac tibi exinde à Deo perennis vitæ premium, et a nobis condigna præbeniat actio gratiarum. * Nota.

This usurping Pope, as he perswaded or enforced by threats or long delays this Bishop and others whose Elections were questioned or opposed, though never so canonical and legal, to resign their Elections into his hands, that so he might conferre the Bishopricks on them by his own Papal Provisions; so he likewise inserted this new clause into his Provisions, whereby he committed the Temporalities as well as the Spiritualities, Curam sibi & administrationem ipsius Ecclesiæ in Spiritualibus & Temporalibus committimus, in derogation of the Kings Prerogative; who thereupon refused to restore their Temporalities till they * publicly renounced this clause, as prejudicial to the Kings Crown and Dignity.

Bonifacius Episcopus, Servus servorum Dei, Charissimo in Christo Filio E. Regi Anglorum illustri, salutem, & Apostolicam benedictionem. Gratia tibi Divina primum & humana praconium laudis acquiritor, Si Ecclesias, Monasteria, et Personas Ecclesiasticas praeceptis, regni tui Regali praesidio foveas, et favore benivolo prosequaris. Nosque ad id Celsitudinem tuam eo fiducialius Apostolicis exhortationibus excitamus, quo magis illam in operum executione bonorum speramus promptum & facilem invenire. Vacante siquidem dudum Monasterio Sancti Edmundi ad Romanam Ecclesiam nullo medio pertinente, Ordinis Sancti Beudisti Norwicens. Dioc. per obitum quondam Johannis Abbatis ipsius, Conventus ejusdem Monasterii vocatis omnibus qui debuerunt, potuerunt & voluerunt commodè interesse, die ad hoc praefixa convenientes in unum pro futura facienda electione Abbatibus, ac deliberantes ad id per viam procedere compromissi, fratribus Rogeri de Cheventon Camerario, Petro de London Elemosinario, Richardo de Brun Sacrista, Thoma Abbati dicti Monasterii tunc Suppriori, Johanne de Eversden Cellario, Alano de Walsingham & Reginaldo de Denchmer Monachis ejusdem Monasterii, providendi ad vice dicto Monasterio de Abbate concesserunt unanimiter potestatem, usque ad certi temporis spatium duraturam; promittentes, illum in eorum & dicti Monasterii Abbatem recipere et habere quem dicti Compromissarii, vel major eorum pars de se ipsis vel aliis de gremio dicti Monasterii infra dictum spatium dacerent eligendum. Cumque idem Thomas Abbas & alii Compromissarii Collegae sui praedicti hujusmodi potestate recepta, secedentes in partem deliberationem habuissent, prout expediebat, super hujusmodi negotio diligentem, demum Collegae dicti Thoma Abbatis vota sua in eum unanimiter direxerunt: Ac dictus Johannes Cellerarius unum de Compromissariis supradictis, nomine suo & aliorum praedictorum Collegarum suorum, & totius Conventus vice, de ipsorum aliorum Collegarum mandato, infra dictum spacium praefatum Thomam duxit in Abbatem dicti Monasterii eligendum, & electionem hujusmodi coram ipsis, Conventu illam acceptantibus publicavit: Ipseque Thomas Abbas praestito ad ipsorum Conventus instantiam electioni hujusmodi de ipso factae consensu, ac Willielmus de Lucham & Guilielmus de Harlawe ejusdem Monasterii Monachi Procuratores ipsorum Conventus ad sedem Apostolicam accesserunt, Decretum nobis electionis ejusdem servatis in hiis omnibus statutis à jure temporibus, praesentantes, eamque confirmari a nobis cum instantia postulantes. Nos autem tam ipsius Electionis formam, quam ejusdem Thoma Abbatis personae merita per Venerabilem fratrem M. Episcopum Portuen. & dilectos filios nostros G. He likewise sent another Bull to the King, the date whereof is torn out, to certify him of his confirmation of the election of Johannes de Marines, to another exempt Abby of the Order of St. Benedict within the Diocese of Lincoln, the Original whereof (somewhat torn and mutilated) I found in the White Tower, and shall not insert at large, since it runs almost in the same words, with that for the Abbot of St. Edmunds, differing only in the Electors and elected persons Names, and other petty circumstances, and praying his restitution of the Temporalities.

Pope Boniface the 8. out of a pretence to gratify and supply the King in his necessities, for his extraordinary piety and affection toward the Church of Rome, granted him the moiety of the 3. years Dism of all the Possessions and Livings of the Church and Clergy within England and Ireland he had * formerly imposed on them; reserving (like a cheating Roman Pontiff) the other moiety of it to himself, appointing the Treasurers that should receive and keep it, to gain the Kings royal assent thereto, without which he could not levy it, which he easily consented to, publishing it to all his Subjects by these Letters Patents, to make it a foundation of credit to satisfy his Creditors by assignments thereof.

REX omnibus ad quos, &c. salutem. Noveritis nos recepisse Literas Apostolicas in hæc verba. Bonifacius Episcopus Servus servorum Dei, Charissimo in Christo filio Edwardo Regi Angliæ illustri salutem, & Apostolicam benedictionem. Clara Celsitudinis tuæ merita et sinceræ devotionis affectum quoad Deum et Romanam Ecclesiam Patrem tuam, quibus servisti hactenus, biges ad præsens, et sicut speramus et credimus in futurum, Domino auxiliante, servabis. Benigna consideratione pensantes, et attendentes, quod tam præteriti quam moderni malitia temporis te sumptibus plurimis, ac laboribus et angustis aggrabavit, pia meditatione prohibemus, ad te super hiis animum paternæ compassionis extendere, ac ad sublevationem tuam munificentiam Apostolicæ sedis tibi reddere gratiosam. Cum igitur in toto regno Angliæ ac tota Hybernia Decimam omnium Ecclesiasticorum reddituum et probentium prædem, ut nosti, pro oneribus et necessitatibus Ecclesiæ memoratæ ad Triennium duxerimus imponendam; Nos volentes, ut tu in effectu percipias quod erga te gerit in hac parte nostræ mentis affectus, et eligentes potius in nobis ipsis egere, ut oportuna, tibi quod possumus subsidia ministremus, medietatem totius hujusmodi Decimæ prædictorum trium annorum tibi in hujusmodi sublevationem sumptuum et laborum præsentium auctoritate concedimus de gratia speciali. Reliquam vero medietatem nobis et Ecclesiæ prælibatæ remanere volumus, pro nostris et ejus oneribus et necessitatibus supradictis. Et ecce venerabili fratri nostro Episcopo, et dilecto Magistro Bartholomeo de Ferentino Canonico London. prædictæ Collectoris Decimæ, damus per alias nostras literas in mandatis, ut hujusmodi medietatem tibi concessam tam collectæ, quam colligendæ in posterum Decimæ prælibatæ tibi vel procuratori seu procuratoribus tuis assignare procurent. Tu ita, fili charissime, sic ad ea quæ divini Majestati complacent, et honoris et exaltationis Ecclesiæ prælibatæ respiciant incrementa mentem tuam dirigas, atque confozmes, quod apud Deum et homines, ac sedem Apostolicam commendari valeas, et amplioribus attolli favoribus in tuis oportunitatibus merearis. After which I finde (in a Bundle of Writs of Privy Seal I discovered in the White Tower Chappel,) that the King and Pope equally sharing this Disme between them, issued Privy Seals to the Treasurers thereof to pay several summes of money to his Creditors out of those Dismes, and to his Chancellor, to give them receipts thereof under his Great Seal, and particularly of the summe of 2000 marks payed by his order to an Italian Usurer.

Richard de Ferariss Archbishop of Dublin residing in England, during his Nonresidency from his Archbishoprick, made Thomas de Chaddesworth, (whose election the Pope had nulled) his Vicar General, to execute his office. After which being informed he was unable to discharge that office, or his own, by reason of infirmity and age, he writ these Letters to the Canons of St. Patrick and to him, to persuade him to relinquish his Vicar General's office, and recommend some other fit person to him, able to manage it; which Letters I found in a Parchment Scroll with others (interferred to defray the expenses of his Election, and take his accounts) in the White Tower Chappel.

In the Parliament of 30 E. 1. there happened this memorable case. * William Paynel and Margaret his wife, petitioned the King in the 28th. year of his reign for the third part of the Mannor of Torpel, with the appurtenances, as her Dower, belonging to her as the Freehold of John de Cameys her first husband, &c. Et Nicholaus de Warrewyk, qui pro Domino Rege sequebatur, tunc dixit, quod predicta Margareta non debuit inde dotem habere, nec ad aliquam dotem inde petendam audiri debeat vel admitti, eo quod ipsa per longum tempus ante mortem dicti Johannis quondam viri sui, &c. sponte ac gratis de eodem viro suo recessit, & cum prefato Willielmo tunc viro suo vivente predicto Johanne in adulterio mozam traixit, nec ante mortem ipsius Johannis per ipsum Johannem reconciliata fuit: per quod juxta formam statuti Domini Regis nunc editi, de mulieribus se a viris suis elongantibus, et cum adulteris suis mozantibus, & ante mortem virorum suorum sponte et absque coercione Ecclesiastica non reconciliatis; prefata Margareta, a petitione sua predicta totaliter debet repelli, & petit Judicium pro Rege, &c. Et super hoc prefati Willielmus & Margareta protulerunt quoddam scriptum factum sub nomine predicti Johannis de Cameys primi viri, &c. in hac verba. Omnibus Christi fidelibus ad quos presens scriptum pervenerit, Johannes de Cameys filius & haeres Domini Richardi de Cameys, salutem in Domino. Roberitis me tradidisse et dimisisse spontanea voluntate mea Domino Willielmo Paynel equiti, Margaretam de Cameys, filiam & heredem Domini Johannis de Gatesdon uxorem meam, et etiam dedisse et concessisse eidem Willielmo, relaxasse et quietum clamasse omnia bona et catalla quae ipsa Margareta habet, vel de cetero habere posset, et etiam quicquid mei est de predicta Margareta bonis et catallis cum pertinentiis suis. Ita quod nec Ego, nec aliquis alius nomine meo in predicta Margareta, bonis et catallis ipsius Margareta, cum suis pertinentiis de cetero exigere vel vindicare poterimus nec debemus; imperpetuum volo et concedo, et per presens scriptum confirmo, quod predicta Margareta cum predicto Domino Willielmo sit et remaneat pro voluntate ipsius Willielmi. In cujus rei testimonium huic presenti scripto sigillum meum apposui, Hiis testibus, Thoma de Depeston, Johanne de Ferringes, Willielmo de Icombe, Henrico de Biron, Stephano Caver, Waltero le Blound, Gilberto de Batcombe, Roberto de Bosco, & aliis. Et dixerunt, quod eadem Margareta in forma in dicto scripto contenta cum ipso Willielmo mozam fecit, et ex assensu et voluntate Johannis tunc viri ipsius Margareta vivente ipso Johanne, et ex traditione et dimissione ejusdem Johannis, prout expresse per verba in eodem scripto contenta Domino Regi et Coronae suae constare potuit, et non cum eodem Willielmo ut adultero suo. Et super hoc petterunt Judicium. Et tunc dictum fuit eisdem Willielmo & Margareta, quod essent ad proximum Parliamentum futurum audiri inde judicium suum, &c. Postea ad proximum Parliamentum sequens, videlicet, ad Parliamentum Domini Regis apud Lincolniam in Octabis Sancti Hilarii anno regni nostri 29. predicti Willielmus & Margareta per attornatum suum venerunt & instanter petierunt dotem ipsius Margareta predictam; & datus fuit dies eisdem ad proximum Parliamentum sequens, &c. Postea ad proximum Parliamentum ipsius Domini Regis sequens, videlicet apud Westm. in Octabis Sancti Johannis Baptistae anno regni sui 30. venit predictus Willielmus & similiter predicta Margareta, per quendam Walterum de Blound attornatum ipsius Margareta, coram Johanne de Abel per breve Domini Regis factum, & petierunt petierunt prædictam dotem ipsius Margarete in forma prædicta, &c. Et super hoc, An. 30 E. 1.

 recitata coram ipso Domino Rege et Consilio suo in pleno Parlamento, responsione pro Domino Rege superius facta, & etiam audito & intellecto tenore scripti prædicti per ipsos Willielmum & Margaretam prius porrecti, & similiter lecto, audito & in-tellecto statuto prædicto per ipsum Dominum Regem & Consilium suum facto, & pro ipso Domino Rege allegato, & in quo expresse continetur, * Quod si uxor sponte relinquit virum suum, & abierit & moretur cum adultero suo, amittet imperpetuum actio-nem petendi dotem suam quæ ei competere posset de ten. viri sui, si super hoc convincatur, nisi vir suus sponte & absque coercionem Ecclesiasticam eam sibi recon-ciliat, & secum cohabitare permittat. Ipsi Willielmus & Margareta tunc dixerunt, quod per patriam verificare parati fuerunt, quod prædicta Margareta non morabatur cum ipso Willielmo ut adultero suo, vivente prædicto Johanne primo viro suo, & c. nec aliquid aliud dixerunt. Et quia ipsi Willielmus & Margareta dedicere non potuerunt, quin ipsa Margareta vivente prædicto Johanne primo viro suo abiret, & cum prædicto Willielmo moram faceret, virum suum, videlicet Johannem prædictum, emnino relinquenda, & sponte, ut patet manifeste, cum ipsa Margareta in vita ipsius Jo-hannis nunquam per se vel per alium, in aliquo aut alio modo reclamavit, nec adhuc reclamavit. Immo primam voluntatem suam spontaneam declarando, & affectionem versus ipsum Willielmum vivente prædicto Johanne conceptam continuando, eidem Willielmo post mortem ejusdem se nubere permisit, nec eidem Willielmus & Margareta aliquid dicunt seu ostendunt per quod Curia certiorari potest, quod præfatus Johannes primus vir suus tempore suo eam reconciliavit aliquo modo: Et per scriptum prædictum per ipsos Willielmum & Margaretam porrectum expresse apparet, quod eadem Margareta tempore prædicti Johannis ex dimissione et traditione sua cum dicto Willielmo imperpetuum remansura concessa fuit. Nec est necesse Curia Regis ad In-quisionem patriæ capiendam super hiis qua prius dedicere non potest, & Curia apparent manifeste, seu super hiis qua per partem * implacitando proponuntur & conceduntur.
 Ac sit verisimile potiusque præsumendum, & in Curia Regis & alia quacunque magis est credendum, quod ex quo uxor alienius vivente marito suo cum aliquo alio viro moram sponte faciat, in nullo reclamando vel contradicendo, quod in adulterio jaceat, quam alio modo debito aut legitimo; et maxime ubi rationem uxoris tanta postea prosequitur spontaneæ voluntatis declaratio, quod nuptiæ post mortem mariti inter eosdem subsequuntur, nec ad Coronam Regis pertineat super adulterio Inquisitionem patriæ capere: videtur Curia, quod non est necesse contra tantas et tam manifestas evidencias præsumptiones, probationes, et præfati Willielmi & Margarete concessionem, ad aliquam Inquisitionem patriæ capiendam procedere in forma prædicta, qua dicti Willielmus & Margareta eum prætendunt. Immo quod prædicta Margareta per formam statuti prædicti, ad dotem suam petendam admitti non debet seu audiri, rationibus prædictis. Et ideo consideratum est, quod prædicti Willielmus & Margareta nichil capiant per petitionem suam prædictam, set sint in misericordia pro falso clamore.

* Quadam alia littera per ipsos Willielmum & Margaretam in iudicio porrigebantur, * Placita Parl.

From which memorable Case, and Judgement in full Parliament (the first I finde given upon the Statute of Westm. 2. c. 34. Anno 13 E. 1.) after long deliberation and debate, and the proceedings in it, I shall observe; 1. That the King and Parliament themselves prescribed and inflicted this penalty on Adulterous Wives, departing from their Husbands and living with others in adultery, that they should lose their Dowers unless they were reconciled to their Husbands, and returned to them before their deaths. 2ly. That the Bishops and Ecclesiastical Courts being apt to favour Adulteresses, and to enforce their Husbands by Ecclesiastical censures to receive and cohabit with them, notwithstanding their adulteries with them and others, the King, Lords and Commons in Parliament specially provided, that this

An. 30 E. 1. forced reconciliation should not enable them to demand or receive Dowers out of their Husbands Freeholds. 3ly. That Certificates and Letters of Purgations made by such Adulteresses before the Bishops, (which were usually partial in the Adulteresses behalf) were never admitted or allowed as evidences in the Parliament or Kings Courts, to acquit them from their adultery and forfeiture of their Dowers by vertue of this Act. 4ly. That where any matter of fact, crime or elopement appears evidently to the Court by the parties own plea, evidence, confession, or shewing, it shall not be referred to a Tryal by Jury, or any others Certificate. 5ly. That the Husbands deed, grant and consent to his Wives elopement and cohabitation in adultery with another, doth no way justifie her elopement or adultery, nor enable her to claim her Dower, against the provision of this Act. 6ly. That though our Bishops and Ecclesiastical Courts then claimed and exercised Jurisdiction in causes of Matrimony and Adultery in some cases, by the grant or connivance of the King or Parliaments, yet they would no wayes admit thereof in cases of elopement, in reference to the recovery or forfeiture of Dowers, referred wholly to the Kings Temporal Courts, Judges, and High Court of Parliament: Nor of Bishops voluntary Certificates, but where the King and his Courts commanded them to certifie by special Writs.

I shall conclude this Year and Chapter, with the memorable high publike contests which happened between King Philip of France, and Pope Boniface the 8. evidencing his Antichristian usurpations, arrogance, pride, insolency, treachery, tyranny, both by his Speeches, Letters, Nuncios, actions, censures, thus briefly expressed by Matthew Westminster our Monkish Historian, <sup>a</sup> *Hoc Anno (1301) orta est dissensionis materia inter Papam et Regem Franciæ, utroque confidente de sua potentia magna; ita ut Dominus Papa diceret Nuncio Regis Francorum, Petro de Flote, Nos habemus utramque potestatem. Et ille pro Domino suo respondit; Utique Domine; Sed vestra est verbalis, nostra realis. Et in tantum excaudit ira Domini Papæ, ut diceret, mobere se belle contra eum cælum et terram. What the real cause of this deadly feud between them was, and how violently prosecuted by both parties, Walsingham, and other Historians thus relate; <sup>b</sup> *Hoc tempore, &c. (Anno 1302) Apamensis Episcopus de conspiratione contra Regem Franciæ accusatus, et ad Regis vocatus Curiam, in custodia detinetur. Mense vero Februario ad mandatum Domini Papæ liberatus, subetur, una cum Nuncio Domini Papæ regnum ebaduare infra certum terminum a Rege præfixum. Papa talibus nobis exasperatus (who would suffer no trayterous Bishop or Nuncio to be imprisoned or banished by his Sovereign for Treason or conspiracies against him) omnes gratias a se vel suis prædecessoribus concessas Francorum Regibus revocavit, et in eundem Regem cito post Excommunicationis sententiam fulminabit. Quam tamen Regi nemo ausus est nunciare, vel in regno Franciæ publicare. Fecit etiam citari Prælatos omnes de regno Franciæ, necnon et omnes Magistros in Theologia et in Jure, tam Canonico, quam Civili, ut coram eo Romæ in Calendis Novembris comparerent. Rex vero Franciæ publico prohibuit edicto, Ne quis aurum vel argentum, seu merces quascunque asportarent de regno suo, sub satisfactione omnium bonorum, adjuncta nihilominus pœna grabi: fecit etiam exitus et introitus utrique diligentissime custodiri: to hinder all exportation of gold, silver, other Commodities or Letters to the Pope and Court of Rome, or import any Bulls of Excommunication or Interdict from thence. * Platina, the Century Writers, John de Serres, and others story, That Pope Boniface sent Stephen Bishop of Apamiers in the County of Foix, within the Archbishoprick of Tholouse, (where he erected this new Bishoprick, and made Stephen Bishop thereof without the King of France his privy or consent) as his Nuncio to Philip King of France, (then involved in wars with the Flemings, who had newly given him a great overthrow) with a Bull, whereby he not only exhorted, but commanded him proudly and imperiously to succour the Tartar and Christians in the Holy Land, under pain of Excommunication: This Bishop coming to Philip with the Popes Bull, the King mildly represented to him the greatnesse and state of his affairs at home, which disabled him to obey the Popes commands; whereupon the Bishop with a bold face, *scilicet adhortando nihil efficeret, minas addidit, threatning, That if the King would not obey the Pope, he would deppeize him of his Realm. and exasperate Philip (grieved and disturbed with his late losse and overthrow by the Flemings, as if the Pope would insult over him for this his unfortunate successe) for this disloyal menace and affront, et quod ingenua puella per bim turpia intulerat Legatus (such was his vowed Episcopal chastity) hominem petulantem, ita uti dignus erat, in vincula coniecit. Bonifacius factus ea de re certior (thereupon transported with choler) protinus Petrum Narbonensem Archidiaconum commisit, qui publicè omnibus audientibus mandaret, ut quamprimum ipsum dimitteret, interminata pœna, nisi dicto obediret Franciæ regnum ad Romanam sedem devolvendum: itemque ut subditos ipsius ab obedientia absolberet, et diris ipsum debobere. The Chronicle of St. Denys written in that age, <sup>a</sup> Laurentius Bochartus, and <sup>b</sup> others superadde, Au mois de Fevrier l'an 1301. l'Archevesque de Narbonne, envoie par le Pape Boniface, vint en France de par iceluy Pape, denunciant au Roy de France, qui et luy rendest l'Evesque de Pamiers en sa gard detenue (for seditious practises, speeches and defamations uttered by him against the King in many places) Et il luy monstre les Lettres esquelles le Pape mandoit au Roy de France, qu'il vouloit qu'il sceust luy tant es temporelles choses, come es spirituelles estre soubmis en la dition du Pape de Rome, et ensemblement mandoit au Roy, si come esdites Lettres estoit contenu: que des Esclises desormais en avant, ne des prebendes baquans en son Royaume (jacoit ce qu'il eust le garde d'eux) les fructs, proffites, ou le rentes a luy ne presentist, nene presentast detenir, et tout ce gardast au successeur des moirts. Et abec ce rappeloit iceluy Pape de Rome toutes les fabeurs, graces, indulgences lesquelles pour l'ayde du Royaume de France ou au Roy avoit octroye pour la raison de la guerre. En devoiant le quel, aucune collation de prebendes ou de benefices, n'entreprest a luy usurper, poursuivre ne detenir; la quelle chose si desormais le faisoit, le Pape le tenoit pour vain, et pour faux, Et tenoit len et disoit, que tous ceuz qui se consentans seroient, il les reputoit pur heretiques. Mira hominis impudentia fuit (dit Messire Jean du Tiller, Evesque de Meaux, en son abbrege bres del Cronique) qui Regnum Gallie Pontifici manifestari beneficium asserere ausus est. Verum multo stolidiores esse puto qui disceptant, an tantum liceat Pontifici. La teneur de Lettres de sa Saintete se trouve encores a present telle.

BONIFACIUS Episcopus, Servus servorum Dei, Philippo Francorum Regi. Deum time, et mandata ejus observa. Scire te volumus, quod in spiritualibus et temporalibus nobis subest, Beneficiorum et prebendarum ad te collatio nulla spectat: et si aliquorum vacantium custodiam habeas, fructus eorum successibus reserves. Et si quæ contulisti, collationes tales irritas decernimus, et quantum de facto processerunt revocamus. Aliud credentes hæreticos reputamus.

King Philip was so highly displeased with these insolent Letters, that as Giovan Villani a Citizen of Florence then living, and sundry others story, per dispetto le gitto in sul fuoco et arsello. Ou bien comme dit le Continuateur de L'archevesque de Cosenza, fuerunt in Regis palatio eorum pluribus concremata, et sine honore remissi nuntii, qui postarant eas; ausquels encore le Roy delivra response de ceste teneur.

PHILIPPUS Dei gratia Francorum Rex, Bonifacio se gerenti pro Summo Pontifice, salutem modicam, seu nullam. Sciat maxima tua fatuitas in temporalibus nos alicui non subesse. Ecclesiarum et prebendarum collationem, ad nos jure Regio pertinere, et fructus earum vacatione durante nostros facere. Collationes a nobis hactenus factas, et in posterum faciendas, fore validas; et illarum vigore, possessores contra omnes viriliter nos tueri. Secus autem credentes, fatuos et dementes reputamus. Dar. &c.

Hereupon this insolent Antichristian Pope was so highly incensed against King Philip of France, in a season when he thought him to be drawn dry both of men and monyes by his warr with Flanders, (which had wasted about three hundred thousand Frenchmen and infinite Treasures in lesse then eleven years) solemnly excommunicated Philip in a General Council, with Saints Reliques and the Crosse, & accursed him to the fourth generation, for prohibiting any monyes to be carryed to him out of France, and to deprive Barones simul cum Syndicis, & Procuratoribus supradictis, secedentes in partem, et demum deliberato consilio redeuntes, prefato Domino Regi, de huiusmodi suo laudabili proposito et beneplacita voluntate, ad multa laudum preconiis, et gratiarum actiones exuberes assurgentes, unanimiter responderunt, se ad ea paratos, nedum exponere res et bona quæ extant, sed ad hæc totaliter offerebant se et suas personas, usque ad mortis supplicium, tormentorum quoumlibet grabamina non vitando; adicientes expressius viva voce: Quod si prefatus Dominus Rex premissa, quod absit, eligeret tolerare, vel sub dissimulatione transire, ea ipsi nullatenus sustinerent. Itaque a nobis subsequenter responsione petita, licet longioris deliberationis inducias postulantes, ipsum Dominum Regem et maiores et Baronibus memoratis, quod non ea intentione ad eundem Dominum Regem Apostolicæ literæ processissent, ut bestre voluntatis existeret in Regni predicti libertatem impingere, vel quicquam honori Regis contrarium in hac parte quomodolibet innobare, (multa lenitate verborum, persuasionibus studiosis, et multiplicatis excusationum prelatibus) nisi fuimus informare, ac ipsum ad seruandum vinculum unionis, quod inter sanctam Romanam Ecclesiam et predecessores suos, et ipsum, usque ad hæc tempora viguisse dinoscitur, multiplici inductione: ulteriori tamen dilatione negata, ac predicto patenter et publice uniuersis, quod si quis voluntatis contraria appareret, extunc pro inimico Regis et Regni notorie haberetur, consultius attendentes, et conspicientes apertius, quod nisi Dominus Rex et Barones predicti ex nostra forent responsione contenti, preter alia pericula et gravia scandala, quorum non esset numerum, neque finis tam Romanæ quam Gallicanæ Ecclesiæ debotio, et obedientia omnimoda laicorum, et totius populi, quæ extunc irrecuperabiliter tollebatur, non nisi multæ perplexitatis angustia, sic durissimum respondendum; Quod ipsi Domino nostro Regi in conseruatione personæ suæ, suorumque, et honorum, ac libertatis et Iurium dicti Regni, prout quidam nostrum, qui Ducatus, Comitatus, Baronias, Feoda, et alia membra Rebus dicti Regni tenemus, ex forma Iuramenti, et ceteri, qui omnes debito sibi sumus fidelitatis ascripti, adessemus eidem debitis consiliis, et auxiliis opportunitis; Eidem Domino nostro Regi humiliter supplicantes, ut cum Apostolicæ Sanctitati ad obedientiam teneamur, ad beatitudinis bestre pedes, iuxta premissæ vocationis bestre tenerem, permitteret nos perferre. Ex parte cuius, & Baronum est secuta responsio: Quod nos nullo modo abire permitterent: Regnum sic periculose, sic deformiter, sic irrecuperabiliter bacuari, quin potius exhauriri totaliter nullatenus sustinerent. Lettre envoyée par tous les Barons de Royaume de France au Collège des Cardinaux, quant le Roy appella contre Boniface Pape.

Pierre de Pithou Preuves des Libertez de l'Eglise Gallicane, c. 7. sect. 15. p. 140, 141.

A Honorables peres lors chiers & anciens amis, tout le Colliege, & a chacun des Cardinaux de la Sainte Eglise de Rome, li Duc, li Comte, li Baron, & li Noble, tuit du Roialme de France, salut, & continuel encreissement de charite, d'amour, & de toutes bonnes adventures a leur desir. Seignours, vous especialement sçavez & chacun qui a sain entendement, comment l'Eglise de Rome, & li Royaume de France, li Rois, li Baron, li Clergie, & li peuples d'iceluy Royaume, ont d'anciennete & continuellement de custume este conioints ensemble par ferme & uraye amour, & charite, & les grans miseres, les peins, & les travaux que nos anteceßours, & li plusieurs de nous & des nostres, ont souffert, souffrent & souffrent tous jours en l'honneur de celuy qui pour nous souffrit passion & mort, pour soutenir & effaucier la loy, & la foy Chrestienne, & Sainte Eglise, pour laquelle plusieurs d'eux ont maintes fois souffert moult de griefues peines & travaux, & estes pris & naures a mort, & les grans cures que la divine Eglise a mises pour le bon estat du Royaume. Et pour ce que trop griefue chose seroit a nous, se celle uraye unite qui si longuement a dure entre nous, se demenuisoit & defailloit maintenant par la male volente & par lennemie longuement nourrie sous l'ombre de amitie, & par les torcionnieres & desrenables entreprises de celuy, qui en present est ou siege du gouvernement de l'Eglise, nous vous certifions par la tenour de ces lettres aucunes mauvaises & outrageuses nouvelletez, que il a de nouvel entreprises a faire a nostre treschier & redoute Seignour Phelippe par la grace de Dieu Roy de France, & a tout le Royaume; les quelles nostre Sire li Roy fit exposer entendiblement par devant nous, & tous les Prelats, les Abbez, & les Priours, les Doyens, les Provosts, les Procureurs des Chapitres, & des Convents, des Colliges, des Universitez, & des Comunautés des Villes de son Royaume, presens devant luy, par les quiels se ils par sa desordenee volente estoient poursuivies, l'unitez & l'amitie devant dites, se deferoient & deshoinderoient entre la dite Eglise, & le Roy, & le Royaume, & nous; car nous, ne le purrions, nene pourrions souffrir en nulle maniere, pour peine, perte, ne metchief que souffrir en deultens, en personnes, en enfans, en heritages, ne en autres biens. Pre-

An. 30 E. 1. miers entre les autres choses que au dit Roy nostre Sire furent envoyees par messages, & par lettres, il est contenu, que du Royaume de France, que nostre Sire li Roy, et li habitans du Royaume, ont tousiours dit estre subget en temporalite de Dieu tant seulement, si comme c'est chose notoire a tout le monde, il en duroit estre subiet a luy temporellement, et ne luy le devoit et doit tenir; et plus que il encoires avec ce a fait appeller les Prelats, les Docteurs en Theologie, les Maistres en Canon et en Loys du dit Royaume de France, par amander et corriger les erres, les griefs, les oppressions, et les dommages, que il dit par sa volente, estre faiz par nostre Sire li Roy, par les Ministres, et par les Baillifs, as Prelats, as Eglises, as persones des Eglises, a nous, aux Universitez, et au peuple du dit Royaume, jacoit ce que nous ne les Universitez, ne li peuples du dit Royaume, ne requirons, nene voulions avoir, ne correction, ne amende sur les choses debantistes par luy ne par l'authorite, ne par son poutoir, ne par autre, fors que par le dit nostre Sire le Roy; et ja avoit pourveu li Roy nostre Sire, a mettre remede a griefs, l'aucun en y eust, mais pour ce a retarde, puis que ces nouvelles sont venues a luy; que il ne veult nuyse que il apere, que il la face par cremeur, ou par commandement, ou par correction de luy, ou d'autroy. Par la quelle conbocation ainsi faite, li Roiaumes remonstroient en grand geril et en grand deconfort, se il se vultoit de si precieus joyau et thesors, auxquels nuls se comperent, et que lendoit mettre avant toutes forces, et avant toutes armes, c'est a sçavoir, le sens des Prelats et des autres saiges, par quel conseil, par quel sens, et par qui pourbeance le gouvernement du Roiaume est adrechiez et maintenu, la foy est tenue et eslaice en sermete, li Sacremens de Sainte Eglise sont amenistrez, et tenus, et justice faite et gardee en celuy Roiaume, pour lesquelz choses, et pour autres, les quelles trop longs chose seroit a escrire. Et pour ce especialment, que cil qui a present siet ou siege du gouvernement de l'Eglise, a fait et fait encoires chacun jour par ces ordenances de volente, les confirmations, et les collations des Archevesques, et des Evesques, et des autres nobles Benefices du Roiaume debantist, et y a mises par grandes quantitez et sommes d'argent, par quoy il les a grebees et chargees, si que il conbient, que li menus peuples, qui leur est subgez, soient grebez et ranconnez; car autrement ne pourroient payer les exactions, qui leur a faiz par persones meconneues, et aucunes suspecconneues, et telles, et plusieurs, si comme enfens et plusieurs autres, qui de nul Benefice d'Eglise tenir ne sont dignes, et qui nulle residence ne font es Eglises ou ils ont Benefices, ne ja n'y entrent; et ainsi les Eglises sont defraudes de leur services, et les volentez de ceur qui les Eglises fonderent, sont anienties, par quoy les aumosnes sont laisses, pitie arriere mise, et les bien faiz substraiz qui aux Eglises souloient estre faiz, et les Eglises en sont si abaties et decheues, que a peine y a nuls qui les desfordent, ne li Prelats ne poent donner leurs Benefices aux nobles Clercs, et autres bien nez et bien nettrez de leurs Dioceses, de qui antecessours les Eglises sont fondees; par quoy malvois exemple est donnez communement a tout le pui, le, et pour les pensions nouvelles et les services ontragious et desaconformes, et les exactions et extorsions diverses, et les dommagesables nouveleitez, li general estat de l'Eglise du tout macz et ostez a souverains Prelats, li pooires de faire ce qui a eue de leur office appartient, et est accoustumez de faire, et encoire ne luy souffist ce mie, mais les collations des Benefices, que nostre Sire li Roy et nos antecessours ont fondez, et a li et a nous appartiennent, et ont de tout temps appartenu a li et a nous debanciers, et est accoustume a appartenir, il nous empesche et les veut adjeuster et traire debers li par grand conboille, pour plus grans exactions et plus grans services atraire a luy; et les quelles choses nous ne pourrions ne pourrions souffrir des oyes en avant en nulle maniere pour meschief nul qui nous puisse avenir, et se ainsi estoit que nous, ou aucuns de nous le vouissent souffrir; ne les soufferoit mie li dits nostre Sire li Roy, ne li commun peuples du dit Royaume, et a grand douleur et grand meschief, nous vous faisons a sçavoir par la teneur de ces lettres, que ce ne sont choses qui plaisent a Dieu, ne ne doivent plaire a nul homme de bone volente, ne oncques mes telles choses ne descendent en cuer d'homme, ne oyes, ne furent, ne entendues advenir

Moreover the People and Commons of France in that Parliament, made this following Supplication to King Philip against Pope Boniface the 8. for the defence of his Sovereignty in the Realm and Churches of France, against his Papal claims and Usurpations thereon in his precedent Bull and Letter, and to declare and pronounce him an Heretick for his assertions therein.

Le Supplication de Pueuble de France au Roy, contre le Pape Boniface le 8.

A Vous tresnoble Prince nostre sire par la grace de Dieu Roy de France, supplie & requiert le pueuble de vostre Royaume, pour ce que il li appartient que ce soit fait, que vous gardiez la Souveraine franchise de vostre Royaume, qui est telle, que vous ne reconnissiez de vostre temporell Souverain en terre, soz que Dieu, et que vous faciez declarer, si que tout le monde la seache, que le Pape Boniface erra manifestement, et fist pechie mortel notoirement, en vous mandant par lettres bullees, que il estoit vostre Souverain de vostre temporell, et que vous ne poudiez prentendes donner, ne les fruits des Eglises

Pierre de Piethou Preuves des Libertez de l'Eglise Gallicane, c. 7. sect. 17. p. 246, 247

An. 30 E. 1. Eglises Cathedrales vacans retenir, et que touz ceuz qui croient le contraire, il tenoit pour heresges.

Item, que vous facez declarer que l'en doit tenir le dit Pape pour heresge; non pas vous, et toute la gent de vostre Royaume, qui tousloiz ont creu et croient le contraire: Et pour ce que il ne veult cette erreur rappeler, ayant dit mont de fois que en cette creance viroit et mourroit, et que sa pour nul homme ce ne rappelleroit: les quelles choses il pouoit faire, ne dire, ne croire, sans pecher mortellement contre vous, contra vos boirs, et contre vos antecessours, et contre tous vos suiets, et contre tout le pueble Latin, qui croit la Decretale, qui dit, que vous ne reconnoissez nul Souverain en terre, et que le Pape qui la fist, ne vouloit pas, ne ne devoit surredon demander sur vostre temporel; si que le dit Pape vous vouloit tollir a tort la graigneur noblesse, et le plus haut point de vostre Seigneurie, en faisant contre le commandement de la Loy nostre Sire, tout sarchamutement, en disant que il li lisoit sere encontre, et que soit voir, il pert; pour ce que li, qui disoit que il estoit sers Dieu, ne pouoit la Loy de son Seigneur oster, ne refuser a la garder, mesmement, quant as commandements de la Loy, que il ne fust, et deust estre tenu pour bongre, len puet prouver par vbe force, sans que nul y puisse par raison respondre, que le Pape n'eut onques Seigneurie de vostre temporel, ne en autre, ne avoir, ne chalengier, ne doit, fors tant comme ceuz qui la Seigneurie avoient on temps Sainct Sylvestre, et puis l'en ont donne, et se il paroist plus chalement, et demandeurs convoltise, et rapine seroit par les raisons qui ensuivent. Quand Dieu le pere apres le Ciel, & les quatre Elements ont forme Adam & Eve, il dit a eux & a leur succession, Quod calcaveris pes tuus, tuum erit, si comme se dit le commencement de la Bible; cest a dire, que il vouloit, que chacun homme fust le Seigneur de ce quil occuperoit de terre. Ainsi departirent les fils d'Adam la terre, & en furent Seigneurs, trois mil ans & plus, avant le temps Melchisedec, qui fust le premier Prestre, & fust Roy, si comme dit l'histoire; mais il ne fust pas Roy de tout le monde, & obeissoient la gent a li comme a Roy du temporel, non pas comme a Prestre, & fust avant Roy que Prestre. Apres sa mort fust graund temps, 600 ans ou plus, autant qe nul autre fust Prestre. Et Dieu le pere que donne la Loy de Moise, le stable Prince de son pueble Israel, & li commanda, que il fist Aaron son frere Souverain Prestre, & son fils apres li. Et Moise baille & commist, quand u deust mourir, du mandement de Dieu, la Seigneurie du temporel, non pas au Souverain Prestre son frere, ains a Josue sans debat, que Aaron & son fils apres y meissent, ains gardoient le Tabernacle, & entendoient illec au service de Dieu, & se aidoint au temporel defendre, & conquerir par armes, & autrement. Et tous les autres Prestres & Diacre le firent apres eux, aussi comme les autres gens. Et puis quand il vint a partir la Terre Saincte entre les douze lignies, qui conquise l'avoient, celui Dieu, qui toutes les choses & avenir seavoit, commanda a Josue leur Prince, que il partist la terre entre les ouze lignies; & que le lignie des Prestres & des Diacres eussent en lieu de leur partie, les disiesmes & les premisses de tout, & en vesquissent sans terres avoir, si que ils peussent plus profitablement Dieu servir, & prier pur le pueble. Et puis quand il vint grand piece apres, que le pueble d'Israel demande Roy a nostre Seigneur, ou fist demander par le Prophete Samuel, il ne leur e lit pas le Souverain Prestre, mais Saul, qui surmontoit le graudeur tout le pueble, de tout le col, & de la teste. Apres nostre Seigneur eleut David en Roy, non pas le Souverain Prestre, si que il not nul Roy en Jerusalem sus le pueble de Dieu, qui fust Prestre, mais avoient Roy & Souverain Prestre en diverses personnes & avoit lan assez a faire de gouverner le Temporel, & le autre le Spirituel du petit pueble; & si obeissoient tous les Prestres du Temporel aux Roys. Apres nostre Seigneur Jesus Christ fust Souverain Prestre, & ne trouve len point escrit, quil eust onques nulle possession du Temporel, neque il voulsist que Herodes, qui Roy estoit, ne Pilate, qui estoit garde de ce que li Empereur de Rome avoit en pais, li en obeissent de riens ains dit, que l'en rendist a Cesar ce que l'en luy devoit, & a Dieu aussi; & fist paier pur li, & pur Saincte Pere son Vicair d'un deniere d'or, quil fist prendre en le guelle d'un poisson, & le fist a fin quil ne feist esclandre en luy, par le quel ils paient, non pas pour ce que il ne deussent riens. Apres ce Sainct Pere, & Sainct Pol, Sainct Clement, & les autres Sainctes

Saincts Apostles, ne les autres jusques au temps du dit Boniface, ne demanderent oncques Seigneurie, fors en ce que Constantinus donno a l'Eglise. Ce fut grand abomination a ouir que cest Boniface, pour ce que Dieu dit a Sainct Pere, ce que tu lieras en terre, sera lie au Ciel; cette parolle, d'espirituellement, entendi malement, comme bougre quant au Temporel; se il meist un homme en prison temporelle, le meist pour ce Dieu en prison en Ciel. Et si dist S. Augustin contra Vincetium Donatistam, len puet en prescher user de la Saincte Escriture, en sens de mystere, si comme le prescheur voit que bien est; mais len doit user in dispuoison, en sens de la lettre, non mie par mystere. Et si dient les Docteurs que les faits de nostre Seigneur, escrits au vieil Testament, sont figure & exemple du nouvel Testament. Et l'Apostre dit, que nous devons prendre exemple au fils Jesus Christ. Donques quand Dieu le pere bailla a deux personnes le gouvernement de son petit pueble d'Israel, a un le Temporel, a l'autre l'Espirituel, comment osa dire le dit Boniface, & mander, que la volonte de Dieu, il devoit l'abolir la poubair et la charge de gouverner l'Espirituel et le Temporel de tout le monde; quar se il eust le pouvoir du Temporel sur vous & sur vostre Royaume; par plus forte raison il eust ce pouvoir sur tous les Princes Chrestiens: pour ce que il n'en y a nul, qui par droit escrit peut monstrier sa franchise, fors que vous: pour quoy vous li puez dire que a tort, par tresgrande conboitise, vouloit se souprendre de neubel par dessus vous, et par le greignour orgueil que len peult trouver, que homme eust oncques demande poeste en monde. Comment pourroit homme dire parole plus enlee d'orgueil, que celle, Dieu m'a commis en terre son poubair en temporalite, et en spiritualite, si que sus toutes gents en toutes manieres l'eussent mon poubair et ma poeste. Len puet bien voir se l'entente de si sage seculier, comme il estoit, fust de bien gouverner tout le Temporel et l'Espirituel. Il n'empist pas si grand fais, quas nul plus sage et plus soyn n'i lessissent pas. Li meismes ne souffisoit pas a l'Espiritualite gouverner, ne son devoir ne faisoit; car il estoit tenu de garder les commandements de la Loy, du vieil Testament, et du noubel, qui dient, que il devoit amer et enseigner chascun homme du monde, comme soy mesme, et que qui ne sera baptise, et ne croire en Jesus Christ, sera condampne; et que si, comme il qui est Pape, aimoit Dieu, il estoit tenu sauber et lui rendre toutes armes, et les enseigner par faites et par paroles. Orne les enseignoit il pas bien en fait de tel orgueil, et de telle conboitise; quar il querolt son profit et sa volente, non pas de tout le pueble, et si n'enseignoit par paroles, ne mes en pais ou il fust nez, de moult la mendre partie de la gent. Et n'ensuivoit pas nostre Seigneur Jesus Christ, qui envoya precher la foy Chrestienne par soixante et donz Disciples, ausquelz il donna le sens et les langages de toutes gents; mais le dit Boniface fu en ce negligent: quar onques par soy ne par autre ne regarde ne n'enseigna la centiesme partie de la gent du monde. Il estoit greigneur besoing que il sceut Arabic, Caldic, Griex, Ebriex, & tous autres langages, desquelz il est moult de Chrestiens, qui ne croient pas comme l'Eglise de Rome, pour ce que ils n'out este de ce enseigniez, si comme les Pantacors devers Orient, neuf cens Evsques quique il y a sons li pres de tous les Griex, & plusieurs autres desquelz enseigner il laissa la cure, pour les plus obeissans suppediter, grever, & molester, que il est dessusdit. Se celui qui par miracles ne pouvoit donner les langages, eust fait apprendre en tous les langages des lettres, tant descoliers, bien despoiez pour apprendre, que ils souffissent pour envoyer a routes les puebles precher la foy Chrestienne; & fils n'eussent asses sceu pour ce fere a sa vie, ses successeurs les eussent envoyez, en par faisant ce que il eust commencie: aussi comme Moise commença la conquete de la Terre Saincte, & ce ne la vit onques, mes establist par soy, quand il deult morir, en son lieu Josue, & commanda au pueble qui luy obeist. Pour ce appert, puis que dire le convient; quar qui folie dit, folie doit oyr, pour quoy en respondre sens et verite ne puet per il abentr. Quar si Boniface pour soy et pour tout son Clergie eus a Dieu renda tout le pueble Latin, qui moult, tant comme il eust en cure, que il en laissa quatre cens peril par sa negligence, et pour ce que il ne garda les commandements de la Loy, en ce que nostre Seigneur Jesus Christ dit a Sainct Pere, Passe oves meas, & entendi de toutes de quelconque lieu, & de quelconques lignages que ils fussent, & il laissa ce a faire, pour entendre a pourboir et a noblir son lignage,

An. 30 E. 1. et pour vous tollir vostre greigneur Franchise, il ne puet nier, que par se fait, plus encores que ce il deist, pour ce que len croit plus exemple de fait, que de paroles, que il ne donnaist occasion a tous Princes mescreans, et a tous les Chrestiens Princes desobeissans, de refuser le Baptisme, et l'obeissance del Eglise de Rome: pour ce que ils peussent perdre le plus haut point de leurs Seigneuries, c'est ascavoir, de non reconnoistre Souverain de leur fins. Se les Apostres, et les autres Disciples eussent fait, ou dit ainsi, nul ne cui deroit qu'ils peussent avoir un tout seul Prince converti. Et si droit en qu'il commenca, a vous, bon Roy, pour ce, que vous, et vos Antecessours, et tout le peuple soumissa, vous avez tout temps este les plus obeissans, et les plus debors a l'Eglise de Rome, et a toutes les autres; si comme il pert bien, regarda la Jurisdiction & l'autorite des Eglises de vostre Royaume, et des autres. Et pour ce il pert, que Boniface, l'exemple de Zacharias, soufferra de faire contre le greigneur bien, le greigneur mal, que il puet, quand il oyt qu'il vous & vostre Conseil et tout vostre pueble, qui tant est grand, vous teniez pour si mal pnyez de son mandement. Et que si grand esclandre en estoit par tout le monde, comme le fait greigneur, que len ne pourroit dire ne escrire, & si eult este trop greigneur, se len eult use de semblable sur tout le pueple Latin: quar null homme n'y eult obey, tant comme ils en peust defendre, le cuer & la volente du mandement, qui cuidoit faire tout le monde trembler, s'endurcissent sans repentir, & sans retraire a l'exemple de Pharaon. Ne onques homme ne s'aperceut, que il ne morut en si grand iniquite, en faisant le contraire de nostre Seigneur Jesus Christ, & de Saint Pol, qui dit ainsi, Se mon frere estoit esclandre, pour len estre, je me garderoye de mengier char a tousioursmais: & pource qu'il ne parlait sans faire, et sans que il ne fust greveur au pueble, & que esclandre ne issist, ice celuy sage Apostre, quand il alloit prechant, par son art, & par ses mains queroit, en faisant panners, ce que necessaire y estoit pour luy, et pour ceux qui avec li estoient: et l'Apostre en son Canon mesme dit, que pour esclandre escheuer, l'en doit faire & laisser a faire tout ce que l'en peut sans pechie mortel. Et si fut, et est, esclandre greigneur du dit mandement, de lozguet, et de la conboitise; pour ce que les sages regardoient, que les Apostres & les Emperours, en firent leur droet, qui pour eux establirent le plus qu'ils peurent. La quelle chose pert bien, a ce que l'Emperour dit, que il estoit Seigneur du monde, sans rien excepter, qui ne avint onques a Alexandre, ne a autre. Et se n'oserent il dire que l'en ne se peut defendre contre l'Eglise de Rome, et contre li Empire, par prescription de Cent ans. Autrement il convenist revenir a faire comme les poissons, qui ont toute la mer comune, si que le plus fort boure hors le plus foible, et occupe le lieu, tant comme il luy plaist a demourer. Ainsi servent la gent, se longue teneure ne diffendoit les tenens. Dont semble il bien que le dit Pape vouloit tou le monde destruire, et mettre en guerre, qui de nouvel vouloit occuper cette Seigneurie, qui tenue et posside avoit este plus de mille ans en bonne soy des Roys des France. Par autele raison puet len demander tout l'heritage que Dieu le Pere partit entre Adam et ses enfans, quand il dit, Ce que ton pied marchera, & que tu occuperas, sera tien. Par quoy il pert, quil alloit droitement contre la loy de Dieu, et contre le comandement. Onques quand le dit Boniface sceut si grand esclandre esmeue par le dit mandement, ne sen suffist pour se appaisier. Il appert bien, que il ne doute esclandre de riens, & que cette entente de li fu perverse, E que len aperceut onques sur se amendement. Et quand len ne puet nier quil ne sceust tel esclandre, et il ne luy en chalo, mais poursui comme melencholieux sa folle entente, plus fort que devant, par plusieurs fois, persez perners, par les queulx il renua Dieu, et en ce se rendurci, sans resortir de riens en sa vie. Et fit ces choses notoirement, en disant, qui lui lisoit a faire. Et si appert clerement, que il ne la puet faire sans plusieurs pechiez mortels, qui ne puent estre excusez, que ce ne fust verite notoire. Pour quoy, par les dits de Saint Pol, & de Saint Augustin, il renoia Dieu notoirement, et en cest Estat fu mort, sans que len onques apperceust sa repentance, si comme ceux qui furent presens, & la renommee de Rome le tesmoigne; & in Epistola ad Titum 1. c. 9. q. 3. c. existimant. Et se maintint tousiours, comme Pharaon, que il luy lisoit a faire; pour quoy il par raisonablement quil fu herege, & in cette erreur mourat. E saucuns voulon le dit Boniface excuser de tout cest esclandre, en disant que le dit Pape ne pouvoit laisser, que il ne fist son pouvoir des choses dessusdites, que il ne cheist en pechie mortel, et que sentence fu telle: Con-

tre ce puet l'en dire, que il appert, que ce fust faux; car il s'ensuiuroit quil creust, que tous les Apostoilles eussent rescu tous dix en pechie mortel, pour ce qu'ils ne firent ainsi. Par quoy que aucun autre ne praigne exemple a faire aussi, et pour ce que la peine de luy face poeur aux autres: et mesmement pour ce que ils que fust Pape, et devant mesmes, ou li vit notoirement fere moult de choses, qui ne pouvoient estre faites en bonne maniere, desquelles ou nappercent onques signe d'amenement; Vous, noble Roy, sur tous Princes, heritage defendeur de la Roy, destruisseur de Bougres, pouez et duez, et estes tenus requerre et procurer, que le dit Boniface soit tenu et jugiez pour herege, en la maniere que len le pourra et deura, et doit faire apres ce mort; si qua vostre Souveraine Franchise soit gardée et declarée, et qu'elle ne perissa, ne ne soit avilée en nostre temps, et si que vous gardiez le serment, lequel vous faites en vostre Couronnement: l'honneur et le profit de vous, et de vos antecessours, et de vos heires, et de tout vostre grand pueble, la greigneur franchise de vostre Royaume ne soit perdue, ne en doute remedie, et que celle injure fait a vous, et a vostre pueble, soit bien et suffisamment esmendee. De Tresor des Chartes Registre 129. fol. 114.

The Colledge of Cardinals upon receipt of the Peers and Nobles of France premised Letter, returned this following Letter in Answer thereunto, in defence and excuse of Pope Boniface and his Provisions made in France.

* Miseratione divina Episcopi, Presbyteri, & Diaconi, S. Romanæ Ecclesiæ Cardinales, Nobilibus viris, Ducibus, Comitibus, Baronibus, & Nobilibus Regni Francia, in vero salutari salutem. Recepimus literas vestras Nobilitatis & nuncios, quas quidem per eosdem Nuntios latores presentium destinastis, quarum intellectus tenor nostros amaricavit animos, & turbavit auditus. Vobis igitur presentibus respondemus, quod sanctissimus Pater & Dominus noster, Dominus Bonifacius, divina providentia Sacrosanctæ Romanæ ac universalis Ecclesiæ Summus Pontifex, & nos ipsi vinculum charitatis & sinceritatis affectus, quæ inter ipsum Dominum nostrum Summum Pontificem, Prædecessores ipsius Romani Pontifices, & nos, & Prædecessores nostros S. R. Ecclesiæ Cardinales, ac Magnificum Principem Dominum Philippum Francia Regem illustrem, ac Prædecessores suos fuerunt & viguerunt ab olim, manutinemus libenter; & ut firma & stabilia maneant, promptis studiis laboramus; ad hoc etiam invenimus ipsum Dominum nostrum paratum & promptum. Inimicus tamen homo seminavit zizania, quæ Deo authore in fasciculos colligata erunt in combustionem & cibum ignis; & volumus vos pro certo tenere, quod prædictus Dominus noster Summus Pontifex nunquam scripsit Regi prædicto, quod de Regno suo sibi subesse temporaliter, illudque ab eo tenere deberet, & providus vir Magister Jacobus Archidiaconus Narbonensis, Notarius & Nuncius Domini nostri prædicti, sicut constanter affirmat, ipsi Domino Regi hoc ipsum vel simile nunquam verbaliter nuntiavit aut scripto. Unde propositio quam fecit Petrus Flor in presentia dicti Domini Regis, Prælatorum et vestra, et aliorum multorum, arenosum & falsum habuit fundamentum, & ideo necesse est, quod cadat ædificium, quod ædificabitur super illud: Prælati vero, Doctores in Theologia, & utriusque Juris Magistri vocati fuerunt ad ipsius Domini nostri præsentiam, certo eis peremptorio termino assignato, ut cum eis super agendis posset deliberare consultius, sicut personis ipso Domino Regi non suspectis, immo acceptis & gratis, et diligentibus nomen ejus, & affectantibus statum prosperum & tranquillum ipsorum Domini Regis & regni. Hec est nobis per sedem Apostolicam pro qualitate temporum et necessitate causarum, Concilia non solum particularia, sed etiam generalia convocari, quorum aliqua plurimum ex nobis temporibus congregata noscuntur. Detulit tamen dictus Dominus noster ipsi Domino Regi & regno, generale Concilium non vocando, in quo forsitan convenissent nonnulli nationum & regnorum illorum, qui minus dilectionis ad dictum noscuntur habere. Et si ad eorundem Prælatorum & vestram pervenisset notitia literarum tenor, quas idem Archiepiscopus dicto Domi-

An. 30 E. 1. no Regi, ex parte ipsius Domini nostri Summi Pontificis presentavit, et fuissent expositus diligenter, reddendæ fuissent Deo & Domino vestro gratiæ copiosæ super paterna cura & materna dulcedine, quam ipse Dominus noster gessit & gerit, ut ipsi Rex et regnum habeant statum prosperum et quietum, et ut tollantur gravamina, quæ Prælati, Ecclesiis ac Monasteriis, et nonnullis ex vobis, et Clero et populo sunt illata. Cum utique dictus Dominus noster Summus Pontifex, si Ecclesiam Gallicanam gravavit, hoc fecit concedendo ipsi Domino Regi decimam plurimum Annorum Ecclesiasticorum proventus regni sui. Et quod ad dictum ejus in qualibet Ecclesia Cathedrali & Collegiata regni prædicti, una persona idonea poneretur; nonnullis etiam dignitates et beneficia contulit consideratione Regis ejusdem, Prælatorum et aliquorum ex vobis. Dispensationes quoque multas concessit et magnas, quæ non latent Regem ipsum et multos ex vobis; ex quibus per ingratitudinem non dilectionis & reverentiæ, recipit idem Dominus noster debitam responsivam. Ad hæc non venit in dubium homini sanæ mentis, Romanum Pontificem obtinere Prælatum, et esse summum Hierarcham in Ecclesiastica Hierarchia, et posse omnem hominem arguere de peccato. Nostræ quoque memoriæ non occurrit, quod Cathedralibus Ecclesiis dicti Regni prohiberit de personis Italicis, nisi Bituricensi, et Attrebatensi Ecclesiis, quibus de personis prohibuit ipsi Regi non suspectis et regno, quorum eminens scientia late patet, nec sint conditiones eorum incognitæ. Multis vero aliis Ecclesiis Cathedralibus prohibuit de personis oriundis de regno prædicto, nec Regi, nec regno prædictis probabili ratione suspectis. Quis unquam prædecessorum suorum formas providendi pauperibus Clericis plus extendit, quibus per nonnullos ex Prælati non fiebat Provisio, et mendicare quodammodo cogeantur in opprobrium Clericale? Exsurgant cum ipso Domino Magistri in Theologia, quibus ipse in Parisiensi Ecclesia Canonatus contulit & Præbendas. Exsurgant Magistri et alii literati, et in acie stent cum ipso, qui paupertate gravati multis sudoribus, multis vigiliis, multis laboribus adepti sunt scientiæ Margaritam, et dicam quomodo illorum pietas, ad quos beneficiorum collatio pertinebat, respexit eosdem. Invenietis pro uno extraneo, cui est per ipsum Dominum in dicto regno provisum, trecentum qui de prædicto regno traxerunt originem, ab eo provisionis gratiam recepisse. Et si de vacantibus beneficiis regni prædicti, aut vacaturis prohibuit, nonne prohibuit de personis oriundis de regno eodem, et familiaribus, et Clericis Regis, Prælatorum regni et vestris. Ad hæc ut non taceamus vobis solidam veritatem, non decuit, immo licuit, nec etiam expedivit sanctissimum Patrem et Dominum nostrum, Dominum Bonifacium, divina providentia Sacrosanctæ Romane ac universalis Ecclesiæ Summum Pontificem in literis vestris, quas nobis misistis, non nominare Summum Pontificem; sed, quod dolenter referimus, missis filialis et solitæ reverentiæ more ac stylo, ipsum nominastis per quendam circumlocutionem indebitorum verborum et nobiter inventorum. Hujusmodi autem literarum nostrarum placeat vobis habere bonum interpretem & fidelem. Datum Anagninæ 6. Kal. Julii, Pontificatus vero præfati Domini nostri Dom. Bonifacii Papæ 8. Anno octavo, Sigill. 17 sigillis ceræ rubræ. Du Thresor des Chartres cofre Boniface, num. 4.

Soon after, King Philip out of his Sovereign Authority issued these ensuing Letters for the constant, inviolable Protection and defence of all his Nobles, Prelates and Subjects adhering to him against Pope Boniface in this quarrel, against all his Citations, Excommunications, Interdicts, Censures, and proceedings whatsoever, ratified by Oath, from which he would not recede for any dispensation or cause whatsoever; thus registered for his honor to posterity.

 mus; et ea propositis sacrosanctis Evangelii tenere et inviolabiliter observare, ac etiam adimplere, jurari fecimus, in presentia nostra, et in animam nostram, per dilectum et fidelem nostrum Comitem S. Pauli. Caterum charissimæ Consorti nostræ Johanne Regine Francie, ac charissimo Ludovico primogenito, & Philippo secundogenito natis nostris, & Baronibus supradictis, damus presentibus in mandatis, ut eidem Abbati P. omnia et singula promissa promittant, seque expresse et specia-liter obligent ad observationem eorundem, et similibus juramentis astringant. Nos vero per promissiones & juramenta, quæ dictus Abbas super promissis & præmissa tangentibus, nobis fecit & præstitit, non intendimus, nec volumus novum homagium, juramentum, seu aliam novam servitutem, in ipso, & in monasterio suo, et ipsius successoribus, in aliis acquirere in futurum. Nos autem Joanna, Francie & Navarre Regina, Campanie, Brieg, Comitissa Palatina, nosque Ludovicum & Philippum præfati, præmissa omnia et singula tenere firmiter, & fideliter observare, quantum ad nos pertinet, vel in futurum poterit pertinere, promissimus et per præfatum Comitem S. Pauli in animas nostras jurari fecimus nos, haeredes et successores nostros ad hæc expressè, et specialiter obligantes. Nos vero prænominatus Rex præmissa omnia & singula, per præfatos Consortem & liberos nostros, de mandato nostro, promissa, jurata, & prædictas obligationes, modo prædicto factas fuisse testamur. Philippus Dei gratia Francorum Rex dilecto & fideli nostro Archiepiscopo Remensi salutem & dilectionem. Olim pro defensione necessaria regni nostri, ad cujus impugnationem hostilis iniquitas conatus suæ malignitatis exercet, aliisque cæteris & legitimis causis inducti, constitutiones et inhibitiones, ne quis de fidelibus, vel subditis nostris, vel incolis regni nostri, cuiuscunque status et conditionis existant, exire limites regni ejusdem, vel in via se poneret ereundi, et de auro, argento, pecunia, et aliis cæteris rebus non extrahendis de regno nostro, absque licentia nostra speciali, sub diversarum poenarum adjectione, duximus promulgandas; certis ad conservationem Constitutionum & Inhibitionum ipsarum executionibus, & portuum & passagiorum finium dicti regni Custodibus deputatis. Verum ex Constitutionibus & Inhibitionibus hujusmodi nullas vel modicus, quod non sine turbatione referimus, est hæcenus secutus effectus, cum per dissidiam, negligentiam & defectum quorundam ex istis Custodibus, ac fraudem & malitiam aliquorum post editionem, & contra tenorem & formam Constitutionum ipsarum personarum, nobis & regno suspectarum, ingressæ fuerint, ac de die in diem quædā propriis & aliis mutatis habitibus passim, & indifferenter ingrediantur, & quædam egrediantur terminos dicti regni, ac de regno ipso hujusmodi res prohibita absque nostra licentia extrahantur. Cum igitur præsentis conditio temporis, regni status, & ingruentium exigat qualitas agendorum, ut Constitutiones et Inhibitiones prædictæ solito strictius et firmiter observentur, præsertim cum Flandrensi rebellium prædictorum abhorrenda rebellio, detestanda sævitia, ferinaque rabies magis ac magis de die in diem invalescat, & periculosa succrescat, adeoque ipsi mala malis, & excessibus excessus cumulantes, et ad subversionem, destructionem omnimodam, & finale excidium dicti regni, et Ecclesiarum totis conatibus satagentes, nuper ad Civitatem Morinensem, et ad alias diversas villas & loca Morinensis, Astrebatensis, & Tornacensis Diocæsium collecta satellitum hostiliter accedentes, beatæ Mariæ Morinensis, & aliorum prædictorum locorum Ecclesias, ipsius Virginis & aliorum Sanctorum Imagines existentes in eis, reverentia retrojecta, & divino amore postposito, nefandis ausibus & temeritate sacrilega, ignis incendio concremarunt, ac villas & loca prædicta per cædis, depopulationis, & devastationis voraginem, deposita omni humanitatis mansuetudine, horribili crudelitate totaliter destruxerunt, nec Deo, nec homini, nec personæ, nec dignitati aliquatenus deferentes, nec sexui nec ætati parcentes, et alios diversos enormes et detestabiles comiserunt excessus, qui humanis sensibus horrorem & stuporem ingerunt, & audientium, dura quantumlibet, corda impunguntur. Die autem Veneris proxima sequenti, scilicet 14 die ejusdem mensis Junii, p[re]sente p[re]sente p[re]sente Domino Rege, necnon Dominis Archiepiscopis p[re]sentibus, ac in p[re]sencia nostrorum Notariorum publicorum ad hoc specialiter vocatorum & requisitorum, p[re]dictus Gulielmus de Plesseiano Miles dixit, proposuit, objecit, asseruit & legit prout in quadam Schedula quam tenebat in manibus continetur plenius, cujus tenor talis est.

Ego Gulielmus de Plesseiano Miles, dico, propono et assero Bonifacium nunc sedis Apostolicæ p[re]sidentem, Hæreticum fore perfectum; in hæresibus, sacris enoziis, et perverbis dogmatibus insertis declaratis, quæ vera fore, et me probare posse credo, vel quæ sufficient ex ipsis, ad probandum ipsum perfectum Hæreticum, loco et tempore competentem, et coram quibus hoc fieri de jure poterit et debet, et hoc iuro super hæc Sancti Dei Evangelia corporaliter pertacta.

The particular Articles to make good this Charge, are thus Englished and recorded by * Mr. Fox, worthy special observation.

* Acts & Monuments, Vol. 1. p. 450. 451.

First, * That he believeth not the Immortality of men, and Christian souls, but thinking much like as the Sadduces did believe, that there is no everlasting Life, and that men cannot get at the length Joy, but that all the lott and part of comfort and gladness is in this World, and by this means he affirmeth, that it is no sinne for the Body to live daintily in all dainties: And out of the abundance of this leaven he was not ashamed to say and openly to confess, that he had rather be an Ass, or a Dogg, or any other brute beast then a Frenchman; which thing he would not have said if he believed a Frenchman had a soul that could enjoy everlasting life. This thing he taught many men, which acknowledged this at the point of death, and the common report goeth thus on him in these things.

* Ergo the Pope may be an Heretic, and is not infallible.

2. And he believeth not faithfully that by the words ordained of Christ, and spoken over the Host after the fashion of the Church, by a faithful Priest, that is lawfully ordered, the body of Christ to be there; and therefore it cometh to passe, that he giveth no reverence to it (no not a little) when it is lifted up of the Priest, yea he riseth not to it, but turneth his back to it, and makes himself and his seat to be honoured where he sitteth, rather than the Altar where the Host is consecrate; and he is commonly reported to do this.

3. Also he is reported to say, that Whoredome is no sinne, no more then rubbing of the hands together, and thus commonly runs the voice and brute.

4. Also he said often, that to thrust down the King and Frenchmen, (if it could not be otherwise done) he would overthrow himself, the whole World, and the whole Church. And when he had said so, some that stood by said, God forbid; he answered, God grant. And when good men that heard the words replied against him, that he should not say so, because the Church of God, and all Christian men should suffer great slander so; he answered, I care not what slanders soever come, so that the Frenchmen and their pride be destroyed; for it is necessary that slanders and offences come.

5. Item, he called again and allowed a Book made by Mr. Arnold of Newton, containing and smelling of Heresie, condemned by the Bishop of Paris, and reproved by the Masters of Divinity, and burned openly by Boniface himself, and in the full Consistory of Cardinals being likewise reproved, condemned, and burned, yet he allowed it being written again, and conteyning the same fault.

6. Item, that he might make the most damnable remembrance of him perpetual, he caused his Images of silver to be set in the Church, by this means bringing men to Idolatry.

7. Item, he hath a private Devil whose counsell he useth in all things, and through all things.

8. Item, he said once, that if all men were of one side, and he on another, they could not deceive him neither in law nor in deed; which thing could not be done except he used a Devilish Art; and of this he is openly thus reported.

9. Item, he is a Witch, asking counsel: at Southsayers both men and women, and thus he is commonly judged.

10. Item, he said openly, that the Romish Pope could not commit Symony, which

An. 30 E. 1. which is heretical to say: This is a sinne reprov'd as well in the Old Testament as in the New, and generally in the Holy Councils. Also he is wont to make Merchandise of Prelates Livings, Dignities, Superiorities and Benefices, to which the Holy Orders be necessarily joyned, and of Absolutions and Dispensations, like as Usurers and Merchants use to buy and sell common things in the Market; and of this the common brute reports him (guilty.)

11. Item, he letteth with all his might among Christian men the special embassage of Christ, made to his own sonnes, saying, Peace I leave to you, and solveth discord and warres; wherefore once it was said before him, that certain parties would friendly agree after a good sort, but he letteth the peace: And when the other party did humbly beseech him that he would give license to agree, he said, he would not: Yea, if the Son of God, or Peter the Apostle would come down into the Earth and command him, he would say, I will not believe thee.

12. Item, because the French Nation (being manifestly a most Christian Nation) followeth not his errors in the Faith, he reckoneth and openly calleth all and every of them Paterniani.

13. Item, he is infect with Sodomitical sinne, keeping with him Boyes for Concubines, and of this fault he is most commonly and openly reported.

14. Item, he hath caused many murders of Clerks to be done in his presence, commending it, and rejoycing at their death: And if they were not deadly wounded at the first by his Servants, as oft as he saw them smiting he said, smite, smite, by which example many were slain.

15. Item, when he had condemned a certain Nobleman, he forbade the Sacrament to be given him at the point of death, he desiring it, and being penitent; saying, that the Sacrament of penance was not necessary to salvation.

16. Item, he compelled certain Priests to shew unto him the confessions of men, and he published them openly afterwards, contrary to the will of them that were confessed, to their shame and confusion, and compelled them to redeem their sinnes: Insomuch that once he depesed a certain Bishop of Spain for the faults that he confessed to a certain Cardinal, confessing unto him a certain privy horrible fault under Benedicite, and compelled the Cardinal against his will to declare his confession, and yet afterwards restored the same Bishop again to his place for a little money: wherefore he is thought to play the Heretick in the Sacrament of penance.

17. Item, he fasteth not on the fasting dayes, nor Lent, but eateth flesh indifferently, and without cause suffereth his Household and Friends to eat, saying it is no sinne; doing in this thing against the general state of the Holy Church.

18. Item, he oppressed the Order of the Cardinals, and oppressed the Order of Black and White Monks, of Gray Friars and Preachers, and said oft, that the World was destroyed by them, and that they were false Hypocrites, and that never good could chauce unto any that would be confessed to them, or would be familiar with them, or would keep them in their house; and he never said good word of any Prelate, Religious man, or Clerk, but ever rebuketh and slandereth them, taking away their good name, and to compell them to redeem their faults, he is glad of their accusations; and this is the common voice and repore of him.

19. Item, of old time, he going about to destroy the Faith, conceived a hate against the French King, even to the abhorring of the Faith, because of the light of Faith which is there, and because of the great witness and example of Christianity which is and hath been there: And before he had this Seat he is proved to have said, that if he were Pope, he would rather overthrow all Christendome, but he would overthrow and destroy the Nation, which he calleth the Pride of the French.

20. Also it is reported, that when the Ambassador of the King of England in the name of the said King, did require and intreat for the Tenth of the Realm of England to be given him, he answered, that he would not give them the Tenths but on this condition, that he would make Warre with them against the French King. And besides this, he is reported to have given great summes of money to certain persons, to hinder that peace should not be between the said Kings. He himself also with all his might hath tested it, by Messengers, Letters, and other ways that he could, yea by gibing bybes.

21. Item,

21. Item, he is reported also to have commanded Frederick which keepeth the Isle of Sicil, that if he would betray Charles the King and break the peace which he made, and swear that he would keep with him, and would stir against the King and kill the Frenchmen, that then he would give him aid, help, and counsell; and so; so doing he would give and grant him the said Kingdoms. An. 30 E. 1.

22. He confirmed also the King of Almaine to be Emperour, and said openly, that he did it to destroy the Nation which he calleth the Poyse of the Frenchmen, which say they are subject to none in Temporal things. wherein saith he they lyed on their heads; declaring moreover, that whosoever (yea if it were an Angel from Heaven) would say that all Kings of the World were not subject to the same King of Almaine, he were accursed.

23. Further, he brake the agreements of Peace between the King of Almaine and the French King, in which either of them should have their own saved; and what encroachings former had been on either side, should be brought to a due state, and under an Oath orderly given and taken; he is reported to have commanded the same King of Almaine, that he should not keep those conditions of Peace, but be an Enemy, and go about to sow debate among Christian men.

24. Item, it is openly reported, that the Holy Land was betrayed through his fault, and came to the enemies of God and of Faith, and that he suffered this for the nonce, and denyed to give aid to the Christians which defended it, spending the Treasures and money of the Church (which should have been bestowed on that use as the Patrimony of Christ) in persecuting of faithfull Christians and friends of the Church, and therewith would enrich his friends.

25. Item, he is openly reported to use Simony, not only in bestowing of Benefices, but in giving of Orders, and making Dispensations: He hath set to sale all Benefices of the Church, and would bestow the Church commonly on him that would offer most; and he made his Servants Prelates of the Church, not for wealth of the Faith, nor to thrust down Infidels, but to oppress the faithfull, and to enrich his kindred by the Churches goods, and of the Patrimony of him that was Crucified; and presumed to make them Marqueses, Carles, and Barons, and was not afraid to bulke them strong holds, rooting out and oppressing many Noblemen and others.

26. Item, it is commonly reported, that he hath divorced many Marriages lawfully made, to the contempt, hurt, and slander of many; and he did promote his Nephew to a Cardinalship, being married, unlearned, and altogether unworthy to live; and openly married one that was divorced, and compelled him to make a vow of Chastity, and after that he is reported to have had two Bastards by her; and so goeth the common brute of him.

27. Item, it is commonly reported, that he handled ungently his predecessor Celestinus of holy memory, leading a holy life, ( peradventure knowing in Conscience that he could not forsake his Popedom, and therefore Boniface himself had no lawfull entrance to the See ) and imprisoned him, and there quickly and privily caused him to die; And of this the common brute and report is through all the World, that he caused many great and learned men, living a regular life, ( which disputed of this, whether he might renounce the Popedom or not ) to be set in prison, and there to die.

28. Item, he is reported to have railed at Religious persons leading a regular life, without a reasonable cause to the World, to the slander of many.

29. Item, he is reported to have said, that within short time he would make all the Frenchmen either Martyrs, or forsakers of their Faith.

30. Item, it is commonly reported, that he seeketh not the health of the souls, but the destruction of them.

BOOK V. CHAP. V.

Containing the imprisonment and death of Pope Boniface the 8th. The Letters, Bulls, Negotiations between King Edward the 1. and this Popes Successors, with their Succession in the See of Rome: This Kings Acts of Soveraign Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction over the Churches, Prelates, Clergy of England, Scotland and Ireland. His Prohibitions, Statutes, Edicts against Papal Provisions, Exactions, and Prelatical Usurpations upon the rights of his Crown and Temporal Courts; The Succession of Archbishops, Bishops, Abbots, and other Prelates in the Churches of England, Scotland, Ireland; With other particulars relating to their publike affairs, from the beginning of the 31 year of King Edward the 1. till his death, in the 35 year of his reign; Collected out of the Records of those years, and our Historians.

After the proceedings, Declarations, Articles and Appeals of our King Edward the first, his Parliament, Nobles, and of Philip King of France with his Parliament, Nobles, Prelates, Clergy and Commonalty, against Pope Boniface the 8. related in the precedent Chapter, the Papal dignity, authority, and pretended Soveraignty over all Kings, kingdoms, Churches, Nations, claimed and exercised by this Antichristian Pontiff and the See of Rome, together with his Excommunications, Censures, became so contemptible and detestable, that by the instigation and procurement of King Philip, this proud Pope was soon after suddenly seized upon, imprisoned, plundered of all his extorted Treasure, which was very great, shamefully intreated, and came to an infamous death, the particulars whereof are thus related by our own Historians, more largely than any others.

<sup>a</sup> Matthew Westminster renders us this account thereof; Anno Dom. 1303. in vigilia Nativitatis Mariæ, Papa Bonifacius, procurante ut creditur Rege Francorum, inter quas horrenda dissentionis per longum tempus extitit materia, à quibusdam inimicis suis, & specialiter à quodam nomine Saira de Campania, atrocissime, irreverenterque dignitate Papali non obstante, in præjudicium totius Ecclesiæ, im-misericorditer depredatus fuit in palatio suo Anagninæ Civitatis, spoliatus fuit bonis suis omnibus, et in carcere per triduum custoditus, &c. Verum quia a seculo non est auditum, postquam pax Ecclesiæ per universum mundum est reddita tam arduum flagitium, falsos Christianos, qui se dicunt Christianos et non sunt, in summum commisit Pontificem, ad notitiam futurorum, non sufficit dixisse, Papa Bonifacius spoliatus fuit omnibus bonis suis, nisi modus & forma facinoris subnectatur. (which he repeats in his former words, without any particular relation thereof; Adding) Postea rediit Romam, et ibi tactus dolore cordis et angustia, præ irreverentia Ecclesiæ Romanæ, et sibi Dei Vicario illata, infra breve temporis spacium vitam finivit, viz. 12. die Octobris, et sepultus fuit in crastino in Ecclesiâ beati Petri in mirifico sepulchro, quod sibi præparaverat adhuc vivens, De quo quidam versificator sic scripsit:

*Ingredditur Vulpes, regnat Leo, sed Canis exit,
Re tandem vera, si sic fuit ecce Chimera.*

Alter verò sic:

*Vulpes intrabit, tanquam Leo pontificabit;
Erit utque Canus, de dibite factus inanis.*

<sup>b</sup> Thomas Walsingham more largely and particularly records the catastrophe of this avaricious, tyrannical, antimonarchical insolent Pontiff. Anno 1304. circa festum S. Johannis Baptistæ milites quidam in præsentia Cleri et populi Parisiis congregari, Papæ Bonifacio multa imposuerunt enozmia, puta hæresim, simoniam, et homicidam: propter quæ per Regem Franciæ appellatum est contra eum ad illum cuius interest. Circa festum Nativitatis beatæ Virginis, videlicet in vigilia Nativitatis ejusdem, venit summo manè magnus exercitus hominum armatorum missus ex parte Regis et Cardinalium Columnensium damnatorum repenti ad portum Civitatis Anagninum, in quam Papa confugerat ad tutelam, quia ibidem natus fuerat. Invenientes igitur portas apertas ingressi sunt Civitatem, et mox dederunt insultum pallacis D. Papæ, et Marchionis nepotis Papæ et trium Cardinalium. Communitas verò villa comperta, quod Scaira frater Columnensium Cardinalium, & Willielmus de Longareto Senescallus Regis Franciæ advenissent ex conspiratione, ut Papam deponerent vel necarent (who had unjustly and tyrannically deposed them) statim pulsata communi campana, et tractatu habito, in communi eligerunt sibi Capitaneum quendam Adnolphum, nunc ex majoribus Dominis de Campania, per quem instanti negotio regerentur: Qui quidem Adnolphus, illis ignorantibus, Domini Papæ extitit Capitalis inimicus. Interim Domini Papa adversarii ejus Palacio, & Marchionis nepotis sui, triumque Cardinalium acerrimos dederunt insultum: sed familiaribus Domini Papa & Marchionis viriliter se defendentibus, illorum palacia* invadere nequiverunt. Trium tamen Cardinalium palatia, qui reputabantur specialiter amici Papæ, per vim et potentiam sunt ingressi, et omnia bona ibidem reperta diripuerunt et asportaverunt. Ipsi verò Cardinales per latrinam vix evaserunt. Interea intervenit Dominus Adnolphus villa Capitaneus, adducens secum Dominum Reginaldum de Supine qui habuit de Campania magnum dominium, et erat Papæ Capitalis adversarius, cum quo etiam venerunt filii Domini Johannis de Chitau, quorum patrem Dominus Papa tunc in carcere detinebat. Cumque discessit Capitaneus cum suis sociis supradictis venisset ad Scairam de Columna, & ejus exercitum, statim cum omni populo quem ducebat, conjunxit se eidem. Et communibus votis irruerunt tantum in Papam et Nepotem suum, quod diu ut putebatur eis resistere non valerent: Ob quam causam Dominus Papa timens sibi, treugas petiit a Scaira, quas sibi concessit & Nepoti suo, usque ad horam nonam discessit diei: qua videlicet trenga capta fuerunt hora prima. Durante trenga, Papa misit secreta ad populum Anagum, supplicans, ut salvarent vitam suam; promittens, si hoc facerent, quod ipsos in tantum locuplicaret, quod omnes suo perpetuo merito gaudere deberent. Populus verò se excusavit, dicens, se nihil posse jubare in hac parte, præsertim cum tota potestas villæ Capitaneum sequeretur. Tunc Papa supplicabit Scairæ, ut significaret articulos, in quibus fuerat nunciatum sibi & suis fratribus, et ipse paratus esset, secundum consilium Cardinalium facere restitutionem sibi. Scaira verò respondit, quod non permetteret Papam vivere, nisi duos Cardinales fratres suos plene restitueret, scilicet Petrum & Jacobum de Columna, quos prius damnabatur, ad temporalia et spiritualia, et non solum illos restitueret, sed et omnes de eorum sanguine et parentela; et quod idem Papa post hujusmodi restitutionem renuntiaret Papatui; et quod postmodum corpus ejus esset ad voluntatem ipsius Scairæ. His auditis, ingemuit Papa, & ait. Veu me, durus est hic sermo: cumque concordari non possent, & advenisset hora discessit nona, iterum Scaira cum exercitu dedit insultum Papæ et nepoti suo: at ipsi se viriliter defendebant. Tandem videntes adversarii, quod principalis Ecclesia Anagum, qua erat de sancta Maria, esset eis impedimento quo minus poterunt accingere pro votis palacium Papa, apposuit ignem ad ostium Ecclesiæ supradictæ. Itaque valvis Ecclesiæ combustis, totaliter Ecclesiam sunt ingressi homines Scairæ, & dispoliaverunt omnes Clericos & Laicos mercenarios, habentes cultellos ibidem & alia mercimonia ad vendendum, ita quod non dimiserunt valorem quadrantis ex omnibus que apprehendere potuerunt. Tandem Marchio nepos Papæ perpendens quod se ulterius non posset defendere, reddidit se discto Scairæ & Capitaneo memorato, ea conditione, ut vitam ipsius & filii sui salvarent, servientiumque suorum. Quibus auditis, Papa flebit amare. Post hæc, ruptis ostiis & fenestris palatii Papa, & pluribus locis igne supposito, per vim ad Papam exercitus est ingressus. Quem tunc permulti verbis contumeliosis sunt aggressi, minæ etiam ei a pluribus sunt illatæ. Sed Papa nulli respondit. Enimvero cum ad rationem positus esset, an vellet renunciare Papatui: constanter respondit, dit, non : immo citius vellet perdere caput suum, dicens in suo vulgari ; & le col, et le cape, quod est dicere. Ecce collum, ecce caput. Et statim protestatus est coram omnibus, quod Papatui nunquam renunciaret ; quamdiu posset habere vitam. Scaira vero voluit libenter interfecisse Papam, sed per quosdam fuit prohibitus, ita quod Papa in corpore malum non recepit. Attamen ostiarius Papæ fugatis & quibusdam interfecit, ejectisque tam majoribus quam minoribus de sua familia, deputati sunt Custodes Papæ per Scairam et Capitaneum, Dominus Reginaldus de Suppina, & multi alii cum eodem : Acta sunt hac in vigilia natiuitatis Sanctæ Mariæ, septima hora diei : exercitus vero postquam irrupit palatium, mox despoliabit Papam, et ejus cameram atque thesauriam suam, et asportabit vestimenta cum ornamentis, et aurum atque argentum cum omnibus aliis rebus inuentis ibidem, et reuera creditur, quod omnes Reges mundi non possent tantum de thesauro reddere infra unum annum, quantum fuit de Papali palatio asportatum, et de palatiis trium Cardinalium et Marchionis. Remansit autem Papa et nepotes sui sub custodia Militum et custodum Scairæ usque in diem tertium. Medio tempore Scaira tractavit cum suis, quomodo Papam morti traderet, vel mitteret ad Regem Franciæ corpus ejus. Sed populus Anagum hoc comperiens, facta convocatione secreta ignorantibus Capitaneo & Scaira, quasi ad 10000. hominum, concurrunt ad palatium ubi Papa seruebatur in custodia, et expulsi atque peremptis custodibus, ingressi sunt, & deliberaverunt Papam et Nepotes ejus, habituri eorum custodiam penes se. Sed ante hæc omnia sciendum, quod cum primo Scaira et Capitaneus cum Seneschallo Regis Franciæ comprehendissent Papam, in equum posuerunt effrenem, ad caudam versa facie, et sic discurrere fere usque ad novissimum halitum coegerunt, et tandem pene fame necaverunt, donec eum populus Anagum (ut promittitur) liberasset. Scaira vero propter id offensus villa communibus cum exercitu de villa recessit. Tunc populus fecit Papam deportari in magnam plateam, ubi Papa laqueando populo prædicabit, inter omnia gratias agens Deo et populo Anagum de vita sua. Tandem in fine sermonis dixit ; Boni homines & mulieres, constat vobis qualiter inimici mei venerunt & abstulerunt omnia bona mea, & non tantum mea, sed et omnia bona Ecclesiæ, & me ita pauperem sicut Job dimiserunt. Propter quod, dico vobis veraciter, quod nihil habeo ad comedendum vel bibendum, & jejunis remansi usque ad præsens. Et si sit aliqua bona mulier, quæ me velit de sua juvare elemosina in pane vel vino, & si vinum non habuerit, de aqua permodica, dabo ei benedictionem Dei et meam, & omnes qui quicquam portaverint quantumcumque modicum in meam subventionem, absolvo ab omnibus peccatis suis. Tunc omnes hac audientes ex ore Papæ, clamabant, Vivas Pater sancte. Et mox cerneres mulieres currere certatim ad palatium, ad offerendum sibi panem, vinum, vel aquam, in tantum, quod statim camera Papæ vicinalibus repleta fuit. Et cum non inventirentur vasa ad capiendum allata, fundebant vinum & aquam in arca Camera Papæ in maxima quantitate. Et tunc potuit quisquam ingredi et cum Papæ loqui sicut cum alio paupere qui volebat, Tunc Papæ exiens, absolvit omnes existentes in cibitate ab omnibus peccatis eorum generaliter, præter despoliatores Ecclesiæ Romanæ, spoliatores etiam Cardinalium et aliorum de Curia non absolbat, nisi bona hujusmodi infra triduum reportarent. Veruntamen Papa expresse remisit omnibus qui bona sua asportaverant, dum tamen illa bona de thesauro Ecclesiæ non fuerunt, & statim protestatus est coram omnibus, quod voluit habere pacem cum Columpnensibus Cardinalibus et suis aliis inimicis, et paratus erat ipsos restituere ad temporalia et spiritualia Cardinales, et hoc fecit proclamari per villam. Interea reportata fuerunt bona illius quædam, sed non omnia prius ablata. His itaque gestis, Papa subito & inopinatè recessit de villa Anagum, progrediens versus Romam, cum maxima multitudine armorum : et cum pervenisset ad Sanctum Petrum, ex timore quam conceperat, quando captus fuit, et morose rerum inextimabilium perditio, et fame quam contraxerat sub custodia adversariorum suorum cito defecit. Et sic completa est in eo prophetia prædecessoris sui, qui dixit ; Ascendisti ut Vulpes, regnabis ut Leo, morieris ut Canis. Upon this occasion, Thomas Walsingham thus concludes that year ;

* Transiit annus iste durus divitibus, pauperibus penuriosus, Papæ, Curiaque Romanæ probozulus, propter malam captionem Papæ. Sed tamen in hoc etiam consolari potuit, quia nullus eorum quicquid captioni interfuit, vel facinori tanto consenserit, iudicium ultionis evasis. (A grosse mistake & forgery.) Nam quidam insanabili æli sunt furia, quidam & precipue qui manum injecerunt Christi Vicario, manus proprias comederunt.

Regis etiam Franciæ consanguinitas & cognatio tacta est usque in generationem septimam igne sacro. An. 31 F.I.

† William Thorne a Monk of Canterbury, thus relates this avaritious proud Popes † Chronica, infamous spoiling, usage and death, somewhat different from others in some particular. Anno 1304. idem Bonifacius dum mundi hujus gloriam thesauris innumerabilibus sollicite et cautelose adquisitis æstuarer, in solo patrio in manibus inimicorum suorum Dominorum Jacobi & Petri de Columna Cardinalium, quos a Cardinalatu et ab urbe una cum nepotibus suis violenter ejecerat, eorumque palacia solo te-nus eberteret loca sale conspergendo, ut quasi terram omnino faceret inutilem; tandem miserabiliter ab omni proptus auro et argento, ac universis quæ præciosa penes eum fuerunt inventa, spoliatus est; quia abundanter thesaurizavit et ignovabit cui congregabit ea. Ipsi vero Petrus & Jacobus Papam triduo sicum detinentes, ut Papam cederet pluries hortati sunt. Illo vero in Papatu bibere et mori affirmante, asina pelle repente excoziata eum induerunt, carcerali custodia cum per triduum coartantes. Non multum post dolore cordis absorptus, 12. die mensis Octobris, anno Pontificatus sui nona diem cum luctu clausit extremum, dignam præ-meritis subituro terminationem; Unde propheta ejusdem, Culpes intravit, &c.
as in Matthew Westminster.

This was the Tragical shamefull end of this covetous, ambitious insolent Antichristian Pope. Hic ille est (as Balanus and others story) qui Decretalia promulgavit; Romanum Pontificem a nemine debere judicari, etiam si innumerabiles animas se-cum mancipio gehennæ traderet. Hic ille est, de quo Platina scriptor Pontificus ait; Qui Imperatoribus, Regibus, Principibus, nationibus, populis terrorem potius quam religionem inspicere conabatur, quique dare regna et auferre, pellere homines ac reducere pro arbitrio animi conabatur, lucrum undique conquistum plus quam dici potest sitiens. Qui omnes ferme præ se contempsit superbissime. 2.
die Cinerum Procheti Holtiensis Archiepiscopo ad ipsius pedes devoluto, cinerum magnam quantitatem in oculos coniecit, non in caput, ut illis mos est; additis hisce verbis; Memento homo quia Gibellinus es, et cum Gibellinis in cinerem redigeris;
instead of Memento homo quod cinis es, & in cinerem reverteris. After whose death (as Matthew Westminster and others story) Rex Francorum à Domino Papa (Clemente 5.) ossa Bonifacii prædecessoris sui petiit ad comburenda, tanquam hæretici, instantia oportuna. Petiit etiam Sanctorum Catalogo ascribi Petrum de Murone, qui quondam fuerat Papa, dictus Celestinus quintus; whom this ungratefull Pope Boniface imprisoned, starved to death; and therefore was now by divine retaliation likewise imprisoned and almost starved, as you have heard.

† Bonifacio defuncto & sepulto, in crastino convenientes in unum Cardinales, elige-runt Episcopum Ostiensem, de ordine Prædicatorum, & decimo die post creatus in Sum-mum Pontificem, Benedictus 11. est vocatus; Lombardus natione, quem Papa Boni-facius, cujus Magister erat, fecerat Episcopum Ostiensem. De isto Episcopo quidam dicit,

A te nomen habe, benè dic, benè fac Benedicte,
Aut rem perverte; maledic, malefac Maledicte.

Columnenses, mortuo Papa Bonifacio, de suis egressi latibulis ad Papam Benedictum venerunt, misericordiam implorantes, quos ille benigne suscipiens absolvit, ac bonorum suorum tribuit facultates: Sed eos ad gradum Cardinalatus tam subito restituere non decrevit. Papa Benedictus per hoc tempus Episcopum Spoletanum ad Cardinalatum assumens, fecit Episcopum Ostiensem; fratrem etiam Willielmum de Makelesfield, Doctorem sacre Theologie, ordinis Prædicatorum, natione Anglicum, Diocesis Coventrensis, tituli Sanctæ Sabinæ fecit Presbyterum Cardinalem. Qui antequam ad eum rumor perveniret, in fata concessit. Cujus morte cognita, Papa fratrem Walkerum Winter-burne similiter ordinis Prædicatorum, Regis Angliæ Confessorem, Sarisburiensis Diocesis ad eundem titulum Cardinalatus promovit. Of whose promotion, John Bale renders us this account. Mox ut mortuum luxissent patres (Prædicatores) præ-dictum Gulielmum Maclesfeldium, apud Benedictum suum ejus nominis undecimum Papam, multis pecuniis egerunt, ut hic venerabilis eorum Doctor illius in officio

Edward 1. An Exact History of Popes Intollerable Usurpations, B. 5. ch. 5

An. 31 E. 1.

How our Archbishops, Bishops, and their Officers still continued their Usurpations upon the Kings Temporal Jurisdiction, Courts, Free Chappels, Crown and Dignity, this year, will appear by several Prohibitions, Writs, Suits and Attachments against them.

In a broken Bundle of Writs in the White Tower, I met only with this, at the Kings prosecution, for suing in Court Christian against his prohibition.

Teste meipso apud Kynlos 9. die Sept. Anno regni nostri Tricesimo primo.*

The Archbishop of Canterbury excommunicating the Prior and Canons of St. Oswalds Church in Gloucester anciently the Kings Free Chappel, (exempted from all Episcopal and Metropolitan Jurisdictions by the Kings Charters, and Popes Bulls confirming them, but after united to the Archbishoprick of Torke, and subjected by King Williams Charter and Popes Bulls only to that Archbishops Visitation,) and withall inhibiting all persons to pay Tithes, or have any communion with them as with excommunicate persons, (notwithstanding their Appeal against his Excommunication to the Court of Rome,) only because they refused to be visited by him in his Metropolitan Visitation, to the prejudice of the Kings Charters, Crown and Dignity. The King upon complaint thereof, issued this memorable Writ to the Archbishop, to revoke these his illegal sentences and proceedings against them, as prejudicial to his Crown and Dignity.

REX Venerabili in Christo patri R. eadem gratia Archiepiscopo Canthar. totius Angliæ Primate salutem. Cum Ecclesia Sancti Oswaldi Gloucestr. de Elemosinis progenitorum nostrorum quondam Regum Angliæ fundata, libera Capella eozundem Progenitorum nostrorum fuerit ab antiquo, et ab omni Jurisdictione ordinaria exempta penitus et immunis, ac bonæ memoriæ Willielmus quondam Rex Angliæ Progenitor noster, per Chartam suam prædictam Ecclesiam cum juribus suis cuidam Thoma dudum Archiepiscopo Eborum, pro quibusdam exactionibus et calumpniis suis quas erga quendam Robertum tunc Lincoln. Episcopum de quibusdam Ecclesiis et possessionibus fecerat remittendis, dedit et concessit; habendam eidem Archiepiscopo et successoribus suis Archiepiscopis ejusdem loci imperpetuum, ab omni Jurisdictione Diocesani vel Metropolitanæ alterius quam sui ipsius exemptam penitus et immunem, sicut progenitores nostri eam ante donationem et concessionem prædictas tenuerunt, quas quidem donationem et concessionem quidam Summi Pontifices postmodum per suas Papales Literas confirmarunt: Ac Priores et Canonici ejusdem loci, tam virtute donationis et confirmationis prædictarum, quam ratione exemptionis prædictæ, ab omni Jurisdictione loci Diocesani vel Metropolitanæ alterius quam Archiepiscopi loci prædicti semper hucusque extiterunt, ut dicitur, liberi penitus et immunes. Ac jam intellexerimus, quod vos ad exemptionem, donationem, et confirmationem prædictas nullam habentes considerationem in Ecclesiam Sancti Oswaldi prædictam, ac Priorem et Canonicos ejusdem loci Officium visitationis, et alias Jurisdictionem ordinariam nuper nitebamini pro viribus exercere, et sententias Excommunicationis in ipsos Priorem et Canonicos, pro eo, quod vos super hoc impediverunt, sicut debuerunt, fulminastis. Et licet ipsi a sententiis prædictis tanquam ab iniquis, ad Curiam Romanam legitime appellaverint, et appellationis illius negotium effectualiter prosequantur, Nos nihilominus in Episcopatu Wygornie ne quis eidem Priori et Canonicis tanquam excommunicatis et a communione fidelium seperatis de Decimis aut aliquibus aliis Spiritualibus respondeat, ac aliquatenus communique cum eisdem fecisset publice inhiberi.

By which Record it is evident. 1. That our Kings by their Royal Prerogative and Charters, anciently did, and may exempt Churches and Chappels both from the Jurisdiction and Visitation of Archbishops and Bishops; and likewise Subject Churches and Chappels within the Province of Canterbury, to the Archbishoprick and Province of York. 2ly. That by their Writs issued out of Chancery and other Temporal Courts, they may command Archbishops and Bishops to revoke all Sentences of Excommunication, and all proceedings or interdicts grounded thereon; that are illegal, irregular, uncanonical, or intrenching upon their Charters, or Prerogatives royal. 3ly. That Popes Bulls of exemptions in confirmation of our Kings Charters, added no real nor legal efficacy or vigor to them, being valid to all intents without them.

This Archbishop of Canterbury presuming by his Archiepiscopal authority, to sue the Kings Sheriff, Officers and Bailiffs in Kent in his Ecclesiastical Court, for executing the Kings Writs, de vi Laica amovenda (placed therein by the Archbishop in the contest between the Abbot of St. Augustines and him) in several Churches, and threatning to excommunicate them for the same, against the Kings Crown and dignity, he thereupon issued this memorable Prohibition to him not to sue, molest, or excommunicate them, and to reverse all Sentences of Excommunication thundred out against them for obeying his commands.

This Archbishop likewise excommunicating William de Berdewell, and suing out an Excommunication against him, notwithstanding his Appeal to the See of Rome

Teste Rege apud Aberdeen 24. die Augusti.

The same Archbishop about the same time endeavouring by Ecclesiastical censures to enforce one of the Kings Clerks, who was preferred by him to a benefice before he was made a Priest, to take the Order of Priesthood upon him and reside upon his benefice, whiles actually employed in and about the Kings special service, against the ancient Prerogative of the King, and privilege of his Clerks; he thereupon issued this Prohibition to him on his Clerks behalf.

 of his Temporal Courts, which ought not to be examined in any Ecclesiastical Consistory, issued this memorable Writ of Prohibition against this Usurpation.

The Bishop of Hertford in three of his Visitations demanding Procurations from Philip de Waleys Rector of a Parish Church whereof the King was Patron, and of others, although the Archbishops and other Bishops of the Realm in that and former ages never received any Procurations from Parochial, but only from Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, and Religious Houses; the King thereupon issued this memorable Prohibition to him, totally to desist from exacting any such Procurations from him.

 Philippo le Waleys.

REX venerabili in Christo patri R. eadem gratia Hertford. Episcopo, salutem. Ex insinuatione dilecti Clerici nostri Magistri Philippi le Waleys, Rectoris Ecclesie de Stratton in Tratton: scilicet vestre Diocesis, quae de nostro patronatu existit, nuper accepimus, quod vos ratione Visitationis quam in Ecclesia sua predicta tribus vicibus, ut dicitur, iam fecistis, duodecim marcas nomine Procurationis, videlicet pro qualibet vice quatuor marcas exigitis ab eodem, licet alii Episcopi regni nostri suas Dioceses, et etiam Archiepiscopi suas Provincias visitantes, a Cathedralibus et Collegiatis Ecclesiis, et Religiosis domibus duntaxat, non autem a Parochialibus Ecclesiis Procuracionem exigere consueverint, a tempore cuius memoria non existat, prout ex relatu didicimus plurimorum. Solentes igitur prefatum Clericum nostrum taliter indebite peragrari, nec Ecclesie predictae ad diminucionem nostri patronatus onera consueta per vos aut alios quoscunque imponi. Paternitatem vestram affectuose rogamus, quatinus ab exactione dictae pecuniae, si ex causa predicta et non alia a prefato Rectore eam exigitis, totaliter desistatis. Teste Rege apud Waltham Sancta Crucis 23 die Febr.

From which memorable Record I shall observe: 1. That no Archbishops, Bishops or others, in that and former ages, exacted or received any Procurations but only when they actually visited. 2. That they received them only from Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, and Religious Houses which had great Revenues; not from any Parish Churches whatsoever. Therefore Procurations exacted from Parish Churches by them or their Deputy-Visitors, or Officers since, is an illegal Innovation and Exaction. 3ly. That the exaction of such Procurations, (not settled by any Act of Parliament) is not only a grievance to the Incumbents, but injury to the Patrons of Parish Churches. 4ly. That the King by his Royal Prerogative and Writs, may and ought in justice totally to prohibit and suppress such illegal Procurations when exacted by Archbishops, Bishops, or any others in their Visitations, as King Edward then did by the preceding Writ.

In a bundle of Letters and Writs in the White Tower, I met with this Letter of Bartholomew de Ferentin the Kings Agent at Rome, concerning Pope Boniface his downfall and deceitfull dealings towards him, feeding him only with good words; and

The King having seised the Franchises of the Bishop of Durham in Parliament An. 30 E. 1. for sundry oppressions and encroachments upon his Tenants, and his Crown, Dignity, Courts, complained of to the King; the Bishop and his Tenants at last came to an agreement in Parliament the next year, whereupon the King restored his Franchises, and the Bishop remitted his indignation against them; which accord is thus recorded.

Come nadgeres par aucunes enchesons la franchise del Evescop de Durfme fut prise en la main nostre Seignour le Roy Edward suiz le Roy Henry, a son Parlement a Westmonstier, as Octaves de la Seint Jehan, l'an de son regne trentisme, & les gentz de la communaute, de la franchise de Durfme eussent monstre diverses plaintes e grebaunces vers Antoine donk Evescop de Durfme, e ses Ministres, a eux fet. Et puis a Durfme, a treis simeynes de Pasque l'an du regne le Roy avandit Trente primer, devant son Conseil fut amiablement trece, entre les avandiz Evescop, e communaute, sur les plaintes e grevances avandites. E apres ilques devant le dit nostre Seignour le Roy feut cel treitiz reherce en la presence des parties appelees e acordees en la forme qe ensuit. Cest a sayer, qe par la, ou le avandiz gentz, se sentirent grebetz, de ceo qe nul frank homme, ne doit estre pris, ne emprisonne, si ne soit par enqueste, ou par sacroboz, ou pris a mamoeure, la prissent les Baillifs l'Evescop, les gentz du pais, e les retindrent en prisone a leur volonte, en contre la forme avandite: Si graunte l'Evescop, qe nul ne soit emprisonnez par ses Baillifs, en sa franchise, autrement qe n'est use aillours en le Roialme, e qe les enquestes soient fetes pas les Coroneers de l'Evescop, ausi come est aillours use en le Roialme, solonc la forme del estat.

After the death of <sup>a</sup> Godfry Giffard Bishop of Worcester, Anno 1301. A Monk was elected Bishop thereof, qui non inveniens gratiam consecrationis ab Archiepiscopo Cantuariensi, ad sedem Apostolicam profectus est. Quo cum venisset, discussa electionis ejus ordine coram Papa, electio Wygorniensis Monachi penitus est quassata; Debitque ergo Dominus Papa Bonifacius Episcopatum illum (by his Papal provision) cuidam de ordine Fratrum Minorum, to wit, Gulielmo de Geynsburgh, Roma Satanici sacri Palatii Lector, & quia hanc in Concienibus ac Scholasticis congressibus defendebat doctrinam, Papam non posse errare, neque a quoquam esse judicandum licet mille Christianorum animas ad opum detrusionem, effectus est a Bonifacio octavo (excecrabilissime Romanæ sedis monstro) Wygorniensis Episcopus, An. Dom. 1301. as <sup>b</sup> John Bale Bishop of Osory relates. King Edward having formerly sent him and Hugh Mauncestre a Dominican as his Nuncios to the King of France, about reparations for the damages done by him to the Province of Aquitain, was content to accept his fealty, and restore the Temporalities of the Bishoprick to him; but upon his solemn renunciation of a clause in the Popes Bull before the King and his Council in Wyndesore Castle, which invaded and prejudiced his royal prerogative, as this Record and Memorandum thereof informs us.

In obedience to which Writ, the Chancellor, Judges and Barons framed this ensuing Writ of restitution, from whence we may observe; 1. That our Kings by their Royal Prerogative may seise and retain the Franchises and Liberties of any of their Bishops, when they or their Officers abuse and exceed them, to the oppression and grievance of their Tenants, or other Subjects, till they be righted. 2ly. That the King in such cases may constitute such Justices, Chancellors, Stewards, and other Officers by his own Royal authority, as the Bishops used to constitute; to exercise all Jurisdictions in the Kings Name and Right alone, not in the Bishops: Therefore he may constitute all their Ecclesiastical Officers too by like reason, when they exceed or abuse their authority, in holding Plea in their Ecclesiastical Courts of matters belonging to his Temporal Courts, Crown or Dignity, or unjustly vex or excommunicate his Subjects, or refuse to issue out their Process in the Kings Name, stead, and under his Seal, according to the Statutes of 37 H. 8. c. 17. & 1 E. 6. c. 2; The Writ they then formed runs in this forme.

The Kings Escheator distraining the Abbot of Sr. Benedi de Hulmo for the Palfrey and Cup of his predecessor, pretended to be antiently due to the King by his prerogative, and received from his predecessors upon every occasion; whereas there was never any received by the King before: Thereupon a Writ of Inquiry of the truth thereof issued to the Kings Escheator; upon which an Inquisition was found for the Abbot against the King, which I discovered in the White Tower Chappel.

The King this year wanting monies for the great affairs of the kingdom and his wars, after all other means used to raise it, issued these Writs to the Assessors, Collectors, and Sheriffs of several Counties, for the taxing and levying of the Quintisme formerly granted to him on the temporal goods of the Archbishops of Canterbury and Clergy of his Province, which he had twice respited at the Archbishops requests, but could now no longer forbear to levy.

This year the King having collected a vast summe of money to carry on his Wars against the Scots, and laid it up in his Treasury at Westminster, his Treasury was broken up in the night, and one hundred thousand pounds in money, besides Plate and Jewels, stolen out of it by the *Abbot and Monks of Westminster, and other their confederates; who were then suspected, accused, indicted thereof, and thereupon committed prisoners to the Tower of London; who afterwards petitioning the King, that they were falsely and maliciously accused of this fact, desired the truth thereof might be inquired, and speedy justice done thereupon; the History whereof and proceedings thereupon are thus recorded in the Records in the Tower.

Upon this Inquisition I found a particular Roll in the White Tower, of many Witnesses examined upon Oath, who attested that they saw sundry of those Monks and other persons in the night time passing often times to and from the Kings Treasury within the Abby, carrying some things in their arms and laps; that they sent and conveyed away by water great hampers which were very heavy, wherein they conceived the Kings mony and plate were conveyed away, and some peeces of the Kings Plate and Jewels were found and seized in London and elsewhere; whereupon the Monks were long detained in prison, till afterwards released by the Kings special command, when he repaired to Westminster to render thanks to God for his Victory over the Scots upon his victorious return from Scotland.

Matthew Westminster a Monk of that Abby, somewhat abruptly relates the story of this robbery of the Kings Treasury, and imprisonment of ten Monks only for it (when as it appears by the Record that 48 of them, with the Abbot, were imprisoned and indicted for it) in favour to the Monks; together with their enlargement out of prison by the Kings reiterated command, the Judges being unwilling, and denying to release them, because they reputed them more criminal than this Historian renders them. * *Spoliatus fuit Rex Angliæ Edwardus de Thesauris suis per unicum latronem in Angliā, propter quod decem Monachi Westmonasteriensis fuerunt incarcerati cum injuria. Non sufficit dixisse, Presumptuosissimi latro per se Thesaurariam Domini Regis Angliæ subintravit, nisi modus & forma subnectatur. Rursusque cogitatio hominis semper est ad malum quam ad bonum propensior, cum auditur 10. Monachorum incarcerationis pro Thesauris Regis Angliæ, subrepit statim iniqua suspitionis cogitatio. At cum non declaratur eorum innocentia, auditor congruet contumeliis nec opprobriis desinit insultare. Ad hoc filii qui nascuntur, et exurgunt, nisi super his fiat declaratio, ac aut desidia vel inertia illos, qui tunc erant, arguent, vel quod formidolosus est ad dicendum; in omittendo causam aestimabant eos facti culpabiles existisse. Ad hoc subest alia declaranda incarcerationis necessaria ratio. Qui in rerum natura cum hæc fierent, nondum erant cum discipulis Jesu, quando tentabatur à Diabolo, & post multas & varias tribulationum pressuras demum à Domino visitatis. Post multas retro generationes nasciturus, forsitan est dicturus in Regis Annalibus continetur 10 Monachos pro Thesauraria sua incarceratos fuisse. Hoc nomen horroris est, nomen suspicior statim malum. Cum enim incarceratur quispiam, hoc inde convictum, aut ergo inobediens jussis Principum, aut transgressor Regiæ Pacis, erat hæc responsio. O Didime, super te conqueritur vox Ecclesiæ. Infer digitum tuum huc, & cognosce loca clavorum, & noli esse incredulus, & maliloquus cum falsiloquis, sed fidelis. Ostendam tibi summam, & aliis maliloquis superbie tue, ad præterita falcanda * in propria, modum & formam spoliationis Domini Papa in unica lectione. Nec non loca clavorum & fossuram lateris muralis in Thesauraria Regis Angliæ, atque causam incarcerationis cum molestiis, quæ exinde Monachis illius loci per viros Diabolicos perbenerunt, posteris manifestissime derelinquam. Quæ tamen hic omittuntur, quia in præsentis Codice nimis prolixum esset inserere: * Anno Gratiæ 1305. ad Annunciationem Dominicam aderat Rex Edwardus cum Magnatibus Populi sui apud Westmonasterium alturus Deo Gratiar, & beato Edwardo, pro triumpho de Scotisposito. Compallusque super injusta incarceratione Monachorum Westmonast. iussit mori fieri liberationem eorum; sed superabundante perbersorum iudicum malitia, prolongantium iniquitatem suam, ultra præceptum Regis tenuerunt per octo dies Monachos in Carcere. Quo audito, præcepit Rex Iustitiariis suis ut omittis cæteris curis, incarcerati Monachi eorum Abbati continuo redderentur.*

Pope Boniface the 8. out of his bounty and good affection to King Edward, to supply his necessities occasioned by his Wars, granted him all the moneys collected for the Ayde of the Holy Land he had formerly seised, together with all the arrears uncollected, and all the monyes he had unduly levied from the Clergy, so as he or his Son would in convenient time ayde and assist the Holy Land to their power, by this memorable Bull; by virtue whereof the King covenanted to secure the Collectors and Subcollectors thereof and their Churches against the Pope and his Nuncios, commanding them to deliver up the Obligations of the Merchants and Abbots who were bound as his Sureties to repay it upon demand to the Pope and Church of Rome, by this Patent.

Pope Benedict the 10. having confirmed the election, and consecrating the person of Maurice Archbishop of Cassil, by whose consecration the Archdeaconsry of Cassil which he formerly held, became voyd, the Pope thereupon pretending it belonged to his donation, conferred the Archdeaconsry by his Papal provision upon Thomas Olenxy, and his Prebendary in that Church upon one Peter, usurping on the Kings right and prerogative, to whom the donation of the Archdeaconsry & Prebendary of right belonged, by reason of the vacancy of the Archbishoprick. This Thomas and Peter procured the Popes Letters, to put them into a actual possession of the Archdeaconsry and Prebendary, under several penalties and Ecclesiastical censures; but afterwards understanding, that the right of conferring them was only in the King, and that they could not gain possession thereof by the Popes Letters; they thereupon publicly renounced all their right and interest therein by vertue of the Popes Provisions and Letters, by these two original Instruments which I found in the White Tower Chappel, worthy observation.

U Niversis præsentis Literas inspecturis, salutem. Officialis Curie Parisiensis sede vacante, salutem in Domino. Noveritis, quod Nobilis vir Dominus Gulielmus de Nogaret Miles Illustris Regis Francie coram nobis personaliter constitutus, in scriptis appellationem constituit in hæc verba. Scriptum est, nihil esse quod Ecclesie Dei magis officiat, quam ut indigni Pastores ad animarum regimen assumantur. Si hoc est igitur periculosum in quibuscunque Ecclesiarum præfatis, quanto sit periculosius in Summo Pontifice cum indignus assumitur, divina testatur scriptura, necnon perbersus ac detestabilis exitus ex promotione Bonificii proximo defuncti, qui Dei, Ecclesie nostris præfuit temporibus, ostendit præsentibus qui nunc bibunt, ac eis qui sequuntur, futuro tempore dat exemplum. Cæterum Proverbium est vulgariter, Tales Discipuli qualis Magister. Eapropter ego Gulielmus de Nogaret videns quamplures personas, maxime aliquas Sedi Apostolicæ assistentes, nedum in vita sua fovisse in suis perversitatibus dictum Bonificium, sed nunc post mortem ejus, ubi cessat causa tenoris ejus effrenatæ potentie, quæ hinc ipsos aequaliter excubabat, ipsum Bonificium, ejus abhorrendam memoriam, ac ipsius facta damnavilia sequentes, ac etiam defendentes, ne super hæresi, Schismate, Simoniaca peste, Sodomitali abominatione, homicidiis, aliisque innumerabilibus vitis, concupiscentiis, in quibus profundo malorum positus et prostratus, incorrigibilis ac insperatus decessit, convocetur Ecclesia per Concilium Generale, fiat justitia, prout decet, ex quo censendi sunt hæresis manifesti fautores: intuens prohdolor! quod filii Matris Sanctæ Romanæ Ecclesie pugnant sic turpiter contra eum, quæ semper fuit sine macula, sine ruga, tradunt Gentibus in derisum, semper castam violare conantur, incrassat, dilatati per eam recalcitrant contra ipsam, ubera sanctissima quæ sunt meliora vino, matris nostræ castissimæ, unguentis optimis flagrantia, nobis vitæ pabulum effundentia, subbacare nituntur, ad instar uberum meretricis. Sicut me contra dictum Bonificium exposui, pro defensione matris prædictæ, sic et contra ejus sequaces & fautores, qui quodammodo censendi sunt eo perniciosiores, & magis si tollerarentur Ecclesie Dei nocivi, me mirum volens opponere pro defensione Ecclesie memoratæ, in his scriptis provoco & appello ad Sedem Apostolicam, ad totamque Dei Ecclesie congregandam, & ad Summum Pontificem futurum legitimum, seu ad eum quem melius valeam appellare, ne Reverendi Patres Cardinales dicta labe fautorum carentes, quemquam ex ejus fautoribus, aut eis conjunctis, vel adhaerentibus quoquo modo præsumant eligere in Ecclesie Dei Pastorem, nec cum eis utpote excommunicatis a Canone ad electionem vel electionis ipsius tractatum procedant, nec eis communicent Ecclesie Dei prætiiosissimam margaritam: quam appellationem ad dictam Sedem ac reverend. * Anno Gratie 1304. qui est regni Regis Edwardi Tricesimus secundus, Papa Benedictus, dum apud Perulium verbum Dei populo predicaret, inter cetera deplorabit abominabile exitium, in bicarium Jesu Christi et Petri commissum. Nec tamen casum personæ despectit, quinimo ipsum Christum a Pilatibus Pilati iterum spolari asserens, captum, damnandum, et tanquam remotum, planxit in Carcere, velut in sepulchro, triduo a Pilatibus custoditum; non ut dicit Apostolus, Christus resurgens ex mortuis, jam non moritur, &c. verum est in carne jam glorificata; Sed sicut dixit Dominus Jesus Christus, Petro interroganti, Domine quo vadis? ait, venio Romam, iterum crucifigi. Intellexit hoc Petrus de sua dictum passione, quod in ea Dominus esset passurus, qui patitur in sanctis misericordia pietate. Et sicut idem loco dicit, Quod uni ex minimis meis fecistis, sive honoris, sive dedecoris, hoc noveritis me passurum. Cumque hac, & plura his similia de occasu Papæ Bonitacii recitaret, * Bonitacii captos, Anagninos omnes, Nogaretumque & Sairam, spoliatores ejus, vel omnes ipsis assentientes, vel qui huic conscii extiterent, duplici contritione Anathematis irretivit. Insistens, & immoratus, quamplurimum huic verbo, Si quidem in viridi ligno hæc fecerunt, in arido quid facturi sunt? Cumque fulgura et coruscationes divina ultionis flagitiosos viros inopinate occupare assereret, et se ad hoc Electum, et in Cathedra seniozum collocatum, ut annuntiaret populo scelera eorum, diceret ut resipiscerent, satisfaciendo de commissis commonuit, alioquin ad radicem maledictionis, et stirpis pediferæ securim amputationis et edulionis se positurum necessario et quam citius præconizavit. Hujusmodi igitur interminationibus exterriti viri venifici, cum alio Caipha captantes consilium, expedire quod unus homo moreretur, quam tota gens, vel tribus Columnensium deleteretur, corrupto per pecuniam Pincerna Domini Papæ impotionatus non post dies 15. superbiit. Leander, Stella, Cressin, Onuphrius, and * Balau story, Abbatisse cujusdam fictum obno, à vita sublatus fuit. Obiit ergo Papa Benedictus in Civitate Perusii septimo die mensis Julii, cum sedisset mensibus octo, & diebus 15. Post cujus decessum oritur inter Cardinales sava dissensio, ita ut de eligendo Pontifice per menses 9. de ipsis Cardinalibus non poterant concordare. Cumque in electionem Summi Pontificis dissiderent, à Civibus secundum Constitutionem Gregorii decimi includuntur. Transiit igitur annus iste Romanis lugubris propter dissensionem Cardinalium in electione Papa. This Pope notwithstanding his premised severity against the spoilers, imprisoners and murderers of his predecessor Boniface, was so indulgent to Philip King of France, the chief contriver of it, that to obtain his favour, and reduce him to his Sheepfold (as * Thomas Walsingham and others observe) Papa Benedictus considerans pium esse etiam ovem errantem licet invitum perducere ad ovile, Regem Francorum non patientem, a sententia excommunicationis per prædecessorem suum lata in eum absolbit. Although, Per idem tempus Rex Franciæ offensus Abbati Cisterciensi, quia in Appellatione contra Papam Bonifacium non consenserat, omnia Pontificia ejusdem ordinis in regno Franciæ constituta plurimum molestant; propter quod Abbas ultro regimine ordinis sui cessit.

The Archbishop of Canterbury excommunicating the Prior and Convent of St. Oswald in Gloucester, of the Kings foundation, and his Free-Chaple, exempt from all Archiepiscopal and Episcopal Jurisdiction, because they opposed his Visitation of them; and commanding all persons within the City and County of Gloucester not to sell to, or buy of them any Victuals or other necessities, nor in any kinde to communicate with them, in high contempt, prejudice and derogation of his Royal Crown and Dignity; the King thereupon issued this memorable Writ and Proclamation against his Archiepiscopal unchristian Inhibition, commanding all his Subjects to buy, sell and communicate with them in all things, as freely as they did before.

A memorable president, evidencing the Supreme Ecclesiastical Sovereignty of our Kings, in countermanding and nulling even the exorbitant Ecclesiastical Inhibitions and Excommunications of the Archbishop himself, by publick Proclamation, as prejudicial and derogatory to his Crown and Royal Dignity to tolerate or connive at, though warranted by Papal Canons, Constitutions and Presidents.

Soon after, this memorable Writ of Attachment issued against the Archbishop of Canterbury himself, for presuming to visit the Free-Chaple of St. Oswald in Gloucester, and excommunicating the Prior and Convent thereof, against their Privileges.

the Prebend of Stryvelington in the Church of St. Peter in York, belonging to him by the vacancy of the Archbishoprick, commanding Thomas Corbridge the new Archbishop to admit and put him into actual possession thereof; who neglected to do it after two successive mandates, to the Kings damage of 10000 l. Thereupon the Archbishop being summoned to answer this contempt before the Kings Justices, upon his appearing before them, alledged; *That he was alwayes ready to obey the Kings commands so far as he could, but he could not admit his Clerk, because the Pope by reason of the vacancy, and his confirmation of him in the Court of Rome as Archbishop, had by his Provision conferred the said Prebendary and Chappell thereunto belonging on his own Clerks, of whom they were now full; so as he by reason of his Oath and obedience made to his Lord the Pope, could not invalidate the Act of the Pope his Superior Lord, nor deprive or remove his Clerks, and therefore prayed the King to hold him excused; refusing to give any other answer: Whereupon Judgement was solemnly given against him, That what he alledged was no sufficient cause for him not to execute the Kings commands, and that all his Temporalities held of the King should be seised into his hands for this his contempt and disobedience, untill he should yield obedience thereunto, and the Archbishop, and all others as well Clergymen as Laymen, were in full Court prohibited under pain of forfeiting all they could forfeit, not to prosecute or cause to be prosecuted any suit or appeal in the Court of Rome against the Rights of the Kings Crown and Dignity, nor to make any instruments, nor to give any ayd, counsil or assent in any kinde in this case, whereby any discord might arise between the Kings Court and the Court of Rome. An. 32 E. 1. quod predictum Clericum Domini Regis ad predictas Prebendam et Capellam ad presens admittere non potest, eo quod Dominus Papa ratione vacationis quæ alias se fecit in Curia Romana de eisdem Prebenda et Capella, per consecrationem ipsius Archiepiscopi ibidem, qui eisdem prius tenuit, ipsas easdem ex collatione sua dedit Clericis, &c. de quibus eadem Prebenda et Capella nunc plene sunt: Unde dicit, quod ipse *ratione Sacramenti sui, et obedientie sue quæ Domino Papæ fecit, &c. factum ipsius Domini Papæ Superioris sui infirmare non potest, nec predictos Clericos, &c. inde p̄b̄are, &c. Et petit, quod Dominus Rex ipsum in ista causa excusatum habere velit, &c. Et quæsitum est à prefato Archiepiscopo, si aliquid aliud ad predictum mandatum Domini Regis respondere velit, &c. Qui dicit ut prius, quod non potest, &c. Et quia causa predicta quam idem Archiepiscopus de impedimento, seu non posse suo in Curia hic pro se assignat pro nulla habetur, eo quod factum Domini Papæ Superioris sui in Curia Romana, factum in Curia hic deductum non potest nec terminari, immo ad *inobedientiam ipsius Archiepiscopi expresse reputatum ut tenetur, eo quod predictum Clericum, &c. ad mandata Domini Regis predicta admittere recusabit; consideratum est, quod temporalitas quam idem Archiepiscopus de Domino Rege tenet, &c. caplat in manum Domini Regis, &c. quousque Clericum predictum ad mandatum Domini Regis admitteret, et ipsi Domino Rege de contemptu et inobedientia predictis satisfaceret: Et super hoc publice in plena Curia hic inhibitum est ex parte Domini Regis, prefato Archiepiscopo et omnibus aliis de regno et de potestate Regis, tam Laicis quam Clericis, &c. sub satisfactione omnium quæ satisfacere poterunt, ne aliquis eorum aliquo sequatur, vel sequi faciat erga Curiam Romanam, nec alibi contra sus Coronam et dignitatem Regis, &c. in isto casu vel aliis quibuscunque: Nec aliquas Appellationes, Procuraciones seu Instrumenta quæcunque faciant, nec auxilium, consilium seu assensum ad hoc præbeant quoquo modo, per quod dissensio aliqua vel discordia inter Curiam Romanam et Curiam Regis poterint evenire, vel pax inter easdem aliquammodo, quod ab sit, infirmari, &c.

From which memorable Record I shall observe: 1. That the Popes pretended right to conferre the vacant Livings belonging to those Archbishops and Bishops he consecrated at Rome by his Provisions, was a meer Innovation and Usurpation, which our Kings would by no means permit or connive at, but strenuously opposed, as inconsistent with, & destructive to the ancient Rights and Priviledges of their Crowns, to present to all Prebendaries, Churches, Chappels of Archbishopsricks & Bishopricks that became or continued void, during the time their Temporalities were in their hands. 2ly. That no Bulls, Mandates, Censures, nor Proccesse of the Pope, were pleadable in the Kings Courts in barre of the Kings Writs or Precepts. 3ly. That our Archbishops and Bishops, by reason of their Oathes and obedience to the Pope, held themselves obliged in duty and conscience to obey the Popes Commands and Provisions, rather then the Kings Writs and Presentations. 4ly. That this their obedience to the Pope before the King, was adjudged a very high contempt in Law, for which their Temporalities were legally seised into the Kings hands, till they obeyed his Writs, before the Popes Injunctions to them. 5ly. That our Kings under severe forfeitures and penalties prohibited all Suits in, Appeals to, Instruments and Citations from Rome, prejudicial to their Prerogative, Crown and Royal dignity, or which might engender any contests between the Jurisdiction of the Kings Courts and the Court of Rome.

This seizure of the Archbishops Temporalities into the Kings hands, by vertue of this Judgement, and his death soon after, I finde thus recorded in the Fine Rolls of this year.

Edw.* for his own use) from the Collectors and others, contrary to Pope Boniface his Bull, and issuing out Warrants to the Kings Collectors in every Diocese to prohibit their collection thereof, against the Kings own strict Writs to collect it; the King thereupon issued this Writ to Ralph de Sandwich to repair to this Nuncio with the Mayor, Aldermen, and other Citizens of London, and summon him to appear privately before them in the Tower of London, without a public Notary, and to require him forthwith to revoke and null all his Warrants to the Collectors, as contrary to his Crown and Dignity, which no former Nuncio durst attempt, under pain of incurring his highest indignation belonging to Rebels and Enemies of his Crown, and forthwith in their presence to issue out Warrants of revocation to every Diocese by special Messengers at the Kings cost; and if he refused to come to the Tower, or issue forth such Letters of revocation, then presently to attach him for this high affront, and comming into the Realm without his royal assent.

Et ideo vobis mandamus, quod assumptis bobiscum Majore, Aldermannis, et aliis de dicioibus et discretioibus hominibus Civitatis nostræ London, secundum quod ad sufficientiam fore videritis, dictum Magistrum Gerardum adeatis, et ex parte nostra ei injungatis, quod ex tunc incontinenti veniat coram vobis apud Turrim nostram London. mandatum nostrum auditurus: Et cum ibidem coram vobis comparuerit, stricte, prohibito, et circumspicte, quod nullus publicus Notarius ibi præsens fuerit, firmus et strictus quo poteritis nomine nostro dicto Magistro Gerardo exponatis et injungatis, quod hujusmodi mandata sua, quæ non solum ad derogationem leuationis dictæ pecuniæ, sed et contra dignitatem nostram Regiam attemptata saculantur, integraliter revoce, et penitus annullent, sicut ad indignationem Regia quæ rebelles reprimit, contemptentes contemnit, et maxime qui præjudicium contra libertatem Coronæ nostræ et regni nostri præsumpserit inferre voluerit, præstari; Considerato siquidem, quod statim in præsentia vestra dictam revocationem ponat in facto: Ita quod literas suas faciat Collectoribus dictæ Decimæ in qualibet Dioc. infra regnum nostrum dirigendas, et tunc literas illas absque omni dilationis interballo dictis Collectoribus per certos Puncios, de quibus notitiam habueritis, mittatis, et cum quod ad hoc apposueritis nos in Chardroba nostra vobis solbi faciamus. Et scire faciatis præfato Magistro Gerardo, quod si auctoritatem quampiam penes se habeat præmissa tangentem, illam pro loco et tempore cum ad hoc vacare poterimus in nostri consilii qua nostri præsentia paratus sit ostensurus, ut visa illa et inspecta, ulterius fiat quod per nos et dictum Consilium nostrum fuerit faciendum. Et si idem Magister Gerardus coram vobis ad dictam Turrim nostram venire noluerit, vel si venerit, et dictam revocationem in forma prædicta facere recusaverit, tunc ipsum attachetis quousque super hoc duxerimus ordinandum. Insuper vobis prohibemus, ne aliquis gratia, favore vel cautela quacunque copiam istius præsentis literæ aliqualiter optineat, Et quid super præmissis feceritis, nobis sub sigillo vestro quamprimum fieri poterit distinctè & aperte constare faciatis. REX dilectis sibi in Christo Priori & Conventui Karlioli Subcollectoribus Decimæ Clero Anglia per felicitis recordationis Dominum Bonifacium Papam Octavum de assensu nostro impositæ per tres annos, salutem. Cum prædictus Papa gravia onera et expensas multiplices, quæ prætextu Guerrarum nostrarum sustinimus, paterna compassione considerans et attendens, nobis ad relebationem expensarum et onerum prædictorum, per suas litteras, medietatem dictæ Decimæ liberaliter concessisset, quarum tenorem, de verbo ad verbum manu publica cujusdam tabellionis conscriptum, certis de causis vobis transmittimus intuendum, ac per vos omnibus aliis, quorum interest, vel interesse quoquo modo, si necesse fuerit, publicandum. Idemque Papa venerabili patri Episcopo, & Magistro Bartholomæo de Ferentino Canonico London. dedisset per alias litteras suas executorias in mandatis, Ut dictam medietatem Decimæ nobis concessam, tam collectæ quam impostum colligendæ, nobis vel Collectoribus nostris, ad hoc per nos specialiter deputatis facerent assignari; quarum litterarum prætextu, prædicti Episcopus per se, & Bartholomæus per Magistrum Johannem de Bonichii de Senis Commissarium suum in hac parte specialiter constitutum, medietatem dictæ Decimæ de primis duobus annis, & aliquam partem ejusdem Decimæ de primo termino tertii Anni per quosdam Subcollectores suos jam levare fecerint, nobisque per suas litteras assignari: Ac nos propter felicem et celerem consummationem guerræ nostræ in Scotia, quam ad nostram et Regni nostri honorem summo desiderio affectamus, ad præsens indigeamus magna pecuniæ quantitate. Vobis in fide & dilectione quibus nobis tenemini firmiter mandamus, quatinus virtute primæ Commissionis, de levanda de dicto triennio tota Decima, à prædictis Episcopo & Bartholomæo principalibus Collectoribus ejusdem, ab initio vobis factæ, quam per mortem dicti Papæ, aut London. Episcopi minime constat expirasse, totum residuum dictæ Decimæ de primo termino tertii anni, nondum adduc levatæ nec solutæ, ab omnibus & singulis personis Ecclesiasticis, infra commissæ vobis loca constitutis, nulli penitus deferendo, cujuscunque status, dignitatis, aut conditionis existat per omnimodam censuram Ecclesiasticam vobis in hac parte competentem, colligi & levare, sine cujuscunque excusationis & dilationis incommodo faciatis. Ita quod illud ad Scaccarium nostrum, cum omni celeritate qua fieri poterit, habeatis, ut sic medietatem dictæ Decimæ de tertio anno, juxta concessionem Apostolicam, integraliter habeamus, nosque per nostras patentes litteras vobis de omni eo quod solveritis, sufficentem Acquietantiæ faciemus, ac vos erga Dominum Papam Principales Collectores, et alios quoscunque conferbabitur indemnes. The King by his Prerogative writ also for Corrodies for his aged Servants to the Prior and Covent of St. Maries in Suthwerke, and others, who returned these answers to him, rendring several reasons, humbly tendred to his Majesty, of their disabilities to effect it, though otherwise willing.

Serenissimo Principi & Domino suo Reverendo E. Dei gratia Regi Anglia, &c. sui humiles & devoti Sacerdotes Prior & Conventus beate Mariæ de Suthwerk, ea quæ poterunt pro suo Domino orationum suffragia apud Deum. Placuit Excellentie vestre nobis, præcipere, quod Willielmo le Fishere, servienti vestro, quoad viveret, faceremus in victu & necessariis provideri, Literas nostras patentes inde sibi faciendo, Sigilli nostri Capituli consignatas; quodque inde faciendum duceremus, vos efficeremus nostris literis magis certos: Quibus mandatis, nobis Altissimus, humili animo pareremus, si nostræ ad hoc sufficerent facultates. Sed apud Majestatem vestram, à prædicto onere subeundo, excusare non debet (Princeps inclyte) summa paupertas, qua nos deprimimur: cum omnis res, redditus et possessiones nostræ ad sustentationem nostram sufficere non valeant, nisi gratia Dei quæ ad supplementum agit, pie fidelium largitiones nobis succurrerent in hoc casu. Ecclesia etiam nostra, quæ jam triginta annis elapsis passa (proh dolor!) est ruinam, circa cujus relevationem ab eo tempore toto laboravimus nostro posse, necdum tantum potuimus in ipsius relevatione invalescere, variis & onerosis exactionibus tam in spiritualibus quam in temporalibus præpediti, quod nostrum ex toto edificare potuimus Campanile. Continua insuper pugna, quam absque interpellatione contra rabiem fluvii Tamenfis aggredimur, super cujus ripam nostra domuncula, situatur, quam ad salvationem Ecclesiæ nostræ & nostram tantum non sufficiunt vires nostræ quin appposito subsidio parti uni, pars alia statim nobis periculum comminetur. Denique (Domine excellentissime) vestra attendat magnificentia, quod in vestris hujusmodi provisionibus servientium, Domibus, pinguibus de magnis et superhabundantibus Paneris et aliis possessionibus magnificorum Principum, Progenitorum vestrorum, Regum Angliæ (quarum fragmenta ac mica, quæ de mensis earum cadunt, pluris quam tota nostra substantia sint balozis) vestra semper Curia scribere consuebit: non exilibus et exiguis Cellulis fratrum, quæ ex simplicium virozum, qui ex parvulis portionibus sunt fundatæ: cujusmodi est vestra parvula nostra domus: quia revera, si talem in nostram assumeremus (prout vobis scribere placuit) comitivam, unum nos oportet de nostris fratribus amovere, quod ne dum vobis molestum sed videretur potius inhumanum. Parcatis igitur nobis, quæsumus, pie Princeps, si dictis vestris præceptis parere non possumus, ut vellemus, quia verè non sine frontis rubore nostram jam vobis insinuavimus parvitatem. Longævus & prosperos vos conservet Altissimus, &c.

This year King Edward having subdued all the proud rebellious Scots who perfidiously took up arms against him, contrary to their premised reiterated Oathes and Covenants, except those in Sirivelyn Castle, sitting down with his Army before it, encouraged them strenuously to assault it by a short Oration; wherein he recited both his Titles to Scotland, the manifold rebellions and perjuries of the Scots, and his great victories over them, which Matthew Westminster thus relates.

<sup>a</sup> Sub eodem quoque tempore, quo Reges solebant ad bella procedere, fortunatissimus Rex Anglorum Edwardus, peragratis quibuscunque Scotiae partibus, calcatis victorioso cognibus superbozum, domitis Rebellium fremitibus, deditis ejus arbitrio cunctis nobilioribus regni Scotiae, ac etiam debellatis, adhuc restabat unum Castellum fortissimum expugnandum, videlicet Strivelin. Ad quod cum pervenisset Rex, statim obsidionem disposuit. Defensor autem Castris, Miles satis magnanimus, dictus Gulielmus Olyfard, cernens tam elegantem expeditionem, se & suos circumdari, mittit legationem, petens à Rege, sibi licere Magistro suo Johanni de Soules transmittere in Franciam, experiri certe an deberet sponte, & sine resistuntia Regi reddere Castellum, vel contra eum, quamdiu poterat, illud defendere. Cui Rex, nequaquam. Quinimo, si salubrius assimaverit, Castrum defendere, quam illud nobis reddere ipse viderit. Quo responso accepto, recordatus est Gulielmus juramenti, quod fecerat Magistro suo, agenti tunc in Francia cum quibusdam Scotis, gratia dissensionis habenda: Sed quia non aderat auxiliator, neque qui ferret juvamen, ad resistendum acti Regia praearet, quantum potest. Estimabat autem se non Regi obnoxium esse, si Castellum defenderet contra eum, pro eo, quod fidelitatem vel homagium nunquam sibi corporaliter praestitisset. Sed quomodo unà cum Magistro suo terram alterius, & Castrum Regis fraudulenter invaserat, non sanè prospexit aut noluit intelligere, ut bene ageret. Porro Rex Angliae animavit populum suum ad bellum, replicans, qualiter post obitum Alexandri Regis Scotiae, Comites et Barones illum in principalem Dominum elegerunt, fidelitatem et homagium sibi dantes, corporali praestito Sacramento pro se, et pro cunctis Pastozibus et Pinozibus regni, tam praesentibus quam futuris, ut discusso jure singulorum vendicantiam coram eo, ille Coronam susciperet, quem ipse iudicaret amplius habere juris ad regnum. Quique praecaverunt sibi in futurum, ut Rex Angliae, non quasi vocalis eorum, et regni et Regis Franciae Dominus, quicquam constituerat, verum etiam ipsum, tanquam Advocatum Dominum, et realem possessorum, omnibus Castellis, Civitatibus, Burgis, Marefcallis, Senescallis, ac cunctis aliis proprietatibus quae ad regnum pertinent, ipsum per dies 40 pacifice seiscernerent, ne in vanum currerent, aut in irritum factum proprium revocarent, prout in Patentis eorumdem instrumentis, inde confecto plenius continetur. Postmodum Electus eorum Rex et coronatus contra ligium Dominum suum Regem Angliae, movens bellum, debincitur, et carceri mancipatur. Peremptisque C. M. viris et amplius in bello, apud Berwicum et Dunbar, insuper captis Baronibus, Comitibus, et Militibus regni Scotiae, et in Anglia incarceratis, ipse Conquistor et Monarcha duorum regnorum efficitur lege Belli. Denuo dimissis illis misericorditer repetere ad Natale solum et iterum bellum suscitantibus, occurrens Rex cum armato milite regnum Scotiae alias in ore gladii, adquisivit, occisis in bello iuxta Fankirk Lx. M. viris de Scotis. Dixitque Rex, Cum igitur jam tertio rebellionis filios clava potentiae nostrae bellicose domuerimus, et non sit qui resistat nobis nisi alter Siba, filius Bortii, commilitones optimi, servata titulos laudis vestrae, ut expugnato nocivo vermiculo, honor vester propensius augeatur. Peroraverat ista Rex, & legationis vel exercitus probatur assertio. Perinde tenduntur balista, eriguntur machine, fabricantur tormenta ad lapides jacendos; and the Castle besieged, strenuously assaulted, and defended to the utmost extremity, till the Governour and Souldiers were forced to surrender themselves to the Kings mercy, who though several times levelled at and endangered to be slain, spared the lives of all those who kept it against him, as the same Historian and others relate at large. After which, * Victoriosissimus Rex Angliae Edwardus, deputatis in Castello illo, & à ceteris locis Scotiae viris Nobilibus, qui triumphalem pacem suam cunctis indigenis servarent, comitantibus ipsum Comitibus et Baronibus Scotiae, in signum deditiois, et rebellionis debellatae, ad Angliam loca direxit. Tenuit igitur Rex Natale suum apud Lincolniam, & praecepit procuratoribus domus suae, ut à splendide & magnifice administrare, quae necessaria erant pro tanti jocunditate festi, sibi & Comitibus suae, tanquam Monarchae, Regi, et Domino duorum regnorum, Ibiq; refocillans suos Comites & Proceres in multis deliciis per dies multos, virtutes bellatorum laudum praconis attollebat. Quos condignis muneribus gratificatis, & pro laboribus commendatas, latus dimisit ad propria, & jocundos.

*In Octavis Nativitatis beate Mariæ, adunatum est Consilium Regis Edwardi ad
 Novum Templum Londini, cui interfuerunt Episcopi Cestrensis & Wygornienfis de Anglia, & Episcopi Sancti Andree & Glasconensis de Scotia, & Abbates West-monaster. & Waverlaic. & duo de Scotia, & duo Comites de Anglia, & duo de Scotia, et alii Barones tam Scoti quam Angli. Ubi per 20 dies consiliati sunt super fir-manda pace Regia in Scotia, qualiter melius firmitus & quietius, tam pro Scotis quam pro Anglis, pax summa & tranquillitas optima perpetuis stabiliretur temporibus. Ipsi Scoti per assensum totius regni Scotiæ, et quoque Ordinationi stare spondit re-liqua pars tota, ad Angliam sunt transmissi. Et per assensum & ordinationem ntrin-que partis, constituti sunt Iusticiarii & Clerici ultra & citra mare Scotticum, bini & bini, qui suis in locis pacem patriæ confoverent, lites deciderent, & pugnas sedarent.
 Hac disposita, venerunt ad Regem prænominati viri, & recitata ordinatione eorum in audientia, placuit Regi in omnibus, unico duntaxat articulo, de quodam iudicio Sco-tico, penitus annullato. Tunc iuraverunt Episcopi, Abbates, Comites, et Barones Scotiæ pro se, et hæredibus suis, et reliqua gente superstiti et futura in Scotia, stare ordinationi prædictæ, et secundum modum et formam dispositionis huiusmodi, tam potentes quam ignobiles, præsentis et futuros, velle semper degere et debere.
 Hoc autem apud Waverlunum de Scheene super Thamesim, Scoti prædicti tactis Sa-crofantis Christi corpore et Evangelis et aliis reliquiis sponderunt. Gavisus igitur Rex ob spem firmæ futuræ pacis in Scotia fecit misericordiam cum eisdem, ut qui pro peccatis suis redemptionem fecerant, videlicet, qui balozem terrarum suarum ad certos annos per duos, tres vel quatuor, Regi debuissent soluisse duos in quatuor, tres in sex, et quatuor in octo annos pensatis cuiusque conditione et statu, ut haberent unde honeste viverent, voluit hoc ratiocinium prolongari. Post hac licentiam Scoti cum honore in regionem suam alacriter sunt reversi. Yet within few Moneths utter these perjured, faithlesse Scots, against these New Oathes and Ordinance, most perfidiously and ungratefully revolted from, rebelled against King Edward, Crowned a new King of their own, which occasioned new Warres; of which more in due place.

The Proceedings in this Parliamentary Counsil, and Ordinance for settling the affairs of Scotland, made by the unanimous consent of the Commissioners elected and sent from thence, and the Kings English Commissioners, with the Kings Royal assent thereto, are thus more fully enrolled in our Records, than related in any of our printed Historians.

The Abbots of the Cisterciens, Cluny, and other Orders imposing sundry taxes, Subsidies, Procurations and other Exactions upon all Religious Houses of their respective Orders in England, Wales, Scotland and Ireland, and forcing them to repair every second or third year to their Chapters beyond the Seas, to their great oppression, impoverishment, and diminution of Gods service, notwithstanding the Kings * promised frequent Prohibitions; the King to redresse this grievance for the future, upon the Petition of his Earles, Barons and Commons assembled in Parliament, in the 33. year of his Reign by his Ecclesiastical Sovereignty enacted a memorable Law to suppress this dangerous Innovation, thus entred in the Records of that Parliament in the Tower, and afterwards confirmed and promulged in the Parliament at Karlisle, An. 35 E. 1.

Dat. Romae apud Sanctum Petrum 3. Non. Aprilis, Pontificatus nostri Anno primo.

In which Bull we may observe; First the strange injustice of this Pope, in supplying the poverty of this Bishop, with all the rents, profits and emoluments of this Priory, which should relieve, support the Monks therein, and removing the Monk placed therein by the Prior (only to collect and distribute them for the use of the Priory) without cause or hearing: 2ly. His most execrable tyrannical injunction to put this Bishop into the actual possession thereof, and excommunicate, interdict all who should oppose him therein, without the benefit of appeal; Notwithstanding any contrary Custome, Statutes, or Oath of the said Church to the contrary; though corroborated by the confirmation of the See Apostolick, or any other firm assurance, be it by Charters of our Kings, or Acts of Parliament. And which is more observable, notwithstanding any Temporal or Spiritual priviledge or exemptions granted to this Priory, or others joyntly or severally by the Popes and See Apostolick, that they should not be excommunicated, suspended or interdicted, or that their Cells and livings should be totally exempted from, and not lyable to any Provision or disposition whatsoever of the See Apostolike, which might hinder or delay the execution of this monstrous Bull. To which the King after full debate and deliberation with his Counsil in Parliament, returned this memorable resolution, That this Petition was not grantable, because the granting thereof would be manifestly prejudicial to the King himself, and to his Royal Crown, as the Record thus informs us.

Quibus literis Apostolicis, ut praemittitur, presentatis, visis, examinatis, et plenius intellectis, requisitionem quam predictus Episcopus Bibliensis fecit predicto Domino Regi, scilicet, quod placeret eidem et benigne permitteret, ut Prioratus de Goldyngham in Scotia Sancti Andreas Diocesis baseat adhiberi, iuxta concessionem et assignationem per suprascriptas Literas Apostolicas sibi specialiter inde factas. In the Pleas of Parliament apud Westm. coram Rege & Consilio suo à die Sancti Michaelis in 13 dies, An. 33 E. 1. the Prior and Covent of St. Trinity in Dublin, and Dean and Chapter of St. Patrick's Dublin, were attached and prosecuted in Parliament at the Kings suit, for presuming to elect a new Archbishop of Dublin in the place of William Hothom deceased, before they received the Kings special license to elect, though they sent some of their Members to petition for it; when as their Temporalities at the last vacancy were seized into the Kings hands for the like contempt, which they now reiterated, against the ancient Rights and Prerogatives of the King and his predecessors time out of minde, to his damage of 20000 l. for which the Temporalities of the Prior and Covent were again seized, notwithstanding all their pleas and excuses, as this memorable Record will inform us.

PRior & Conventus Sanctæ Trinitatis Dublin. & Decanus & Capitulum Sancti Patricii Dublin. attachati fuerunt ad respondendum Domino Regi de eo, quod cum Dominus Rex et progenitores sui Reges Anglia, et Domini Hibernia, a tempore quo non extat memoria, pacifice usi sint et gaudi tali privilegio et dignitate, quod quociens Archiepiscopus, Episcopus, Abbatia, quæ de eo tenentur in Capite, vel aliter Domus quarum terræ in parte (Hyb.) vocantur ab antiquo, Terræ incrocentæ, vacaverint, statim tenementa Archiepiscopatum, Episcopatum, Abbatiarum, et Domuum hujusmodi capi debent in manum ipsius Domini Regis, et illi ad quos spectat electio de futuro Pastore, &c. petere debent ab ipso Domino Rege licentiam eligendi, &c. et licentia hujusmodi non optenta, nullatenus liceat aliquem eligere, &c. Prædicti Prior et Conventus, Decanus et Capitulum sede Archiepiscopatus Dublinensis vacante per mortem Willielmi de Hothom nuper Archiepiscopi, &c. futurum Archiepiscopum elegerunt, nunc die Mercurii proxima post Octabas Sancti Hilarii, licentia eligendi ab ipso Domino Rege non optenta, in præjudicium et læsionem Coronæ et dignitatis suæ, &c. Unde Johannes de Ponte qui sequitur pro eo, dicit, quod prædictum præjudicium et læsionem Coronæ et dignitatis Domini Regis fecerunt ipsi, sicut prædictum est, in contemptum et dampnum ipsius Domini Regis 20000 l. Et hoc offert verificare pro ipso Domino Rege, sicut Curia considerabit.

Ar. 33 E. 1.

Et Prior & Conventus, Decanus & Capitulum veniunt, & prædicti Prior & Conventus dicunt pro se, quod prædicti Decanus et Capitulum in singulis vacationibus Ecclesie sue prædictæ, debent vocari ad interessendum suæ electioni apud Ecclesiam suam Sanctæ Trinitatis, & ipsi si interesse voluerint habent vocem licet secundariam in electione faciendâ; unde dicunt, quod non debent separatim sine prædictis Decano & Capitulo inde respondere: Et petunt, quod prædicti Decanus & Capitulum si clamant esse participes in electione faciendâ, tunc se jungant in respondendo. Postea prædicti Prior & Conventus, Decanus & Capitulum petita conjunctim licentia inde loquendi, reveniunt. Et prædicti Prior & Conventus dicunt pro se, quod statim habita notitia de morte prædicti Willielmi nuper Archiepiscopi, &c. quæ pervenit ad eos in vigilia Sancti Romani proxima præterita, miserunt ipsi simul cum prædictis Decano et Capitulo certos Punctos Domino Regi, ad petendum licentiam eligendi, Fratrem Anianum Concanonicum prædictæ Ecclesie Sanctæ Trinitatis, & Walterum Wogan Canonicum prædictæ Ecclesie Sancti Patricii, qui jam redierunt, et literas patentes Domini Regis eis inde detulerunt, quas proferunt; & hoc idem testantur. Dicunt etiam, quod ipsi et eorum prædecessores a tempore quo non eriat memoria, semper in hujusmodi vacationibus solebant mittere Punctos suos cum literis suis Domino Regi ad petendum licentiam eligendi, &c. Et si Puncti sui non redissent infra tres menses a tempore vacationis, &c. semper solebant ipsi et prædecessores sui, circa finem temporis hujusmodi ultra quod non liceret eis eligere, &c. Pastorem eligere absque calumpnia Domini Regis vel Episcoporum suorum. Et prædictus Johannes de Ponte dicit pro Domino Rege, quod die electionis factæ non constabat eis de aliqua licentia Domini Regis optenta, &c. Dicit enim, quod prædicti Puncti cum prædictis literis applicuerunt in Hibernia die Dominica post electionem factam. Et hoc offert verificare pro Domino Rege, &c. Dicit etiam, quod in ultima vacatione prædicti Archiepiscopatus ante instantem vacationem, videlicet, post mortem Johannis de Saunford nuper Archiepiscopi, &c. Prior & Conventus, Decanus & Capitulum prædictarum domorum Nuncios suis missis Domino Regi ad petendum licentiam eligendi, & licentia illis concessa, &c. sed Punctis non reversis in hanc terram cum literis Domini Regis quas inde habuerunt, eligerunt Thomam de Cladeford tunc, sicut et nunc Decanum prædictæ Ecclesie Sancti Patricii. Propter quod cum prædictus Decanus venisset ad ipsam Domum Regem in Anglia, Rex sic ipsum Electum non admisit, sed remisit eligendum iterato, et capere fecit in manum suam omnia temporalia prædicti Prioratus pro contemptu ubi facto in hoc casu, et ea sic tenuit quousque de gratia sua ea replegiabit Priori prædictæ domus qui tunc fuit. Et hoc similiter offert verificare pro Domino Rege. Et Prior & Conventus non possunt hoc dedicere, ideo ad Judicium de eis.

N. 1.

Et Decanus & Capitulum dicunt pro se, quod ex consuetudine hæcenus approbata electio futuri Archiepiscopi Dublin. debet fieri in Ecclesia prædicta S. Trinitatis, & quod prædictus Prior habet primam vocem in electione illa, & ipsi Decanus & Capitulum secundam. Et dicunt, quod prædicti Prior & Conventus vocaverunt ipsos Decanum & Capitulum quod interessent ad prædictum diem Mercurii prædictæ ad prædictam electionem faciendam. Et dicunt, quod si ipsi Decanus & Capitulum non intervenissent ad diem hujusmodi sic vocari, Prior et Conventus eligerent per se non expectata præsentia ipsorum Decani et Capituli: Et sic ipsi Decanus et Capitulum excluderentur a possessione hujusmodi electionis conjunctim et divisim, et ex hoc per processum temporis per diversas causas quæ satis notæ sunt Curie Domini Regis, posset maximum dispendium Domino Rege generari. Unde dicunt, quod ipsi Decanus & Capitulum ad vocationem prædictam venerunt ad prædictam Ecclesiam, et rogaverunt prædictos Priorem et Conventum, quod ab electione faciendâ desisterent, quousque licentiam Domini Regis optinerent, qui licet inde consulendo deliberationem habuissent, rogatui suo nullatenus consenserunt, sed præcise dixerunt, quod ad electionem faciendam die illo procederent nullo casu propediendo. Per quod ipsi Decanus & Capitulum, qui pro maxima parte Capituli sunt Clerici Domini Regis, & sui familiares, nolentes ob prædictas causas prædecessores suos præcludi ab electione aliâs faciendâ, &c. et non per aliquem contemptum vel præjudicium Domino Rege machinandum, assignarunt certas personas ad interessendum electioni illi, quibus ipsi voces suas penitus in electione illa commicommiserunt; videlicet, Willielmus de Estden Thesaurarius de Scaccario Dublin. An. 33 E. 1.

& Canonicus prædictæ Ecclesiæ Sancti Patricii vocem suam, Radulpho de Stanes
Canonico ejusdem Ecclesiæ, prædictus Decanus, Justiciarius de Banco Dublin. &
Thomas de Snitterby Justiciarius de eodem Banco, & Canonici prædictæ Ecclesiæ Sancti Patricii voces suas, Magistro Willielmo de Hothum Concanonico ejusdem Ecclesiæ, et hoc salvis juribus Regis: et pro eo quod electioni illi personaliter interesse noluerunt, licentia Regis non optenta. Et quod ita est. Et quod ipsi Decanus & Capitulum licentia, &c. non optenta, non processissent ad electio-nem, &c. faciendam, nisi per prædictos Priorem et Conventum sic fuissent co-acti, sicut prædictum est; videlicet, quod electioni illi per se vel per certas personas Capituli sui quibus voces Concanonicorum ejusdem Capituli concessæ fuissent, interessent, vel a possessione sic eligendi fuissent exclusi, &c. parati sunt verificare sicut Curia consideraverit.

Et prædictus Johannes de Ponte petit Judicium pro Domino Rege, ex quo ipsi Decanus & Capitulum cognoscunt, quod eligerunt, &c. licentia non optenta. Et Decanus & Capitulum dicunt, quod maxima pars Capituli Clerici Regis sunt, & familiares sui, non habentes Laica tenementa, set tantum Ecclesiastica beneficia.
Et quod Dominus Rex in hujusmodi casibus electionum factarum in prædicta Ec-clesia licentia non optenta, semper se cepit ad Priorem et Conventum prædictæ Ecclesiæ Sanctæ Trinitatis, qui ipsos Decanum et Capitulum per vocacionem in-ducunt ad interessendum, &c. sicut prædictum est; vel ipsi Decanus et Capitulum excluderentur perpetuo, &c. Unde petunt, quod Curia Regis ad hoc habet abisa-mentum, &c. Et Prior & Conventus quesiti, si prædictus Decanus & Capitulum rogaverunt ipsos prædicto die Mercurii quod supersederent, &c. non possunt hoc dedicere: Set dicunt, quod ille dies Mercurii fuit ultimus dies eis concessus eli-gendi, &c. per Canones a tempore notitiæ suæ habitæ de vacatione prædictæ.
Per quod dixerunt, quod citius caderent in gratiam Domini Regis, cum credissent et ex relatu quorundam audivissent, quod Dominus Rex licentiam eis præbuit eligendi, &c. quam in manus Papales, videlicet, quod si intra trimesse spacium non eligerent, per hoc ipsi Papa competere Archiepiscopatum conferre culem-que voluisset. Et Prior & Conventus quesiti, quem elegerint? dicunt, quod ipsi unanimitè duobus Canonicis suis exceptis eligerunt ipsum Priorem, &c. Et præ-dicti Decanus & Capitulum quesiti, quem elegerint? Dicunt, quod ipsi simul cum prædictis duobus Canonicis unanimiter eligerunt ipsum Decanum, &c. Decano solummodo excepto, qui electioni de se factæ adhuc non consensit. Et prædicti Decanus & Capitulum dicunt ulterius, quod si videatur Domino Regi vel Curie suæ quod ipsi deliquerunt in hoc quod coacti, sicut prædictum est, processerunt ad electio-nem faciendam in forma prædicta pro jure Regis et suo manutenendo, tunc ipsi se supponunt inde gratiæ Domini Regis. Et quia Prior & Conventus non possunt dedicere, quin Temporalia Prioratus sui alias capta fuerunt in manum Domini Regis, pro eo quod in ultima vacatione ante instantem vacationem eligerunt, sicut prædictum est, antequam literæ Domini Regis de licentia Regis optenta de-buerunt ad eos: Et Dominus Rex de gratia sua speciali replegiari fecit eis prædicta Temporalia ad voluntatem suam. Et ipsi jam de nobis similiter elege-runt licentia non optenta, contemptum contemptui cumulantes, unde prædictum generari posset Domino Regi temporibus futuris, nisi ad hoc apponeretur remedium. Et dedicere non possunt, quin habuerunt unum diem ulterius ad minus, per quem possent expectabilis de electione faciendâ si voluissent infra tres menses a tempore notitiæ suæ de vacatione, &c. Consideratum est, quod Temporalia prædicti Prioratus capiantur in manum Domini Regis ad voluntatem suam, &c. Et custodia inde committitur Johanni Vicario Ecclesiæ de Lalk, qui respondebit Domino Regi de exitibus, &c. Et Decanus et Capitulum expectent gratiam Regis.

From which memorable Record we may observe: First, the antient Prerogative of the Kings of England, as well in Ireland, Wales, Scotland, & all other their foreign Dominions as in England: That no Prior and Covent, Dean, Chapter ought to proceed to the election of any Archbishop, Bishop, Abbot, Prior, Priorelle, or Master of any Monastery or House, held of them in capite, or of their foundation, without

An. 33 E. 1. without or before their special license, for making such elections were particularly petitioned for, granted, and actually received by them. 2ly. That their proceeding to make any such elections even after their petitions for, and the Kings granting of such special licenses to elect before their actual reception, was not only a sufficient ground for our Kings to declare such elections voyd in Law, and deny their royal assents thereunto; but likewise an high contempt against our Kings royal Prerogative, Crown, dignity, and of ill example and dangerous consequence, for which the Temporalities of the Electors might not only by Law be seised into the Kings hands, but themselves subjected to a great exemplary fine by way of damage to the King, especially when reiterated. 3ly. That though our Kings out of their special grace had frequently connived at and pardoned such contempts in Ireland in sundry cases premised, yet when such contempts were redoubled in two successive elections in the very Archiepiscopal See of the chief City of Trade and Note in Ireland, nearest adjoyning to England, after the seisure of their Temporalities for the first offence, restored out of special grace, upon hopes of future reformation, as in this case; the Kings present proceedings, and judgement given against them for this second contempt, were most just and necessary, to prevent all future contempts of like nature. 3ly. That the Popes Canons, and the ancient Custom of the Church of Dublin, pleaded by the Prior and Covent to excuse or justify this their election, and contempt, (That they ought to elect an Archbishop within 3. moneths next after notice of the avoydance, within which space the Kings license which they petitioned for came not to their hands,) was no legal plea against the Kings antient prerogative, to which all Popes Canons and contrary Customes ought to give place, who might legally grant or delay his Licenses of this kinde till such time as he should think fit to issue them, being confined to no limits of time, without incurring any lapse, especially to the Pope. 4ly. That Popes new Canons, made in derogation of our Kings Crown, Dignity, and Prerogative, (to enlarge their own Papal power, wills, grandeur) were more carefully observed, obeyed, dreaded by the Priors, Covents, Monks and Clergy of that age (though void in Law) than the Kings unquestionable ancient prerogative and Lawes; and his Papal Censure more regarded than the Kings Legal Judgments. 5ly. That the Deans & Chapters refusal to go to this election before the Kings special licenses received in this and the former election, and joyning in it only to preserve their right therein, was such an extenuation of their contempt, as exposed them rather to the Kings royal grace, then exemplary and severe justice.

I pretermitt the great suit in the * First Parliament of Anno 33 E. 1. between the Bishop of Salum and the Citizens thereof, for Tallage due from them to the Bishop, by reason of their Liberties from Tolls, and other immunities they enjoyed by the Charters granted to his Church and Tenants, who chose rather publicly to renounce all the Liberties and exemptions from Tolls they enjoyed by it, than to be subject to the Bishops Taxes and Tallages.

In that Parliament there were two Petitions exhibited to the King, by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, to which the Kings general answers were thus indorsed in their favour.

Anno Gratiz 1305. * *Cardinales Romani, dum ad invicem dissentiunt super electione apostolica, tandem assientes à longè, injecerunt mentis aciem ultra Alpes ad Archiepiscopum Burdegalensem, Bertramum de Angeaus, ipsum in Summum Pontificem die Pentecostes unanimiter eligerunt, & Clemens quintus vocatur. Is autem electioni consentiens ex Burdegala Lugdunum profectus, eo Cardinales omnes ad se vocabat: Qui sine mora Pontifici obtemperarunt: conveniunt singuli Cardinales præter duos, qui non venerunt præ nimia senectute, & duo alii itinrando mortui sunt, et Curia Romana in Galliam translata, ad septuaginta quatuor annos ibi remansit cum magno Romanorum incommodo. Coronationi hujus Clementis interfuerunt Philippus Rex Francie, Carolus ejus frater, & Johannes Dux Britanniz, qui ruina muri oppressus cum duodecim aliis statim moriebatur dum solennitatis pompa per urbem duceretur. Philippus quoque Rex ex ruina aliqua ex parte debilitatus est, Pontifex autem ex tanta trepidatione, ex aquo deturbatus, Carbunculum ex Tiara amisit pretii Florenorum sex millium. Idem Papa ante Natale duas ordinationes faciens creavit duodecim Cardinales, inter quos de Ordine Fratrum Predicatorum fratrem Thomam de Jozi, Doctor sacre Theologia, natione Anglicus, titulo sanctæ Sabinz factus est Presbyter Cardinales; sex Cardinales de Vasconia, duos de Francia, Abbatem Sanctæ Cracis juxta Burdegalim Ordinis Sancti Benedicti creatum similiter Cardinalem, Vicecancellarium suum constituit. Petrum & Jacobum de Columpna depositos & prædamnatos per Papam Bonifacium 8. de novo Cardinales creavit. Hinc aliqui à fratribus murmuraverunt. Constituit Papa Coronationis & solennitatis suæ diem Lugduni in crastino Sancti Bricii (as <sup>b</sup> Mat. Westmister relates.) Cumque post missarum solennia equitaret, de Ecclesia ad palatium, quidam murus lapideus & luteus vetus & semirutus, cui incumbebat populus multus, ut Papam videret, repente corruit super turbam, & duos Comites qui mulam Papæ per frænum ducebant, unum oppressit, videlicet Andegavensem, alterum Britanniz interemit, et bis binos viros incipros, multis aliis sauciatis. Sed Papa mirabiliter salvatus est. Quod insperatum alicujus futuri mali prognosticum, plurima gens notabit. Die sancti Clementis, cum Papa primò missarum solennia celebrasset, post prandium orta lite et mota pugna inter Clientes Papæ et Cardinalem, unus de fratribus Summi Pontificis occisus est. Alterum fratrem suum cinxit Rex Franciz baltheo militari, & multam aliam munificentiam in Civitatibus, & Castellis suis contulit Papa Rex Francorum, per quod in omnibus negotiis suis expediendis gratiam multam præmeruit et favorem. * Rex autem Anglorum misit Domino Papæ singula utensilia, quibus ministraretur et in Camera, et in mensa omnia auro purissimo, per Episcopos regni sui, videlicet Litchfeldensem et Wigornensem, et Comitum Lincolniæ. Ad eandem vero solennitatem de Anglia, plures viri egregii abierunt. Porro Episcopum Dunelmensem Dominum Antonium de Bek propter dapulitatem & magnificentiam cordis quam in eo invenit, Patriarcham Hierusolomitam creabit, & electos Eboracensem & Landavensem, dimisit ad propria confirmatos. Papa quidem constituit celebrare Curiam suam apud Burdegalim. Erat autem in principali porta Civitatis prophetia hac scripta, in duobus versibus aureis literis & latinis, sed per pulverem incedentium fuerant obfusa, ita ut non apparerent nisi hæc due dictiones, Altera Roma. Verum constituta ibi Curia, viri Civitatis, dedanso pulvere, invenerunt sic scriptum.*

K. Edward 1. An Exact History of Popes Intollerable Usurpations, B. 5. ch. 5.

An. 33 E. 1. Scribebantur autem ibi hi versus ante mille annos (if you credit the Reporter.) Porro Senatores Romani miserunt ad Papam, ut veniret Romam, et daretur Curiam suam ibi, sicut predecessores sui Summi Pontifices consueverant. Poluit Papa acquiescere postulat, sed dixit, Se missurum illic quempiam, qui eis satisfaceret vice sua. From which Historical Narrative, it may justly be demanded; 1. Whether Pope Clement keeping his Court and Papacy at Burdeaux, not in St. Peters See and Chair of Rome, was a true Pope, and proper Bishop of Rome, or Successor of St. Peter? 2ly. Whether he did not both sinne and erre in this translation of his See? 3ly. Whether his infallibility being confined to St. Peters Chair in Rome, he lost not his infallibility and inviolability, by sitting in his new erected Papal Chair of Burdeaux, wherein he formerly sat as Archbishop only of that City? 4ly. Whether the rich Gifts, he received from the Kings of France and England, to purchase his grace and favour in the dispatch of all their affairs before him, were not direct Bribery, and detestable corruptions, contrary to St. Peters practise, Acts 8. 18, 19, 20?

King Edward designing to send some special Messengers for dispatch of his affairs to the Court of Rome to Pope Benedict, whose journey was stopped by his death, being afterwards informed of the election of Pope Clement, summoned them to prepare themselves to repair to him with all convenient speed and from thence to go to the new Pope about his said affairs, by this ensuing Writ.

R EX dilecto Clerico suo Roberto de Pykerings salutem. Cum tempore felices recordationis Domini Benedicti nuper Summi Pontificis ordinavimus, quod vos una cum quibusdam aliis fidelibus nostris ad Curiam Romanam proficisceremini pro quibusdam negotiis quæ nos tangunt. Et postmodum intellecto de morte prefati Summi Pontificis, injunxerimus vobis & eisdem fidelibus nostris, quod quanto Summum Pontificem creati contingeret, prompti et parati essetis ad proficiscendum pro negotiis nostris prædictis ad Curiam supradictam; Ac jam nova de creatione Summi Pontificis habeamus: Vobis mandamus firmiter injungentes, quod omnibus aliis prætermis, usque Westm. personaliter accedatis; ita quod sitis ad Scaccarium nostrum ibidem die Jovis in Quindena Nativitatis Sancti Johannis Baptiste proximo futuri, prompti et parati ad proficiscendum statim extunc cum dictis fidelibus nostris ad Curiam prædictam pro negotiis nostris antedictis, & hoc sicut de vobis confidimus nullatenus omittatis. Teste Rege apud Cicestriam 17 die Junii.

Eodem modo mandatum est Magistro Bartholomæo de Ferentino, Rogero le Warr, Thoma de Berkele, & Magistro Thoma de Cobham. Teste ut supra.

Pope Clement the 5. was no sooner elected, but he sent these 3. ensuing Bulls and Letters, together with two Nuncios to King Edward, expressing his extraordinary affection to him and his realm earnestly exhorting him to prolong the Truce between him and the King of France, to repair all damages done by his Subjects to the French, to conclude a firm Peace between both Crowns, by his order, and that he would come to him in person into France before his departure thence toward Rome, or at least to send his Son Edward Prince of Wales, accompanied with an honourable Train of Prelates and Nobles, to perfect the marriage between him and the King of France his daughter, and with full power to settle a perpetual peace between both Crowns, as he should advise, without favour or partiality, for the avoyding of sundry mischiefs occasioned by the Wars, both to their Realms and Christianity it self, and for the better and speedier relief of the Holy Land. The original Bulls themselves I discovered in the White Tower Chappell.

Sane inter te & ipsum in pacis tractatu exitit, ut dicitur, inter alia concordatum, quod dampnorum & gravaminum pace seu treuga secuta vel indicta durante hinc inde ab alter utrius vestrorum gentibus & subditis irrogatorum quomodolibet & etiam illatorum sufficiens præstaretur emenda, & tandem eodem Rege & tuis Nunciis Lugdun. in nostra præsentia constitutis, ut quod de satisfactione huiusmodi fuerit ordinatum, pleniorum sortiretur effectum; Adjunximus, quod quatuor probi viri, duo scilicet pro parte qualibet deputentur, qui super præmissis inquisita plenius veritate facerent passis damna & injurias satisfactionem congruam juxta malignitatem negotii exhiberi. Verum licet hæc, sicut præmittitur, fuerint ordinata, quæ debuerint penitus observari, tamen quod nos cogit vehementius admirari postquam iidem nuncii Lugdun. nostro se conspectui præsentarunt, et ex eis aliqui à vobis etiam bona sua quamplurima arestata atque seiscita mercimonia & dampna non modica per gentem tuam nonnullis Civibus Ambraren. ceterisque Mercatoribus Corbie ac illarum nequaquam obstantibus regni sui ordinationibus præmissis illata dicuntur, & nichilominus unus ex tuis dictis quatuor qui tunc in nostra fuerunt præsentia nominati, electi & etiam deputati, negotio imperfecto discessit. Cum itaque, fili charissime, ex præmissis si veritate nitantur tanto majoris turbationis materiam habeamus, quo nisi eis celeris correctionis remedio occurratur, posset timeri pericula exinde præteritis graviora, Celsitudinem tuam rogamus attentius, & hortamur in Jesu Christo, quatenus bona & mercimonia sic arestata atque seiscita, exarestari & deseisciri jubeas, ac de huiusmodi dampnis & injuriis perlonis eisdem faciat satisfactionem plenariam exhiberi, eundemque deputatum qui sic à prosecutione prædictorum discessit, remittas ad locum, ut præmittitur, ut cum aliis diligenter in præmissis intendat & illis submoto difficultatis obstaculo prosequatur. Attende igitur, fili per dilecte, & ut pacis amator inspicias, quod si præmissa ad quæ te hortamur percompleas, multiplex inde bonum proveniet, & de contraria (quod absit) posset inextimabile scandalum exoriri, quodque tu præter divinum præmium gratificaberis Romana Ecclesiæ matri tuæ, & nos qui te & Regem eandem in pacis abundantia ambulare & vivere cupimus, quique etiam in tuis prosperis & felicibus successibus ab intimis gratulamur, votis tuis strictius obligabis. Clemens Episcopus, servus servorum Dei, venerabili in Christo filio Edwardo Regi Angl. illustri, salutem & Apostolicam benedictionem. Celsitudinis tuæ literas affectione consueta recepimus, per quos conditiones negotii mercatorum Francia quorum bona in regno tuo fuerant arestata: & qualiter personarum quæ per nuntios tuos coram nobis apud Lugdun. fuerunt deputatæ ad inquirendum de excessibus sensere factis — quæ commissa dicuntur per — gentem regni tui contra gentem regni Francia postquam inter te & charissimum in Christo filium nostrum Philippum Regem Francorum pax & concordia per Dei gratiam reformata exitit, processerunt, seriose satis ad nostram noticiam deduxisti. Profecto, fili charissime, gaudeamus quod sic planè sic clarè nobis hæc Regia circumspectio referavit, & inter cetera desiderabilia cordis nostri tuum & Regis ejusdem statum prosperum & tranquillum, & inter te ac ipsum amicitiam mutuam Charitatis potioribus desideriis affectamus, diligentes cogitatus adhibere circa significata curabimus, & utilis operationis impendium, prout melius divina gratia ministraverit, exponemus, Serenitatem Regiam rogantes, & hortantes attente, quatinus gentes tuas sic corrigas & refrænes, quod nulla inter te & eundem Regem scintilla rancoris emergat; & prædictis deputatis injungas, quod in negotiis per dictos nuntios eis commissis continuè intendant, & sic efficaciter te habeas in prædictis, quod Magnificencia tua dignis exinde apud Deum & homines possit laudibus commendari. Clemens Episcopus, Servus servorum Dei, carissimo in Christo filio nostro Edwardo Regi Angliae illustri salutem & Apostolicam benedictionem. Benignae puritatis ad notos & magis discretionis ad omnes Celsitudinis tuae culmina reputat populus circumpositae rationis, te quoque Magnates & humiles multa laude magnificant, & virtutum praecipue devotionis ipsius praeclaris te ferunt ornatibus insignitum; quare multum debet auertere circumspectio Regia, quod cum talis esse credatur, credentium opinio non fallatur. Magnitudinem itaque Regiam, tum propter intimae dilectionis affectum quem ad ipsum semper habuimus & habemus, tum propter aliqua salutaria animae tuae commoda, tum etiam propter nonnulla inter te & Regem Franciae illustrem pacis & quietis procuranda et ordinanda salubria, et insuper de Terra Sancta passagio intimis desideris alloqui cupientes, eandem rogamus et optamus attente, quatinus antequam montes transeamus, quos post Coronationis nostrae solempnia apud Vien. circa instantis festi Omnium Sanctorum, auctore Domino celebranda, transire proponimus ad Sanctam Romanam Ecclesiam sponsam nostram Deo propitio accessuri nobiscum, si modo fieri valeat, tuam a nobis plusquam exprimere possemus oblatam praesentiam habeamus; vel si forte (quod absit) venire nequiret aut nollet Regia Celsitudo, charissimum in Christo filium nostrum Edwardum illustrem Principem Walliae natum tuum, Praelatorum et aliorum Magnatum viroque prudentium decenti comitiva vallatum, ad praesentiam nostram mittas, voluntarium atque promptum ad contrahendum matrimonium inter eum et natam iam dicti Regis Franciae prolocutum; necnon cum sufficienti et plenaria potestate et speciali mandato faciendi, approbandi et recipiendi ea omnia quae ad solidandam concordiam, charitatem et pacem inter te ac Franciae Regem praedictum, et alia quae ad animae tuae salutem, et ad tuum ac suum et regni tui commodum et honorem, praesente Deo, intendimus ordinare. Sanctissimo in Christo Patri Domino C. Sacrosanctae Romane ac universalis Ecclesiae Summo Pontifici; Edwardus eadem gratia Rex Angliae, &c. devota pedum oscula beatorum. Venientes ad nos venerabilis Pater Raymundus Episcopus Lascurren. & Magister Gulielmus Testa Archidiaconus Aran. in Ecclesia Covenantum Capellanus vester, beatitudinis vestrae Nuncii vestras nobis literas praesentarunt. Nos autem literas ipsas et Nuncios vidimus leta mente, et recepimus reverenter intuitu destinantis, gaudentes quamplurimum & ingenti laetitia in Domino exultantes, quod sicut eorundem Nunciorum patefacit assertio, plenè vigetis corporea sospitate, ac vobis ad gratias quas sufficimus assurgentes, ex eo quod noster regniue nostri status salubris inest specialiter cordi vestro. Sane reverentissimam personam vestram antequam montes transeatia videre, ac colloquium cum eadem habere vestraeque Coronationis solempniis interesse, si commode fieri posset, gratissimum nobis foret; sed ad hoc personam nostram quam vestrae Sanctitatis benevolentia novit multis vexationibus fatigatam accedere, aut etiam Edwardum filium nostrum, Praelatorum, & aliorum Magnatum virorum prudentium decenti Comitiva vallatum mittere, pro quo sicut et pro nobis conductum à Rege Franciae juxta ordinationem Magnatum & Procerum Regni nostri primitus oporteret habere, brevis temporis non permittit, quoniam expedire non credimus quoquomodo, quod accessus vester ad Curiam Romanam differatur, sed potius quantum honestati vestrae congruet maturaretur. Et proculdubio admodum praegravamur, quod requisitionem & voluntatem vestram non possumus in hac parte, juxta nostri cordis desiderium adimplere: ad vestra siquidem beneplacita et mandata prosequenda pro viribus et complenda nos vestra vestra sancta Paternitas debitos semper inveniet, et paratos. Vestra igitur Sanctitati, de qua fiducia plenitudinem obtinemus, devotissime supplicamus, quatinus premissis clementi meditatione pensatis, tam nos quam predictum natum nostrum super hoc habere dignemini excusatos, sicque Nos, regnum nostrum, et nostros prosequi gratiose quod vestra benigna pietatis affectum, quem vos ad personam nostram longa experientia habuisse percepimus, de bono in melius continue augeri effectualiter sentiamus. Ad hæc, circa promotionem negotii Terræ Sanctæ menti nostræ præcipue insidentis, cuius statui miserabili fore compatiendum non indigne conspicitur, eo libentius pietatis vestre clementiam excitamus, quo ad subveniendum eidem proposito vestrum versari intimius credimus et tenemur. Super quo et aliis, quæ dictorum Nunciorum vestrorum legationem contingunt quibus nostram aperuimus plenius voluntatem, dignetur eisdem Providentia vestra fidem indubiam adhibere. Cæterum quosdam Prælatos & Magnates alios regni nostri cum potestate plenaria & speciali mandato ad vestram præsentiam reverendam in brevi proponimus destinare, ad faciendum, approbandum et recipiendum ea omnia quæ super premissis pro nobis et predicto nato nostro vestra Sanctitudo viderit ordinanda, et quæ nos et idem filius noster faceremus, seu facere possemus si nostra adesset præsentia personalis. The Pope finding some obstructions in the Treaty before him, (which hindered the conclusion of this much desired Peace between both Crowns) by some of King Edwards Articles and Proctors, thereupon sent this ensuing Bull unto him, for the prorogation of the former Truce to a longer day, and new powers to new Commissioners for settling a final Peace between them; in the close of which Bull (the Original whereof I met with in the White Tower) he sharply reprehends the King for opposing his Papal Provisions to Ecclesiastical preferments in England, and other Innovations of the Roman See, advising him to reform them.

This year King Edward commanded all the Privileges granted by him or his Progenitors Kings of England, or any way concerning the State of the kingdom, to be brought by his Treasurer and Chamberlain to the Tower of London, and there delivered by Indenture under Seal to the Keeper of the Rolls of the Chancery, to be there kept and reserved by those who should succeed in the said office.

From which Record it is observable: First, That King Edward had a special care to collect and preserve all Popes Bulls, Letters and Records which concerned the privileges and rights of himself and his Royal Progenitors and the Realm of England. 2ly. That these Bulls and Records were specially directed to be carried to the Tower of London, and delivered to the Keeper of the Rolls of the Chancery, to be there carefully preserved in the said Tower, where all the Records of the Chancery and Office of Records were then kept, and intended to be kept in succession, as the safest and fittest place for such an invaluable Treasure, of so great concernment both

The Archbishop of Canterbury in his Metropolitane Visitation of the Diocesse of Cicester, having most insolently and contemptuously against the Kings Prohibition, excommunicated the Keeper of the Castle of Hastings, and certain Canons of the Kings Free-Chappel there, for refusing to admit him into the Castle to visit this Free-Chappel, by the Kings command; and afterwards sending his Commissioners to visit it in the absence of the Keeper, who thereupon entered the Castle, visited the Chappel, though exempt from all Archiepiscopal, Episcopal, and Ordinary Jurisdiction, and placed a Dean therein; the King thereupon issued this Writ to summon the Archbishop personally to appear before him at a day, to answer these high contempts against his Crown and Royal dignity; and another Writ to the Constable of Dover Castle, to go to Hastings and enquire the truth of the premises, remove the new Dean there placed unduly, and appoint another in his stead, and certify him in the next Parliament of all his proceedings therein.

REX Archiepiscopo Caninar. salutem. REX dilecto & fideli suo Roberto de Burghersh, custodi Quinque Portuum suorum, salutem. Meminimus Nos prohibuisse nuper Roberto Archiepiscopo Cantuar. tunc Cicerstrensem Diocesim visitanti, ne Jurisdictionem aliqualem in libera Capella nostra de Hastings, seu Pæbendis ad Capellam eandem spectantibus, præsumeret aliquatenus exercere, seu quicquam aliud attemptare, quod in nostri seu Cozonæ aut Regiæ dignitatis nostræ præjudicium, seu libertatis prædictarum Capellæ et Pæbendarum posset cedere læsionem. Sed idem Archiepiscopus finibus propriis non contentus, mandato nostro hujusmodi minime ponderato, ad Willam de Hastings intentione visitandi prædictam Capellam et Pæbendas ad ipsam spectantes subsequenter declinans, in Johannem de Wycheo tunc custodem Castri nostri ibidem, pro eo quod non permisit, sicut nec facere debuit, ipsum ingredi dictum Castrum ad visitandum Capellam eandem, et in quosdam alios ipsius Capellæ Canonicos ibi in ea parte non parentes * excommunicationis sententiam promulgavit, et excommunicatos publice denunciari mandavit. Et quia propositum suum de dicta visitatione implere non potuit illa vice, ipse injurias accumulans in iuris, quibusdam Commissariis suis postmodum sub certa forma scripsit, sicut accepimus, ut ad locum prædictum accederent, et visitationis officium in prædicta Capella cum omnibus ipsam contingentibus vice sua complerent. Qui quidem Commissarii mandatum suum hujusmodi exequentes, ad locum prædictum personaliter accesserunt, et in Castrum nostrum ibidem tunc carens custode intrantes, in libera Capella nostra prædicta infra idem Castrum situata, quæ ab omni Archiepiscoporum, Episcoporum, et aliorum inferiorum Prelatorum Jurisdictione ordinaria, sicut ceteræ Capellæ nostræ infra Regnum nostrum libera penitus et exempta extitit hactenus et existit, contra Prohibitionem nostram exercere visitationis officium præsumperunt, quendam Willielmum de Lewes eisdem Capellæ in his quæ ad Decani officium pertinent præficiendo, ut locum in ea teneat præsentis. Atque diversa statuta et ordinationes auctoritate prædicti Archiepiscopi ibidem condendo, in nostri et Cozonæ ac Regiæ dignitatis nostræ præjudicium et contemptum, ac exheredationis periculum manifestum. Nos igitur non valentes tantam insolentiam tamque enormis injurias aliqually tolerare: Vobis mandamus firmiter injungentes, quod ad locum prædictum personaliter accedentes, super præmissis et cunctis circumstantiis eorundem inquiratis diligentius veritatem. Et si vobis constiterit prædictum Willielmum de Lewes Decani officium, sicut prædictum admisisse, et eisdem in memorata Capella nostra incumbere, tunc ab ipsis officio et Capella sine dilatione amoventes, eisdem præficiatis aliquem alium nomine nostro qui locum Decani tenere possit ibidem, donec per nos aliud inde fuerit ordinatum, certiorantes nos in proximo Parlamento nostro distinde et aperte de his quæ indeneritis in præmissis, et quolibet præmissorum. Et mandatum est Canonicis Capellæ prædictæ, quod prædicto Roberto in omnibus quæ statum et libertatem Capellæ prædictæ qualitercunque contingunt, intendentes sint et respondentes, ipsumque super præmissis vis et modis quibus poterunt informant. Teste ut supra.

No sooner was Pope Clement elected and inthroned in France, but under his specious pretexts of settling a firm peace between the Crowns of England & France, he began to exercise his new rapines and Papal usurpations in England, by complying with King Edward, in granting him a two years Disme from his Clergy for his own use, though pretended for the ayde of the Holy Land, that himself might more easily exact the First-fruits of vacant Ecclesiastical benefices to fill his own Coffers, though out of his Dominions, which occasioned these memorable Satyrical verses to be made of him and the King this year.

Illo quoque tempore Papa Clemens concessit Regi Angliæ (who had presented him with a Royal costly present of Gold plate for his Chamber & Tables) per biennium Decimas Ecclesiasticorum proventus pro negotiis Terræ Sanctæ, sed in usus alios expendebantur, videns insatiabilem quorundam Episcoporum Angliæ avaritiam impetuntium postulantium primas vacantes Ecclesias per annum in suis Diocesis sibi concedi, advertensque, quia quod postulat inferior, potest et superior; appropinquavit sibi ipsi per biennium omnes proventus de primo vacantibus Ecclesiis in Anglia, videlicet, de primo anno primos fructus, tam de Episcopatibus, Abbatibus, Prioratibus, Pæbendis, Rectoriis, et Vicariis, quam de cæteris minutis beneficiis. Which Thomas Walsingham thus varieth, Dominus vero Papa attendens, quod charitas incipit a seipsa, primus fructus per Angliam sibi referbavit, &c. This is the first president of any Popes reserving, or exacting Annates or First-fruits of all Ecclesiastical Dignities, Promotions and Benefices throughout England extant in our Histories, which though reserved but for two years by this Pope at first, grew afterwards into custome by degrees both in England and elsewhere, though strenuously opposed, and frequently prohibited and declaimed against as a most intolerable grievance, mischief, oppression, abuse, diminishing Gods service, worship, damning mens souls, and destroying Churches; as those who please may read at large in Nicholas de Clemangis his learned Treatise, De Annatibus non solvendis, Operum Lugduni Bat. Nos enim irritum discedimus et inane, si quid contra hanc nostram inhibitionem contigerit attemptari. Valorem autem annuum huiusmodi reddituum, proventuum, & clararum et haberi volumus estimatum, prout de illis secundum taxationem vel alias pro decima est amplius persolutum. Nostra tamen intentio existit, quod de Ecclesiis, Præbendis, & beneficiis huiusmodi si minoris quam ut prædictum valoris existant, possit volentibus prohiberi quocumque, in Ecclesiis Collegiatis in quibus auctoritate Apostolica plures quam unus expectant, huiusmodi prohibito non procedat. (Provisions being then grown so frequent, that there were two or three granted in possession and reversion to most Prebendaries, Benefices and Preferments, though of small as well as of greater values.) I have inserted this long Instrument at large upon these 3. Accounts; 1. To evidence the manifold cautions inserted into Popes provisions for poor Clerks, though honest and learned, which must be confined to an Archbishops living in one Diocese of small value, and those not formerly granted to any others, and they bound to

An. 33 E. 3. personal residence thereon : when as others that were rich, and more able to pay great summes for them, were not so limited, nor clogged with so many cutions, 2ly. To manifest how many Bulls, Instruments under the hands of publicke Notaries these poor Clerks must procure with vast sollicitation, travel and expence, before they could obtain the least probable hopes of enjoying any small prebend or benefice by Popes Bulls, and yet not enjoy actual possession of them in conclusion. 3ly. The multiplicity of Popes provisions in that age to every small inconsiderable as well as great prebendary or benefice, granted by them in possession or expectancy to several persons, by sundry Bulls at once, contradicting, repealing each others by Non obstantes, engendering infinite Suits, Appeals in the Popes Courts, for filthy lucre, to the unspeakable vexation of the Patrons, Provisors, and other competitors, and neglect of the peoples souls, during such contests concerning them, of which avaritious, ambitious Popes and their officers had not the least regard, though frequently suggested, as the principal ground of their detestable provisions.

I found this Appeal to the See Apostolike this year (in a Bundle of Writs and Letters in the White Tower) from the Archbishop of Canterburie Commissaries sentence of Excommunication against Sir Richard de Wylonds Knight, for laying violent hands upon William de Dagepet, a Freer, and Albert de Langedon, as unjust.

An. 33 E.1. Eborum, Custodes Spiritualitatis Archiepiscopatus Eborum, sede ejusdem vacante, salutem in eo, cujus gratia Reges regnant. Literas vestras nuper recepimus, tenorem qui sequitur continentes. Edwardus, &c. (recitatis de verbo ad verbum ambobus Brevibus supradictis.) Velit igitur scire vestra Dominatio reverenda, quod quæ ex parte dicti Abbatis de Furnes & cæterorum in Brevis vestro prædicto nominatorum vobis suggesta fuerunt & ostensa, carent primordio veritatis; eo quod idem Abbas & cæteri nominati, nec per se, nec per alium mandatum aliquod ipsorum nomine offendente ullam Cautionem coram nobis hactenus optulerunt. Sed quidam Johannes de Lancastr. & Johannes Travers, se velle præstare Cautionem pro eisdem, in forma superius annotata assererant, licet potestatem a prædictis Abbate et cæteris supranominatis, ad hujusmodi Cautionem exponendam non haberent; qui per nos instantius requisiti, an per pignora vel fidejussores idoneos subire velent Cautionem de sistendo dictos Abbatem & cæteros supranominatos in Judicio certis die et loco, coram nobis in forma Juris mandato Ecclesiæ parituros, videlicet ad satisfaciendum Deo & Ecclesiæ, tam de Contemptu quam de injuria ei illata ab eis, ac etiam Domino Ada de Gaygrave, de Decimis Barbarum infra parochiam ejusdem Ecclesiæ proventuum iniuste detentis ab eisdem, ad quarum præstationem et solutionem dicto Rectori plenarie faciendam auctoritate Curie Eborum, sede plena, judicialiter fuerint condemnati; & quia rei judicæ non parebant, majoris Excommunicationis sententia legitime innodati, quam siquidem cautionem et non aliam in hoc casu idoneam reputamus, expressius denegarunt, dicentes se velle cavere per duos Fidejussores Laicos usque ad summam decem librarum, de sistendo dictos Abbatem & cæteros prænotatos coram nobis certis die & loco per nos statuendis, ad parendum mandatis Ecclesiæ in forma juris, videlicet, ad prosequendum duntaxat appellationem ab eisdem a dicta sententia interpositam, ut dicebant; quam quidem Cautionem tanquam minus sufficientem absque juris offensa non potuimus, nec debuimus admittere in hac parte. Et hoc vestra Magnificentia Regiæ præsentibus nostris literis sigillo Capituli nostri munitis significamus. Conservet vos, &c. Dat. Eborum 12 Kal. Januarii, Anno gratiæ 1304.

The King issued this Writ to the Sheriff of Northampton to enlarge out of prison certain persons taken upon a Capias Excommunicatum, upon the request and prosecution of the Archbishop of Canterbury, because they had solemnly appealed from his sentence as unjust, to the See Apostolick, and ought not to be hindered in the prosecution thereof.

King Edward having by the * premised Ordinance this year (as he apprehended) settled a perpetual peace in Scotland, without any possibility of a future rebellion or revolt, upon that groundlesse confidence soon after called those Nobles into question who from the 24. to the 32. year of his reign had most opposed, and wrested from him the confirmation of the Great Charter, and Charter of the Forest, together with Articuli super Chartas, the Deafforestations of Forests, and free pardon of all his rancor and indignation against them, ratified by several Parliaments, and his own Oath for the inviolable observation of them, from which Oath he endeavoured to purchase: an absolution from Pope Clement the 5. But his principal aim was, to avenge himself upon the Archbishop of Canterbury, who had twice obstinately refused to grant him any ayde from the Clergy for the defence of the Realm, without the Popes previous license, deprived his Clerks against his Writs and their appeals with high contempt, visited and invaded his Free Chappels, excommunicated his Officers and others for opposing him, against his reiterated Prohibitions, to the prejudice of his Prerogative, the disinheritation of the rights of his Crown, and contempt of his Royal authority: yea conspired with others to depose and imprison the King, and Crown his Sonne in his stead, and often stirred up the Nobles against him to the disturbance of the kingdoms peace: whom he thereupon sharply reprehended, seized his goods, temporalities, and then sent him to Pope Clement the 5, that so he might be crushed by their double power; thus recorded by * Mat. West. and others. Igitur dum Rex speraret omnia sui regiminis negotia in pace moderari optata, quia tempus tacendi præterisset, in quo siluit, tacuit & patiens fuit, & aderat tempus loquendi, convenit cantu Comitem Marefchallum, super quodam dedecore et conspiratione, quam Archiepiscopus Cantuariensis et plures Comites et Barones contra ipsum machinabatur, ipso tunc agente in Flandria. Qui nequaquam valens ista contradicere, gratiam Regis petiit. Pro qua obtinenda, constituit Regem heredem suum universorum que habuit, & sic mortem perdidit & vitam invenit. Et Rex remunerans eum, vitam Comitis mille libras terre adaugendo concessit. Et sic facti sunt amici Rex & Comes. Similiter Rex singulatim singulos conveniens, qui huic facto consenserant, pecuniaria poena multabit. Ac si diceret, Solo mortem proditorum meorum, sed convertantur et redimantur per bona sua temporalia, sicque debant. Ad ultimum, Archiepiscopus convenitur, (who had sundry times affronted him, yea invaded the rights and prerogatives of his Crown this very year, in his visitations of his Free Chappels, and other particulars) et arguit eum Rex in peccato confitenti. Suffusus rubore Archiepiscopus, pallium Regi tendit, in misericordia ejus se et bona sua submitiendo. Cui

Anno Domini 1305. Cum supradictus Archiepiscopus Robertus super multis Articulis, et præcipue super prohibitionem quam cum quibusdam Comitibus Proceribusque multis pacus erat in dolo, ut Regem a regni solio desicerent, et filium ejus Edwardum in throno subrogarent, et patrem perpetuo carceri manciparent, a Rege calumniaretur, et objecta non posset iustificare; timore behebementi perterritus, ad pedes Regis pronus cadens in terram, ut ejus mereretur assequi clementiam, sese per singula flets et ejulans Regiæ subdidit voluntati. Sic ergo humiliatus est ille Deo odibilis et superbus, qui per totum Anglorum orbem oris sui statu more meretricio, et sacerdotium deturpabat, et in Clerum et populum tyrannidem exercuit inauditam, et qui Regem Dominum suum literatoz et scribens nominare renuit superbiendo; nunc autem humiliatus, et Regem et Dominum suum fatetur et nominat, obediens factus in bitus ei debocius serviendo.

Eodem Anno Dominus Papa prædictum Archiepiscopum super excessibus accusatum multimodis in pleno Consistorio usque tercio, ore tenus vocabit, vocatumque publice in palacio et foro solemniter sub voce præconia et tuba proclamante a Temporalibus et Spiritualibus usque se suo representaret aspectui suspensum esse promulgabit, omnibusque et singulis de Archiepiscopo conqueri volentibus iustitiam facere promissit. Cumque Archiepiscopus se citandum conspiceret, Regem adit transfretandi licentiam periturus. Cuius adventum cum Rex cognovisset, thalami sui ostia omnibus intrare volentibus patere iussit, ut sermo quem adversus eum habiturus esset circumstantes non lateret: Quem hiis verbis Rex sic alloquitur.

Licentiam transfretandi quam a nobis postulare venisti libenter tibi concedimus, revertendi autem tibi licentiam nullam permittimus abs te et damus, immo mores doli et fraudis ac prohibitionis quas in Parlamento Lincolniz cum Baronibus nostris in Regiam machinatus es Majestatem, cujus rei littera signo tuo sigillata testis est, et testimoniam perhibet contra te evidenter; sed propter amorem beati Thomæ et Ecclesie cui præces reverentiam et honorem, vindictam hucusque distulimus, reserbantes eam Papæ qui nostras in te injurias ulcisceretur, et prout meruisti retribuere tibi utpote credimus et speramus. A protectione vero nostra quam ipse requiris te propterea excludimus, tibi omnem gratiam negantes et misericordiam, quia vero semper immisericors fuisti, et ideo misericordiam consequi non mereris.

Demum vero cum per Summi Pontificis Puncos a Spiritualibus et temporalibus suspensus, ac etiam peremptorie citatus continuo transfretabit, qui dignitatis suæ statum animo rebollens, et tanquam exilio proscriptus de redditu suo propterea desperans, flere capit ultra modum moestitia plenus et dolore. Infelix homo ille qui superbe jactando sæpe dicebat; Dominum sub cælo non timeo, nunc autem mendax factus, et Papam timet et Regem, sua verens amittere aut sibi pericula pro suis demeritis evenire. Cumque se Summi Pontificis representaret obtatibus, ab ipso velut a debementer indignante et irato continuo repulsus est, nullamque pene per annum ad Papam ingrediendi aut cum eo loquendi habere potuit facultatem. Papa vero per annum illum, permisso Regis, et Spiritualia et temporalia universa per quendam Vasconem ad usus proprios applicabit. Quæ

De presentatione.

Not long after the Pope being informed thereof, sent the King a Message, that he was much displeased with his seizure of the Temporalities, being contrary to the Canonical Sanctions; whereupon the King, though he asserted, that by the special Law and Prerogative of his Crown, and custom of the Realm (which the Canons could not controul) he might justly seise the Temporalities, and take their Profits to his own use, yet he was contented, notwithstanding his right, out of his special favour and affection to the Popes person, that the profits of the Temporalities seised in his hands should become the Popes, and be entirely delivered to those he should send to receive them, by the Guardian of them whom the King had appointed, who should give a reasonable account to them thereof, as this Letter of his informs us.

The King before this Letter and Grant to the Pope, having conferred the Church of Recolure upon his Physician after the Archbishops suspension, fearing that the Pope would eject him, writ this Letter to him, for his approbation and confirmation therein, and that he might hold his other former Benefice together with it, since his health and life did next under God principally depend upon him; and withal granted him this new authority to present to all benefices belonging to the Archbishoprick which should from thenceforth become void.

An. 33 E. 1. cando iurandam illas serbare volentes, dampnantes vero illud approbat et absolbit. What could be more atheistical, antichristian, diabolical, scandalous, destructive to Christian Religion, publick faith, honesty, justice, and humane society, then for this and other Popes by their impious Bulls to canonize professed perjury, and breach of solemn Oathes for a Christian virtue; and damn the observation of them for a most detestable crime? yea to excommunicate all those as unworthy the privilege, name, or society of Christians, who made a conscience to observe their solemn sacred Oathes; & yet to approve, absolve all those as most innocent and meritorious Christians, who perditionally and willfully violated them? * This letting loose the Lion, and untying the King from the Covenant made with his Subjects concerning their Charters confirmed to them by his three last Acts of Parliament, by absolving him from his Oath, was an Act of little Piety in the Pope, and of as little conscience in the King; who (as if he now should have no more need of his Subjects) discovered with what sincerity he did it: is Samuel Daniels just censure of, and observation thereon. Which unworthy Act God himself immediately after exemplarily retaliated, by the Scots violation of their Oathes, Covenants, and new Ordinance most solemnly made, and sworn by them to King Edward in Parliament without any Papal absolution, and raising new rebellions and wars against him, when he was most secure, to his unparalleled vexation.

This year Pope *Clement following the rapines of his avaritious predecessors, sent William Testa (a foreign Archdeacon) into England as his Nuncio, to collect all the Dismes, Peter-pence, and other duties belonging to the Church of Rome and See Apostolick, with the arrears of the Dismes belonging to Pope Boniface the 8. in England, Scotland, Wales & Ireland, the goods of a Cardinal & others dying intestate, and all indistinct Legacies, gifts, compositions, penalties, redemption of vows formerly made, or imposed, for the relief of the Holy Land, (only in pretext, but in truth for the Popes, Roman Churches, and the Kings use, who shared this prey between them) desiring his favourable protection and assistance therein by this Bull, which I found in the White Tower (the beginning wherof being defaced in some words I have conjecturally supplied in a Parenthesis.)

Anno 33 E. 1. in Turri Londonia.

Clemens Episcopus, Servus servorum Dei, Charissimo in Christo filio Edwardo Regi Anglia Illustri salutem, & Apostolicam benedictionem. Illam (confidentiam de tua Excellentia suscepimus) quod preces nostras prompto affectu suscipias, et effectu benivolo studeas adimplere. Hinc (est quod ex Serenitatis Regia tua prompta) Ecclesie Romana devotione, dilectum filium Gulielmum Testa Archidiaconum Aranen. Upon the Liberties of the Kings and Subjects of Engl. & Irel. K. Edward 1.

To the Transcript of this Bull, this ensuing Cedula was annexed, (some words whereof in the beginning of several lines being torn and defaced, are supplied in a parenthesis) containing some requests of this William Testa made to the King, for the speedy clearing of all doubts and questions that might arise between the King and him in the Execution of the Popes Commission, in such points as might intrench upon the Kings Crown and Dignity, (as some of them did) and the more effectual collection of such arrears, and summes of money belonging to the Pope and Roman See, by the Kings favour and assistance, as no ways intrenched upon his Crown or prerogative.

Regia Excellentia supplicat Gulielmus Testa Archidiaconus Arraven. Item, (Quod Dominus Rex in omnibus) negotiis dicto Nuncio commissis eidem Nuncio declaret et exprimat, si qua sibi vel Cozonæ suæ præjudicialia inveniantur, ut super illis supersedere valeat, et super aliis commissis sibi negotia exercere, juxta Regis Majestatis benevolentiam et favorem.

Item, Cum propter multa Nuncio prædicto commissis, seu etiam a sede Apostolica committenda, aliqua fortitan dubia possent emergere, pro (quorum declaratione) idem Nuncius super puncto quolibet Regiam Majestatem personaliter adire non possit, nec etiam pluries velit inquietare dictam Regiam Majestatem; Placeat sibi aliquibus viris Ecclesiasticis declarationem dubiorum committere prædictorum, ut ad ipsos quociens opus fuerit possit habere recursum, et quod Litteras Apostolicas sibi directas ac etiam dirigendas publicare valeat locis et temporibus opportunitis, et libere uti eidem sine præjudicio Cozonæ prædictæ.

Item, Quod quoscunque debitores tam Romanæ Ecclesiæ quam Terræ Sanctæ ad solvend. ea quæ debent possit compellere per auxilium brachii secularis, si per censuram Ecclesiasticam coherceri non possent.

Item, Quod ad Informationem dicti Nuncii, omnia Registra, Rotuli, & quæcunque alia informationes suum officium contingentia sibi deliberentur, & (arrearum Decime & pecunie Terræ Sanctæ, quæ per Collectores) Domini Regis recepta fuerint, seu etiam consignata tempore Gerardi de Pocararii prædecessoris ejusdem, si aliter non possit exequi officium prædictum.

How extravagantly and oppressively this Papal Collector demeaned himself in the execution of this Bull to the prejudice of the Kingdom, Church, People, and what sad petitions, complaints were made against him to the King and Parliament, and what oppositions, Lawes they thereupon made against them, and the like Papal exactions in future ages, I shall fully relate in its proper * time and place. An. 35 E. 1.

Nos autem concessionem & confirmationem praedictam ratam & gratam habentes, eam pro nobis & Haeredibus nostris praedictae Ecclesiae concedimus & confirmamus, sicut praefata Charta ipsius Regis Henrici rationabiliter testatur, & sicut eadem Ecclesia Libertatibus in praedicta Charta contentis hucusque usa est. Et ad declarationem quarundam Libertatum in eadem Charta sub quibusdam generalitatibus contentarum & concessionem libertatum uberiores, concedimus Decano & Capitulo ejusdem Ecclesiae, & hac Charta nostra confirmamus pro nobis & Haeredibus nostris, quod ipsi Decanus & Capitulum habeant omnia amerciamenta omnium hominum suorum ad ipsos Decanum & Capitulum & singulos Canonicos pertinentium, & fines pro eisdem amerciamenti, ita quod ad nos vel Haeredes nostros nichil inde pertineat: sed ipsi Decanus & Capitulum & Canonici recipiant de hominibus suis quicquid de eisdem recipere deberemus de praedictis pro quocunque delicto seu transgressionem amerciat fuerint in Curia nostra, sive coram nobis vel Baronibus nostris de Scaccario, sive coram Justiciariis nostris de Banco, sive coram Justic. nostris, Itinerantibus ad communia placita, sive coram Justic. nostris assignatis ad quascunque Assizas capiendas vel Gavilas deliberandas, seu ad quascunque Inquisitiones faciendas, sive etiam amerciat fuerint coram quibuscunque aliis Justic. nostris, Vicecomitibus, Inquisitoribus, Praepositis, Ballivis, vel aliis Ministris nostris ad quodcunque officium ex parte nostra deputatis, exceptis Justic. nostris & haeredum nostrorum ad placita forestae nostrae deputatis. Salvis nobis & Haeredibus nostris amerciamenti praedictorum Decani & Capituli de propriis delictis suis ubicunque in Curia nostra amerciat fuerint, & omnibus aliis finibus quam pro amerciamenti hominum suorum, quos ipsi & quicunque homines sui fecerint nobiscum, vel coram quibuscunque Justic. aut aliis Ballivis nostris: Salvis etiam nobis placitis forestae nostrae et omnibus finibus et amerciamenti probentur de ipsis et hominibus suis de eadem foresta. Et quod iidem Decanus & Capitulum imperpetuum habeant omnia Catalla & Bona quorumcunque hominum suorum utlagatorum, Damnatorum, & fugitivorum de quibus posset ad nos aliquis quæstus pertinere sive hominis, sive illius Capituli, sive Decani, sive singularis Canonici, & etiam animalia in terris suis quæ vocantur Weyf. Volumus etiam & concedimus pro nobis & haeredibus nostris quod iidem Decanus & Capitulum, & singuli Canonici, atque eorum Successores, & eorum homines universi sint quieti in Civitate & Burgo, in Feris & Nundinis, in transitu Pontium & Maris Portuum, & in omnibus locis per totam Angliam, Hiberniam, & Walliam, & omnes terras & aquas nostras, de quolibet Thelonia, Tallagio, Passagio, Pedagio, Lastagio, Stallagio, Hydagio, Wardagio, operibus & auxiliis Castellorum, Murorum, Pontium, & Parcorum, Walliorum, Fossatorum, & Vivariorum, Navigio, Domuum Regalium ædificatione & omnimoda operatione & custodia Castrosum, & de omni Carrucio & Summagio, nec eorum carri, carricæ aut equi capiantur ad aliqua carriagiam faciendam. Such ample Liberties did the Dean, Chapter and Canons of Tork procure from our Kings, to the prejudice of their Crowns and Revenues, out of their reverence to Sr. Peter, who then kept his residence in his Chair and Church at Tork, not at Rome it self, to which Popes would seem to confine it, though they resided elsewhere; as Pope Clement did now at * Burdeaux.

Whiles King Edward (after these and his former Indulgences to the perfidious Scots) expected nothing but Halcion dayes of tranquillity and loyalty, there sodainly arose soon after an unexpected storm, and greater rebellion than before, through the treachery of the perjured Archbishop of St. Andrews, the Bishop of Glasgo and Abbot of Schone, who confederating with Robert Brus Earl of Carrick, and other of the Scots Nobility, resolved to make and crown him King of Scotland; who being opposed therein by John Comyn his Cousin-German, a man of great alliance, love, and power in Scotland, and loyal to King Edward, he suddenly set upon and murdered him in the Church of Dunfres, and was soon after crowned King by the premised Bishops and Abbots; thus related by our Historians. Robertus de Brus aspirans ad regnum Scotiæ, nobilem virum Johannem Comyn, quia sua proditiosa factioni assensire noluit, apud villam de Dunfres, in cuius Castro Justiciarii Regis Angliæ tunc sedebant, in Ecclesia fratrum Minorum interfecit. In festo vero Annunciationis beate Virginis in Abbatia Canonorum regularium de Scone, presentibus aliquibus Comitibus, Johanne de Ascella, & de Meneteth, et duobus Episcopis de S. Andrea & Glasguensi, & Abbate de Scone, & multis Militibus, juxta morem patriæ, fecit se, velut Adonias, à conspiratoribus coronari diademate.

Dominica vero sequente, quæ erat in Ramis Palmarum, fecit se denuò coronari à quadam adultera, desponsata Comiti de Bowhan: Quæ transgresso maritali thuro, exarserat in speciem & concupiscentiam satvi coronati. Et mutavit nomen ejus impositum in baptisate, nominans illum David. Cuius domum redisset, fertur uxori suæ dixisse: Heri vocabamur ego Comes, & tu Comitissa, hodiè vero ego Rex, & tu Regina vocamur. Cui illa, Edimo quod Rex æstivalis sis, forsitan hyemalis non eris: Tameo autem, ne tanquam flos agri, qui hodiè est, & cras in clibanum mittitur, sic effloreas, ac ne pro perjurio fidei, per vocabulum Regium Comitatum simul perdas & regnum. Qui se irrisum à muliere existimans, voluit eam gladio peremisse, sed ab astantibus detentus est. Nihilominus illam exilio relegans, in Hyberniam transmisit ad patrem suum Comitem Ultoniæ. A quo ad Regem Angliæ destinata in honore est habitata.

Pope Clement the 6th being informed by K. Edward of this murder of John Comyn in the Church of Dunfres, ordered the Archbishop of Torke and Bishop of Carlisle to excommunicate him and his complices with sound of Bells and Candles in all places of England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, and elsewhere, (though without their Diocesse) and to interdict all their Lands and Castles, till they should submit themselves, give competent satisfaction for this hainous offence, and deserve to be absolved, by this Papal Bull, wherein he made not the least pretence to the Sovereign Dominion of Scotland, as his predecessor Boniface vainly and falsely did.

Clementis Episcopus, Servus servorum Dei, venerabilibus fratribus Archiepiscopo Eboracen. & Episcopo Karleolen. salutem, & Apostolicam benedictionem. * In the end of Mr Camdens Brit. p. 164.

Upon Information of the premised Coronation, rebellion and proceedings of Robert Brus and his confederates, Illis diebus misit Rex Angliæ Americum de Valentia Comitem Pembrochiæ, Robertum Clifford, & Henricum Percy in Scotia, cum manu valida & armata, ut novis montibus resisterent, & nequiter coronatum, cum perfidis expugnarent, ac gentem fidam protegerent. Ad augmentandum igitur professionem suam in Scotiam, fecit Rex per Angliam publicè proclamari, ut quotquot tenerentur fieri Milites successione paterna, & qui haberent unde militarent, adessent apud Westmonasterium in festo Pentecostes, admissuri singuli omnem ornatum militarem præter equitaturam, de Regia Garderoba. Confluentibus itaque trecentis juvenibus, filiis Comitum, Baronum & Militum, distribuebantur purpura, byssus, syndones, cyclades auro texta affluentissime, prout cuique competebat, &c. After which, Rex votum votis Deo cæli & cygnis, se proficisci in Scotiam, mortem Johannis Comyn, & fidem lasam Scotorum, vivus sive mortuus vindicaturus. Adjurans principem, & ceteros præcelsos viros terra, fide sibi debita, si ipse prius in fata decederet, corpus suum secum in Scotiam in bello deferrent, nec sepelirent illud quousque Dominus de perfido coronato, et gente per jura dedisset victoriam et triumphum. Sponsponderunt igitur cuncti fide bona, separatos secum in vitam Regis, & in mortem cum Principe in Scotiam proficisci, votum Regium expleturos. Exinde omnes animæ equiores effecti, salutato Rege, in crastino Sanctæ Trinitatis de Westmonasterio recesserunt, ad Regem in quindena Sancti Johannis Baptistæ in Scotiam affuturi. Pro hac autem Militia filii Regis, concessus est Regi tricesimus denarius a Populo et Clero. Mercatores vero viceffimum concesserunt. Interea quidem facta est multa concertatio inter populum Scotorum & Anglorum, quis eorum in certamine videretur esse major. Interim Robertus de Brus circumiens terram, & homagium multorum recipiens, coadunato exercitu copioso, in crastino Sancti Johannis Baptistæ appropinquavit ad villam Sancti Johannis, in cujus præsidium nuper advenerat Americus de Valentia. Equites autem Scotorum omnes lincis camisis super armaturam suam, ne discernerentur, induiti erant ex jussu novi Principis sui. Invitatus ab eo Americus ad congressum respondit, quod cum eo non die illo, sed in crastino demicaret. Subrahente verò se Roberto cum suis ad spaciū unius miliaris, & se reficere volente, hora appropinquante vespertina, Americus cum suis egreditur armatis, & subito juxta Methfen Scotis superveniens, prælium aggressus est: Et ceciderunt in die illo, ivore gladii, plures de Scotis, qui pseudo-Regi adhaeruerunt. Quinimo ipse idem rex à dextrariis prostratus est, & per Simonem de Freysell, bellatorem egregium, ter levatus, tandem per fallaciam candida camisia evasit de prælio. Nam cum aliquandiu Robertus ceterique qui se cum celeritate armaverant resisterent, tandem pravalentibus Anglis fugere sunt coacti. Quos instituit Americus cum suis usque in Insulam Keyntyr, Castrum illius loci, putans Robertum se recepisse in eo, obsedit. Expugnato tamen Castro cum non invenit, quia ad extremas regionis insulas fugerat, sed fratrem suum Nigellum de Brus cum aliis quibusdam ibidem cepit, quos omnes usque Bervicum fecit adduci. In prælio autem supradicto capti sunt hi viri, Thomas filius Ranulphi, David Inkmartyn, Johannes de Summerville, Milites, Hattin Marecallus, & Vexillifer pseudo-Regis, & Hugo Capellanus. Qui nihilominus cum prædictis, & cum multis aliis, quorum nomina hic non recitentur, ne pagina his vilescat, patibulo ante ceteros præmissus est affixus, quasi

An. 34 E 1. diceret; Ego Presbyter tale vobis praebeo iter. Post hac autem adveniente Rege Angliæ in Scotiam cum Principe Walliæ, & Magnatibus populi sui, quidam Scoti eum honorifice ad miserunt, quidam abierunt retrorsum, nonnulli abdita silvarum diverticula petierunt. Exercitus tamen Regium discurrens per totum regnum Scotorum, capit persequi fugitivos, & plures peremerunt, & aliquos vivos comprehenderunt, utpote Episcopos et Abbatem prædictos, locatos et armatos sub suis exterius tegumentum. Duorum igitur Episcoporum culpa magna, sed Episcopi Sancti Andreae major. Nam die congressionis inter Anglos & Scotos apud Methfen, juxta Sanctum Johannem, misit armatam clientelam suam in succursum Scotorum. Ipse vero callide se reddidit interim Anglis, ut si Scoti de Anglis triumpharent, ipsum de illorum potestate emerent, tanquam vi captum, pro defectu tutela. Si autem Angli triumpharent, sibi parcerent eo quod derelictus à familia sua fuit, quasi non consentiens fallis illorum. Ibi ergo perjurati Prælati in arctissimis carceribus forma et habitu quibus fugiendo capri fuerunt, retruduntur, quousque per Apostolicam sedem dispositum sit, quid de his fuerit faciendum. The Kings Writs for these perjured Prelates and Abbots close imprisonments in several Castles, and that in iron chains, are thus recorded in the Rolls in the Tower.

These strict Writs for the close imprisonment of these perjured Bishops, Rebels, Traytors and Enemies to the King even in iron chains, as well as in several Castles, Towers, notwithstanding their Rochets, and sacred Orders, under such strong armed guards and severe penalties, is a sufficient evidence, what pernicious, dangerous Traytors and Rebels the King reputed them, being in truth far worse then any of those Laymen whom he hanged, beheaded, quartered, setting up their Heads, Quarters in sundry places throughout the Realm, to deterre others for the future, from the like Treasons and Rebellions: Yet such was his Royal Clemency towards them (in respect of their sacred Orders, which much aggravated their Crimes, and by consequence their punishments) that he not only spared their lives; and gave them and those who attended them a daily competent allowance,

An. 34 E. 1. ance, but also allowed them a Chaplain daily to say Masse to them for the good of their souls, though themselves might be thought sufficient to be their own Chaplains during this their close imprisonment, having no such temporal employments as formerly, to divert them from their Devotions, as this Record informs us.

This was the deserved end of these perjured Scottish Traitors and Rebels. Soon after, In diebus illis, fecit Rex Angliæ inquirere per totam Scotiam per fide dignos homines, quot & quanti intererant interfecioni Johannis Comyn & coronationi Roberti de Brus: Et ferme omnes cepit, et morti tradidit; aut ultro se reddentes regis voluntati, dictis carceribus mancipavit. Post hac captus est Castrum de Lochdor, in quo inventus est Christopherus Setonus, Sororius Roberti de Brus, quem cum non Scotus sed Anglus esset, iussit Rex deduci usque Dunfreis, ubi quidam Militem de parte Regis prius occiderat, ibique indictum subite coactus, tractus suspensusque est, ac ultimo decollatus. Johannes vero Setonus, Christopheri Germanus, apud Novum Castrum super Tinam tractus, suspensus, atque decollatus horribiliter vitam terminavit. Erant enim ambo Armigeri pseudo-Regis, amboque consenserant neci Joh. Comyn: Uxorem vero Christoph. & filiam Ro. de Brus in diversis monialium Monasteriis collocavit. Et dum exercetur in oles in populo scelerato talis vindicta sagit ad montana Coronatus. Proinde timens sibi Johannes Comes de Asceila, fugam quarit, sed Dei providentia timor quem timebat, evenit ei. Nam, cum in mari navigando fugeret, subito orto Vento contrario, ad terram repulsus, ab adversariis captus erat. Quo audito Rex Angliz, etsi gravissimo morbo tunc langueret, levius tamen tulit dolorem. Comes autem iste, de stirpe Regali sibi originem vendicavit. Idcirco quidam Palatini, ipsum cum iniquis judicandum, indecens indecorumque censebant. Quibus Rex, non sanguinis lineam, sed justitia judicium attendens, dicebat. Quanto gradus altior, tanto lapsus gravior esse constar. Sed ceteris parricidis generosior in sanguine, alium ceteris suspendatur pro scelere. Nec vos lateat quoties voluit prodidisse nos in Anglia, in Scotia, & in Flandria. Habete illum vos, & Londini justissime judicetur. Quo cum pervenisset 7. die Novembris apud Westmonasterium in Aula Regis utique condemnatur. Virum, quia de regali sanguine fuerat oriundus, non est tractus, sed ascenso equo, in equuleo quinquaginta pedum suspensus est. Postea semivivus demissus, ut majores cruciatibus sentiret, crudelissime decollatur. Truncus vero illius, praeaccenso in conspectu ejus vehementi igne una cum carne & ossibus, in favillas & cineres funditus conflagrantur. Caput autem istius, inter alia probitorum capita, super Pontem Londonensem in superlativo gradu, quia de regali stemmate, est affixum. Rex apud Lavercoft, juxta Caerleolum commorans, misit Bervicum Justiciarios, quorum judicio Nigellus de Brus, Miles pulcherrima juventutis, pro eo quod consenserat factionibus fratris sui, & ceteri qui cum eo capti fuerant, traditi sunt atque suspensi et ultimo decollati. Thus did these perjured, rebellious Scotch Traitors suffer these just condign Executions for their old and new perjuries, Treasons, Rebellions against King Edward, to whom they had so frequently sworn, covenanted fealty, homage, loyalty and allegiance, under their hands and seals, as to their Sovereign Lord.

Whiles the King was thus employed in subduing his Scottish Rebels abroad, the Pope and his Delegates, together with his own Bishops, Clergy, and their Ecclesiastical Courts, were as busie in encroaching upon the Ecclesiastical and Temporal Rights of his Crown and Courts at home, as these ensuing Writts to controll them will more fully inform us.

Pope Clement being encouraged by the Kings * premised compliance, that his foreign Agents should sequester and appropriate both the Spiritualties and Temporalities of the Archbishoprick of Canterbury to his own use, proceeded by Stephen de Manby and other his Delegates, to sequester all the Spiritualties, Temporalities, Fruits and Profits of the Priory of Durham, of the Kings foundation, and his Progenitors, with their Rights and Appurtenances, without the Kings privy or licence, enjoying the Prior, Chapter and Covent of Durham, with all the Proctors and Administrators of the said Priory, intirely to answer all the Fruits, Rents, Profits, Rights and obventions of the said Priory to the Patriarch of Jerusalem during the pleasure of the See Apostolick, to be disposed of at his pleasure; and commanded them to excommunicate and interdict all persons of what quality soever, except the King, Queen, and their Children, which should oppose or contradict this new and unheard of Papal Usurpation; whereupon they denounced with direful execrations the greater Excommunication against the Prior and sundry Canons of Durham, and divers others who opposed them therein, and also interdicted the Church of Durham, refusing twice to revoke this their unjust Sentence upon the Kings Writts, and his Counsels commands to do it, in high contempt of the Kings Crown and Dignity, and disinheriting the Rights thereof: For which they were twice summoned before the King and his Council, and after in the Parliament at Karlisle, were imprisoned and fined to the King, as this memorable Record will at large inform us.

So careful was the King and his Counſil to prevent this dangerous Innovation and Encroachment on his Crown, and cruſh this new Cockatrice in the ſhell. The Pope being informed by his Nuncio and Legate here, concerning the Kings ſevere proceedings againſt them for executing his Bull, who miſinformed him of the true ſtate of the Caſe in point of Law and the Kings Prerogative, was very much offended with the King; whereof he being informed, to hold all fair correſpondence with him, ſent him this Epiſtle, complaining of the great wrongs done by his Agents to God, and eſpecially to St. Cuthbert Patron of the Church of Durham, deſiring him to examine the truth of the whole buſineſs himſelf, whereof he had been miſinformed, and reform theſe exceſſes, to the honour of God, St. Cuthbert, and the Church, and righting of the Prior.

By which Writs and Proceedings this unusual and formerly unheard of Usurpation of the Pope was prevented, and not afterwards put in execution, whereby he would have appropriated the Temporalties as well as Spiritualties of all Religious Houses and Monasteries in England by degrees to himself and his Creatures, had not the King and his Council thus carefully prevented and suppressed it when first set on foot.

Pope Clement the 5th, his Delegates, Nuncios and Agents, exceedingly encroaching this year upon the rights of the King, his Crown and Dignity, although the King in other particulars complied with their requests in all things that intrenched not upon the rights and prerogatives of his Crown and Royal Dignity, to advance his own designs; yet he and his Council would by no means yeeld, or condescend to their manifold new, illegal requests, Procurations, Usurpations, and proceedings, that were derogatory or prejudicial to the rights of his Crown, but opposed them to their power both in and by his Letters to this Pope and his Cardinals, by several Writs of Prohibition and Attachments issued to his Nuncios, Legates, Delegates, and other Agents: Witnesse this ensuing Letter of his to this Pope on the behalf of John Bush his Clerk, whom he had legally presented to a Praebendary in the Church of Yorke, then void and in his hands, into which Francis the son of Peter Gistain an alien had intruded himself by the Popes provision; who cited the Kings Clerk out of the Realm personally to appear before the Pope upon false suggestions, to answer him damages for the pretended injuries done unto him, in turning him out of this prebendary, against the rights and liberties of his Crown, Dignity, and Realm.

So carefull was the King and his Counsil in that age, to prevent all new encroachments and usurpations on the Crown and Prerogative by any new words or clauses, which Popes usually inserted into their Bulls upon every occasion to enlarge their Papal Jurisdiction, and would not obliterate nor renounce when justly excepted against by the King and Counsil.

As the Pope and his Agents, Nuncios and Collectors thus usurped upon the Rights and Prerogatives of the Crown on the one hand, which the King and his Counsil strenuously opposed; so did his Bishops and their Ecclesiastical Courts and Officers on the other hand, which he with his Judges and Courts of Justice restrained this year, by these Writs of Prohibition extant in the Bundles of Writs I found in the White Tower, An. 34 E. 1.

Notwithstanding these large Encomiums of Grosthed both by the King, Prelates, Clergy, and people of England, and their importunity to canonize him for a Saint, I cannot find by History or Record he was ever actually canonized, because he opposed the usurpations, corruptions of the Popes and Court of Rome; when as Anselm, Becket of Canterbury, and Hugh of Lincoln, though Arch-Traitors, Rebels against our Kings, were readily canonized for Saints upon this only account, that they maintained the usurpations of the Popes and Court of Rome, upon the Crowns, Rights, Liberties of our Kings, kingdom, and the Church of England.

The Bishop of Cicester by his usurped authority endowing a Vicar in the Church of Rye, (of the Kings patronage, without his or his royal progenitors assent) of the 3d. part of the Tithes and Oblations, to the prejudice of the Kings Crown, right, and Clerk presented thereunto; the King thereupon issued this Writ, declaring the endowment voyd in Law, if made without the royal assent, commanding the Bishop to inquire out, and certifie him the truth thereof.

King Edward being informed by some of his superstitious Prelates and Clergy, that divers of his English Subjects, and others adhering to him, had incurred the Sentence of Excommunication and Irregularity, by slaying his Scottish Enemies, Traytors and Rebels, in his late Wars, and laying violent hands on the Trayterous Scots Bishops, Abbots, Clergymen, and that in some Churches, which they had burned and defaced, procured a Commission from Pope Clement to the Bishop of Carlisle and three Abbots, to absolve those who did desire absolution from their Excommunication, Irregularity, and other Ecclesiastical Censures, as these his Writs, issued for that purpose to the Bishop of Carlisle and others, the Sheriff of Kent, and all other Sheriffs of England, do clearly evidence.

I cannot finde by Record or History that any persons came to be absolved by them in these cases, it being lawful by the *Laws of God and Man, for the King and all his loyal Subjects and Adherents, to kill, strike, apprehend, and lay violent hands on all the perfidious Traytors and Rebels of the Scottish Nation and others, even in Churches and Churchyards, yea to burn their Churches, when they fled into and fortified them against them, without incurring the least Sentence of Excommunication, Irregularity, Interdict, or other Ecclesiastical Censures, imposed by Popes or Prelates Canons, which they extended to the protection of Traytors, Rebels, Murderers, and other Malefactors, to the publike prejudice both of Justice, Government, and Monarchy, beyond their primitive intention.

This year I met with this memorable Plea before the Chancellor in the Chancery, at the suit of the Freres of the Hospital of the House of God in Donewich, against the Abbot of St. Ositha, for taking a Cross out of their Hospital, whither many resorted to adore it, who bestowed much Alms upon them, and carrying it to the Abbey of St. Ositha, and there keeping it in contempt of the King, to the subtraction of the Alms of the Hospital, and great damage and impoverishing of the Freres: One of the first Pleas I have observed of this kinde in Chancery.

So that this Suit, for taking away and recovery of this adored Cross, and the Alms gained and lost thereby, was then prosecuted in Chancery, not in the Spiritual Court, and a Jury impannelled to try this issue, whether the Crosse brought into the Chancery by the Abbot, was the same that was taken out of the Hospital or not?

Although the King condescended, that the Administrators of the Spiritualities of the Archbishoprick of Canterbury deputed by Pope Clement, should intermeddle in some things, yet he expressly prohibited them to meddle in the purgation of any Clerks convicted and imprisoned for Felony and other crimes, by this Writ.

REX Administratoribus Spiritualitatis Archiepiscopatus Canthar. a sede Apostolica deputatis, salutem. Mandamus vobis, quod ad purgationem aliquam coram vobis capiendam de prisonibus in Curia nostra commissis super felonis et transgressionibus per ipsos contra pacem nostram in regno nostro factis, et ea occasione in prisona nostra de Maydeneston detentis vos nullatenus intromittatis, donec aliud inde duxerimus ordinandum. Teste Rege apud Grantham, 16 die Julii. Yet he permitted his own Bishops and other Ordinaries this year to take the purgation of sundry Clerks convicted of Robberies, and other Felonies, and issued Writs to restore their goods and chattels that were seized to the Kings use; as Clanf. 34 E. 1. m. 8, 10, 11, 15, 22. inform us.

Reymund a Roman Cardinal sending two Proctors into England, on whom the Pope by his Provision had conferred some Benefices in the Churches of York, Lincoln, and Litchfield; the King at his request, out of his reverence to the Pope and See Apostolic, and honor to this Cardinal, granted them this ensuing Safe-conduct; yet with this caution, (which marred their design) that the said Proctors should not by any means prosecute, procure or attempt any thing, which might any way turn to the prejudice of his Crown and Royal dignity.

The Pope importuning King Edward by his Letters liberally to conferre his Castle of Mulhan upon Amanenus Lord of Lebeto, belonging heretofore to his ancestors, for the good services he and they had done him in his wars in Gascoigne, returned him this answer why he could not grant his request upon a double account, especially for his high contempt and affront in taking and detaining prisoner Peter Arnaldi one of his principal Clerks, being of his Counsil, and refusing to release him upon the request of some of his Counsil in England, to his great disgrace and contempt; which he prayed the Pope to endeavour to redresse, and procure his Clerks enlargement.

PAPÆ Rex, Devota pedum oscula beatorum. Recepimus cum reverentia qua decebat, literas quas in nobis vestra beatitudo transmisit, inter cetera continentes, ut dilecto & fideli nostro nobili viro Amaneno Domino de Lebeto Castrum nostrum de Milhan cum pertin. quod quondam fuerat progenitorum suorum, pro bono & laudabili servitio quod idem Amanenus in guerra nostra Vascon. nobis impenderet, liberaliter concedere curaremus, eodem modo tenendum quo pater & dicti progenitores sui Castrum illud antiquius tenuerunt; Unde vestra noverit Sanctitudo, quod satis sumus experti, nec à nostra sunt noticia aliena laudabilia et grata servitia quæ prædictus Amanenus in dicta guerra nostra Vascon. & alibi nobis exhibuit fideliter & constanter, de quibus nos multipliciter commendamus. Et licet verum, quod prædictum Castrum de Milhan aliquando fuisset progenitorum præfati Amaneni, sicut dictæ vestræ literæ continebant. Pater tamen ipsius certis ex causis Castrum illud commisit, et nichilominus claræ memoriæ Dominus H. quondam Rex Anglia pater noster eidemque pro dicto Castro nomine Escambii alias terras dedit. Cæterum, pater Sanctissime, cum quidam Clericus noster, et de Consilio nostro non minimus, sicut forsitan benè nostis, Magister Petrus Arnaldi de Vico post creationem vestram captus fuerit, et sic captus, adhuc in carceribus teneatur, & verisimiliter præsumamus, quod ad procuracionem Amaneni hoc actum extiterit, præsertim pro eo, quod idem Amanenus per majores de nostro Consilio in Anglia requisitus, malivolentiam quam ad ipsum Clericum nostrum gerebat sibi remitteret, id facere recusasset, in nostri bituperium et dedecus factum huiusmodi cedere reputemus: Sanctitati vestræ supplicamus humiliter & devotè, quatinus ad præmissa illum respectum, si placet, habere dignemini quem honori nostro vestra providentia biderit conbentire, quodque id nobis gratum esse debeat & acceptum: clementiam vestram scire volentes, quod prompti erimus et parati ad ea quæ vobis noverimus esse grata, & etiam cum promptitudine qua poterimus adimplere, quod super hiis de quibus nos requirendum duxistis vobis visum fuerit faciendum, supplicantes precibus iteratis, ut super præactis nobis significare velitis vestræ beneplacita voluntatis, et prædictum Clericum nostrum taliter prosequi gratia et favore, ut in persona ipsius quod pro nobis feceritis percipere valeamus. Conserve, &c. Dat. Wynston. 8 die Aprilis, Anno regni nostri, &c. 34.

After which answer Amanenus complying with the Kings request, being likewise sent over to him as a Nuncio from the Pope, he did out of his veneration to the Pope settle this Castle upon him and his heirs by this Patent.

REX Omnibus ad quos, &c. salutem. Dum imbecillitatis humanæ conspicimus imperfectum, ac onera longè latèque diffusa nostris humeris incumbencia attempta consideratione pensamus, intus nimirum puncturis diversis torquemur, diversorum cogitationum fluctibus agitati, et vexamur frequenter noctes ducendo insomnes, quid agendum, quid tenendum, quidbe exequendum existat inter præcordia hæsitantes; in eo tamen qui supra cuncta tenens in excelsis imperium, qui dat esse rebus, et dispensat prout vult munera gratiarum, cum sapienciæ suæ magnitudinem humani non capiant intellectus, virtutes resumimus, sperantes, quod in serviciis suis perficiat actus nostros, & suæ bonitatis clementia nostrum misericorditer videat et suppleat imperfectum, ut ipsius sultis præsidio per viam mandatorum Domini dirigamur. Profecto inter omnia sollicitudini nostræ et curæ inhzrentia, circa illud præcipue nostra non intermissivè versatur intentio, ut subditis nostris regni nostri incolis quietis et tranquillitatis dulcedinem præparemus, in quorum quiete quiescimus, et in eorum tranquillitate non sine suavitatis odoze in floribus pacis desiderata interiorius confobemur. Sane ex fideiunt nostrorum relatibus, et oppressorum crebris clamoribus, de quibus nimis mentis commocione turbamur, didicimus, quod per Ministros Forestarum nostrorum populus ejusdem regni miserabiliter opprimitur, depauperatur, et diversis afficitur injuriis, undique molestatus; nonnunquam enim sunt accusationes de foresta et indictiones vulgariter sic appellatae, non per legitimas Inquisitiones proborum et legalium hominum patriæ præcedentes, ut justitia requirit, sed ad dictum unius vel forsàn duorum de forestariis, aut ad dictum unius vel forsàn duorum de viridariis qui ex odio aut aliàs maliciose, ut ab aliquo pecuniam extorqueant quenquam accusant vel indiciant, et exinde sequuntur attachiamenta gravia, et punitur innocens quem nulla omnino culpa seu delictum constringit. Opprimitur etiam populus præ multitudine Forestariorum et aliorum ministrorum, quos cum non habeant unde aliunde vivant, per patriam forestarum adjacentem vivere oportebit eosdem, et quod est deterius pro jure officii sui vendicant

An. 34 E. 1. cant ut sic vivant : Isti nichilominus pro suis victualibus quibus egent boscum suorum custodiam aut sub suis custodiis deputatum, et feras in eisdem existentes vendendo, donando, et multipliciter minuendo ac minui permittendo, successivis dierum processibus destruunt et adnichilant, ad nostrum et heredum nostrorum intollerabile detrimentum. Quid plura? dampna et grabamina quae circa hoc proveniunt, ut acceptimus, difficile fore per singula enarrare. Cupientes itaque oppressiōibus et grabaminibus huiusmodi, quae absque gravi scandalo diutius sub dissimulatione praeterire nequimus, modis et hiis omnibus quibus possumus, obviare, ac regni nostri incolarum paci et tranquillitati perbigili studio prohibere.

Volumus in primis & ordinamus pro nobis & heredibus nostris, quod de transgressionibus in Forestis nostris de viridi et venacione de cetero faciendis, Forestarii infra quorum ballivas huiusmodi transgressionibus fieri contigerit, praesentent easdem ad proxima Swanimota, coram Forestariis, viridariis, regardatoribus, agistoribus, et aliis earundem forestarum Ministris, et super praesentacionibus huiusmodi ibidem coram Forestariis, viridariis, et omnibus aliis Ministris supradictis per sacramentum tam Militum quam aliorum proborum et legalium hominum de partibus vicinioribus ubi transgressionibus sic praesentatae factae fuerint non suspectorum, veritas plenius inquiratur, et sic inquisita veritate, praesentaciones illae per communem concordiam et assensum omnium ministrorum praedictorum sollempniter roborentur et sigillis suis sigillentur; et si alio modo fiat indictamenti pro nullo penitus habeatur. Et si aliquem praedictorum Forestariorum, regardatorum, aut aliorum Ministrorum forestarum ipsarum obire contingat, seu per agritudinem vel alio modo impediri, quominus interesse valeat huiusmodi Swanimotis, incontinenti Justiciarius Forestae seu locum ejus tenens ponat alium loco suo, ita videlicet, quod indictamentum fiat per omnes in forma praedicta, quodque Ministri qui ponendi sunt ponantur, sicut hactenus fieri consuevit, exceptis Viridariis qui per electionem et per breve nostrum deputabuntur. Et volumus, quod nullus Ministrorum praedictorum in assis juratis, seu inquisitionibus extra Forestam capiendis de cetero ponatur.

Et si superoneracio Forestariorum aut aliorum qui se gerunt ut Ministros Forestae inveniantur, amoveantur huiusmodi superonerantes et imprisonentur secundum discrecionem Justic. Forestae vel ejus locum tenentis, necnon & illi per quos positi fuerant, ad voluntatem nostram similiter puniantur. Et ad quodlibet Swanimotum inquiratur sollempniter de superoneracione Forestariorum et aliorum Ministrorum Forestae, et de eorum oppressiōibus populo nostro illatis, et stant inde emendae et punitiones, prout superius est expressum.

Quoad illos vero qui tempore quo Foresta deafforestata fuit transgressionibus de viridi aut venacione in Foresta fecerunt, quia deafforestacionem eandem, et ut sententia excommunicationis in contravenientes fulminaretur, quanquam de nostra bona voluntate minime processisset, concessimus, quam quidem sententiam Dominus Summus Pontifex postmodum revocabit; et quas concessiōem et deafforestacionem ex certis causis rebocamus et etiam adnullamus; Volumus, quod transgressionibus huiusmodi pardonentur, transgressionibus illis exceptis quae in ea parte quae Foresta remansit commissae fuerunt; ita tamen, quod hayae & fossata facta medio tempore prosterantur et penitus amoveantur et adnichilentur, salvis arentacionibus nostris quas secundum assisam Forestae volumus remanere. Boscus autem cecus & prostratus amoveatur, & boscus stans, remanent in Foresta. Et si forte aliquis talis boscus adhuc stans sit venditus, in Foresta remaneat, & venditor satisfaciatur emptori juxta quantitatem porcionis bosci stantis in Foresta, & taliter medio tempore venditi, & prout ceperit de eodem.

Volumus etiam, quod Justiciarius Forestae nostrae vel ejus locum tenens in praesentia Thef. nostri, et per assensum ejusdem habeat potestatem capiendi fines et redemciones illorum qui sunt indictati de transgressionibus usque nunc in Foresta commissis itinere Justiciariorum minime expectato.

Volumus insuper, quod illi qui communem pasturam in Foresta ante perambulacionem factam habebant, & qui sunt postea repositi in Foresta, quique de dicta communia per perambulacionem praedictam fuerant impediti, habeant communem pasturam de cetero in Forestis, adeo large et libere sicut ante perambulacionem factam habere solebant; salvis arentacionibus nostris in forma praedicta. A clear evidence, That the Probat of Wills in Cities and Places where Tenements and Lands were devisable by custom, belonged not to the Ecclesiastical but Temporal Courts, and that the King might by his Writs command Wills to be proved by those who ought to prove them, or render him a legal reason why they refused so to do.

*Chronica W.
Thorn, col.
2005, 2006.

Hereupon this Archbishop in his return from the Popes Court this year, was invited to lodge and feast with the Abbot in the Monastery of St. Augustines at Canterbury, yet with special caution in writing concerning the bearing of his Cross within it, lest it should turn to their future prejudice. * Eodem anno Archiepiscopus Eboracensis rogatus (est) ab Abbate ad convivandum secum; facta tamen litera, quod non in præjudicium domus veniret per Crucis erectionem, quæ talis.

Universis Christi fidelibus, &c. Willielmus permissione, &c. Noverint Universitas vestra quod nos in crastino S. Benedicti, An. Dom. 1305. ex rogatu Domini Thomæ Dei gratia Abbatis S. Augustini Cant. ad Romanam Ecclesiam nullo medio pertinentis, ad Monasterium prædictum causa hospitandi Crucis præbula hospitantes, et ibidem pernoctantes; constemur et cognoscimus de plano, quod per nostram ingressum, vel moram, seu Crucis nostræ delationem, non intendimus nec volumus præbelligis, immunitatibus aut juribus ipsius Abbatis et Conventus Monasterii prædicti nunc vel in posterum in aliquo derogare; nec etiam nobis vel success. nostris aliquid possumus Jurisdictionis aut juris acquirere, per quod posset in futurum præjudicium generari. So careful were the Abbot and Covent to prevent all umbrages of infringing or violating their Priviledges and Liberties. And had not the King, his Counsil, and Judges, then much more reason to be carefull and vigilant to prevent by their Letters and Prohibitions all the apparent and clandestine Usurpations of the Roman Popes, Cardinals, Legates, Nuncios, Proctors, and of our own Bishops and Prelates, upon the ancient Rights and Priviledges of his Crown, his Temporal as well as Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, and Subjects Liberties?

A Writ de Excommunicato capiendo being issued out against the Abbot of Sally, and some of his Monks, to the Sheriff of York, the King by his Ecclesiastical Authority, upon their tender of sufficient Manucaptors, and caution, issued this Writ for their enlargement, if imprisoned thereon, and to supersede their caption if not taken by the Writ.

The Monastery of Cluny having sustained great losses, and being deeply in debt as was suggested, not by their own default, the King for their relief was graciously pleased, notwithstanding his former Prohibitions, Statute, and Provisions against it, to grant the Abbot thereof and his Proctors his license to come and demand a competent Ayd and relief from all the Monasteries and Cells subject to their Order, and their Tenants, within his Dominions, by this his Patent, and likewise to exhort and encourage them thereunto. So prevalent were those begging Freers with him.

Venerabili in Christo patri Domino R. titulo Sanctae Mariae Novae Diacono Cardinali, amico suo carissimo, Edwardus, &c. salutem & sinceram dilectionis affectum. Cum per alias nostras literas Sanctissimum patrem nostrum Dominum Summum Pontificem duxerimus requirendum, quatinus sustinere velit, quod Ecclesia de Recolure quae vacavit postquam temporalia Archiepiscopatus Canthuar. capta fuerant in manum nostram, & ad quam praesentavimus dilectum Clericum nostrum Magistrum Nicholaum de Tychemyke Medicum nostrum, hominem utique honestae vitae, bonae conversationis & scientiae eminentis, eidem Clerico nostro remaneat virtute praesentationis nostrae supradictae, seu quod eandem Ecclesiam eidem Clerico conferat gratiose, et secum de solita benignitate disponet super retentione dictae Ecclesiae, una cum Ecclesia de Colestull Sarum Dioc. quam idem Clericus prius fuerat affectus: Paternitatem vestram in quantum possumus requirimus & rogamus, quatinus penes dictum Dominum Summum Pontificem solertem diligentiam nostri intuitu velit apponere & juvamen, & ut praedictum negotium iuxta animi nostri desiderium ad effectum perducere valeat quem optamus, & ut gratiose super hoc a dicto patre responsum habeamus quam citius fieri poterit, curetis si placet impetrare, nos enim audita felici expeditione iuxta votum, magnam exinde cordis laetitiam sumeremus. Thus was the King by his condescension and grant of the Temporalities and Presentations belonging to himself and his Crown, to this Pope, enforced to importune both the Pope and Cardinals by successive Letters, for the confirmation of his own Clerks presentations to Churches who best demerited of him, and yet could not at all, or with great difficulty and expence obtain his just requests; such was the avarice and ambition of this usurping Pontiff.

The * Annals of Ireland relate, That this Mr. Thomas Cantock Chancellor of Ireland was consecrated Bishop of Imlacen. in the Church of the Holy Trinity of Dublin with great honour: at whose consecration were present the Elders of all Ireland, where there was so sumptuous and so great a feast made, first to the Rich, and afterwards to the poor, as the like had never been heard of before in Ireland. Yet they make no mention of his feeding or feasting the souls of his people with the spiritual food and preaching of Gods word, the prime duty of his Episcopal office: whereof he had little care.

† Annals of Ireland.

The same year as the said † Annals inform us; Richard Feringes Archbishop of Dublin died in the Vigil of Saint Luke, after whom succeeded Mr. Richard Haverings, who occupied the Archbishoprick almost five years by Apostolical dispensation, (Pope Clement then newly usurping to himself by the plenitude of his Papal power, the disposition of all Cathedral Churches and preferments when they should fall voyd during his Papacy by his Papal provisions, which King Edward opposed to his power, for which this Pope sharply reprehended him.) This Archbishop conscious to himself of his illegal entring into, and of his neglect in the discharge of this his Archiepiscopal office, resigned up his Archbishoprick, after whom succeeded John Letb.

The occasion and cause of his giving over (as the Archdeacon of Dublin of good memory, his Nephew hath reported) was this, for that one Night he dreamed that a certain Monster heavier than the whole World stood eminently aloft upon his breast: from the weights whereof he chose rather to be delivered, then alone to have all the goods of the World: but when he awakened, he thought with himself, this was nothing else but the Church of Dublin, the fruits whereof he received, and took no pains for the same. (The case of many of his successors, and other Archbishops then and since.) As soon as he could therefore, he came to the Lord Pope, of whom he was much beloved, and there renounced and gave over the Archbishoprick; For he had (as the same Archdeacon avouched) fatter Benefices and livings, then the Archbishoprick came unto; which he should likewise have resigned upon the same account, since he resided not and took no spiritual pains in them to feed and instruct his peoples souls, no more then in his resigned Archbishoprick.

11. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum existit, quod dictae Ecclesiae in quibus Dominus Rex praedictus habet Regalia praedicta, de fundatione Regum Francia suorum predecessorum existunt.

12. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum existit, quod quandiu vacant dictae Ecclesiae, in quibus dictus Dominus Rex habet Regalia, idem Dominus Rex donat, et donare consuevit dignitates et prebendas, et Beneficia quorum Collatio modo quocunque pertinere potest ad Prelatum illius Ecclesiae, eo tempore quo existant ibidem, sive ibidem vacent praedicta Beneficia, Prebendae, vel dignitates, et in Curia Romana, vel alibi ubicunque.

13. Item, quod praedicta Jura pertinent, et pertinere debent ad dictum Dom. Regem, et ad suos predecessores, jure suo Regio vel consuetudine regni Francia notoria: et tam ipse quam ejus predecessores in saisina et possessione, vel quasi iurium omnium praedictorum et singulorum existant, tanto tempore de cuius contrario memoria non existit.

14. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum existit, quod Jura Regalia aliquarum Ecclesiarum, quae habet in Ecclesiis praedictis Dominus Rex praedictus, progenitores ipsius Domini Regis, et predecessores ejus in regno dederunt in feudum aliquibus Baronibus suis, tam Ecclesiasticis quam secularibus, qui Barones regalibus illis utuntur et fruuntur, sedibus Ecclesiarum ipsarum vacantibus jure suo feudali, et jure Regio, a quo suum jus habet: Et ideo Jura Regalia vocatur; quo jure dicti Barones utuntur nominibus suis et nomine Regio, et usi sunt tanto tempore, de cuius contrario memoria non existit.

15. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum existit, quod cum Civitas Lugdunensis, tempore primitivae Ecclesiae, fuisset ad fidem Catholicam prima conversa, & postea in manu infidelium devenisset, Rex Francia qui tunc erat vi armorum, & sanguine rutilante suorum, conquistavit dictam Civitatem Lugdunensem, cum omnibus juribus suis et pertinentiis ad fidem Catholicam et cultum divinum Civitatem ipsam redegit, jurisdictione sua Regia, et ibidem fundavit Lugdunensem Ecclesiam Catholicam; et quia Civitas ipsa tempore infidelium praecedenti Archiflammis habuerat, & pristinis temporibus prima sedes fuerat Galliarum, ut moneta Lugdunensis testatur, dictus Rex sedem ipsam Archiepiscopalem erexit, et erigi fecit, cum jure Primatice super Ecclesias Galliarum, quo jure Primatice Archiepiscopi Lugdunenses longis temporibus usi fuerunt.

16. Item, Certum & indubitatum existit, quod Rex praedictus fundator Ecclesiae Lugdunensis Castris, Villis, terris & possessionibus, quas nostris temporibus obtinuit dicta Ecclesia Lugdunensis, eam dotavit, et Jura Regalia (quae Regalia in singulari converso Regalia dictæ Edvensi Ecclesie dedit & concessit in feudum Archiepiscopo & Ecclesie Lugdunensi, quam similiter Edvensi Ecclesiam fundavit et dotavit Rex prædictus, Fidelitate ab utroque eorumque successoribus, sibi, suisque successoribus præstanda pro temporalitatibus prædictis retenta.

17. Item, Certum, notorium, et indubitatum existit, quod Archiepiscopi Lugdunenses qui fuerunt pro tempore, quotiens vacavit Ecclesia Edvensis, & vicissim Edvenses Episcopi, quotiens vacavit Ecclesia Lugdunensis, usi sunt ad invicem, et vicissim dictis Regaliis temporalitatum ipsarum.

18. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum existit, quod antiquitus Comes Lugdunensis Comitatum suum in feudum tenebat à Rege Francia, quem Ecclesie Lugdunensis acquisivit ex permutationis causa, cum omnibus castris, leudis seu pedagiis, feudis, & redditibus, juribus, & pertinentiis Comitatus ipsius, à Lugdunensi Comite qui tunc erat, de consensu, auctoritate et confirmatione Regis Francia qui tunc erat, à quo dictus Comitatus in feudum movebat.

19. Item, ipsa Ecclesia Lugdunensis de concessu, auctoritate et confirmatione Regis prædicti, ex causa permutationis prædictæ, dedit Comiti memorato magnas terras, hereditates et castra, quas Forensi Comes impræsentiarum possidet, qui de progenie dicti Comitis Lugdunensis, qui erat etiam Forensi Comes noscitur descendisse, de quibus omnibus existunt literæ, privilegia & publica monumenta: Hinc est, quod Capitulum Ecclesie Lugdunensis, quod pro majori parte, dictum Comitatum possidet, & de temporalitate foundationis prædictæ Ecclesie suæ obtinet magnam partem, signo floris Lili in suo sigillo impresso, usum semper fuerit.

20. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum existit, quod pro temporalibus Ecclesiarum suarum Archiepiscopi Lugdunenses, et Episcopi Evenenses, qui fuerunt pro tempore, præstiterunt et præstare consueverunt fidelitatem Regibus Francia, qui similiter fuerunt pro tempore, cum ad administrationem suorum Episcopatum veniebant usque ad tempus Archiepiscopi Lugdunensis, qui nunc est, qui malo ductus consilio in suis temporalibus rebellis fuit Domino Regi prædicto, propter quod oportuit Dominum Regem ad coercendam rebellionem huiusmodi, et ad sursum conservandam, exercitum suum ad partes mittere Lugdunenses.

21. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum existit, quod nullis temporibus præteritis ab eo quo Civitas Lugdunensis fuit ad manus Christianorum redacta per Regem Francia memoratum, nullus unquam Princeps terrenus, præter Reges Francia, jus Regium vel superioritatis quodcumque super Archiepiscopos & Ecclesiam Lugdunensem in Ecclesiæ temporalibus habuit, licet aliqui Archiepiscopi prodigiosè aliquibus aliis Principibus advocasse suum temporale dicantur, ignorantibus tamen Regibus Francia, qui fuerunt pro tempore, quibus per hoc non potuit generari quodque præjudicium nec contra eos, vel in eorum præjudicium, causa possessionis mutari de jure; maxime cum semper in possessione fuerint, & salina juris Regii et superioritatis prædictæ in temporalibus ejusdem Ecclesie Lugdunensis, tam recipiendo fidelitatem à singulis Archiepiscopis supradictis, quam sede Lugdunensi vacante, capiendi, & exercendi prædicta Regalia per fideles suos Episcopos Edvenses; cum is possidet, cujus nomine possidetur, Dominusque fidei possidet per vassallum.

22. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum existit, quod dictus Dominus Rex progenitoresque sui Reges Francia qui fuerunt pro tempore, jus superioritatis & Gardie in temporalibus Ecclesie Lugdunensis exercuerunt, quoties ad eo recursus est habitus, et quotiens opus fuit, tanto tempore de cujus contrario memoria non existit.

23. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum existit, quod dictus Dominus Rex, Progenitoresque sui, jus resorti, ad jus Regium & superioritatem pertinens, atque gardiam exercuerunt inconcussè in Civitate Lugdunensi, quadraginta anni sunt elapsi, & ab eo tempore citra, continuè, licet Archiepiscopus prædictus qui nunc est, intervertere voluerit possessionem juris huiusmodi Domino Regi prædicto, & distrinxerunt dictis temporibus temporalitatem dictæ Ecclesie Lugdunensis, & iustitaverunt quoties opus fuit, propter impedimenta et inobedientias Archiepiscoporum, qui fuerunt pro tempore vel Capituli, vel Gentium eorundem quas faciebant in præjudicium superioritatis, vel Gardie Domini Regis prædicti. Et locum habebat juris Regula, scilicet, quod quis ex culpa sua damnum fecerit sentire non videtur. Et alibi scriptum est, quod damnum quod inferunt Magistratus propter inobedientias coercendas, jure licito videtur illatum. D. ad leg. Aquil. quemadmodum Magistratus. Et ut exemplis utamur, tempore B. Ludovici cum ivit Tunisi, requisitus Rex ipse, dum fecit transitum per Lugdunum ab Archiepiscopo qui tunc erat & Capitulo Lugdunensi, Cives Lugdunenses coercuit et fortalicia, quibus se munierant contra Ecclesiam Lugdunensem, dirui facit tanquam superior & Gardiator Ecclesie ipsius, quæ coercere non poterat Cives ipsos. Et cum Rex prædictus postmodum discessisset apud Tunisi, filius ejus Rex Philippus de Tunisi reveniens, et transiens per Lugdunum, requisitus ab Archiepiscopo & Capitulo memoratis, diruit iterum fortalicia, quibus dicti Cives se iterum munierant contra eos. Est igitur erroneum dubitare, an Lugdunensis Archiepiscopus Ecclesieque Lugdunensis & ejus temporalitas sint in regno, cum prædicta sint clara sic, et notoria, quod nulla possunt tergiversatione celari.

24. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum existit, quod cum Prælati vel eorum Officiales, per jurisdictionem suam spirituales impediunt et perturbant jurisdictionem temporalem notorie, sic quod negari non potest, Dominus Rex prædictus, de antiqua Consuetudine dicti regni, quia spiritualitatem Prælatorum coercere non debet, infringere potest temporalitatem talium Prælatorum, quousque cessent ab impedimento prædicto: Quod non est à jure longe remotum, cum super actionibus realibus, vel in rem scriptis, pro rebus immobilibus et temporalibus spectantibus ad quemcunque, ut super juribus quibuscunque rerum immobilium temporalium, sive possessio, sive peritio agatur, pertineat cognitio per totum regnum ad Curiam temporalem, sive illa jurisdictio temporalis ad Regem, vel Prælatos pertinet vel Barones. Cum igitur actio mihi pro vindicanda jurisdictione mea, & negandi in rem mihi competat contra eum, qui me in ea impedit, vel se in ea jus habere contempnat, vel me in ea quocunque modo perturbet; Sequitur, quod si Prælati vel Clerici me in mea jurisdictione impediunt temporali, in rem actione negotia mihi tenetur, et ipsum per eum propter hoc possumus coercere. Si ergo est notorium, non oportet quod in rem agatur, sed per facti executionem meam possessionem defendam, etiam si, si sit necesse, vel iudex superior talis impediens violentiam cohibebit, et in possessione mea vim mihi fieri prohibebit. (D. si usus fructus petatur. l. uti frui, Sect. quanquam, &c. Sect. nunc, &c. Si servit vindic. l. 2. De vi & vi armat. l. 15. vim vi; & lib. 3. 8. Cum igitur & C. uti possid. l. unica.) Cum igitur Prælati et Clerici pro rebus temporalibus immobilibus et juribus litigent et respondere teneantur in Curia Regia, de consuetudine regni notoria et de jure ut (8 Dist. Quo jure, cum similibus) Quid mirum, si Rex in dicto casu Clericum vel Prælatum coerceat, captis pignozibus temporalitatis suæ, quam Rex in casu licito iustificare potest et debet? Prælati namque et Officiales eorum per Censuram coercent Ecclesiasticam eos qui jurisdictionem eorum impediunt spirituales iniuste. Et dicto jure coercionis de quo supra diximus, Dominus Rex utitur, et tam ipse quam ejus prædecessores uti sunt, tanto tempore de cuius contrario memoria non existit.

25. Item, Certum, notorium, & indubitatum existit, quod Dominus Rex prædictus custodiri fecit, & tam ipse quam ejus prædecessores custodiri fecerunt tantis temporibus, de quorum contrario memoria non existit introitus & exitus regni, quæ custodia passuum dicitur, propter res abstrahi vetitas de regno prædicto, ut est videre de lana, billone, auro, argento, equis, armis, et etiam tempore necessitatis: maxime autem & strictius dicti passi passus custodiuntur tempore guerræ quam pacis. Et quod tempore Bonifacii, et eo ut fertur communiter procurante in parte, guerræ erant in regno prædicto, partitusque diversis, cum Rex ipse neminem invadebat, sed regnum suum solummodo defendebat; et si forsitan ex tali custodia retardentur aliqui, regnum exire volentes, sive de regno vel transeuntes, vel impediuntur in rebus velitis extrahendis, et ob hoc damnum aliquod sustineant itinerantes ad Romanam Curiam vel alibi, Rex, qui jure suo utitur, inde culpam non potest. officia committant, Regi culpa non debet imputari, dum tamen certioratus justitiam exhibeat de eisdem. Mala enim Regis electio custodum talium non potest ascribi Regi, cum ipse ponat illos quos bonos reputat, et qui boni sibi dicuntur praesidentes in officiis supradictis, qui ministros alios adhibent sibi necessarios, cum per se complere non possent; Nec est, nec unquam fuit, nec erit imperpetuum, quominus etiam sine dominorum culpa mali tales reperiantur Ministri. Nec potest ignorans Dominus reprehendi, dum tamen cum sciverit justitiam adhibeat, in cujus exhibitione justitiae Rex in defectu non fuit. Crudele foret igitur, prodigiosum et dolosum, quod dictus Rex qui nullam fecit in praemissis injuriam, inauditus, non confessus, non convictus, declaretur in sententiam Canonis incidisse, sicut dictus Bonifacius ex suo doloso proposito, non per sententiam sed per suas Epistolas faciebat. Cum etiam alii Reges terrarum, qui nimio plures Civitates & Castra in plerisque partibus simili jure utantur, quo utitur Rex Francorum praedictus; quibus jurebus, ex necessaria consuetudine dicti regni, (quae potest et debet dici vetusta) tam ipse quam ejus antecessores usi sunt continue tantis inconcussis temporibus, de quorum contrario memoria non existit, nec quicquam alteri sancti Patres, Summi Pontifices, qui dictum Bonifacium praecesserunt, unquam Regi Franciae vel aliis Principibus quaestionem moverunt de praemissis, de quibus maxime temporalibus, seu ad jus temporalitatis seu Regis Majestatis spectantibus, solum ad dictum Regem et ejus Curiam cognitio pertinet, si quis forsitan vellet super eis quaestionem referre, Cum etiam super jure Patronatus Ecclesiarum in plerisque partibus regni ad ipsum Romanum Regem et ejus Curiam cognitio pertinere noscatur, ex antiqua consuetudine praedicta. Cumque dictus Bonifacius nulli alii Principi super jurebus praemissis, vel similiter unquam moverit quaestionem. Cumque insuper inter caetera regna mundi, fidei Religio, honor, & obedientia ad sedem Apostolicam, & Romanam Ecclesiam, & Ecclesiarum libertates, atque defensio, & jurium Ecclesiarum ipsarum exhibitio, in regno Franciae observentur, et custodiantur praecipue. Cumque in regno ipso tam per Regem quam per alios, antequam dictum Papatum teneret, et post, honores et obsequia dictus Bonifacius semper receperit inter caetera regna mundi. Cum sciret insuper tempore quo fuit impetratus super haeresi et schismate per dictos Dominos Columnenses, & postea apud Regem & magnas alias personas in dicto regno, de eisdem haeresi et schismate, quaestum ut superius est narratum, & clarum, certum & indubitatum existit, quod in odium fidei Catholicae, pro defensione haeresis ejus et schismatis odium conceperat contra dictos Regem et regnum, et totis suis studiis ad eorum exterminium vigilabat, ac etiam properabat, et procedebat tam ad dictos Actus nefandos quam alios, per me Gulielmum de Plafano in viam provocationis, propositos, & adhuc alios praeter ipsos, & ad omnes in literis, seu earum tenoribus per dictos excipientes in suis scriptis productis contentos excedens, Patrum Sanctorum terminos, falsas adinventiones, & fucatos colores inveniens ad suos defendendos errores. Et sic non obstant, sed clare de calumniis et haeresi fautoria convincunt dictos excipientes, per eos proposita, et producta contra Dominum Regem praedictum; maxime cum tenores literarum dicti Bonifacii et processuum habitorum contra Dominum Regem praedictum producant, qui processus et literae, tanquam perperam et temere attentati per Bonifacium fuerunt per dictum Dominum Benedictum praedecessorem vestrum annullati, et quatinus de facto processerunt, rebocati: Quae omnia dicti excipientes noverunt & in Curia, Pater sancte, debent contineri Registris quae petimus super iis per nos inspicere & videri. Et cum contra Dominum Regem ex praemissis dicti excipientes non possint intentionem suam, ad inimicitias ostendendas fundare, multo minus adversus dictos Comites Dominum Ludovicum filium Philippi Regis Comit. Ebroic. Guidonem Com. Sancti Pauli, Johannem Droens. Com. vel adversus nos Gulielmum de Nogaretto, Gulielmum de Plafano Milites, vel alios de Regno praedicto.

Et attendite, Pater sancte, si dictus Bonifacius ex doloso proposito movebatur, cum Regi Franciae in praedictis suis literis imponebat, quod idem Dominus Rex contenderet se superiorem non habere. Quis enim quoad ea quae ad Claves regni caelorum pertinent, et fidem Catholicam et Ecclesiastica Sacramenta, Summum Pontificem et Ecclesiam Romanam sic humiliter, sic reverenter, sic debote recognoscant, sicut Rex Franciae praedictus et sui progenitores semper superioritatem hujusmodi recognoverunt? Quis alius Christianus invenitur in mundo Princeps,

After these Petitions in French in the Parchment Book in the Tower, intituled Placita Parliamenti, the same Petitions in substance, with some few Additions, are subjoynd in Latin, with this Preface.

*C*um in Parlamento Domini Regis apud Karliolum in Ollabis Sancti Hillarii Anno regni Domini Regis E. 35. proposita fuerunt petitiones per Comites, Barones, et alios Magnates, et Communitatem totius regni Anglie pro statu Coronae Regiae, necnon terrarum ipsius Regis Scotiae, Walliae, & Hiberniae, et tota Communitate praedicta, super baris nobis et intollerabilibus gravaminibus, oppressionibus, injuriis et exactionibus praefatis Comitibus, Baronibus, Magnatibus et Communitati, auctoritate et mandato Domini Papae, ac etiam per Magistrum Willielmum Testa Domini Papae Clericum, necnon ejusdem Magistrum Willielmum Commissarios, Ministros, seu Vicegerentes, et ipsos nomine illatis, multipliciter in regno et terris praedictis, prout in articulis contentis in praedictis Petitionibus qui tales sunt inseritur; videlicet, De effrenata multiplicatione Probitionum Apostolicarum, per quas parronis seu advocatis beneficiorum collatio tollitur seu praesentatio, ac demum indigentia nobles et litterati a promotione Ecclesiastica penitus excluduntur, et erit defectus Consilii in regno quantum ad ea quae ad Spiritualitatem pertinent, nec inveniantur idonei qui ad Ecclesiasticas valeant eligi praelaturas. Cultus divinus minuetur, hospitalitates et eleemosinae cessabunt, contra intentionem primariam fundatorum, Ecclesiarum jura peribunt, indestructa aedificia Ecclesiastica corrumpent, et populi devotio subtrahetur.

Item, de Decanatibus Ecclesiarum Cathedralium regni Anglie, quorum multi jam ad manus Cardinalium, et aliorum alienigenarum in ipsis Ecclesiis minime residentium debenerunt, et de exteris Decanatibus ut idem stat in proximo vert. Similiter est timendum, contra primariam Ecclesiarum ordinationem et intentionem saluberrimam fundatorum, ex quo in ipsis Ecclesiis Cathedralibus ad quorum regimen et custodiam continuam Decani propter Episcoporum absentiam salubriter fuerant instituti, multiplex inordinatio proveniet, atque defectus tam in divino obsequio hospitalitate et eleemosina, quam in correctione excessuum Ministrorum, et Domino Regi ac regno multorum periculis Consilium, qui ad ipsos Decanatus eligi consueverant penitus subtrahetur.

Item, de Religiosis domibus a variis Magnatibus pia devotione fundatis, adhiberi cultus augmentum, hospitalitatis exercitium, eleemosinarum largitionem, ipsorum

Item, de primis fructibus beneficiorum vacantium sedi Apostolicæ reservatis, quod antea fuerat inauditum; super quorum collectione, Dominus Papa interpretationes durissimas et multam præjudiciales Domino Regi et regno, ac etiam toti Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ jam de nobis edidit, sicut fertur.

Item, de denariis Sancti * Petri a progenitoribus Regis primitus sub certa forma concessis, a prima concessione sua sub eadem forma a tempore cujus non extat memoria persolutis, nunc autem contra dictam concessionem minus rationabiliter exactis, in grave dampnum Ecclesiarum et totius populi Anglicani.

Item, de legatis vel promissis pia intentione a multis in subsidium Terræ Sanctæ propter redemptionem peccatorum, per aliquos auctoritate sedis Apostolicæ improbe petitis et exactis, et in alios usus convertendis, ipsis legantibus vel promittentibus minime profecturos.

Item, de penis pecuniariis in fraudem legis barilis contractibus adjectis, et in subsidium Terræ Sanctæ promissis, quarum prætextu multæ causæ ad forum Regium pertinentes, coram Clericis Domini Papæ in Regis dignitatis præjudicium agitantur.

Item, de indistincte legatis quæ sunt approbatæ tam de jure Canonico, quam Civili, et quæ dicti Clerici Domini Papæ imple sibi approbare nituntur et in usus, ipsis defunctis quorum bona fuerant minime profecturos convertere, contra voluntatem piissimam defunctorum.

Item, cum Romana Ecclesia unum duntaxat Clericum pro suis negotiis hactenus in Angliā habere consueverat, ad expensas Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ, Dominus Papa jam, ut dicitur, quatuor Clericos ordinabit, quibus oportebit Anglicanam Ecclesiam ultra antiquam consuetudinem sumptus non modicos ministrare. Hæc omnia ad extrahendam a regno pecuniam, ad exinanitionem Ecclesiæ manifestam, et ad distandam alienigenas spoliatis indigentis, tendere dinoscuntur, nisi exurgat Deus & dissipentur inimici ejus, ut per secularem Principem, et ipsius Consilium, de consensu Procerum et Magnatum, tanta malicia reprimatur.

Super quibus oppressionum, grabaminum, et extorsionum, et injuriarum Articulis præfatus Magister Willielmus Testa quatinus ipsum contingunt in pleno Parlamento prædicto allocutus, conblatus existit, nec inde se potuit aliquo modo excusare, nisi tantum quod dicit, quod auctoritate Domini Papæ præmissa fuerat executus. Et quia facta Magistri Willielmi Testa in præmissis, si tollerarentur manifeste cederent in divini cultus diminutionem, et Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ exinanitionem, necnon in præjudicium, lachionem et exheredationem Cozonæ, potestatis, jurisdictionis et dignitatis Regis Anglicanæ, destructionemque totius Communitatis prædictæ, ac status regni, legum et consuetudinum ejusdem subversionem, quod absit, perpetuam. Et unde majora pericula possent processu temporis evenire.

Denum, consideratis periculis prædictis, ex assensu Domini Regis, ac toto Consilio Parlamento prædicti, prohibitum fuit, concordatum, ordinatum et consideratum, quod præmissa grabamina, oppressiones, injurias et extorsiones fieri non permitterentur in regno et terris prædictis. Et prohibitum est prædicto Magistro W. in Parlamento prædicto, quod de cætero contra prohibitionem, concordiam, considerationem prædictas, nec procedat, nec per se seu alium quemcumque in præmissis intromittat, vel aliquo præmissorum. Et injunctum est eidem Magistro W. quod quicquid per ipsum, Collegas, Commissarios, Ministros, Uices gerentes, aut alios quoscunque sibi adhaerentes seu intendentes attemptatum est, idem seu executum in præmissis, et quolibet præmissorum rebocet, ut cassum, irritum, et inane, et totam pecuniam per eos in hac parte lebatam, salvo custodiri fac. et secure infra regnum prædictum, quousque Dominus Rex de Consilio prædicto aliud super hoc duxerit ordinand. Et ad majorem hujus rei evidentiam ordinatum est et concordatum per Dominum Regem et Consilium prædictum, quod Runcii experti ad dictum Dominum Papam, ex parte dicti Domini Regis et totius Communitatis prædictæ transmittantur ad prædicta grabamina, oppressiones, extorsiones, et injurias notificanda et exponenda. Nuper de vestra promotionis eventu ad Apostolicam Celsitudinem dignitatis plene iocunditate gaudii replebamur, sperantes in quibuscumque dicti Regis et nostris negotiis ac utilitatibus promovendis vos patrem graciosum, benevolum et propitium habituros; nunc enim admirationis nobis non modica et querela ex ea causa consurgit, quod nos, Clerus et populus dicti regni, (veri utique Catholicae fidei praefectores, qui tanquam devotionis filii vos et Romanam Ecclesiam revere- mur, vestrique nominis et honoris fervidi zelatores) de paterna manu pro devotio- ne praegrandi, oppressiones innumeras, et grandia suscipimus detrimenta, qui po- tius sperabamus ab eis, si forsitan emergerent per vestram clementiam relevari, amplisque favoribus et uberimis gratiis praeveriri. Sane per Puncios et Mini- stros vestros in dicto regno Angliae commozantes eorumque Commissarios nos exacerbari graviter sentientes, ex materia operum eorumdem formatos malleos, experimur, quibus percutimur et contextimur multis modis et variis incessanter; et licet fidem Christianam et ea quae dilagationem cultus ipsius fidei respiciunt, et ad divinae laudis spectant obsequium per vestrum regi Ministerium teneamus, et dictam Ecclesiam cunctorum matrem fideliu et Magistrum, non tamen credi- mus, quod vestra intentionis existat, vel ad hoc suam velit extendere potestatem, ut suos et devotos et humiles filios non solum non laedat aut opprimat, vel inju- riis probocet, aut eorum jura praeripiat, vel eis in aliquo derogat; sed potius, ut a noxiis et indebitis oppressionibus custodiat et praeserbet: Et ecce sanctissime Pa- ter nimis duris acerbis et importabilibus oneribus et hactenus inauditis, quae per dictos vestros Commissarios sunt cotidie, et in dicto regno diversimode imponun- tur, quorum aliqua curabimus describere seriatim, commocio nostra nimirum et ex rationabili causa procedit. Per effrenatam autem multitudinem provisionum quae jam ad praefatum regnum a sede Apostolica emanarunt, Ordinarii Beneficio- rum collatio ad eos de jure pertinens tollitur, ac demum indigenae Nobiles et Li- terati a promotione Ecclesiastica penitus excluduntur, neque erit defectus Consilii in regno quantum ad ea quae ad spiritualitatem spectant, non inveniuntur idonei qui ad Ecclesiasticas valeant eligi praefaturas, cultus divinus minuetur, hospita- litates, et elemosinae cessabunt contra intentionem primariam fundatorum, Ecclesi- arum jura peribunt, aedificia Ecclesiastica corruent, et populi devotio subtrahetur. De Decanatibus etiam Ecclesiarum Cathedralium praedicti reant, quorum multi jam ad manus Cardinalium et aliorum alienarum in ipsis Ecclesiis minime resi- dentium debenerunt, et de ceteris Decanatibus ut idem fiat in proximo verisimi- liter est timendum, contra primariam Ecclesiarum fundationem et intentionem saluberrimam fundatorum; ex quo in ipsis Ecclesiis Cathedralibus ad quorum re- gimen gimen et Custodiam continuam Decani, propter Episcopi absentiam salubriter fuerant instituti, multiplex inordinatio proveniet, atque defectus tam in Dibino obsequio, hospitalitate et elemosina, quam in correctione excessuum Ministrorum, et Domino nostro Regi ac regno multorum peritorum Consilium qui ad ipsos eligi consueverant Decanatus penitus subtrahetur. De Religiosis vero domibus a multis et diversis Magnatibus ad dibini cultus augmentum, hospitalitatis exercitium, et elemosinarum largitionem pia devotione fundatis, in remissionem peccaminum fundatorum ipsorum, et omnium fidelium defunctorum per huiusmodi opera Caritatis, et orationes continuas faciend. redditus et proventus, sicut evidenter apparet auferre intenditis, et diversorum Cardinalium usus applicare: Nec non et vestris propriis usus primas fructus Beneficiorum vacantium in regno predicto, et aliis terris dicti Domini nostri Regis ditioni subiectis similiter referbare, * quod antea fuerat inauditum; super quorum collectione interpretationes durissimas et multum prejudiciales ipsi Domino Regi et regno, ac etiam toti Ecclesie Anglicane dicimini nobiter edidisse, validus clamor auditur; et si sustineretur, quod Dominus abertat, hæc nobitas supra modum imperpetuum, in ejusdem Domini Regis prejudicium et exheredationem ac regni depauperationem, et alimontiarum quæ sunt egenis annulationem apertissime redundaret. De denariis quoque beati Petri, * a progenitoribus predicti Domini nostri Regis primitus et ex devotione sub certa forma concessis, et a prima concessione sub eadem forma a tempore cuius non extat memoria persolutis, nunc contra concessionem predictam per Clericos et Commissarios vestros antedictos, nova sit exactio, in grave dispendium totius populi Anglicani. De Legato itaque bel præmissis pia intentione a multis in subsidium Terra Sancta pro remissione peccatorum, per aliquos auctoritate vestra petitis impube et exactis, et in usus alios conbertendis ipsis legantibus bel promittentibus infirme profuturis. Et de penis etiam pecuniariis in fraudem Legis et consuetudinis dicti regni, contractibus nonnullis adjectis in subsidium dictæ Terra Sanctæ promissis, quarum prætextu multæ causæ mere ad forum Regium pertinentes, eorum memoratis Commissariis vestris in Regis dignitatis prejudicium agitantur. Ac insuper, de indistincte legatis quæ sunt approbata supra sententiam Sapientum, tam a iure Canonico quam Civili, et a legibus et consuetudinibus memorati regni non discrepantia, sed servata; qui quidem prælibati Clerici vestri et Commissarii impii, sibi appropriare nituntur, et in usus ipsius defunctis quorum bona fuerant minime profuturis conbertere, contra voluntatem piissimam defunctorum maximum murmur surgit in regno, quæ tanquam non medicriter prejudicialia Regis dignitati et populo dicti regni, nequint aliquatenus sustineri. Ad hæc, cum Romana Ecclesia unum duntaxat Clericum pro suis negotiis hactenus in Anglia habere consueverit ad expens, Ecclesie Anglicane, jam, ut dicitur, quatuor Clerici sunt transmissi, et morantur ibidem ultra antiquas consuetudines, et ad majus onus ejusdem Ecclesie, et ulteriozis oppressionis augmentum: Et quia præmissa et quodlibet eorundem, sicut prænotatum est, ad erinantionem Ecclesie Anglicane, præfati Domini Regis exheredationem, et Cozonæ et dignitatis Regis, atque Regis enozme prejudicium, injuriam et jacturam, oppressionem pauperum, destructionem fidelium, terræ scandalum, manifeste tendere dinoscuntur; Sanditati vestræ debotæ supplicationis instantia humiliter exoramus, quatinus hiis quæ præmissimus clementi meditatione pensatis, quem non depressionem nostrum, sed nostrorum exaltationem honorum diligere confidimus et speramus, sic circa ea salubriter moderanda manum et animum Providentia vestra dignetur apponere, quod in omnibus cultu servato modestiæ, causa bel occasio non emergat, quæ nobis, (qui ipsam Ecclesiam belud matrem filialis debito devotionis prosequimur) et eidem Ecclesie, quod absit, scandalum bel turbationum inducat; quoniam non possemus, iuxta possibilitatem nostram aliquantulum tolerare, quod præfatum regnum, cui per huiusmodi Robirates et oppressiones intollerabiles miserabiliter illuditur, enervationes, dispendia, (quorum fieri nequimus expertes, quodque in suis Juribus defendere tenemur) taliter sentiat, aut sic indebite collidatur. By the precedent Letter, Articles, and Remonstrance, it then was, and now is

An. 35 E. 1. as evident as the Sun at noon-day to all the World; 1. That this Pope Clement, his Legates, Cardinals, Nuncios, Agents, (yea some of his predecessors, with most of their successors ever since) were the most sacrilegious Church-robbers, the most avaritious, pernicious, impious, scandalous, unconscionable, uncharitable, unchristian Theeves, Plunderers, Spoylers, usurpers of the Churches, Clergies, poor mens revenues, possessions, maintenance, alms, and of the undoubted Rights, Privileges of the Kings, Nobles, Prelates, and Commons of England, the most real enemies to, and underminers of Gods worship, service, piety, charity, and Christian Religion that ever the World produced: whose principal care, study, practise, was, not to feed, foster, instruct, protect the Church and people of Christ, purchased with his most precious blood according to their duties, as Christ, his Apostles, and the primitive Bishops, Popes and Ministers of the Gospel did, and enjoined them to do, but only to fleece, fley, oppresse, rob, plunder, murder, destroy them by new invented extortions and rapines, to fill their coffers with the mammon of unrighteousnesse, the only Deity they served, adored, loved, sought after in all Christian Kingdoms, especially in our own, with all their hearts, strength, might, souls: without seeking, minding the things of Jesus Christ, whose Vicars they professed themselves in their Bulls, Edicts, but absolutely contradicted, denied by their premised works.

Whiles these things were acted in the Parliament at Carlisle against the Popes Innovations and extortions; to prevent their vigorous execution by the King, * *Venit ad illud Parliamentum circa festum Cathedrae S. Dederat enim Rex Francorum, dum Vasconiam tenuerat, Castrum quod Mali Leonis dicitur, cuiusdam Militi, qui illud adhuc detinebat, nec ad mandatum Regis Francorum illud curabat restituere. Ob quam causam fertur illud matrimonium hactenus fuisse dilatum. Rediit itaque Cardinalis Londonium, ut super his certitudinem expectaret, et Ecclesias Anglicanas depilaret (his chief design.) Nam per Bullam habere voluit a cunctis Cathedralibus, Conventualibus, Regularibus et irregularibus Ecclesiis et Prioratibus, duodecim marcas sterlingorum: De Rectoriis vero octo denarios de qualibet marca. Contra hanc exactionem, appellatum est a Clero Angliae (to the King and his Council, as supreme, indifferent Judges in this case.) Et ordinatum est per Consilium Regis (against the Popes expresse Bull) istum Cardinalem non plus debet habere, quam acceperat olim Ottobonus Cardinalis, et Legatus in Angliam, scilicet dimidium postulat. Memorandum quod Dominus Rex per breve de privato sigillo suo de data apud Karlesum 26 die Aprilis, anno regni sui tricesimo quinto, mandavit venerabili patri R. London. Episcopo Cancellario suo, quod ipse diligenter faceret explorari quando aliqua Ecclesia seu Præbenda de donatione Regis, quæ esset pure de laico patronatu Regis valoris trescentarum marcarum vel circiter vacaret. Et quam cito idem Cancellarius scire poterit aliquam talem Ecclesiam vel Præbendam vacare, faciat inde literas de præsentatione seu collatione sub magno sigillo Regis in forma debita, pro venerabili patre Thoma Titulo Sanctæ Sabine Presbytero Cardinali: Et si contingat quod dicta concessio Regis compleri non possit in una Ecclesia, vel in una Præbenda, Rex vult, quod compleatur in duabus vel tribus Ecclesiis seu Præbendis de laico patronatu Regis, ut dictum est, quæ attingant ad valorem supradictum. Ita quod prædicta concessio Regis non differatur per aliquod aliud mandatum Regis.

Thus as the Pope, his Legates, Nuncios, Agents usurped upon the Rights and Prerogatives of the Crown, and Subjects Liberties on the one hand, so on the other hand our Archbishops, Bishops, Archdeacons, Officials, and Ecclesiastical Courts, from the first to the very last year of this Kings reign, perpetually encroached, usurped upon the Temporal Jurisdiction, Crown, Dignity, Courts, and his Subjects Liberties, notwithstanding all Regal Prohibitions, Attachments, Informations, and Suits against them, in highest contempt of his Sovereign Authority, Jurisdiction, Parliaments, Council, Courts, Judges, by holding Pleas of Chattels, Debts, Trespasses, Advowsons of Churches, Chappels, Lay-fee, and other causes peculiar to his Crown and Dignity; frequently Excommunicating his Officers and Subjects who brought Prohibitions to restrain their Usurpations, and Imprisoning them upon Capias Excommunicatum, on purpose to vex, discourage, or disable them to prosecute their just Actions against them, for these their d'sloyal Usurpations on the Kings Crown and Royalties, against their Oathes and Allegiance to this their Sovereign Lord. Such incorrigible Pests, grievances and Nuisances were

With what armed Lay-force and violence some Clergymen then kept possession of Prebendaries and Houses thereunto belonging, against the Kings Clerks, in affront of his Royal Authority and Title, and how the King proceeded against them thereupon, this Writ and the Return thereof will inform us.

A clear evidence of the Kings Ecclesiastical Sovereignty, to cause Lands, Rents, and Churches granted to religious and charitable uses, to be employed accordingly when subtracted, revive the uses when discontinued, to alter the original settlement for a more convenient; and force the persons entrusted to perform the designed services, as he saw just cause.

The King this year by his Sovereign Ecclesiastical Authority, granted the Advowsons of two Churches whereof he was Patron, to the Priory of Laurecost, with power to appropriate them for ever thereunto, when they should fall void; which grant although he at their request writ to the Pope to confirm, yet this his Patent was sufficient in Law to effect it, without the Popes confirmation or privy.

In conclusion * Mr. Richard Havering was approved by the King, and enjoyed the Archbishoprick almost 5. years by Apostolical dispensation. * The Annals of Ireland, p. 164.

The Bishop of Murray in Scotland, a Rebel and Enemy to King Edward the 1. adhering to Robert de Brus the Usurper, and assented to the murder of John Comyn in the Church of Dunfries, for which he and others were excommunicated by Pope Clement, flying out of Scotland into the Orkades; the King thereupon writ this Letter to the King of Norway, not to permit any of his Subjects in that Island to harbour him, or any Rebels and Traytors of Scotland, but to arrest and send them to him in safe custody, by reason of the antient amity between them; and in the mean time to enjoyn all his Subjects to avoid his company, as an Excommunicate person.

This year, * post Pascha Robertus de Brus, who usurped the Crown of Scotland, aucto jam suo exercitu, congressus cum Aymero de Valencia, ipsum compulsi in fugam, paucis de his qui erant cum eo peremptis. Infra triduum etiam sequens fugavit Comitem Gloverniz, multisque hinc inde occisis, ipsum obsedit in Castro de Arc, quousque per exercitum à Rege missum fuit obsidio dissoluta. Ex tunc autem in sequentibus cum Anglis fugit ad loca palustria & nemorosa, in quibus latibula quaritatem, comprehendere minime potuerunt. Upon the sad tidings of these disasters, Tunc Rex Edwardus missis per Angliam nunciis præcepit sub gravi poena, ut omnes qui ei debebant servitium parati essent apud Carleolum infra tres septimanas post festum Sancti Johannis Baptiste. Interea Rex grandævus vexari cepit dysenteria, & quia jam desperabat de vita diuturna misit ad filium, ut maturaret audire patris extrema colloquia. Quem inter cetera misericordem fore monebat, et iustum et affabilem iustitiam, constantem in dictis et factis, familiarem bonis, et præcipue miseris misericordiam imitari. Deinde præcepit, ne post mortem suam festinaret ad Cozonam Angliæ suscipiendam, donec paternas injurias in Scotos honorifice vindicasset, sed moraretur in partibus, et assumeret secum ossa paterna in aliquo vase reclusa, quæ secum faceret deportari, donec totam Scotiam perbagasset, et omnes superasset aduersarios vel cepisset. Quoniam (inquit) nullus te poterit superare, dum ossa mea tecum feceris deportari. Præcepit etiam, ut fratres suos Thomam & Edmundum diligeret & foveret, quorum uni, Thomæ videlicet, dederat Comitatum Cornubiæ, Edmundo vero Comitatum Mareschalli. Præterea monuit, ut matrem suam Margaretam Reginam tanquam bonum filius coleret & amaret, iussit etiam sub interminatione maledictionis suæ, ne Petrum de Gaverston communi decreto exiliatum, sine communi favore præsumeret revocare. Intimavit et quoque, quod crucem suscepisset pro negotio Terræ Sanctæ, quam proposuit personaliter adibisse, sed turbatus per molitiones Roberti de Brus nobis et variis, impeditus fuit a proposito, et bellum in Scotiam transferre coactus est, omisso negotio memorato. Triginta (inquit) et duo millia librarum argenti præparari ad exhibendum septies viginti milia honorifice in Terra Sancta cum sua familia, quia mihi non datur votum perficere in in persona propria, qui eos meum illuc deferent et reponent. Quod cum secum deponerent spero in Deo meo, omnia illis prospera successura. Precipio, ait igitur districtè, sub pena maledictionis paternæ, ne dicta pecunia in alios usus expendatur. Sed filius Regis patre defuncto nihil horum complete voluit. (As his Father, Pope Boniface 8. and Clement 4. bestowed none of the vast sums of money they imposed, collected, levied for relief of the Holy Land, to that use during their lives, but converted it to other uses, to the great delusion and abuse of those from whom they extorted it with greatest rigour, by all sorts of Ecclesiastical censures and Temporal process, as the premises abundantly evidence.)

Cum Rex Edwardus præmissis monitis, filium instruxisset & de sua postrema voluntate plenius docuisset, misit eum in Angliam, ut secundum ea quæ à Rege audires Franciæ, proficisceretur ad connubium cum ejusdem filia contrahendum. Pro qua causa parum ante in Angliam missus fuerat quidam Cardinalis, dictus Petrus Hispanus, ut pacta nuptialia confirmaret. Post decessum filii, capis Rex prout ante vexari dissentientia, movit nihilominus de Carleolo, quinto nonas Junii, parvis diebus versus Scotiam proficiscens. Pridie vero nonas Julii venit ad * Burgum super Sandes, ubi invalescente morbo, die crastina, scilicet feria sexta, præsentis vite valescens, dies suos in boro, & annos suos in Angliam consummavit. Regnavit autem annis triginta quatuor, mensibus septem, diebus viginti uno, complevitque ætatis suæ annos sexaginta octo & dies viginti. Of whom the premised Historians render us this character.

* Fuit autem in armis strenuus, bellicosus etiam & victoriosus; totam Angliam de manu Simonis de Monteforti & eidem adherentium Comitum & Baronum acquisivit; Walliam de manu Lewellini in suos usus accepit; Aquitaniam quoque de manu Regis Franciæ sapienter extorsit; Scotiam sapienter subjugavit, sed ea capta per Robertum le Brus ipse in lecto mortis jacens, ex magnanimitate cordis, jussit corpus suum ibi remanere insepulchrum, & deferri in exercitum donec tota Scotia esset finaliter subjugata, de quo quidam sic scripsit:

Dum vixit Rex, & valuit tua magna potestas,
Fraus latuit, pax magna fuit, regnavit honestas.

Post Principis prædicti decessum, venerabilis pater Dominus Petrus Hispanus Cardinalis, (who continued in England to collect his Procurations) & Clerus Angliæ, cunctisque regni Nobiles qui interesse poterant, obviam corpori undique occurrerunt solennes processiones, ad quas venerat, per Ecclesias faciendo. Requirit autem corpus venerabile inhumatum in Ecclesia Canonicorum de Waltham usque in diem sepultura sua, scilicet per sexdecim septimanas, per quod tempus ex mandato Executorum Regis illuc destinati sunt de Angulis magnis Monasteriis vicinis in circuitu hebdomadatim sex Monachi seu Canonici, vel alii Religiosi, qui circa corpus vigiliis facerent et exequias solemniter continuarent, non sine gratis laboribus et expensis. Nec cuiquam licebat recedere donec arbitrio Executorum licentia fuisset. Cardinalis autem (according to the absurd superstition of that sottish age) indulget ventam annis annis omnibus dicentibus orationem Dominicam cum salutatione Angelica pro anima dicti Regis, (to which end neither of them had or could have the least relation or efficacy.) Cumque à festo translationis Sancti Thomæ Martyris usque ad festum Apostolorum Simonis & Judæ jacuisset inhumatum corpus regium, tandem ipso die Apostolorum apud Westm. est sepulchrum, patre venerabili Antonio Patriarcha Jerosolymitano & Dunelmensi Episcopo missam celebrante, & extremas exequias faciente.

COURTEOUS Readers; Having some Vacant time the last Summer Vacation to peruse all the Bundles of Writs and other Records long interred in Dust and Cobwebs in a Confused Heap in the White Tower, so farr as to separate those of most use during the reign of King Edward the 1. from his Predecessors and Successors, and transcribing those relating to my present Historical Vindication; before I could compleat that painfull, troublefom, sordid work, which none else would undertake, or assist me in, near 25. years of his reign in this Tome were finished at the Presse. Upon which account, I thought fit to annex all such Writs of Prohibition, Epistles, Bulls, and other Records relating to those years, pertinent to my Historical Vindication, which I have since discovered, as a Supplemental Appendix thereunto, in a Chronological Order, referring each of them to their proper places, to which their expresse dates or other circumstances where the dates are wanting, direct me; together with the pages, lines where they may be most properly inserted in the next Edition.

Reverendissimo Domino suo, & in Christo dilectissimo, Domino E. Dei gratia Regi Anglia, Dom. Hibernia, & Duci Aquit. Sanctorum minimus, frater R. de Kylewardby, salutem, sospitatem, et prosperitatem continuam. Excellentie vestre mandatum per Dominum Stephanum de Penecestr. suscepi apud Raculur. feriâ tertiâ Assumptionis beatæ Mariæ, per quod evidenter intellexi, quod Comes Warren. & sui, vos et Consilium vestrum contra me catergit perturbare, (ignorantes causam quare) contra me et Cantuar. Ecclesiam injustissimè commoventur. Petivistis (Domine mi) quod sententiam quam tuli in Ministros dicti Comitis, revocem, et a querela, contra ipsos concepta, supersedeam, et contra ipsum Comitem aut suos nihil attemptem, usque ad Parlamentum; bideoz enim et iudicor. Regiam dignitatem vestram continere, et quod vestris Prohibitionibus dissimulo obedire. Ista, ni fallor, fuerint mihi ex parte vestre Excellentie proposita, quibus suppliciter sicut Domini mei verbis respondeo; Quod nullam in dictum Comitem vel suos quatinus Ministri sui, sententiam (promulgavi) nec contra vestram adhuc aliquid feci Prohibitionem; sed pro reberentia vestra stui in hoc supersedere, donec vobiscum colloquium habuerio, si hoc concesserit Rex aternus. Quid autem egerim contra quosdam dicti Comitis ministeriales, inevitabili necessitate compulsum, vobis fidenter expono; viz. quod quandam sententiam Excommunicationis in quosdam ejus Ministros a predecessore meo nominatim expressos latam, multis inonitionibus et expectatione plusquam biennali interpositis, antequam mihi de hac materia scriberetis, mandavi publice denunciari. Ita quod sic per sententiam Predecessoris excommunicari denuncientur. Idud, Domine mi, cum conscientia bona revocare non possum; tum quia subditi mei sunt, et rite ligati sunt; tum quia populus eis communicat cum suo periculo; tum quia propriam et aliorum damnationem contemnunt, claves Ecclesie contemnendo; quorum nullum, nisi cum proprio periculo, potero sustinere. Expressi vobis facti mei veritatem, de cæteris differens, donec (si Deus voluerit) vestro frui colloquio mihi detur. Denique devotè supplico, quod non sitis mihi formidini, qui, secundum spem meam et vestrum debitum, mihi debebitis esse clypeus et tutamen. Satellites enim Comitis jugiter vestra terent limina, & Milites & Consiliarios vestros fautores habent; (ut dicitur) qui faciliter forsthan vos contra vestrum sacerdotem satagunt probocare: quod tamen nec volo de omnibus intelligi, nec pro certa veritate haberi. An. 4 E. 1. illustrium Regam Anglia sibi, Ecclesie sue et successoribus suis imperpetuum tenendo, et per novam confirmationem Domini sui Regis impofterum pacifice observanda, dabit Trecentas Marcas.

The King upon this Archbishops Petition sent a Writ to his Chief Justice of Ireland, to inquire by an Inquest of 12 Jurors, whether it would be to the damage of the Archbishop, for the King in his own fee to erect a prison in Cassell, or no? which he delivering to him in the presence of the Council with his own hand, the Chief Justice caused a jury to be impannelled, who found upon Oath, that it was no damage at all to the Archbishop, but a benefit to him, the King and the whole Country, to erect a prison there; upon receipt whereof, the King commanded a Prison to be there built; At which this insolent undutifull Archbishop was so incensed, that he denounced a sentence of Excommunication against the Chief Justice, the Kings Escheator, the Popes Chaplain, and all others, except the King, Queen, and their Children, who were ayding, assisting, or advising in the erection of this Prison, and likewise interdicted his whole Diocese and Province, in high prejudice and contempt of the Kings Crown and Royal dignity, to the great disturbance of the Peace of Ireland; and withall sent his Proctors to Rome to procure the Popes ratification of this his Excommunication and Interdict, till the Prison were demolished. To prevent which, the Chief Justice and Popes Chaplain appealed against this Sentence and Interdict to the Pope, certifying the Chancellor, Bishop of Bath and Wells, of these proceedings, and advising him to send Proctors speedily to Rome, to prevent his dangerous proceedings and designs against the King, as this Letter of the Popes Chaplain to the Chancellor (which I found in the White Tower Chappel) will at large inform us.

From. le Brun, Domini Papæ Capellanus, salutem, & quicquid potest & poterit obsequii, reverentia & honoris. Usus & necessitas hoc inducunt, ut vel ad Dominos amicos ut consulant, vel ad medicos ut curent confugiant vulnerati. Ea profecto ratione venerandæ Paternitati vestræ duxi non sine cordis angustia referenda ea, quæ per Archiepiscopum Cassalen. in Regiæ dignitatis gravissimam læsionem, et etiam in Domini Justiciarii Capitalis, et omnium aliorum qui sunt de Consilio Domini Regis, dispendium non modicum et gravamen, sunt his diebus enozimè attemptata. Sanè vestram Paternitatem creditur non latere, qualiter præfatus Archiepiscopus, cum jam ultimo esset in Anglia, à Domino Rege quasdam literas impetravit, directas Domino Gulfrido de Geymull Justiciario Hiberniæ, et (si bene percolo) continentes, ut idem Justiciarius inquireret, utrum esset ad nocumentum et dampnum ipsius Archiepiscopi & Ecclesiæ sue Cassalensis, vel non, si Prisons Domini Regis per Dominum Jacobum de Audelegh tunc Justiciarium Hiberniæ inchoata super Laicum secundum ipsius Domini Regis in Villa de Cassal. perficeretur? Quas quidem literas cum prædictus Archiepiscopus præfato Justiciario in Scaccario Dublin. omnibus de Consilio tunc præsentibus, liberasset propria manu sua, idem Justiciarius Domini sui mandatis obtemperans, prædictam Inquisitionem, juxta quod habuit in mandatis, fieri fecit per totius Patriæ fidedigniores, & omni exceptione majores; per quam compertum fuit, quod nullum fieret nocumentum vel dampnum ipsi Archiepiscopo vel Ecclesiæ sue prædictæ, si perficeretur Prisons prædicta; sed quod ejusdem Prisons constructio potius cederet ad commodum ipsius Archiepiscopi et Ecclesiæ sue, et ad profectum et bonum pacis totius Terræ non modicum. Cum autem idem Dominus Justiciarius ipsam Inquisitionem sub Sigillo suo ipso Domino Regi misisset, et idem Dominus Rex ea audita et intellecta eidem Justiciario suo literatorie remandasset, quod dictam Prisons levari et perfici faceret, ac idem Justiciarius mandatum illud confestim executioni debitæ commendasset, præfatus Archiepiscopus occasione constructionis Prisons prædictæ nimio furore succensus in præfatum Dominum Justiciarium, Magistrum J. de Sannford Escheatorem, et in me, necnon (exceptis duntaxat ipso Domino Rege, et Domina Regina, ac ipsorum liberis) in omnes illos qui ad ipsam Prisons construendam auctoritatem, consilium et auxilium præstiterunt, excommunicatio-

nis sententiam solminabit; et (quod deterius est et gravior) suam Diocessim interdicto supposuit, decrebitque eidem interdicto ceteras Diocesses totius sue Provincie supponendas. Unde cum ab ipsis sententiis erroris, et etiam errorem intolerabilem continentibus, antequam lata fuerant, pro statu Domini Regis, et etiam pro statu ipsius Justiciarii sui et omnium aliorum familiarum et ministrorum suorum, necnon pro statu populi ad sedem Apostolicam fuerit appellatum. Placeat Sanctitati vestre, ut cum Clericus & Procurator, quem prefatus Dominus Justiciarius ex parte Domini Regis pro appellatione predicta prosequenda ad Curiam Romanam destinare proponit, ad ipsius Domini Regis presentiam et vestram accesserit, tale consilium in premissis procuratoris apponi, quod ipsius Archiepiscopi tam presumptuosum et detestabile factum non transeat impunitum. Illi siquidem vertatur in dubium, quin idem Archiepiscopus, ut, quoad viderit, prefato Domino Regi et omnibus suis, ac toti terrae sue Hiberniae inferre non desinet dampna et dispendia quantumcunque machinari poterit graviora, ut in hoc facto succumbere videatur. Ceterum quia prefatus Archiepiscopus statim postquam tulerat sententias supradictas, ad impetrandam earum confirmationem, ad Curiam Romanam suos Procuratores et Sanctos destinabit, multum expectaret, quod Procuratores Domini Regis in eadem Curia essent per ipsam Dominum Regem super hoc cum omni festinantia premuniti; ne huiusmodi confirmatio absque contradictione transiret. Pro Deo istud negotium, quod arduissimum in Hibernia reputatur, tanto diligentius ipsi Domino Regi exponere dignemini, ipsi animantes ut illud exequi faciat cum effectu, quanto majus dampnum et dedecus ipsi Domino Regi et suis perpendere poteritis imminere, si prefatus Archiepiscopus suum propositum in hac parte valeat adimplere, quod Deus advertat. Alii siquidem, ut multi referunt, accidit, quin huiusmodi Interdictum grave discidium subsequatur, de quo non mediocriter est timendum cum jam nonnulli tam Anglici quam Hibernici occasione ipsius Interdicti ad maiorem efficiantur, ut dicitur prolixius. Valeat Paternitas vestra in Domino per tempora longiora.

After which follows a Declaration in French of the Kings antient right to Wales, the Homage, Fealty, and services due unto him for it, his former demand of them from Lewellin, his refusal to perform them, or appear at the Kings Parliament upon summons, his acts of Hostility and Rebellion, his contempts of the recited admonitions and Excommunications of the Archbishops and their Suffragans, and disobedience both to the Church and King; whereupon the King, Prelates, and Nobles assembled in Parliament, resolved to raise an Army and reduce him to obedience; which was accordingly executed, the King taking his Castles, and wasting his Mannors, Country with fire and sword. Whereupon, * circa Natale Domini Lewellinus accessit ad Regem, misericordiam, non iudicium petens. Accepit ergo homagium et fidelitatem de potentioribus Wallensium Rex Edwardus, eorum Principem Lewellinum usque Westmonasterium secum ducens, à quo quinquaginta millia marcarum recipis præ manibus, & pacto firmato de mille marcis singulis annis ad Scaccarium Westmonasterii persolvendis pro Insula de Anglesea, & pro parte Snau-dunæ, vocalem Principem diligenter instructum, ad partes easdem redire permisit; succedentes suos Principatus nomine, sententialiter semper præbens, alias terras Walliz, quas nuper adquisierat, sibi & successoribus suis Anglorum Regibus reservans.

The Kings Bayliff in Vascoin injuring the Archbishop of Bourdeaux, in seising the Goods of the Church during the vacancy, he thereupon sent this Letter of complaint against him to King Edward, to right the Church, according to his Royal duty, protesting his loyalty to him therein.

How turbulent the Clergymen in Vascony and Aquen were this year, and how they slew the Mayor of Aquen who would have suppressed their tumult, this certificate to King Edward will inform us. An. 4 E. 1.

Immensæ Excellentiæ vestræ significat Willielmus Remundi Denfrances Civis Aquensis, quod cum in Aquensis Civitate inter Clericos magna esset discordia, Senescallus Vasconia sua propria voluntate statuit, quod omnes laici essent sub incurremento corporum et bonorum, qui de dicta discordia se intromiserint: Et cum quadam die Major Aquensis, volens seperare brigam dictorum Clericorum fuerit interfectus, & de ipsius morte in villa magnus fuerit rumor, & inter plures ad huiusmodi locum venientes, Petrus du Frances frater dicti Willielmi Remundi, tanquam ille cui mors dicti Majoris multum sibi specialius displicuit, accessit ad locum ubi ipsum mortuum fuisse, non tamen ad intromittendum de brigâ prædicta Clericorum. Post hæc autem dictus Petrus timens sibi occasione statuti prædicti, non occasione alterius accessus, se ab amicis suis absentavit, de cuius absentia dictus Willielmus Remundi & merito multum dolet. Quare vestræ piæ dominationi humiliter supplicat, quatinus à inclito Rege procurare dignemini, ut non obstante statuto prædicto dicto fratri suo miserando huiusmodi adventum remittat; cum dictus Petrus à nemine sit accusatus de huiusmodi eventu, & sit paratus juxta fores & consuetudines patriæ omnibus stare juri; & cum Inquisitio facta fuerit per Præpositum Aquensem, & per ipsam Inquisitionem dictus Petrus de superius narratis non fuerit accusatus nec inculpatus.

In the same bundle I met with this Certificate of the Bishop of Durham to King Edward, of the contest between the Priors and Covents of Pontefract and Bretton about the Election of the Prior of Bretton, and of the Popes definitive sentence given therein, committed to the Bishop of Durham to put in execution, and how he had executed it accordingly:

Excellentissimo Principi Domino suo, Domino E. Dei gratia illustri Regi Anglia, &c. E. ejusdem permissione Episcopus Dunelmensis, salutem, & prosperos ad vota successus, in eo per quem Reges regnant & Principes dominantur. Quia pium est veritati testimonium perhibere, vestræ Regiæ Majestati notum facimus per præsentem, quod olim inter Priorem & Conventum de Pontefract ex parte una, & Priorem & Conventum de Bretton ex altera, coram Summo Pontifice super jure eligendi Priorum in ipso Prioratu de Bretton, orta materia contentionis, tandem pro Monachis de Bretton distincta sententia per Dominum Summum Pontificem fuit lata, in executionem — & Dunelm. Episcopis sub alternatione propriis nominibus non expressis existit demandata; cujus auctoritate prædecessor noster per præfatum Priorem de Pontefract & quasdam certas personas de ipso Conventu præmissis monitionibus excommunicavit, eo quod parere mandatis Apostolicis contempserunt. In qua quidem sententia adhuc damnabiliter perseverant, nec ultra procedere poterat, eo quod dictus Prior de Pontefract et complices sui fratrem Willielmum de Ryhale Procuratorem Prioratus de Bretton ceperunt, et ipsum extra regnum Anglia transferentes, carcerali custodia manciparunt; qui à carcere liberatus, erga nos instanter inlinuat, quod prædecessor noster per sedem Apostolicam fuerat demandatum, et ab eodem efficaciter inchoatum, ad finem perducere, ob reuerentiam sedis Apostolicæ curaremus; præsertim, cum dignitati dictæ executionis demandata fuerat, non personarum. Nos vero mandatis Apostolicis rebotenter obedire volentes in omnibus ut tenemur, discretis viris Archidiacono Ebor. & Magistro Alano de Essingwald, divisim, mandavimus, ut ipsi mandatum Apostolicum, et ea, quæ in ipso continebantur, diligenter exequerentur: qui præfatum fratrem Willielmum de Ryhale, Procuratorem dicti Prioratus de Bretton, in possessionem domus de Bretton cum pertinentiis auctoritate Apostolica induxerunt, contradiatores et rebelles excommunicationis sententia compescentes. Et sic præfatus frater Willielmus auctoritate Apostolica dictam domum tenet et possidet, juxta tenorem sententiæ Domini Papæ et executionis ejusdem nobis plenius demandatæ; per quam quidem sententiam

Cum Wintoniensis Ecclesia, quæ progenitorum vestrorum illustrium Regum Anglia beatorum largitionibus habundanter fundata esse dinoscitur, ac speciali privilegiorum prærogativa extiterit insignita, adeo diebus istis crebris tuncionibus ac continuis calamitatibus depressa fuerit et collapsa, quod propter hoc ad vestrum patrocinium recurrere cogitur, iterato ob ingruentiam miserationum suarum et improbitatem Episcopi sui plus debito in ipsam sapientia, in tantum quod præsentis hebdomada, quæ omnibus Christianis ob gratiam Sancti Spiritus celebris tam jure poli quam soli libera debuit esse et quieta, in prædictam Ecclesiam non erubuit desistere; statum ejusdem tam in temporalibus quam in spiritualibus turbando, et etiam in deterius subvertendo: quod conficitur ab ipso Episcopo esse factum, quia ad vestrum tutamen jamdudum pro suis oppressionibus ab ipsa Ecclesia est condolatum. Quapropter, rogamus illustrem Magnificentiam vestram lacrimis et gemitibus cordis profluentibus, quod in his afflictionibus et oppressionibus intolerabilibus Ecclesie vestre subvenire dignetur Regia vestra auctoritas circumspecta; et, si placet, quod concepistis liberaliter in affectu, reducere velitis ad effectum: Valeat dignissima Excellentia vestra per tempora longiora. In the same Bundle, I found this Certificate of the Abbot of Waltham, appointed Conservator by the Pope of the Privileges of the Abbey and Monks of St. Albani, of his Excommunication in a summary way of certain persons who had defamed the Abbot and Monks, in obedience to the Popes command, for which obedience he beseecheth the King, that he would do nothing to the prejudice of the Churches Liberties, which he ought to defend, and that he might suffer no prejudice for his proceedings herein.

An. 6 E. 1. Page 223. l. 4. after Priviledges, insert] In a Bundle of Writs, Letters and Privy Seals I discovered in the White Tower Chappel, Anno 6 E. 1. (Seven years before the Statute of Westminster 2. ch. 5.) I found these two memorable Writs, asserting, First, That by the Law and Custom of the Realm in that age, no lapse incurred against Patrons of Churches after Incumbents deaths, untill after six months from the day they had notice thereof, and not from the very day of their deaths. 2ly. That the six months, or half year, was to be computed by six Kalendar months, not 28. dayes to the month, as the Canons and Prelates would interpret it. 3ly. That the Bishops refusal to admit a Clerk upon a Judgement given in the Kings Court for the Patron, upon a pretence of a lapse by the Canon Law, was against the Law and Custom of the Realm, yes a manifest prejudice to, and contempt against the Kings Crown and Dignity. 4ly. That Archbishops ought to be most zealous supporters, not underminers and contemners of the Laws and Customs of the Realm, and the Kings Royal Dignity.

Edwardus Dei gratia Rex, &c. venerabili in Christo patri W. eadem gratia Ebor. Archiepiscopo Anglia Primati, salutem. Literas vestras nuper recepimus, continentes, quod voluntati brevis nostri de iudicio, vobis pro Comitissa Albemarl. directi, super Advocatione Ecclesie de Briggesham vestre jurisdictionis, adquiescere non potestis juxta jura, eo quod antequam ad vos predictum breve pervenisset, Commissarius generalis Archidiaconi Richemund. (infra cujus Archidiaconatum Ecclesia existit antedicta) intelligens, tempus conferendi predictam Archidiacono Domino suo, tanquam loci Ordinario, esse auctoritate Concilii de. voluntum, predictam Ecclesiam Magistro Rogero de Merton contulit vice sua; ob quod presentatum predictae Comitisse (predicto Rogero, qui est memoratam Ecclesiam taliter assecutus, judicialiter non amoto, ut videtur) admittere non potestis nec debetis. Quibus intellectis, et habito super hoc cum * Concilio tractatu, perpendimus evidenter, predictum Commissarium ad collationem ipsius Ecclesie contra iustitiam et officii sui debitum processisse, et vos, predictas Archidiaconum et Commissarium executionem iudicii predicti indebite deferre et impedire; maxime, cum predicta Comitissa, dictae Ecclesie Patrona, quam citius Ecclesiam illam vacare credebatur, Clericum suum vobis presentasset ad eandem, et infra tempus semestre a die notitiae suae vacationis ejusdem Ecclesie presentationem suam ad ipsam Ecclesiam in Curia nostra per considerationem ejusdem Curiae recuperasset; cum insuper eidem Comitisse per vos aut predictum Archidiaconum vel Commissarium de vacatione predicta nunquam aliquo denuntiatum fuisset, licet ad vos vel ad ipsos priusquam ad ipsam Comitissam inde certitudo pervenisset: propter quod eidem Comitisse tempus in hac parte lapi, seu predicto Archidiacono, vel eius Commissario, ius Ecclesiam illam taliter conferendi non potuit deholvi. Unde, cum Ecclesia predicta per vos & vestros subditos sic incumbretur, & executio iudicii predicti per vos & ipsos contra legem et consuetudinem regni, in Regis dignitatis nostrae praesudicium et contemptum manifestum taliter inferatur et impediatur, de quo miramur quamplurimum, praesertim cum vos iustitiae nostrae, et eorum maxime quae ad Coronam et Dignitatem nostram pertinent, zelatores praecipuos reputemus; et, ut satis notis, quod ad iudicia in Curia nostra secundum legem et consuetudinem Regni nostri predicti frustra procederetur, nisi eorundem in suo casu debite fierent executores; Vobis consulendo mandamus, quod cum praemissa manifesta sunt & notoria, Ecclesiam predictam (prout ad hoc tenemini) deincumbzari, et ea, quae super praemissa (iustitiae vel iuris ordine non observata) per vos et subditos vestros praedictos sunt attemptata, corrigi, et executionem iudicii predicti sine dilationis incommodo (iudicio loci vestri non expectato, cum id ad vos non pertinet in hac parte) fieri factatis, juxta tenorem W. edis nostri de iudicio superdicto, quod inde recepistis.

Cum Robertus de T. nuper per quandam Affisam ultimae Presentationis, quam per Breve nostrum arram, versus C. de Ecclesia de B. vacante, & ad suam presentationem spectante, ut dicebat, advocationem illius Ecclesie disrationaverit in Curia nostra, & per Breve nostrum de iudicio demum vobis obtinuerit demandari, quod ad presentationem suam idoneam personam admitteretis ad Ecclesiam superdictam; Vos, (ut accepimus) lapsis et computatis singulis diebus a morte

Restozis

Rectoris Ecclesie illius, usque ad numerum octies viginti et octo dierum continue sequentium, quæ sex menses facere videntur; afferentes, collationem prædictæ Ecclesie, auctoritate Concilii, ratione lapsus huiusmodi semestris temporis, ad eos ea vice legitime fuisse debolutum, idoneam personam ad mandatum nostrum prædictum et ad præsentationem prædicti R. admittere distulisse ad eandem; in eisdem R. præiudicium et exheredationem manifestam. Positur quia in vacationibus Ecclesiarum secundum legem et consuetudinem hactenus obtentam et usitatam in regno nostro, huiusmodi tempus semestris computari debet, non a die mortis Rectoris, sed a die scientiæ Patroni usque ad sex menses completos, non iuxta numerum dierum singulorum, sed iuxta numerum sex mensium, qui menses in Calendario computantur, eundem R. præsentatione sua ad Ecclesiam illam indebitè defraudari nolentes; Nobis mandamus, sicut alias mandavimus, quod ad præsentationem prædicti R. idoneam personam admittere non differatis ad Ecclesiam supradictam. Teste, &c.

An. 6 E. 1.

These memorable Writs, most excellently explain the tempus semestre in the * Statute of Westminster 2. ch. 5. (made 7. years after them) justify the concurrent resolution in Catesbyes Case, Cookes 6 Report, f. 62. Yea fully refute the common error of later times, that in cases of Vacancy by death, the 6 months shall be computed from the day of the Incumbents death, not from the day of the Patrons first Notice thereof; which the Writ out of Justice Walmesleys Book in the reign of King Edward the 2d. recited in Catesbyes Case, (concurring with these here cited) doth likewise refell.

* See here, p. 332, 333, 334.

In a Bundle of Petitions to the King, which I rescued from rubbish in the White Tower, I found this Petition of the Dean of Norwich against the Constable of the Castle there, for prohibiting him to exercise his Jurisdiction in cases of adultery and fornication within the fee of the Castle, which his predecessors exercised, and the Constables had in time of warre usurped to themselves, to the prejudice of the Churches Jurisdiction, and mens souls.

Henricum Sampson Decanus Norwicensis. dicit & proponit, quod Decani dictæ Civitatis plenam habebant Jurisdictionem Ecclesiasticam in feodo Castri Norwici, usque ad tempus guerræ Dominus Philippus Marmyun Constabularius Castri Norwici illam Jurisdictionem tempore guerræ occupavit, et fecit correctiones in Castro prædicto de adulteriis et fornicationibus, et certis criminibus. Vic. postea dixerunt, quod Dominus Rex est in possessione Jurisdictionis. nec permittunt Decanum debitas facere correctiones et adulterii et fornicarii de Civitate, quando impetrantur in feodo Castri immunitatem consecuntur; in suarum periculum animarum, et Ecclesiasticæ libertatis præiudicium: Unde petit remedium.

Bundle Petitionum An. 6 E. 1. in Turri London.

In the same Bundle I met with this Complaint to the King by Hugh Derby Clerk, against the Bishop of Imalac in Ireland, for casting the Kings Letters in contempt to the ground, which he delivered him, to exempt himself from his personal residence in the said Church; vexing, oppressing, and injuring them the more for the Kings Letters; before whom he prayed he might be summoned personally to appear, to answer these contempts.

Exponit Excellentie vestre Hugo de Derby Capellanus Domini A. Biks Rector Ecclesie de Nartherlath Imalacen. Dioc. Quodcum vos literas vestras deprecatorias ad Episcopum Imalacen. pluries mandaveritis, quod dictum Rectorem ob reverentiam vestri recommendatum haberet, nec ipsum ad residentiam compelleret in eadem Ecclesia faciendam, in qua perpetuum vicarium habet Rector prædictus; Idem Episcopus literas vestras sibi nomine dicti Rectoris præsentatas prosequit in terram; et dixit, quod propter prædictas literas pejora et graviora sibi irrogaret, et faceret irrogare; et multa alia sinistra in contemptum vestri proculit manifestum. Et hiis non contentus, quendam Capellanum qui de quadam Capella a prædicta Ecclesia dependente auctoritate ordinaria amotus fuerat (iustitia mediante) ad eandem Capellam intrussit, in prædicti Rectoris præiudicium et gravamen. Unde supplicat, ut super hoc sibi dignemini competens remedium adhibere, faciendo (si placet)

The King upon the Archbishop of Ardmab Petition, issued these Writs to the Chief Justice of Ireland, to assign him Justices for the delivery and recovery of the rights of his Church, not to grieve him with amerciaments, and to do him speedy Justice from month to month.

Bundela Petitionum, An. 6 E. 1.

Justic. Hibernia salutem. Quia vobis injunximus, ut cum venerabilis pater Archiepiscopus Ardmab. Thernia Primas, Aura Ecclesie sue prosequi aut defendere vellet, certos sibi Justiciarios assignaretis: Vobis mandamus firmiter injungentes, quatinus cum idem Archiepiscopus, quem cum gratia et favore in suis agendis fovere desideramus, coram vobis vel dictis Justiciariis sibi assignandis amercari contigerit, ita sibi sitis propitii, quod in exactione amerciamenorum nullatenus se sentiat gravatum; & quæ ab eo fuerint exigenda & accipienda, quousque, à nobis speciale receperitis mandatum, nullatenus exigi permittatis, &c. Et hoc idem Justiciariis vestris Itinerantibus necnon & sibi assignand. præcipiatis. Dat. &c.

Illustr. Reg. Anglia Primogen. Justiciario suo Hibernia, vel ejus locum tenenti, salutem. Venerabilem patrem Archiepiscopum Ardmab. Hibernia Primatem, pro nostris viribus volentes à gravaminibus præservare, et Ecclesie Ardmab. patrionii et terrarum alienationem satis (ut asseritur) injuste miserie læcrimabili compatiens; Vobis mandamus firmiter injungentes, quatenus cum eundem Archiepiscopum suo aut Ecclesie sue nomine experire seu agere aut defendere contigerit, utiles ac necessarios sibi Justiciarios ac Judices assignetis; assignand. sibi Justiciariis dantes in mandatis nihilominus, ut celerem eidem Archiepiscopo Ardmab. justitiam scilicet de mense in mensem faciant, cum gratia & favore, providentes, quod in Drogheda vel alias loco competentis sibi infra limites sue provincie occasione contentions ortæ ipsum & Archiepiscopum Dublinensem et Casselen. Justiciarios hujusmodi sibi assignetis. Valet. Dat. &c.

The particular Petitions of the Archbishop of Ardmab to the King on the behalf of his Church (in the same Bundle) were these ensuing.

In eadem Bundela Petitionum, in Turri London, An. 6 E. 1.

Licet Ecclesia Ardmab. inter omnes Ecclesias Hibernia in rebus & possessionibus ac libertatibus, antiquis temporibus magis fuerit abundans; modo tamen per oppressiones malorum, ac per imperitiam quorundam Archiepiscoporum ad tantam devenit paupertatem, quod qui pro tempore fuerit, detestetur Archiepiscopus nuncupari; propter quod etsi placitum detentoribus terrarum dictæ Ecclesie movere vellemus, timore tamen amerciamenorum Curie vestre hoc facere non audemus. Unde supplicamus Excellentie vestre, quatinus si contingat nos alios implacitare, vel ab aliis implacitari, & subcubuerimus, vel aliquo modo defaultam fecerimus, quod vestra Dominatio certum amerciamenrum nunc velit statuere, ultra quod Justiciarii vestri à nobis nil exigere audeant; vel saltem eis mandetur, quod à nobis nil exigant, quousque a vobis aliud receperint in mandatis, Cum facultates Ecclesie nostræ in terra pacis hujus ad Centum libras se extendant. Forma vero gratie quam fecistis Prædecessori nostro hic pender.

Item, cum quædam partes sint Hybernie, ad quas nisi Crucem nostram basularem, sine præjudicio Juris Primatiz Ecclesie Ardmab. accedere nullatenus possemus; qua de causa nullus prædecessorum nostrorum ad illas partes usque ad hæc tempora aliquo modo personaliter accessit; Vestre Dominationi supplicamus, quatenus mandetur Justiciariis vestris, quod non plus ad talia loca vocentur, quam vocaverunt prædecessores nostros; Sed ad ea quæ sine præjudicio dictæ Ecclesie accedere valeamus in quibuscunque negotiis seu causis personaliter velint vocare. Et sciat Excellentia vestra (Domine Rex) quod ad quemcunque locum minor nuntius Justiciariorum vestrorum nos ad commodum & honorem vestrum vocaverit, dum tamen sine præjudicio perpetuo Ecclesie nostræ possumus accedere, libenter accedemus. Forma vero gratie quam fecistis prædecessori nostro circa hoc hic hic pender, quam gratiam nos similiter petimus nobis fieri (si placet) ad voluntatem Regis. An. 6 E. 3.

Item, cum ante introitum Anglicorum in Hyberniam, Ecclesia Ardmab fuerit in possessione recipiendi Temporalia tempore vacationis omnium Episcopatum Provincie Ardmab; & licet processu temporis per incuriam & negligentiam quorundam Archiepiscoporum, ballivi vestri possessionem temporalium quorundam Episcopatum sic vacantium, in prejudicium Ecclesie nostrae sint ingressi, adhuc tamen Ecclesia nostra Ardmab est in possessione Temporalium quorundam Episcopatum vacantium, in quorum possessione fuit dicta Ecclesia non solum ante ingressum Anglicorum, sed post ingressum ipsorum usque in hunc diem. Quare Excellentie vestre supplicamus, quatenus mandetur Justiciariis vestris, ne nos seu Ecclesiam nostram saltem super possessione nostra in praedictis Ecclesiis, in quarum possessione fuerunt haecenus Praedecessores nostri, & hodie sumus, molestant. Et sciatis, Domine reverende, quod nos peteremus possessionem nostram nobis reformari Ecclesiarum, videlicet quas nunc tempore vacationis quo ad temporalia possidetis, si speraremus apud Excellentiam vestram exaudiri. R. Quod Justicie ad. &c.

Item, cum Thesaurarius vester in Hybernia petat quaedam amerciamenta à nobis quae tempore trium Archiepiscoporum praedecessorum nostrorum nunquam fuerunt petita, nec ipsis viventibus (prout intellexerimus) extiterant taxata. Excellentie vestre supplicamus, quatenus mandetur Justiciario vestro vel ejus locum tenenti, quod à talium amerciamentorum exactione desistat: vel saltem Dominatio vestra de gratia speciali nobis dicta amerciamenta velit remittere. R. Scribarur Justicie, &c. Rex petsonat ei ea quae non fuerunt taxata super sitibus praedecessoribus suis, ita quod ea quae tax. &c.

Item, cum Ecclesia nostra Ardmab ab antiquis temporibus fuerit in possessione cujusdam Libertatis in tenemento de Carmunsechi, quod dicitur Wreck; ac nunc Ballivi vestri, licet raro talis casus contingat, se intromittant: Excellentie vestre supplicamus, quatenus mandetur Justiciariis vestris, quod inquirent, si aliquis praedecessorum nostrorum antiquitus habuit dictam Libertatem quae dicitur Wreck; & si invenerint aliquem praedecessorum nostrorum ipsam habuisse, nos permittant eadem libertate pacifice gaudere. R. Ostendit Jus coram Justicie, Hybernia, & Regem.

Item, cum nos quoddam Manerium in medio perversae gentis situm à quodam Milite ad opus Ecclesie nostrae de novo emerimus, ac ibidem Castrum quoddam ad resistendum malitiae ejusdem gentis satis forte constituerimus, ratione cujus emptionis pax & concordia in tota marchia illa melius observatur; de quo manerio, licet nil valeret dicto Militi, tamen servitium et sectam Comitatus vestro facere tenebatur. Cum adhuc dictum manerium ad eadem teneatur; Vos rogamus quatenus dictam sectam Comitatus cum servitio de gratia vestra speciali nobis & Ecclesie nostrae velitis. R. Rex non potest relaxare, quia de Corona.

Quia uniberla placita de Catallis seu debitis, quae Testamentum vel Patrimonium non contingunt ex * Regia dignitate Curiae Regiae relinquuntur audienda et terminanda: eo praetextu placita de Debitis seu Catallis Patrimonium seu Testamentum contingentia, Rex et Princeps filius Ecclesiae Christianissimus et fidelis Curiae Christianitatis dimittere debet, Ecclesiae libertatem illam conferbando, ut tenetur. Cum igitur Parochianus noster Philippus Marmin de quibusdam debitis et catallis quae sunt de matrimonio coram Baronibus de Waccarto ad instantiam Domini Wilhelmi de Mortem trahitur in placitum hiis diebus; petimus, quod Rex eisdem Baronibus referbat; quod si ita esse invenerint, tunc de placito illo se non intromittant, sed ad Curiam Christianitatis dimittant; vel saltem quod dictum placitum coram ipso Rege poni faciant; ut de consilio suo, quid inde fieri debeat, statuatur. To which no answer was given by the King.

William Archbishop of Rboan returning very weary and poor from the Church of Rome, where he had spent much money for his confirmation and consecration, and being loth to cross the Seas to come personally to King Edward to make his Oath of Fealty to him, addressed his own Letters to him, with some other great persons, to receive his Homage by a Proctor, or to send one to receive it at Rboan, and

An. 6 E. 1. and to do it afterwards in person, when ever the King should arrive in France, that so he might receive his Temporalities; as these following Letters, which I found in a Bundle of Epistles and Writs in the White Tower inform us.

Et ideo vobis mandamus, quod predictos Ballivos et Communitatem ad hoc monitis, & quantum poteritis efficacius inducatis ex parte nostra, quod si fieri non permiserint, seu permittere noluerint, tunc causam impedimenti ipsorum nobis distinde et aperte sub Sigillo vestro significetis. His rationibus subscriptis dicunt Cives Dublin, quod non expedit Domino Regi, nec Civibus predictis, quod Fratres de Monte Carmeli infra muros Dublin commoventur.

Imprimis dicunt, quod dicta Civitas infra muros satis stricta est. Item, ubi dicti fratres ostendebant Domino Regi et Consilio suo, quod Rogerus Owyne contrivit eisdem quandam placeam ubi inhabitare volebant, minus inde dicebant, eo quod dictus Rogerus ibidem nunquam aliquam terram habuit, sed emebant dictam terram de quodam Davide Clerico, qui ratione dictae terre auxiliabatur cum dictis Civibus in tallagio et in aliis auxiliis suis ceteri Cives Civitatis.

Item, predicti fratres duas vacuas placeas quae capite fuerunt in manum Domini Regis, et Civium predictorum pro Areragis Landgabals, sibi appropriaverunt, dictis Civibus ignorantibus et invitis, nulla solutione facta adhuc de dictis areragis.

Item, dicunt, quod manentes in dictis terris tenentur auxiliari cum dictis Civibus in tallagio, vigiliis faciendis, inde Almosenas, et pluribus aliis ad Civitatem pertinentibus, quod si ipsas terras habuissent et in Sanctuarium posuissent, hoc esset ad exheredationem Domini Regis, et predictorum omnium dampnum non modicum et gravamen.

Item dicunt, quod dictae terrae pluribus casibus Domino Regi et Civibus predictis accedere possint in Escatam, quod si ipsas habuissent ipsi in Sanctuarium tenerent, quod esset ad exheredationem Domini Regis, et in prejudicium predictorum Civium et dampnum non modicum et gravamen.

Item, dicti Cives habent de dictis terris placeas et perquisitas, quare non expedit Domino Regi nec Civibus quod predictae terras optineant.

Dicunt, quod si Guerra communis existeret fuerit, secundum quod nuper fuerat in Lagen, maximum periculum possit omnino Castro De Regis & Civitatis eo quod pauci sunt circumstantes Portam dictam Maria de Dub, per quod Malivoli privatum vatum infra domos suas intrare possint, & sic maximum periculum Castro Domini Regis & Civitati possit eminere, ut supra. An. 6 E. 1.

Item, Dicunt, quod si dicti fratres Ecclesiam suam super dictis terris construerent, et ibidem Sanctuarium fecissent, maximum dampnum tam Domino Regi quam Civibus predictis posse eminere, eo quod si felones extra Castellum Domini Regis evadissent, secundum quod saepius contigit, vel alii qui aliquam feloniam fecerint ibidem refugium habere possent; Et sic oporteret dictis Civibus ibidem Vigiliis facere, et se custodire, darent evasione, quod durum esset eisdem Civibus, et sic poverentur in servitute, ubi modo sint liberi.

Item dicunt iidem Cives, quod si concessum fuerit eisdem fratribus ibidem inhabitare, quod intendunt omnes terras ibidem collaterales sibi appropriare, et postea eas in Sanctuarium convertere, quod esset ad exheredationem Domini Regis et dampnum eorumdem Civium non modicum et gravamen, et sic sibi appropriare tertiam partem totius Civitatis infra muros et illa parre Villa.

Item dicunt, quod Communitas nullo modo vult assentire quod ibidem inhabitent rationibus predictis. Such prejudicial and unwelcome guests did the Inhabitants of Dublin, even in that age deem these greedy Friars to their City, and the King himself.

Prior & Conventus Karliol. attach. fuit ad respondendum Regi, quare cum mortuo dudum Roberto Karle Episcopo per quosdam Concanonicos suos licentiam eligendi, prout moris est, petissent, et optinuissent. Et iidem Prior & Conventus W. Eborum Dec. de quo certa nota fuit Electione sollempniter publicata eligissent, iidem Prior et Conventus ipso Decano electioni prædictæ dissentiente, nulla licenc. petita nec optenta alium in Episcopum elegerunt, in prædicti Domini Regis et Cozonæ præjudicium et gravamen, et ad dampnum Regis sexaginta mille librarum: Et quare cum per Johannem de Vallibus & Thomam de Sasington Justiciarios Domini Regis, ex parte Regis eisdem Priori et Conventui inhibitum fuisset, ne irrequisito Rege re-eligerent, iidem nihilominus in contemptum Regis re-eligerunt, ad dampnum Regis quadraginta mille librarum. Et Prior venit, & dicit, quod ipse et Conventus suus non intellexerunt contemptum nec præjudicium Regi fecisse, ex quo primo licentiam habuerunt, et Electus suus electioni dissentit, per quod res integra fuit, ut credunt, sed si contemptus interfuit, subponunt se voluntati Regis, &c.

King Edward having declared his readinesse and resolution to relieve the Holy Land, in a Letter sent by Freer Geoffry Bishop of Ebron, Vicar to the Patriarch of Jerusalem, to the Patriarch, Templars, Hospitallers, and other Christians there, he returned him this answer (which I found in the White Tower) how joyfully they received it, and of the present state and affairs of the Holy Land, and Tartars.

Apicibus vestræ Regiæ Majestatis honore condigno & debita devotione receptis, cum summa sollicitudine in plena congregatione fidelium, Palatii, et Religiosis viris Pagistris acratum Domorum Willelmi Templi, et Hospitalis beati Johannis Jerusalem. et aliis terræ huiusmodi Præceribus, et Communitatum Mentibus publicatis, & vulgariter illis beato vestro desiderio & serenitatis Regiæ compassionis affectu, verbis inductivis & compatiens tam salubri negotio patefactis, corda convocatorum omnium ignita vestræ caritatis igniculo, et eructaverunt communiter laudis solennem canticum Deo celi, quod tanto Principi inspiraverit devotionem negotii Terra Sancta, et ultionem injuriarum Jesu Christi, et ad liberationem Terra Sancta de saucibus hostium Christi Celsitudinem vestram misericorditer excitabit. De rumoribus Terra Sancta (quos felices desideratis audire, eo quod totiens lætiores estis effecti, quotiens de Terra ipsa & statu ejusdem vestris auribus insonat rumor bonus) tenore præsentium innotescat Regiæ Majestati, quod carissima magna est in terra de blado, & modò valet modius 6 l. & timetur ne valeat 10 l. infra Pascha; eo quod in Armenia & in Cipro est defectus & pestilentia Locustarum, et propter guerram Regis Caroli de Apulia & Sicilia subsidium non speramus. Treuga, quæ est inter nos & Saracenos, non durat nisi usque ad mensem Martii, & interim non tenent fidem quam promiserunt: sed multas injurias & molestias inferunt Christianis. Inter Athon & Tyrum infra paucos dies 30 Christianos in strata publica occiderunt. De Thartarum rumores audivimus: nuper enim quendam nuncium miserunt in Athon, & mandavit Princeps exercitus Thartarorum, quod ipse est in Thuria cum 50000 equitum, & totidem ad suum subsidium expectabat, & mandavit nostris Magnatibus, quod veniant ad eum cum plenitudine potestatis, & quod ei cibaria et alia necessaria, in quantum valuerint, subministrarent, & placeat ei in cujus nutu cuncta subsistant, in cujus ditione cuncta sunt posita, ut talia nova positis audire, quod hostes Christiani nominis confundantur, & sancta fides exaltetur, & servi Dei inimicitias non timeant hostium Crucifixi, qui non secundum armorum potentiam, sed prout ipsi placet, dat dignis victoriam. Non enim in multitudine exercitus victoria belli, sed de cælo victoria est. Ego Presbyter vester humilis super huiusmodi apud Dominum suppliciter & humiliter intercedam, ut pro vita Regis & salute filiorum, me tandem et miserabilis Terræ negotium Magnificentia vestra suppliciter recommendet, quem Deus conservet incolumem regno suo per tempora longiora, Scriptum Athon quinto die Octobris.

IN Nomine Domini Amen. Hoc est exemplum unius literæ, sigillatæ sigillo venerabilis patris Wigorniensis Episcopi, quod quidem sigillum erat oblongum, habens ymaginem impressam Episcopalem stantem, benedicentem cum dextra, & cum sinistra retinentem baculum pastorem, & à latere ipsius ymaginis erat undique imago quasi capitis, & subtus ipsius capitis ymaginem erant hinc & inde tria Lilia à quolibet latere designata, cuius circumferentes literæ sic dicebant; scilicet, Walteri Dei gratia Wigorniensis Episcopi. Tenor autem ipsius literæ talis est: Universis Christi fidelibus presentes literas inspecturis vel auditoris, Walterum miseratione divina Wigorniensis Ecclesiæ Minister humilis, æternam in Domino salutem. Noverit universitas vestra, nos literas venerabilis patris Bonifacii Dei gratia Canuariensis Archiepiscopi, totius Anglia Primatis, non cancellatas, non abollitas, nec in aliqua sui parte vitiatas, inspexisse in hæc verba. Excellentissimo patri ac Domino Alexandro divina providentia Summo Pontifici; Bonifacium Dei gratia Canuariensis Archiepiscopus, totius Anglia Primas, pedum oscula beatorum. Noverit vestræ sanctitatis excellentia, quod cum ad Diocæsium Coventrensem & Litchfeld. causa visitationis faciendæ declinasset, inter Monasteria & alias Ecclesias collegiatas ejusdem Diocæs, Ecclesiam beatæ Mariae Stafford. Anno Dom. 1265. Kal. Octobris visitati, et in eadem visitationis officium exercens inveni, quod Episcopus Coventr. & Litchf. & Archidiaconus Stafford. qui pro tempore fuerunt, omnimodam jurisdictionem Episcopalem et Archidiaconalem in populum et plebem et parochianos singulos dictæ Ecclesiæ et altarum Ecclesiarum seu Capellarum eidem Ecclesiæ subiectarum exercere libere consueverunt ab antiquo: quodque Decanus, Canonici, et Ministri prædictæ Ecclesiæ, jurisdictionem Episcopalem et Archidiaconalem in populum et plebem et parochianos suos usurparunt, non sine gravi periculo animarum, et scandalo plurimorum, ac in Ecclesiæ Coventr. & Litchf. præjudicium non modicum et gravamen. Urigitur, quæ in eadem Ecclesia corrigenda inveni, per me reformarentur in melius, habitâ super præmissis deliberatione plenâ, inhibuit districtius Canonici et Ministri quos ibidem inveni, sub pœna excommunicationis, ne de cætero impedire præsumerent, quominus dicti Episcopus et Archidiaconus, ac eorum successores jurisdictionem Episcopalem et Archidiaconalem in populum et plebem et parochianos prædictæ Ecclesiæ valeant exercere. Sane ex parte Bogonis de Clare Decani, Canonicorum & Ministrorum ejusdem Ecclesiæ coram me propositum extitit, quod ibidem prædicta exemptionis ab interdictione Episcopali et Archidiaconali, quoad personas suas habebant a sede Apostolica sibi dudum indulta; propter quod super præmissis plenius deliberare volens, eisdem terminum peremptorium a die Sancti Michaelis proximo futuro in unum mensem; videlicet, sexto Kal. Novembris, ad exhibendum London. coram me dicta prædicta, si quas haberent, ad instantiam venerabilis patris Rogeri Dei gratia Coventr. & Litchf. Episcopi, & Magistri Richardi tunc Archidiaconi Stafford. assignavi; decernendo, quod si privilegia non exhiberent, ut extunc procederetur contra eosdem, prout de jure fuerit procedendum. Partibus igitur coram me ipso comparentibus London. sexto Kal. Novembris, cum dicti Decanus, Canonici, & Ministri privilegia, quæ se habere proponebant, non exhiberent, eisdem ex habundanti iterato terminum peremptorium ad exhibendum privilegia (si qua haberent) videlicet, quarto Idus Februarii legitime assignavi. Quarto vero Idus Febr. continuato cum duobus diebus sequentibus, comparuerunt coram coram me Lambeth venerabilis frater Rogerus Dei gratia Coventr. & Litchfeld. An. 8 E. 1. Episcopus per Procuratorem legitime constitutum, & Magister Richardus tunc Archid. Stafford. personaliter, ex parte una; Bogo de Clare Decanus, Canonici, & Ministri Ecclesie beate Maria Stafford. per Magistrum Adam de Fileby Procuratorem eorundem legitime constitutum, ex altera. Cumque ex parte venerabilis patris Coventrensis & Litchfeld. Episcopi, & Archidiaconi Stafford. coram me, peti- tum esset instanter, ut dicti Decanus, Canonici, et Ministri privilegia exemptio- nis, quæ se habere proponebant, exhiberent; Procurator eorundem, privilegia non exhibens, appellavit sub hac forma. Quia vos, reverende pater, Cantuariensis Archiepiscopo, Decano & Capitulum Ecclesie beate Maria Stafford. a vestra et omni ordinaria jurisdictione penitus exemptos coram vobis fecistis ad iudicium evocari, suæ exemptionis privilegia exhibuitis, ac moneri fecistis eosdem, ut jurisdictionem quam ex antiqua et approbata consuetudine in plebem et populum dicti Decanatus obtinent, Domino Episcopo Coventr. & Litchfeld. et Archidia- cono Stafford. liberarent, et ipsos dicta jurisdictione libere uti permitterent, quan- quam iudicialiter non constiterit eandem jurisdictionem ad dictos Episcopum et Archidiaconum aliquatenus pertinere: Ego Adam de Fileby Subdecanus Ecclesie prædictæ, ac Procurator dictorum Decani & Capituli sentiens Dominos meos ex hoc indebite prægravari, sedem Apostolicam in scriptis appello, et Apostolos peto: appello etiam sedem prædictam pro me et Dominis meis prædictis, ne vos ali- quam sententiam excommunicationis, aut suspensionis, aut interdicti in nos vel spirituales aut Parochianos nostros, non nostrum aut oratoria sedis Apostolicæ subdita, aut aliquid aliud faciatis in præiudicium nostrum et sedis Apostolicæ, cui nos immediate subesse protestemur, et Apostolos peto et supplico, ut ob reve- rentiam sedis Apostolicæ appellationi meæ deferatis, et mihi nomine dictorum Dominorum meorum et parti adversæ in Curia Summi Pontificis diem assigne- tis. Venerabili ergo fratri Coventr. & Litchfeld. Episcopo, et Magistro Richardo Archidiacono Stafford. prædictam appellationem et supplicationem acceptantibus, ad postulationem eorundem et partis adversæ supplicationem ob reverentiam sedis Apostolicæ eidem appellationi revereenter duxi deferendum, præfigendo par- tibus terminum peremptorium, quo se vestre sanctitatis conspectui representent in crastino Sancti Michaelis proximo futuro, sufficienter instructæ cum omnibus munitis, iuris et rationibus præmissum negotium tangentibus, paratæ in eodem negotio procedere, prout vestre sanctitati visum fuerit expedire. In præ- missorum autem testimonium has literas meas sanctitati vestre transmittito. Conservet vos altissimus ad regimen Universalis Ecclesie Dei per tempora longi- tissima. Dat. Lambeth 5 Non. Martii Anno Domini 1260. In cujus rei testimo- nium præsentibus literis sigillum nostrum fecimus apponi. Dat. apud Fulham 8 Kal. Junii Anno Domini 1261. The newly elect Bishop of Miden in Ireland, (presented to and approved by the King) and his Clergy appealing to the Court of Rome against the Archbishop of Armagh, by whom he was to be confirmed and consecrated, both because he was excommunicated by the Popes delegates, and had several wayes injured him and his Church, so as he could expect no justice from him, and because he being an Irishman hated the English, desired the Chancellors Letters to some Cardinals and the Kings Proctors at Rome, to promote and assist him in his affairs in that Court, as this Letter attests.

Excellentissimo Domino suo, Domino E. Dei gratia illustri Regi Anglie, Domino Hibernia, & Duci Aquitanie sui humiles et devoti Clerus Midenf, salutem, & de inimicis triumphum, cum augmento gratie & virtutis. Whiles King Edward was buied in his Warrs against the Welsh and wanted monies, his Chancellor the Bishop of Bath and Wells had this Letter sent him by one of his officers concerning veins and pieces of silver discovered in his Lead Mines on Meindep near Pridie, which for its rarity I shall insert.

Sciatis Domine, quod artifices vestri inveniunt optimam mineram plumbo super Meindep juxta Pridie ex parte orientali, & quasi absque labore aperta superficie terræ circa profunditatem quinque vel sex pedum: Et quia artifices solent ut frequentius esse fures, sperando in confusione artificialiter argentum a plumbo, et argentum furtive surripere et collecta quantitate magna fugere tanquam fures, artificium suum deferendo, quod frequenter contigit ibidem temporibus retroactis, prout referunt viri antiqui; Ballivi vestri, dictam mineram faciunt usque ad Curiam vestram de Woky deportari, in cujus medio erecta fornace dicti artifices constant illa mineralia sub visu aliquorum ad hoc deputatorum per vestrum Senescallum. Et quia tam Senescallus quam Ballivus & dicti artifices æstimant, quod multum sit de argento in illo plumbo propter albedinem ejus et sonoritatem, rogant vos, si placet, per me, quatinus aliquem bonum & fidum artificem de quo possunt omnino confidere faciatis ad eos transmitti, quam cicius de tali poteritis providere, vidi enim primam peciam plumbi ibi constaram magni ponderis et quantitatis, quæ quotiens percutitur, sese resonat ut argentum; unde æstimo cum aliis quod si fideliter exerceatur illud artificium quod ad vestrum cedit et toti vicinæ commodum in immensum: Et optento fideli artifice credo expediens quod ibi fiat confusio ubi minera effoditur propter laborem deportandi tam ponderosa ad loca remota, & se habet illa minera sicut sabulo sive arena minuta.

The Archbishop of Canterbury having thereupon obtained a Writ De excommunicatione capiendo against William Boybough of the Diocese of Exeter by his premised Letter, who had appealed to the Pope against his unjust Sentence against him, caused him to be attached and kept in iron chains, to prevent the prosecution of his Appeal against him; whereupon a Clerk of the Chancellors and the Bishop of Exeter writ these Letters to the Chancellor in his behalf for his enlargement to prosecute his appeal, which he seconded with another Letter to him on the behalf of others of his Clergy, whom he endeavoured to imprison in like manner, by his Certificates against them, for opposing his Jurisdiction and proceedings in his Visitation.

Suo Domino suus Clericus omnimodam reverentiam & honorem. Rogavit me multum instanter Dominus P. Exoniensis Episcopus, quod cum distante nuper Domino F. Archiepiscopo Cantuariensi Exoniensem Diocesim, idem Archiepiscopus excommunicaverit Willielmum Bloybough Clericum, et ipsum quidem Ecclesie interdixerit, ita quod dumum idem Willielmus ab hujusmodi gravamine sedem apostolicam appellabit, et super appellatione illa in Curia impetrabit, sicut per bullam quam lator presentium penes se habet, patere poterit intuenti, et Judices sui ipsum Willielmum ab illa sententia absolverint, sicut patet per literas dicti Exoniensis Episcopi hoc testificantes. Vicecomesque Devon. eundem Willielmum qui ad supplicationem predicti Archiepiscopi captus et imprisonatus est in nimis dura prisona teneat in vinculis ferreis ad instantiam adversæ partis, et graves redemptiones ab eo capit pro alleviatione prisonæ; ita quod idem Willielmus appellationem suam prosequi non potest: Dominationem vestram rogarem quod vos super hoc per breve Domini Regis remedium facere dignemini, ut deliberari possit a prisona, ac appellationem suam prosequi. Maxime, cum a sententia illa, sicut prædicitur, sit per suos Judices absolutus, set bene scitis quod ad supplicationem hujusmodi Judicum delegatorum Curia non rescribit. Et quia æquitas & pietas vos movere debet in hac parte, placeat Dominationi vestre inde remedium concedere, & vestram præcipere voluntatem. Bene & diu valeat Dominatio vestra.

Regi Castell. salutem. Super status vestri prosperitate, quam Deus augeat & conservet, & quam venerabilis Pater S. Gadicens. Episcopus, & Magister Galfridus de Evershe, vester Notarius, & noster Clericus, nuncii vestri ad nos venientes, nobis apertissime retulerunt, læti animo efficitur & jocundi; et requisitionem vestram de subsidio vobis faciendo, ad Saracenos fidei Catholicæ contemptores, et inimicos Crucis Christi debellandos, audibimus diligenter. Sed ecce per aliquot dies antequam nuncii vestri prædicti ad nos venerunt, videlicet tempore Passionis Dominicæ quo Judas Dominum prodidit, proditores nostri Lewellinus filius Griffini, & David frater ejus, qui erat familiaris noster & Consiliarius, cum suis Walleisibus, qui etiam & quorum tota prioritas semper retroactis temporibus prodiciones & guerras multiformes fecerunt nostræ Prioritati & nobis, proditaliter contra nos insurrexerunt, terras nostras Marebia invadendo, fideles nostros interficiendo, villas & oppida cremando, munitiones & Castra obsidendo & diruendo, adeo quod nos ex improvise præoccupati in illis, ut novit Deus qui nihil ignorat, dolemus in animo vehementer super eo, quod occasione hujusmodi vobis ad præsens non possumus facere Subsidium, ut vellemus. Et licet Dominum Papam per dilectum Clericum nostrum Magistrum Hugonem de Evisham nuperissime rogaverimus, ut decimam Regni nostri in Subsidium Terra Sanctæ concessam et collectam, Edmundo germano nostro charissimo et Comitibus suis secum a terra nostra proficiscentis, in subventionem expensarum suarum in eunda versus Terram ipsam, faceret assignari: Aut quidem Clericus noster in prosequendo illud negotium ad Cardinalatus apicem (divina cooperante providentia) vocabatur; nondum tamen nobis constat, utrum idem Dominus Papa rogatum nostrum prædictum exaudierit in toto vel in parte, per quod Nuncios nostros ad Curiam Romanam cum literis nostris de credentia (iterum) destinavimus, Dominum concedente, qui in adventu nunciorum vestrorum ad eandem Curiam personaliter intererunt

The Archdeacon of Chester most ingratelously endeavouring to vex and damnify his advancer * Roger de Molend Bishop of Coventry and Litchfield all he could in several parts of England, not being able to effect his designs travelled to the Court of Rome, and troubled him there by all means he could, whereupon the Earl of Cornwall writ this Letter to the Chancellor to afford him all assistance possible to prevent his malice in that Court, where all things were carried by favour, Interest, and Money, not equity or justice.

CUM Magister Jordanus de Wymburn. Archidiaconus Cestrie, qui venerabili Patri R. Coventren. & Lichf. Episcopo, consanguineo nostro charissimo per tempus non modicum deservivit, & quem idem Episcopus à statu satis debili ipsum ad dignitatis apicem, qua gaudet hiis temporibus feliciter promovit; damna diversa et grabamina in baris locis regni nostri aliquandiu, tanquam ingratitude filius, et qui contemptor promotionis procuraverit, in quantum potuit, eidem Episcopo fieri et inferri: ac idem Archidiaconus demum perpendens, se non posse huiusmodi malivolentia suæ propositum in Anglicanis partibus adimplere, ad Curiam Romanam se transfugerit, his diebus; ibidem deteriorationem et diminutionem status promotionis sui prædicti nitens (ut accepimus) totis viribus procurare. Nos quia dictus Episcopus in gradu Consanguinitatis, ut præmittitur, nos attingit, ipsum et negotia sua deduci cupientes facilius et tractari, Paternitatem vestram sincero corde requirimus & rogamus, quatenus ipsum Episcopum et negotia sua habentes nostri interventu rogaminiis favorabiliter commendata, ad reprimendam et refranandam maliciam prædicti Archidiaconi sic conceptam, interponere vestris efficaciter partes vestras, et eos eidem in prosecutione huiusmodi malitiæ in Curia prædicta, modis quibus cautius et melius expedire videritis, cum effectu, si placet, opposites; ut idem Episcopus harum precum nostrarum suffultus adiutorio, uberius favoris gratiam per effectum operis se sentiat invenisse.

The Official of the Bishop of Hereford injuriously suspending and excommunicating the Gardian of the Manor of Leominster, sent thither by the Abbot and Convent of Reading of the Kings patronage, upon pretext that he was not presented to and approved by the Bishop, which was never done nor used; the King thereupon sent this Letter to the Bishop, then out of England, to suspend all his proceedings till his return into England, when the King himself would compose the difference between them.

Edwardus, &c. Venerabili Patri in Christo Domino Th. Hereforden. Episcopo, salutem. Cum dilectus nobis in Christo Abbas Radnyg. quendam de Monachis suis nuper ad custodiam Manerii sui de Leominster. vestræ Diocesis deputaverit, sicut ipse & prædecessores sui Abbates Radnyg. pro voluntate sua hæcenus facere consueverunt, Officialis vester prædictum Monachum, pro eo, quod nobis vel sibi vice vestra præsentatus non extiterit, multipliciter inquietat, et per suspensionis seu excommunicationis sententias molestare non cessat; asserens, Custodem huiusmodi authoritate vestra & præsentationem vobis factam de ipso ibidem deputari debere; quod tamen fieri non debet, ne hæcenus fieri consuevit, sicut nec de aliis huiusmodi Custodibus Maneriorum suorum, quos Abbates constituerunt pro suæ beneplacito voluntatis. Which Letter of the Kings was seconded with this of John de Kirkby to the Chancellor on the Abbots behalf, informing him, that the King had prefixed a precise day to the Bishop and Abbot in the Parliament to be held at London, that so by the advice of all his Council he might settle the differences between them according to Justice, which he doubted the Bishop by reason of his journey to Rome would take no notice of, but still proceed to injure the Abbot and his Guardian.

SUO Domino Johanni de Kirkby eandem quam sibi salutem & dilectionem sinceram. Meminimus Dominum Regem bis nuper scripsisse Domino Hereforden. Episcopo pro Domino Abbate Rading. in forma præsentibus interclusa: pro quo vos rogamus, quantumcunque possumus specialius, quatinus negotium dicti Abbatis sit vobis cordi in omnibus, sicut nostrum. Et quia super contentionibus & controversiis inter ipsos Episcopum & Abbatem, Dominus noster Rex de voluntate ipsorum Episcopi & Abbatis, eisdem præfixit diem præfixe in Parlamento suo London. proximo post Pasch. ut ipse tunc de providentia totius Concilii sui prædictas controversias ex toto decideret et sedaret; reddendo unicuique eorum iustitiæ complementum; Ac idem Episcopus, sicut bene scitis, jam de licentia Domini Regis citra diem præfixum ad Curiam Romanam pro suis negotiis dirigit gressus suos: et ex hoc præsumi poterit, quod idem Episcopus, non obstante præfixione Domini Regis prædicta, aliquid velit contra ipsum Abbatem super huiusmodi controversiis in Curia prædicta impetrare, Vellemus omni modo, quod omni diligentia & sollicitudine totum dictum negotium Domino nostro Regi exponeretis seriatim, quo modo, & sub qua forma eidem Episcopo alias scripsit pro negotio memorato; et quomodo utrique eorum diem præfixit in Parlamento suo Pascha ad ordinandum inter eos ad honorem Dei et commodum utriusque; Ita quod neuter eorum alterum interim implacitaret, et quomodo jam pendente præfixione prædicta ad Romanam Curiam de sua licentia esset iturus; unde timet Abbas prædictus ne impetret in dicto negotio in dicta Curia aliquid contra eum; Unde instetis ad hoc omni modo, quod Rex ei scribat, rogando et inhibendo sibi prohibendo, ne ipse donec iustitia ei defuerit coram ipso aliquid contra ipsum Abbatem attemptet in Curia memorata: sed quod omnia usque ad adventum suum in Angliam in pace dimittat; maxime, cum id facere nequeat ullo modo, nisi ad detrimentum et subversionem Elemosinæ Domini Regis, et quodammodo contra Regiam dignitatem. Insuper faciatis nobis habere transcriptum literarum Domini Regis, quam missurus est Rex Episcopo prædicto, et eam nobis mittatis per præsentium portitorem. Istud negotium pro amore nostro, quantum poteritis, maturatis, quoniam prædictus Episcopus de die in diem a partibus istis se elongat. Iccirco vos in earum literarum confectioe, rigido & amicabili eloquio utamini, quantum poteritis, honestate in omnibus semper salva. Vale, &c.

Upon the receipt of all these importunate flattering Letters from these Cardinals and the Archbishop to the King, backed with large promises of their favour & assistance to him in his affairs, the King was content to be courted out of his Royal Prerogative

An. 10 E. 1. gative, to approve and preferre a Bishop duly elected by his special license to this rich Bishoprick, and to restore the Temporalities to this John de Pontifera, intruded into it by the Popes and Cardinals Provision, whose favours and Letters on his behalf were purchased at no small rates.

Besides, these Cardinals recommended divers of their own Kinred and Friends to the Kings favour and service, by several Epistles, the Originals whereof are filed in the same Bundle with those for this Bishop, some of which I shall present to your view.

prædicti fil. mei conservandum; & vos michi mandastis, quod facultatem magni sigilli Domini Regis tunc ad manus non habuistis, nec filium meum per Episcopum (prædictum) tunc gravari perpendistis, unde non fuit necesse sibi tunc scribere, verumtamen prædicto Episcopo postea curam (animarum) habente per Officialem suum de pluribus articulis in sua Dioc. fecit inquisitiones, et præcipue de Clericis in eadem per Dominum Regem promotis, quibus nullam gratiam facere proponit, obiciens prædicto filio meo, quod infra annum suæ admissionis ad beneficium prædictum secundum statuta non fuit in Presbyterum ordinatus. Et responsum fuit pro eo, quod ad primos ordines subsequentes post admissionem ad Ecclesiam prædictam, per defectum Episcopi Diocæsani, & pro defectu Archiepiscopi, curam spiritualitatis sede vacante habentis, procuravit literas dimissorias à custode prædictæ spiritualitatis Episcopo Sarum, & tunc per easdem literas ordinatus fuit in Subdiaconum, & postea ad proximos ordines subsequentes per Archiepiscopum in Diaconum. Consequenter ante institutionem Episcopi qui nunc est, nulli celebrati fuerint ordines, & Officialis dicti Episcopi dicebat, quod rationes prædictæ prædicto filio meo nichil valere possunt, sed bona Ecclesiastica in prædicto loco inventa sequestrabit, et in sequestro tenet. Ita quod filius meus in eodem loco non habet ubi caput suum possit reclinare. Et si filius meus ad ordines sacros pro tam exili beneficio non esset astrictus minus ei condolerem. Hinc est, quod vestram exoro dominationem devotè supplicans, quatinus per literas Domini Regis qui vobis mediantibus ipsum præsentavit, & maxime per literas vestras significetis, quid duxeritis in præmissis opportunum, quia dictus Episcopus magis inquietat promotos per Dominum Regem sede vacante, quam per alios quoscumque patronos. Significat Sanctitati vestre devotus filius vester Edwardus Rex Anglia, quod dudum eo vestre beatitudini intimante, quod licet Parochialis Ecclesia de Bosham, quæ Collegiata existit Cicestren, Diocesis, et Capella Regia, utpote per progenitores suos fundata in Archidiaconatu Cicestrensi, & dotata, ac Episcopus Exoniensis, qui est pro tempore Regius Capellanus, præsit eidem Ecclesiæ in collationibus Canoniarum & Præbendarum, & in corporali possessione ipsorum, ac quibusdam aliis juribus spectantibus ad eandem; et omnes liberæ Capellæ Regiæ in regno Anglia consistentes, ad omni potestate et jurisdictione quorundam Ordinariorum locorum sint liberæ et exemptæ de consuetudine approbata, et in possessione huiusmodi libertatis et exemptionis existant, prædicti Episcopus et Archidiaconus Cicestrenses, in prædictam libertatis et exemptionis huiusmodi, et juris Regii diminutionem, dictum Episcopum Exoniensem et præbendam ejusdem Ecclesiæ de Bosham Regiam (ut prædictum) Capellanium, super dictis juribus, quod minus ipsis uti libere possit, multipliciter molestant et perturbant. Unde supplicat dictus Dominus Rex, quantum auctoritate Apostolica dignemini dictam Ecclesiam vel Capellam de Bosham, cum Canonicis et personis Ecclesiasticis prædictis Canoniciis et Præbendis et annuæ Ecclesiæ et Capellis, et Ministris, Clero, et populo eorundem, ab omni jurisdictione ordinaria, et præcipue Archiepiscopi Canuariensis, Episcopi et Archidiaconi Cicestrensi, ad omne dubium amovendum, erimere et totaliter liberare; et jurisdictioni Exoniensis Episcopi (qui confert Canonicias et Præbendas, et præterea (ut præmittitur) sive Capellanus specialiter nuncupatur) et successorum suorum, quantum ad utramque legem communis obellicet et Diocesanæ (necnon) subscire. Ita quod cultus divinus, & excessum correctio non negligatur in ipsis, quodque possit Clericos ipsius Ecclesiæ liberè ordinare, ac in Clero & populo ipsius Ecclesiæ, & in ipsa Ecclesiâ ea quæ sunt ordinis & Episcopalis officii jure suo exercere: eo quod Episcopus Cicestrensis qui pro tempore fuerit, in talibus exercendis libere se fortassis difficilem exhibebit. Et quod dictus Exoniensis Episcopus & successores sui, saltem similem jurisdictionem habeant in Ecclesia seu Capella prædicta, Ecclesiæ annuæ, et Capellis, Præbendis, Capellanis, Canonicis, Vicariis, Ministris, Clero, et populo eorundem, qualem habent alii Decani et Præpositi aliarum Capellarum suarum liberarum in regno et dominio suo constitutarum, de gratia speciali et de plenitudine potestatis, ad ipsius Regii honorem augmentum. Non obstantibus quibuscunque patris, compositionibus, controverciis aut litibus inter prædictos Episcopos et Archidiaconum motis vel movendis occasione prædicta, cum omnibus non obstantibus et clausulis; ac etiam cum executoribus & conservatoribus opportunis.

He likewise petitioned that he might elect a discreet, approved person to be his Confessor, to whom he might reveal his secrets and be absolved, and receive ghostly advice even in such things wherein the See Apostolick was to be consulted with, which he might have freely done without his license.

REX Justiciariis, salutem. CIRCUMSPECTE AGATIS de Regocio tangente Episcopum Norwicensem, et ejus Clerum, si placitum tenuerunt de hiis quæ merè spiritualia, viz. &c. verbatim as in the premised Writ of Circumspecte agatis, (Here, p. 336.) Therefore by this ancient Manuscript and Sir Robert Cottons Resolution, it was only a Letter framed upon this Charter and Articuli Cleri to be sent to the Kings Justices and Officers in or after the 10th. year of King Edward the 2. not extant nor enrolled in any Roll I can yet finde in the Tower; therefore not an actual Prohibition under the Kings great Seal; much lesse a publicke Statute made in Parliament, An. 13 E. 1. as Sir Edward Cooke and others most grossly mistake. And that which confirms me farther in this opinion, is an antient Presentment in Parchment, (without any year or date, made by a Jury of the County of Norfolk to the Kings Justices, about the 13 year of King Edward the 2. as I conjecture by the hand, and other Circumstances) which I found in the White Tower Chappel, against the Deans, Officials, and Clergy of the Bishop of Norwich, for several encroachments upon the Kings Prerogative, Courts, and peoples Liberties, in holding Plea of Trespasses, Debts and other Temporal Causes, and imposing Oaths, pecuniary mulcts, penalties, exactions on the people, and excommunicating them against Law.

Item dicunt, quod Johannes Capellanus de Faversham citare fecit Radulphum Druri de Keditone coram Magistro Richardo Guidet Offic. et imposuit ei falso ipsum herberavisse quandam Capellan. et ita satisfecit ei de 5 s. Et dictus Magister Richardus habuit 5 s.

Et dicunt, quod dictus Robertus Vicar. de Hovedone tunc Decanus, cepit de Barth. Gambour pro non veniend. ad summationem suam, 12 d.

Item, idem Robertus cepit de Thoma Pipestrave quod commedebat cum Hamone Cheveri, quem dicebat se excommunicasse, 6 d.

Item, idem Robertus recepit de prædicto Thoma quia caravit per diem festivalem Sempl. 6 d.

Item dicunt, quod Richardus Gurdet cepit de Barth. Gambour pro simplici fornicatione, 2 s.

Item dicunt, quod Richardus Gurdet Officialis voluit tēctē Johannem Rundell de Hovedone * juravisse ad inquisitionem suam, et idem Johannes noluit jurare sine præcepto Domini Regis, et ideo Dominus Richardus Gurdet amerciauit ipsum ad dimidium Marc. et ipsum fecit excommunicare de die in diem, et ipsum citare fecit coram seipso de Capitulo in Capitulo. Such were then the manifold extorsions, vexations, grievances, excommunications, oppressions and encroachments of these Deans, Officials, and Clergymen of the Bishop of Norwich, who had little reason to prosecute this Letter of Circumspecte agatis to the Kings Justices and Officers, which themselves contrived, prepared, but the King never ratified under his Seal, for ought appears by any Record thereof I have seen after my best search to find it.

The Freers Preachers at Cadami intending to meet in a general Chapter there, to advise of the repairing their Monastery, and redresse of their grievances, writ and sent this gratulatory Epistle to King Edward the 1 as their Sovereign Lord, singular Patron and benefactor, imploring his aid, bounty, assistance herein, assuring him of their constant prayers to God for him and his.

Excellentissimo Principi ac Domino Illustrissimo Regi Angl. & Duci Aquitan. frater Nicholaus Fratrum Prædicatorum ordinis in loco Cadamo servus, totusque ejusdem loci Conventus humilis, salutem, & ex meritis terreni regiminis æterni regni gloriam promereri. Quia naturæ et rationis conditor prohibet ab æterno per gradus sibi congruos sua sapientia ordinabit, et juxta conditionem naturæ cunctis omnibus sic prohibet, quod tam in celestibus quam terrenis gradus inferior a superiore regimen continuum recipit et insurum, quare de plebe sua ordinans Nos ad vestri meriti et præmit cumulum sub sua constituit potestate, et super maximam partem suæ familiæ, quam ad vestri salutem et honorem adaugeat, Regem et Principem sublimabit, bonis naturalibus et gratuitis sic dotabit, quod instinctu rationis propriæ omnibus vobis subditis secundum quod cuique convenit prohibetis: quod attendentes nos in loco vestro positi multis gravati oneribus & diversis circumdati angustiis & oppressi, utpote qui ad recipiendum provinciale Capitulum, quod debet in Conventu nostro et vestro in instanti festo beati Dominici celebrari; nec ad recipiendum habeamus Dormitorium, quia pro majori parte jam corruit & funditus est eversum, & de vitæ necessariis prædicto Capitulo providere non possumus adhuc consilium invenire, pro eo quod Barones terræ et Nobiles a quibus sperabamus prædictum Capitulum procurari, sublevari et honorari, sunt et erunt, ut credimus, in illustri Regis Francia negotiis occupati. Ex hiis & pluribus aliis quæ enarrare per singula esset longum, animo anxii & perplexi vestræ Regiæ Majestati in qua nobis singulare refugium est credimus et speramus, tanquam ad vicum prudentiæ, patrem et Principem clementiæ necessitates nostras istis præsentibus duximus exponendas, super earum sublevatione humiliter Nobilis etiam Domina Johanna neptis vestra, & quondam Comitissa nostra, suæ largitatis manum aperiens annuatim nobis ad sublevationem victus & vestitus, suam elemosinam faciebat, sicut dilecti in Christo nobis fratres scilicet Bertrandus, Cornelius, & Rysius, quos ad vos misimus vobis exprimere poterunt viva voce, pro qua etiam per vos facienda prout corde & corpore supplicamus. Ita ut ille qui manum & cor hominis intuetur, ex hiis & aliis bonis quæ per vos Dominus fieri dederit, vobis in præsentem vitam cum salute augeat merita multiplicet, regnum amplifcet, corroboret & confirmet, & æternæ mercedis præmium & gloriam vobis tribuat in futuro. Valeat in vobis Dominus Iesus Christus, qui conservet vos ad sui nominis gloriam & honorem, si nobis vestra nobilitas reverenda aliquid præcipere dignaretur, incontinenti parati essemus exequi & humiliter cum gaudio obedire. Dat. Condomi Dominica prima post Octabas Pasche, Anno 1285.

Moreover the Abbot and general Chapter of the Cistercian Abbots, writ this gratulatory Letter to King Edward, for all the favours received from him and his ancestors, especially for the impropriation of the Church of Scardesburg, conferred on them by their Charters for maintaining their general Chapter; complaining, that since the Freers Minors and Preachers entred into Scardesburg against their Charters, they did not receive above the third part of the profits they did before, desiring the King by his secular power to remove them thence, (so much did these Freers envy and undermine each other) and to renew their Charters; to effect which they certified him what Prayers and Masses their Chapter and Order did continually make to God for him, his Queen, Children, Realm.

Excellentissimo Domino Edwardo divina magnificentia illustri Regi Anglorum, Frater Johannes dictus Abbas Cistercii, totusque Conventus Abbatum Capituli generalis, potentiam invincibilem, & quicquid potest apud Deum humilis & assidua deprecatio peccatorum. Sicut Regalis clementiæ Celitudinem generosam in nullo diminuit sed commendat, cum se ad ima pauperum per piorum beneficiorum inclinat affluentiam liberalem, sic & ipsi pauperes præsumptuosi vel temerarii jure censeri non possunt, si sublimioribus scribendo principibus quos inter suos benefactores præcipuos recognoscunt, ad debitas & devotas gratiarum actiones assurgunt, ut juxta sapientiam Salamonis ad loca unde exeunt beneficiorum flumina dignis regratiationibus revertantur. Cum igitur ex proventibus Ecclesiæ de Scardesburg, quam de advocatione vestra, & ex dono progenitorum vestrorum in proprios usus canonice possidemus, nostrum generale Capitulum quolibet anno consueverit sustentari per triduum nunc sustentetur in parte. Et ferè omnino sustentaretur, si proventus dictæ Ecclesiæ liberè & integrè possemus percipere, sicut in retroactis temporibus solebamus. Ingrati possemus merito judicari si nostrum generale Capitulum sine vestri memoria (quod nunquam factum extitit) pertransiret, unde nos ingratitudinis vicium præventes, super hiis & aliis gratiis & beneficiis à magnificentia vestra nostro ordini collatis, ad gratiarum actiones Excellentie vestre dignum duximus assurgendum. Exorantes suppliciter Regem Regum, in ejus manu sunt omnium Regum corda, ut personam vestram, et amicos vestros, et regnum vestrum in honore et bona pace stabiliat et confirmet, et actus vestros dirigat in suæ beneplacito voluntatis. Et quia super perceptione proventuum præfatæ Ecclesiæ per ingressus predicatorum et apriorum in Villa de Scardesburg, contra tenorem Chartarum prædecessorum vestrorum, et Apostolicas inhibitiones quamplurimum perturbamur; in tantum quod nobis solebamus percipere tributanam procuracionem nostri Capituli generalis, hic processu temporis sicut experimento cottolano discimus per unum diem dictum generale Capitulum poterit sustentari, ad vos tanquam ad patronum habemus recurrere: Excellentiam vestram humiliter exorantes, ut factum prædecessorum vestrorum sicut vestre. interest prosequentes, quod contra Chartas et Prohibitiones Regias factum est faciatis per potestatem Regiam annullari, et donationem præfatæ Ecclesiæ a vestris progenitiis nobis factam dignemini per Chartas Regias confirmare.

judicibus de domibus quas Hamo pater ipsius Hamonis asportasse debuit de Cristeshall, & de quibusdam focalibus, & de 100 l. Et unde deterioratus & dampnum habes ad valentiam 20 marcarum. Et ideo producit scellam, &c.

Et Gervasius venit & defendit contra ipsum & scellam, quod nunquam post Prohibitionem nec ante traxit eum in placitum de debitis, quæ non sunt de Testamento vel Patrimonio, sed verum vult dicere. Quidam Rogerus de Sumery dedit terram de Cristeshall & 100 l. in denariis in martagio Hamoni patri ipsius Hamonis cum Agnete filia sua. Et postea processu temporis celebrato inter eosdem Hamonem & Agnetam divorcio, reddidit idem Hamo eidem Agnete terram illam ut maritagium suum. Et quia non habuit denarios ad manum unde solveret prædictos denarios, obligavit se et hæredes suos ad solvendum eidem Agnetæ 20 l. singulis annis, donec prædictæ 100 l. plenius solverentur, per Chartam quam præfert et quæ hoc testatur. Et postea venit iste Gervasius & desponsavit dictam Agnetem, & vixerunt simul per longum tempus, & postea in extremis fecit ipsa prædictum Gervasium virum suum Executorem testamenti sui, simul cum aliis, & ad executionem illam faci-endam, & ad debita perquirenda, & specialiter ad debitum istud perquirendum, & ut inde dissonet sicut de aliis secundum quod viderent expedire. Et unde dicit, quod petit denarios illos ex causa testamentaria, & non alio modo. Et inquisiti per quantum tempus ipsa Agnes vixisset postquam divorcium factum fuit, dicitur quod bene p. r 30 annos. Et Gervasius dicit quod per 20 annos.

Et Hamo venit & petit iudicium de sicut ipsa Agnes vixit per magnum tempus post divorcium per 30 annos & nichil unquam petiit de debito illo quamdiu vixit, nec ab eo, nec a patre suo, nec a Thoma fratre suo, qui per 5. annos fuit in seclina totius hæreditatis patris sui. Et petit iudicium, si ipsi potuit legare, et in testamento relinquere debitum, quod non fuit cognitum in vita sua, et quod ipsa nunquam petiit in vita sua.

Et quoniam prædictus Gervasius nichil ostendit, quod prædicta Agnes aliquid peteret de prædicto Hamone, nec Thoma filio suo, nec de isto Hamone dum vixit, & vixit p r tantum tempus. Et si ipsa in vita sua petiisset debitum illud, non potuit legare clameum suum ad placitandum in Curia Christianitatis cum ipsa si videret non posset petere debitum illud alibi quam in Curia Domini Regis. Consideratum est, quod Hamo erat inde quietus; Et prohibitum Gervasio, quod de cætero non sequatur in Curia Christianitatis.

Philip de Staunton being elected Bishop of Landaff, and his election certified to the King by the Archdeacon and others under their own Seals, but not under the Common Seal of the Chapter, kept from them by the practise of Bogo de Clare Chancellor of that Church, who opposed the election; he repairing therewith to the King in France, the King though he approved his person, yet he refused to confirm his election, because not certified under the Chapters Seal; whereupon the Chancellor sent this Letter to the Earl of Cornwall concerning this business, and the Kings Writ to redresse this fraudulent practise, and save the expence of a second journey to him, to grant a Writ to the Archbishop to confirm him, then to receive his Oath of Fealty, and restore his temporalities with all expedition.

Edmundus Comes Cornubie, dilecto sibi amico Domino W. de Hamelton salutem, & dilectionem sinceram. Recepimus hiis diebus rumores certos apud Berkhamsted, quod Dominus Auchern Cardinalis nuper in fata decessit; unde collatio Prebendæ de Farindon quam in Ecclesia Sarum tenuit, ad Dominum nostrum Regem, ratione ejusdem Ecclesiæ Sarum vacantis, & in manu sua existentis, pertinet hac vice, quia (licet) Papa de beneficiis in Curia Romana vacantibus per Dominum Papam conferend. ipsum Dominum Regem, sicut nec alios Laicos artare non potest; Dicitur tamen, quod Papa Prebendam ipsam in Curia Romana jam contulit: et quod Decano et Capitulo Sarum mandabitur infra Breve, quod ipsum installari faciant, et in possessionem Prebendæ induci: Unde ad conserbandum jus Regis, qui absens in remotis partibus, et de hiis forsan ignarus, jure suo ita tempestive uti non poterit in conferendo; Vobis mandamus, quod Decano et Capitulo Sarum mandetis per Breve Domini Regis et districtè inhibeatis, ne in ipsius Domini Regis et juris sui prejudicium quengquam admittant, installent, seu in possessionem Prebendæ ipsius inducant, seu induci faciant quoquo modo. Similiter & Custodi Episcopatus Sar. ex parte Domini Regis, quod Custodiam apponi faciat in Prebenda ipsa, ne aliquis intrudatur, vel se intrudat, et eam occupet; quia difficilis erit ipsum ejicere, et etiam in Ecclesia Sarum, ne forte ibidem subito per aliquem installetur, et occupet locum Canonici. Formam quidem Inhibitionis faciendæ, Decano et Capitulo faciendæ, prout videbatur corrigendam, et districtius faciendam, vobis mittimus presentibus inclusam. The Bishop of Miden informing the King, that some of his Officers and Bayliffs of Liberties within his Diocese, publicly inhibited any persons to appear before him, his Ordinaries, Officials or Commissaries, when they made their accustomed Inquisitions concerning mens sins, and that no Layman defamed of any crime should purge himself before them, but only with his own hand, to the great prejudice of his Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction and Government; the King thereupon issued this Writ to his Chief Justice of Ireland, to revoke such Inhibitions.

REX Justic. suo Hibern. vel ejus locum tenenti, salutem. Volamus etenim quod Episcopus et Ordinarius ceteri supradicti, prout ipsi et prædecessores sui facere consueverant in hac parte, libere sua jurisdictione absque vestrorum consensu indebita molestatione utantur. Taliter vos in præmissis habentes, quod nos super hiis sollicitari non oporteat iterato. Teste Rege apud Westm. 19 die Julii.

Page 454. l. 5. adde. I suppose this Report was grounded upon this Certificate made to the King by the Judges of the Kings Bench, and Barons of the Exchequer about the 20 year of King Edward the 1. (as I conjecture) the Original whereof I found in a Bundle of Writs and Certificates returned into the Chancery, which I rescued from rubbish in the White Tower; wherein they inform the King of a Bull purchased from the Court of Rome by Boves de Clare, against John de Lovat, as the most prejudicial Bull that ever was purchased or brought into the Land in their time: For which Sir Boves being questioned before them, wholly referred himself into the Kings hands and pleasure, so whose presence they thereupon adjourned him there to attend from day to day. What the contents of this Bull were, they did not certify, since the Bull it self was transmitted to the Chancellor. Most probably it was this very Bull which these Law-books mention to be adjudged Treason, and the procurer of it ordered by the King to be drawn and hanged as a Traitor.

WHere by divers sondry old antientlike Histories and Chronicles, it is manifestly declared and expressed, THAT THIS REALM OF ENGLAN
 IS AN EMPIRE, and so hath been accepted in the World, governed by ONE SUPREME HEAD AND KING, having the Dignity and Regal Estate of the IMPERIAL CROWN of the same; Unto whom a body politike, compact of all sorts and degrees of people, divided in termes and by names of Spirituality and Temporalty, ben bounden and oven to bear, next to God, a natural and humble obedience: He being also fortified and furnished by the goodnesse and sufferance of Almighty God, WITH PLENARY, WHOLE AND INTIRE POWER, PREEMINENCE, AUCTORITY AND JURISDICTION, TO RENDER AND YEELD JUSTICE AND FINAL DETERMINATION TO ALL MANNER OF FOLKE RESIAUNTS OR SUBJECTS WITHIN THIS HIS REALM, IN ALL CAUSES, MATTERS, DEBATES AND CONTENTIONS HAP-PENING TO OCCURRE, INSURGE OR BEGIN WITHIN THE LIMITS THEREOF, WITHOUT RESTRAINT OR PROVOCATION TO ANY FO-REIN PRINCES OR POTENTATES IN THE WORLD, &c. The Kings
 most Noble Progenitors, and the Nobility and Commons of this Realm at divers and sundry Parliaments, as well in the time of King Edward the First, &c. as in other Noble Kings of this Realm, made sundry Ordinances, Laws, Statutes, and Provisions, for the entire and sure conservation of the Prerogatives, Liberties, and Preeminences of the Imperial Crown of this Realm, and of the Jurisdiction spiritual and temporal of the same, to keep it from the annoyance as well of the See of Rome, as from the authority of other Sovereign Potentates attempting the diminution or violation thereof, as often and from time to time as any such annoyance or attempt might be known or esped. All which the premised Statutes, Edicts, Writs and Records in this Tome abundantly evidence.

To the Reader.

FOR thy easier, speedier investigation and survey of all Matters comprised in this Third Tome, I have thought fit to make 14. several Tables to it, in an Alphabetical and Chronological method, according to the subject matter.

The 1. Of the Autors cited, explained, rectified, or refuted in this Tome.

The 2. Of the Abbies, Abbots, Abbesses, Priors, Prioresses, Nunneries, Religious Houses and Orders therein mentioned, and what concerns them.

The 3. Of all our English and Welsh; The 4. Of all our Irish; The 5. Of some French, Scottish, and Foreign Archbishops, Bishops; And of their respective Electi- ons, Confirmations, Successions, Actions, Contumacies, Schisms, Treasons, Deaths, and what else concerns them, or the Temporalities, Priviledges of their Bishopricks or Diocesses. Which will make some usefull Additions to Francis Godwins Catalogue of English Bishops, and Sir James Ware his Treatise, De Prasulibus Hyberniae.

The 6. Of the English, Welsh, Irish, Scottish, and other Archdeacons, Deans and Chaplers herein mentioned, and the matters relating to them.

The 7. Of our English, and other Dukes, Earls herein named, and what con- cerns them.

The 8. Of the Names of the respective Chancellors, Treasurers, Justices, and other State Officers in England, Ireland, France, Scotland, and what relates unto them, herein.

The 9. Of the Names of Barons, Knights, and other persons of Note or Im- ployment of the English or other Nations, and matters concerning them; usefull for all Heralds.

The 10. Of sundry Popes; The 11. Of Cardinals; The 12. Of Legates, Nuncios, and other Agents of Rome herein mentioned; with their Electi- ons, Successions, Actions, Bulls, Epistles, Negotiations, Dismes, Constitutions, Extortions, Rapines, Usurpations, Schisms, Treasons, Vices, Deaths. Which will supply sundry defects, omissions in Platina, Onuphrius, Balan, Volaterranus, Ciaconius, and others, De Vita Pontificum Romanorum, and Laertius Chervinus his Bullarium Romanum.

The 13. Of the Names of Castles, Cities, Churches, Chappels, Corporations, Parishes, Places herein mentioned, and things relating to them; usefull for their Owners, Patrons, Inhabitants.

The 14. Of our English, French, Scottish, Irish, and other Kings, Emperors, Princes, Queens, Kingdoms, Countries, Islands; their Successions, Reigns, Prerogatives, Epistles, Laws, Edicts, Truces, Leagues, Marriages, Wars, Deaths; and all Actions, Suits, Prohibitions, Debates, Parliamentary proceedings, Synods, Councils, chief Matters of Law, Peace, War, Church-Government, Ecclesiastical or State-affairs contained in this Tome. Which will rectifie some mistakes, and supply many omissions and de- fects in our English Historians, Annalists, Statutes, Law-books.

All the principal Negotiations, Treaties, concerning Church, and some State affairs between these Kings, Popes, Cardinals, Legates, or Foreign Kings, States, by Papal mediations. The Elections, Successions, Acts, Contentions, Schisms, Exorbitances of Popes; and most of our English, Irish, Scottish, French Archbishops, Bishops, Abbots and dignified Clergymen during their reigns, from Anno Dom. 1199. till the death of King Edward the First, 1307. The Ancient Sovereign Dominion of these and other of our Kings over the Realm of Scotland; the Homages, Fealties, Oaths, Submissions of the Scots Kings, Prelates, Nobles to them, with their most perfidious violations of them, by rebellions, wars, and the sad effects thereof: The restless endeavours of their Bishops, Clergy, Officials in their Synods, Visitations, Courts, by Frauds, Impostures, Ecclesiastical Canons, Censures, Vexations, to engrosse the Conscience of most Causes belonging only to our Kings temporal Courts, and the distribution of all Intestates goods, into their hands, against these Kings Prohibitions. The Contests concerning the Great Charter, and Decessations. The mistakes in some printed Statutes, Canonists, Law-books, Histories; and other Matters of moment, are impartially related, irrefragably evidenced, by great variety of Writs, Charters, Patents, Popes Bulls, Epistles, and other Records (here rescued from oblivion) not formerly published. REX Archiepiscopi, &c. salutem. Literarum patentes venerabilis patris Antonii Dunolmenſis Episcopi ordinationem per ipsum factam perpetuis temporibus duraturam super Decanatu & Præbendis in Ecclesia de Cestr. sui patronatus & Diocesis, plenarie continentes inſpeximus, in hac verba. Universis sanctæ matris Ecclesiæ filiis præſens scriptum viſuris vel audituris. - Antonium permiſſione divina Dunolmenſis Episcopus, ad futuram rei memoriam. Plures rituli qui ab uno fonte procedunt aquæ tumorem ebacuant, fontis tamen balorem non minuunt aut decozem, imo ex se ſolum producere tanto placidioris ſons ipſe diſcoſitur, quanto pluribus locis arbor ætis moleſtia fatigatis effuſo gurgite aquæ copiam uberius ſubminitrat. Illa quoque matrona deſpicibilis non habetur, ſed potius laude digna, quam eſſi frequens conceptus extenuet, ſecunda tamen honorificat procreatio filiorum. Sic nique * una Eccleſia ſui titulum non perbit honoris, ſi ex ſui habundancia plures beneficiorum ſolacio conſoletur, immo tanto nobilior eſt cenſenda, quanto ei deſerbit miniſtrorum amplior ſamulatus. Sanè cum ſuper Eccleſia de Cestr. noſtræ Diocesis, quæ nobis pleno jure ſubjicitur utpote ad noſtrum ſpectans patronatum, variis dudum quaſtionibus & controverſis emerſis inter Dominum Willielmum de Clifford Clericum, ſe pro Rectore ejuſdem Eccleſiæ tunc gerentem, ex parte una, ac Magiſtrum Alanum de Eſingwalde ex altera, aſſerentem, dictum Walterum per bonæ memoriæ Dominum Robertum prædeceſſorem noſtrum immediatum eadem Eccleſia fuiſſe & eſſe ſententialiter ex certis & legitimis cauſis privatum, eamque ſibi ab eodem prædeceſſore noſtro canonicè fuiſſe collatam, ſicque variis & diverſis proceſſus judiciales tam auctoritate Delegata quàm Ordinaria, non abſque gravi diſcrimine, & tam corporum quàm animarum periculo fuiſſent hinc inde diutius agitati. Tandem partes antedictæ coram nobis præſentialiter conſtitutz, nolentes tam periculofis licum amfractibus ulterius implicari, ſubmiſerunt ordinationi noſtræ Eccleſiam illam cum Capellis, terris, fructibus & obventionibus univerſis ad eandem pertinentibus, & totum jus quod eis compeciit, vel competere potuit in eadem, proceſſibus habitis inter eos renunciantes, expreſſè promittentes nichilominus ſe ratum habere quicquid per nos ordinatum, ſtatutum ſeu proviſum fuerit in præmiſſis, idque perpetuis temporibus inviolabiliter obſervare. Attendentes igitur prædictæ Eccleſiæ de Cestr. quæ ad noſtrum ſpectare diſcoſitur patronatum, parochiam eſſe diſſuſam, et probentium redditus habundantes, adeo quod ad plurimum ſolentis elonem ſufficiant miniſtrorum, eamque paucos hactenus habuiſſe ſervitozes, et quo obſolis multociens tranſebatur obſequiis, et in ipſius parochia diſſuſa cura negligebatur dampnabiliter animarum; quæ tamen poſt Eccleſiam noſtram Dunolmenſem inter cæteras Eccleſias noſtræ Diocesis tipum gerit dignis honoribus ex-tollenda, utpote quam ſanctum & reverendum corpus beati Cuthberti patroni noſtri, quod per centum & quindecim annos inibi præſentialiter conſuevit, quadam prerogativa ſpecialiter inſignivit. Conſiderantes etiam, utilitatem evidentem et moſtanti ad ordinationem ſubſequentem, videlicet, diſtincti cultus augmentum, et ſalutis animarum ubertorem proſectum, urgentem inſuper neceſſitatem in hac parte propenſius ponderantes, quam evidentem perpendifimus ex defectu et raritate Juſtiſperſorum et Conſiliariozum in noſtra Dioceli, ad quos in magna & ardua Eccleſia noſtra negotiis habere poteris impellente neceſſitate recurſus, de Capitulo noſtri Dunolmenſis expreſſo conſenſu acceptata ſubmiſſione prædicta, & circumſtantiis univerſis plenius intellexiſſe: In nomine Domini noſtri Jeſu Chriſti, ordinamus in hunc modum; videlicet, quod prædicta Eccleſia de Cestr. extunc collegiata eriat, et ſint in eadem de cætero unus Decanatus et ſeptem Præbendæ: Ita quod Decanus ſit perpetuus in ordine Sacerdotali, curam gerens in ſolodum animarum, et residencia in ibidem continue faciens personalem, inveniat duos Capellanos idoneos conformes in habitu Vicariorum Canonicoz, pro cura huiusmodi sollicite supportanda, aliosque minores Clericos habeat ad servandum Ecclesie compenter omnia ipsius onera ordinaria supportando: Cancellum cum indigerit reficiendo et sustentendo, ad novam tamen fabricationis vel constructionis opus minime teneatur. Capellis insuper de Taunfeld & Lameley faciat per Ministros idoneos describere. Ad qua omnia & singula supportanda volumus & firmiter statuimus, quod Decanatus obventiones totius alterius tam in Ecclesia de Cestr. quam Capellis antedictis, videlicet, mortuorum, lanx, agnorum, lactis, vitulorum, fenum, lini, canab, gallinarum, aucarum, porcelloz, et omnium minutarum personalium decimarum, una cum redditu et Curia tenentium Ecclesie in villa de Cestr. et de Walrigg. et tota terra Dominica de Hernerton totaliter applicentur. Mesuagia etiam ad pradietas Capellas de Lameley & de Taunfeld spectantia, cum curiis & terris suis Dominici eidem Decanatu assignavimus, hoc excepto, quod utriusque socii Præbendarii habeant quandam portionem seu partem Curie arbitrio nostro limitandam, in qua poterunt competenter reponere suabla. Habeat etiam Decanus piscariam in Ripa de Were, et decimam piscariz. Ad hac quilibet Præbendarius qui tres primas habet, Præbendas inveniat satis sumptibus unam Vicarium Capellannum, et de aliis quatuor redditibus, singuli habeant Vicarium Diaconum in ipsa Ecclesia ministrantes in habitu Canonicali, et modum psallendi teneant secundum morem Ecclesie Ebor. vel Sarum. Singuli autem sint ebdomadarii in suo statu secundum ordinem vicis suæ iuxta dispositionem Decani, qui sicut in cura parochiali, sic in his quæ ad debitum spectant officium ordinet, corrigat, eorum regat et disponat, ac etiam in his puniat transgressores. Statutis quoque mox diebus propter parochianos volumus et mandamus. Et ne discordiam pariat communitas, sed singuli suis finibus sint contenti, Præbendas illas taliter duximus distinguendas, videlicet, quod ad primam Præbendam pertineant decimæ parochiales omnes de magna Lameley, parva Lameley, Lampton, Wodesende, ac etiam decimæ minx carbonum. Ad secundam Præbendam de Lameley, Kibblesworth, Rāvenesworth, Dervetock, Hedley, Ladesheved, terra de Fugers, Rāveneshelm, & Northuses. Ad tertiam de Pelton, Pokeley, Pelawe, Piketre, Inbeley, Edmāstley, Steresley, & Nettelwrth. Ad quartam de Cestr. & Withill. Ad quintam de Cūnfeld, Lince, Crok, Taunfeldley, Stanley, Stanley Hall, Caldesete, & de Sreles. Ad sextam de Birteley, Herverton, Mora, & de Harden. Ad septimam de Urpath, Ulkesth, & de Twysles. Totum autem residuum parochia de Cestr. videlicet, decimæ parochiales de Planworth & de Walrigg, & omnium vastorum cum in Baya quāvis alibi in eadem parochia redigendorum ad culturam communis, residuum assignamus, & inter ipsos duntaxat equaliter dividantur, qui per tres menses ad minus in anno continuè, vel interpellatim in Ecclesia ipsa residenciam fecerint persolventi. Ita quod in festo Sancti Martini in hyeme, & in festo Pentecostes fiat eorundem proventus communis distributio. Et qui pro medietate temporis antedictis personaliter residuerint, pro rata medietate huiusmodi distributionem percipiant proportionali de communia, de residuo temporis illius nichil penitus percipiant, nisi omnes eius partes integraliter compleverint residendo. Ordinamus insuper, quod decima pars portionis cuiuslibet non residentis, residentibus assignetur, et si nullum residere contigerit, huiusmodi partes decimæ in usus Ecclesie, vel in usus pauperum degentium infra limites Præbendarum nonresidentium convertantur. Area autem Ecclesia ad inhabitandum inter Decanum & tres Præbendarios primos iuxta nostrum arbitrium dividatur. Ne etiam de ordine sedendi vel procedendi contencio oriatur, statuimus, ne post primum statum ex parte australi, (quod nobis & successoribus nostris in signum præeminencie specialiter reservamus) Præbendarius prima Præbenda optineat primum locum. Præbendarius tertia Præbenda optineat secundum. Præbendarius quinta, tertium. Præbendarius septima, quartum. Ex parte vero boreali Decanus Ecclesie optineat primum locum. Præbendarius secunda Præbenda secundum locum. Præbendarius quarta, tertium; & Præbendarius sexta Præbenda quartum; & eundem ordinem observent invicem in procedendo. Hanc autem ordinationem concurrente consensu Capituli nostri, ad honorem Dei et Ecclesie Christi factam, statuimus perpetuis temporibus inviolabiliter observandam, auctoritate, dignitate et potestate Ecclesie nostre Dunelmensis et successorum nostrorum in omnibus semper salvis. From which 3. Charters I shall observe, 1. That the King, this Bishop and other founders of Chantries in that age, took special care to oblige Deans, Prebends, Priests, Masters and Chaplains not only by their Charters, covenants, but also by solemn promissory Oathes to constant personal residence on their Cures, and the diligent discharge of their pastoral duties, which yet notwithstanding they were apt to neglect. 2ly. That they particularly prescribed, both what and how many Masses, prayers, Tapers, Alms, divine or superstitious Services they should perform for the benefit of their own and others souls departed, whereof our Kings had then the Sovereign Charge, care, for which they made special provisions by their Charters both for that and succeeding ages; as these, with all other their Charters for erecting, endowing, or confirming of Bishopricks, Monasteries, Chappels, Churches or Chantries abundantly evidence.

King Edward the 1. for the peace, quiet, good Government and encouragement of Scholars and learning in the University of Cambridge, this year ratified all former Charters

Upon the Liberties of the Kings and Subjects of Engl. & Irel. R. Edward 1.

Charters granted to them by his Father King Henry the 3. and former Orders and agreements made between them and the Mayor and Townsmen of Cambridge for that end, by this his Royal Charter; evidencing the great care our Kings had to protect, advance, encourage Scholars and learning in our Universities, and keep the Townsmen from exacting on them in any kinde.

REX Archiepiscopi, &c. salutem. Inspeximus litteras patentes quas Dominus H. quondam Rex Angliæ pater noster fecit Universitati Scholarium Cantabr. in hac verba. Henricus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hybernix, & Dux Aquitanix, Omnibus Ballivis & fidelibus suis ad quos presentes littere pervenerint, salutem. Scitis, quod ad pacem et tranquillitatem, necnon ad utilitatem Universitatis Scholarium Cantabr. prohibimus et concessimus, quod duo Aldermanni fiant in Cantabrigia, & quatuor de discretioribus & legalioribus Burgenfibus ejusdem Villa associantur ipsi Aldermanni, qui omnes jurent fidelitatem, & sint assistentes & consulentes Majori & Ballivis nostris Cantabr. ad pacem nostram conservandam, & ad assisas prædictæ Villa custodiend. & ad investigandum malefactores & perturbatores pacis nostre, & vagabundos de nocte, & receptatores latronum & malefactorum, et corporali præsentent sacramentum, quod omnia prædicta fideliter observabunt. In qualibet autem parochia Villa Cantabr. sint duo homines electi de legalioribus parochianis, & jurati, quod in qualibet quindena inquirent ne quis suspectus hospitetur in parochia, & si aliquis receptaverit aliquem per tres noctes in domo sua, respondeat pro eo. Nullus tamen regatarius emat victualia in villa Cantabr. vel extra versus villam veniens, nec aliquid emat ut iterum vendat, ante horam tertiam, & si fecerit, amercietur secundum quantitatem & qualitatem delicti. Si vero Laicus inferat Clerico grabamen vel enormem læsionem, statim capiatur: et si magna sit læsio, incarceration in villa ipsa, et ibi detineatur quousque Clerico rationabiliter fuerit satisfactum. Si autem Clericus inferat grabamen vel enormem læsionem Laico, incarceration in prædicta villa quousque Cancellarius Universitatis ipsum postulat. Pistores, Braciautores Cantabr. in primo transgressu suo amercientur; in secundo, panem amittant vel cervisiam; in tercio transgressu habeant judicium de Pillorio vel Tumberello. Quilibet Pistor habeat sigillum suum, & signet panem suum per quod possit cognosci cujus panis sit; quod si non fecerit, graviter amercietur. Quicumque de villa Cantabr. braciaverit ad vendendum, exponat signum suum, alioquin amittat cervisiam. Vina Cantabr. communiter vendantur & indifferenter tam Clericis quam Laicis ex quo imbrochiata fuerint. Temptatio panis fiat bis in anno, videlicet in quindena post festum Sancti Michaelis, & circa festum Sanctæ Mariæ in Marcio. Et Assisa cervisia fiat eisdem terminis secundum valorem bladi & brassi. Et quotiescunque debeat fieri temptatio panis & cervisia, intersit Cancellarius prædictæ Universitatis, vel aliquis ex parte sua ad hoc deputatus, si super hoc requisiti interesse voluerint, quod si non intersint, nec super hoc requisiti fuerint, nihil valeat temptatio prædicta. Præterea volumus quod villa Cantabr. à sordibus & sordibus mundetur & munda teneatur, & quod aquaductus aperiantur sicut antiquitus esse solebant, ac aperti custodiantur, ut per eos sordes assinere possint, nisi alia necessitas aut utilitas obiteret; & quod alia obstacula transitum impediencia amoveantur, & præcipue ut magnum fossatum villa mundetur: Ad quæ observanda ordinentur duo Burgenfes ex legalioribus in quolibet dico jurati coram Majore & Ballivis, Cancellario et Magistris ad hoc requisitis, si venire voluerint. In cuius rei testimonium hæc litteras nostras fieri fecimus patentes. Teste meipso apud Westm. vicesimo secundo die Febr. anno Regni nostri quinquagesimo secundo. Inspeximus eiam litteras patentes quas idem Rex pater noster fecit Cancellario & Scholaribus Cantabr. in hac verba. Henricus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hybernix, & Dux Aquitanix, Omnibus Ballivis & fidelibus suis salutem. Scitis, quod ob honorem Dei et Ecclesiæ sacrosanctæ, necnon et commodum et communem utilitatem Scholarium in Municipio Cantabr. studencium, concessimus Cancellario & Scholaribus prædictis, & eorum successoribus ibidem studentibus, Quod omnes domus ejusdem villæ quas Scholares prædictos inhabitare contigerit, per duos Magistros et duos Burgenfes ejusdem villæ secundum rationabilem taxationem, de cætero taxantur de quinquennio in quinquennium. Et ideo vobis mandamus, quod prædictis Cancellario & Scholaribus contra hanc concessionem nostram impedimentum, molestiam aut grabamen non inferatis, vel aliquibus inferri permittatis. In cuius rei testimonium hæc litteras nostras fieri fecimus patentes. Teste meipso apud Westm. sexto die Feb.

*An. 20 E. 1. anno Regni nostri quinquagesimo. Infiximus etiam literas patentes quas idem Rex pater noster fecit Magistris et Scholaribus Universitatis ejusdem villæ in hac verba. H. Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hybernix, & Dux Aquitanix, Omnibus Ballivis & fidelibus suis ad quos presentes litera pervenerint salutem. Quia Ballivi & Burgenses nostri Cantabr. non solum negligentes existunt, verum etiam impotentes ad malefactorum intolerancias, et alia Magistris et Scholaribus Universitatis ejusdem villæ nociva modo debito reprimenda, per quod sicut pro certo intelleximus, contingit dictos Magistros et Scholares multociens impediri, ita quod actus scholasticos in quiete studentibus maxime necessariis nequeunt exercere; Nos dictorum Magistrorum et Scholarium tranquillitati et paci prospicere cupientes, volumus et precipimus, quod Vicecomes Com. Cantabr. qui pro tempore fuerint quando Ballivi aut Burgenses prædicti negligentes vel impotentes inventi fuerint in præmissis, huiusmodi malefactorum, ac pacis nostræ dictæque Universitatis turbatores, cum sufficienti posse Com. prædicti, si necesse fuerit, ab huiusmodi præsumptionibus temerariis penitus desistere, et prædicta nociva reprimi faciant, cum ex parte Universitatis prædictæ inde fuerint requisiti. Item quod dicti Magistri et Scholares ibidem studiis liberalibus applicati, sub protectione manus nostræ oblati liberius prospicere valeant incrementis. In cuius rei testimonium has literas nostras fieri fecimus patentes. Teste nostro apud Westm. vicesimo die Julii, anno regni nostri quinquagesimo tertio. Infiximus etiam literas patentes quas idem Rex pater noster fecit Magistris et ceteris Scholaribus Universitatis ejusdem villæ, in hac verba. H. Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hybernix, & Dux Aquitanix, Omnibus ad quos presentes litera pervenerint salutem. Quia dilectis nobis in Christo Magistris et ceteris Scholaribus Universitatis Cantabr. per Comites, Barones, Milites, & alios torneamenta ibidem exercuissent, aventuras querentes & ad arma cunctis, frequencius solent pericula et incommoda multipliciter evenire, quæ si tollerarentur, in dissidium si idem studentium per processum temporis cedere possent manifeste, quod sustineri nolumus sicut nec debemus: Nos indemnitati Magistrorum et Scholarium prædictorum volentes in hac parte, quatenus fieri poterit prohibere; Concessimus eis de gratia nostra speciali, quod torneamenta aliqua, aventuræ, iustæ, seu huiusmodi hastiludia non fiant de cætero in villa prædicta, seu per quinque miliaria circumquaque. Et prohibemus super grabem solisæduram nostram, ne quis de Regno nostro apud villam prædictam, seu alibi infra prædicta miliaria circumquaque tozneare, iustas facere, seu aventuras, vel alia hastiludia quærere præsumat contra concessionem nostram prædictam. In cuius rei testimonium, has literas nostras fieri fecimus patentes. Teste nostro apud Westm. vicesimo quarto die Julii anno regni nostri quinquagesimo quarto. How carefull the King was to maintain the premised Custome and Priviledge of this University, concerning the rents, or taxes set on houses let to Scholars, will appear by his memorable Writ this year to supersede an Assise of Novel disseisin brought by the Prior of Bernwell against the Chancellor of Cambridge, for letting out his house to a Scholar, upon sufficient caution to pay the Rent, in the Priors neglect to let it to him.

Innocentius Episcopus servus servorum Dei, dilectis filiis Abbati & Conventui Majoris Monasterii Turonensis, ad Romanam Ecclesiam nullo mediantis spectantis, salutem & Apostolicam benedictionem. Cum nuper duxerimus statuendum, ut exempti quantacunque gaudeant libertate, nichilominus tamen ratione delicti, seu contractus, aut rei de qua agitur contra ipsos, rite possint eorum locorum Ordinariis conveniri, et illi quo ad hoc suam in ipsos jurisdictionem prout fas erit exercere.

exercere. Nos habitantes, ne per Constitutionem huiusmodi libertatibus et immunitatibus, ac iuribus vobis et membris vestris, privilegiis et indulgentiis ab Apostolica sede concessis præjudicari valeat: Nobis humiliter supplicastis, ut prævidere super hoc indempnitati vestre paternæ sollicitudine curaremus. Quia vero Monasterii sacra religio sic vos apud nos favore dignos constituit, ut nobis votivum existeret, vos ab omnibus per quæ vobis possent provenire dispendia immunes libenter animo præferbare, auctoritate vobis præsentium indulgemus, ut occasione Constitutionis huiusmodi nullum eisdem libertatibus et immunitatibus, ac iuribus impoſuerum præiudicium generetur. Nulli ergo omnino hominum liceat hanc paginam nostræ concessionis infringere, vel ei ausu temerario contraire. Si quis autem hoc attemptare præsumperit, indignationem omnipotentis Dei, & beatorum Petri & Pauli Apostolorum ejus se noverit incursurum. Dat. Lugduni 3 Idus Aprilis, Pontificatus nostri anno octavo.

Alexander Episcopus servus servorum Dei, dilectis filiis Abbati & Conventui Majoris Monasterii Turonensis, ad Romanam Ecclesiam nullo medio pertinentis, Ordinis Sancti Benedicti, salutem & Apostolicam benedictionem. Landabilis religio qua in Monasterio vestro colitur, sic ab eo mandata dissolutionis relegavit illecebræ, ut inter alia elaustralis abstinentia nexibus religatum, observantia puritate fulgens regularis, & voluntatis libitum coartans, omnino sub obedientia debito dignam & sedulam exhibeat Domino servitutem; unde tanquam potiori devotione præminens attolli jandam exemptionis privilegio mervet, & velut sanctitatis eminentia præsignitum nonnulla diversarum gratiarum titulis honorari. Cum itaque in privilegiis ipsius Monasterii continetur expresse, sicut nos ipsi ex inspectione ipsorum privilegiorum collegimus, ne quisquam Archiepiscopus aut Episcopus beati Martini Majus Monasterium, aut ipsius majoris Monasterii Monachos pro ulla causa, ullo in loco excommunicare præsumat, ac omnibus Prioribus et Monachis vestris, Abbe in ipso Monasterio, Abbe in ipsius Prioratibus commorantibus, et membris, in eodem Monasterio prout asseritis professionem emittant, et ad voluntatem Abbatis ipsius Monasterii qui est pro tempore mittantur ad Prioratus et membra eadem morantur in eis, et ab ipso Abbate cum ei placuerit, ad idem Monasterium revocentur, et conveniens sit ut qui eidem Monasterio pari se in illa professione alligant, eadem gaudere debeant libertate. Nos vestris devotis supplicationibus inclinati, ut memorati Prioris & Monachi prædicti ubicunque fuerint, gaudeant & utantur libere privilegiis, indulgentiis, libertatibus, immunitatibus, & gratiis quibus gaudent & utantur Monachi in ipso Monasterio commorantes, constitutione seu declaratione felicitis memoracionis Innocentii Papa prædecessoris nostri, circa exemptos edita, vel quolibet aliis statutis seu declarationibus factis et promulgatis ab Apostolica sede ad infanciam quovismode, et quodvisque literis Apostolicis per quoscunque obtentis nequaquam obstantibus, auctoritate vobis præsentium de speciali gratia indulgemus. Nos enim Interdicti, Excommunicationis et Suspensionis sententias et processus, si quos in vos et Monasterium vestrum, vel Prioratus aut Monachos prædictos, seu Prioratus et membra vestra contra præsentis indulti temporis per quoscunque ferri vel haberi contigerit, irritos decernimus et inanes. Nota.

Thus one Popes Bull contradicted, and then repealed, or explained another, to gain moneys from their exempt Monasteries, Abbots and Monks upon all occasions; who could not endure to be subject to any Archiepiscopal or Episcopal Jurisdiction.

The Pope granting the Bishop and Freers of the Hospital of St. Maries of Brabant, Bulls and Indulgences to collect Almes for the relief of the poor and infirm in their Hospitals, in divers parts of the world; the King out of his charity and Royal authority granted them this Protection, License, and Patent of assistance to collect and receive the Almes of his Subjects within the Realm, and to seise and punish all false Collectors thereof, not authorized by them.

REX omnibus ad quos, &c. salutem. Cum dilecti nobis in Christo venerabilis pater Episcopus & Fratres Ecclesie beate Mariae de Bethleem, mittant quosdam Nuncios suos cum privilegiis Apostolicis et indulgentiis ad loca diversa, ad elemosinas Christi fidelium colligendas in subsidium Ecclesie beate Mariae de Bethleem, pauperum et infirmorum in eorum Hospitalibus per diversas partes mundi degentium. Nos eisdem Episcopum & Fratres, ac eorum Nuncios prædictos in protectionem & defensionem nostram suscepimus specialem; Vobis mandamus, quod ipsos Episcopum, Fratres & Nuncios manuteneatis, & protegatis, & defendatis, non inferentes eis vel inferri permittentes injuriam, molestim, dampnum aut gravamen. Et si quid eis forisfactum fuerit, id eis quantum in vobis est, sine dilatione faciatis emendari. Rogamus etiam vos, quod cum dicti Fratres vel eorum Nuncii ad vos venerint, de bonis vestris elemosinas petaturi, ipsos benigne admittere, et eisdem intuitu charitatis ad sustentationem prædictam de bonis vestris erogare velitis, ut a Deo remunerationem condignam, et a nobis grates reportare possitis speciales. Et quia quidam falsarii advocantes se per Episcopum & Fratres Ecclesie prædictæ, nomine ipsorum Episcopi & Fratrum elemosinas colligunt, licet per ipsos potestatem non habeant, ut intelleximus, Vos iterato rogamus, quod cum aliqui tales sine literis patentibus prædicti Episcopi vel ejus Nunci causa hujusmodi collectæ faciendæ per vos transitum fecerint, ipsos cum collecta illa arrestari faciatis, donec de hujusmodi malicia emendas fecerint competentes, prout in casu consimili aliis fieri consuevit. De corde Regis Henrici liberato Abbatisa Fontis Ebroldi ad sepeliendum in Monasterio suo.

What incodes, encroachments the Bishops, Clergymen, and their Officials this year made upon the Kings Crown, prerogative Royal, and Temporal Courts of Justice, by holding Pleas of Chattels and Debts which concerned not Marriage and Testament, and likewise of Advowsons and Freeholds, against the Kings Prohibitions to them; how contemptuously they proceeded to excommunicate those who delivered the Kings prohibitions to them, to restrain their encroachments, and to imprison them by Capias Excommunicatum, notwithstanding the Kings Prohibitions; and how zealous the King, his Judges, Subjects were to oppose these their encroachments, usurpations, and contempts against the Kings Crown, Dignity, Courts Prohibitions, and his Subjects liberties, will appear by these ensuing Writs, actions, suits against them both by the parties grieved, and by the King himself. (the Originals and returns whereof, endorsed on them, I rescued out of the rubbish in the White Tower Chappel,) and by the Plea Rolls Anno 20 E. 1. which I shall here present you with.

Edwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliz, Dominus Hiberniz, & Dux Aquitaniz, Vic. Linc. salutem. Pone per vadium & saluos Plegios Oliverum Episcopum Linc. quod sit coram Iusticiariis nostris apud Westm. a die Sancti Hillarii in xv. dies, & ibi habeat R. Edwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliz, &c. Vic. Devon. salutem. Monstravit nobis Robertus de Morkesfel, quod cum Magister Petrus de Insula Archidiaconus Exon. in Curia nostra coram Iusticiariis nostris apud Westm. a die Sancta Trinitatis in 15. dies proximo prateritis, arrachatus esset, ad respondend. eidem Roberto de placito, quare tenuit placitum in Curia Christianitatis de quodam Iudenco ipsius Roberti quod non est de Testamentamento vel Patrimonio contra Prohibitionem nostram, quam idem Robertus prius ei porreperat, ne predictum placitum in predicta Curia teneret. Ac idem Magister Petrus ad diem illum in prefata Curia nostra comparuisset & vadiasset eidem Roberto inde legem suam, prout moris est in eadem Curia nostra, quod placitum illum non tenuit in predicta Curia Christianitatis, & tamen ei ad eundem R. diem fecisset: & postea in eadem Curia nostra inhibuitur esset predicto Magistro Petro ne occasione prosecutionis predicti placiti predicto Roberto aliquam inferret molestiam; idem Magister Petrus eo gravius et molestius placitum illud ulterius

Et quia tanta contemptum et inobedientiam (si commissa fuerint) relinquere nolumus impunita; tibi precipimus, quod si predictus Robertus feceris te securum de Clamore suo prosequendo, tunc pone per vadium & salvos plegios predictum Magistrum Petrum, quod sit coram Justiciariis nostris apud Westm. a die Sancti Hillarii in 15. dies, ad respondendum tam vobis de predictis contemptu et inobedientia, quam predicto Roberto de transgressione predicta. Precipimus etiam tibi, quod si tibi constare possit, quod predictus Robertus ea occasione et non alia excommunicatus sit, tunc ab ipso Roberto capiendum per aliquod Breve nostrum per predictum Magistrum Petrum impetratum penitus desistas, et ipsum Robertum interim pacem nostram habere permittas; & habeas tibi nomina plegiorum & hoc Breve. Teile J. de Metingham apud Westm. 18 die Novembris. Anno regni nostri vicesimo. The Sheriff returning, Magister Petrus de Insula Clericus est, & non habet Laicum secundum per quod possit attachiari. Thereupon a new Writ in like form issued to the Bishop of Exeter, to cause him to appear.

A Writ of the same nature, with some diversity, issued this year in another case to the Sheriffs of London for thelike contempt and vexation.

I finde another suit brought by the Abbot of Battle, for 40 s. lent by his predecessor to Winardus Manse in the Court of Rome, to dispatch his business there.

Winardus Manse summoneus fuit ad respondendum Abbati de Bello de placito, quod Placita Anno reddat ei quadraginta solidos quos ei debet & detinet, &c. Et ipse non venit; unde que- 20 E. 1. Rot.
 ritur, quod cum prædictus Winardus die proxima post festum S. Dionysii, anno regni 96. Suff.
 Domini Regis nunc quinto, in Curia Romana apud Lugdun. mutuavit a quodam
 Abbate de Bello prædecessore nunc Abbatis quadraginta solidos, pro negotiis prædicti Winardi in prædicta Curia promovendis et expediendis, solvendo eidem antecessori, &c. ad festum Purificationis beate Mariæ proximo sequens in Angliā apud Abbatiam de Baille, prædictum Winardum ad terminum prædictum prædicto Abbati eosdem solidos non solvit. Et licet sæpius per Abbatem nunc requisitus esset prædictam pecuniam sol-vere, illam solvere contradixit; unde dicit, quod deterioratus est & dampnum habet ad valenciam quadraginta solidorum: et inde producit sectam; & profert quoddam scriptum sub nomine ipsius Winardi factum apud Lugdun. quod prædictum debitum testatur solvendum in Angliā, &c. Et Winardus per attornatum suum venit & defendit vim & injuriam quando, &c. Et dicit, quod non debet de aliquo debito respondere.
 Dicit enim quod ipse Abbat petis prædictam pecuniam tanquam sibi ipsi debitam, & per narrationem suam dicit mutuatam fuisse de quodam Abbate prædecessore suo, per quod sibi videtur quod illud verbum in brevi contentum Abbati qui nunc est deservire non potest.
 Immo de injusto detinet tantum, & petit judicium de breve. Præterea, prædictus Winardus non recedens ab ipsa exceptione, immo ea sibi salva dicit, quod per prædictum scriptum etiam patet, quod prædictus contractus factus fuit apud Lugdun. super Ronam extra Regnum Angliæ, super quo contractu Curia cognoscere non potest, si ipse Winardus contractum deducere voluerit. Et petit judicium, &c.

In the same Plea Roll I met with this Notable case concerning an intrusion of an Abbot into a Church during the Minority of an heir, the Kings Courts rejection of two Certificates of a Plenary or Vacancy of the Church by the Bishop against the usual form; an Inhibition procured by the Defendant to the Bishop not to certify, with a Verdict and Judgement thereupon in an Assise of Darraign presentments brought by a Guardian, which suit depended sundry years.

 ad Ecclesiam de Chetelton, quæ vacat, & cujus advocacionem Nicholau de Aldingley custos terre & heredis Ricardi filii Henrici de Chetelton clamat versus Abbatem de

An. 20 E. 1. de Deulacres, ratione dissensionis prædictæ, &c. Et unde idem Cuthus dixit, quod quidam Robertus de Chetelton antecessor prædicti hæredis tempore pacis tempore Regis nunc præsentavit quendam Petrum Clericum suum ad prædictam Ecclesiam, qui ad præsentationem suam fuit admissus & institutus, & ultimo obiit persona in eadem, per cujus mortem prædicta Ecclesia tunc vacavit, & adhuc vacat, &c. Et de ipso Roberto descendit jus præsentationis Willielmo ut filio & hæredi. Et de ipso Willielmo quia obiit sine hærede de se, descendit jus præsentationis, &c. eundem Hugoni ut fratri & hæredi; & de prædicto Hugone descendit jus præsentationis, &c. eundem Roberto ut filio & hæredi, qui fuit infra ætatem & adhuc est.

Abbas tunc venit & dixit, quod non debuit ei inde ad hoc breve respondere, quia dixit, quod prædicta Ecclesia non vacavit, immo est plena & consultata de ipso Abbate et Conventu suo qui eam tenent in proprios usus, et tenuerunt jam quadrag. annis elapsis. Et hoc parati sumus verificare, sicut Curia consideraverit. Et ad verificationem, Justiciarius protulit quandam Cartam sub nomine cujusdam Hugonis antecessoris (Richardi) quæ testatur quod prædictus Hugo dedit & concessit Abbati & Conventui de Deulacres prædictam advocacionem prædictæ Ecclesiæ.

Abbas dixit sicut prius dixit, quod prædicta Ecclesia plena fuit & consultata de ipso & Conventu suo ut prædictum est. Et hoc paratus est verificare sicut Curia consideraverit, scilicet per Ordinarium ejusdem loci, &c. Postea à die Sancti Hilarii in 15 dies anno Regis nunc decimo octavo, venerunt partes, & nichil aliud dixerunt quam quod prius dixerunt. Ideo Abbas & Nicholaus si voluerit, habeat breve ad Episcopum Conventensem & Lychfeldensem, quod constare faciat Justiciariis hic a die Pasche in quindecim dies, si prædicta Ecclesia sit vacans, vel non? Et si non sit vacans, de quo et ad cujus præsentacionem pacis tempore plena fuerit, &c? Ad quem diem Episcopus nichil inde fecit, nec breve misit. Et tunc sicut prius præceptum est Episcopo quod convocatis, &c. diligenter inquireret in forma prædicta; & quid inquisierit constare faciat hic in Octabis Sanctæ Trinitatis proximo sequentis per literas, &c. Et Episcopus esset, &c. Ad quem diem misit Episcopus literas suas minus sufficienter factas, eo quod mandavit, quod prædicta Ecclesia de Chetelton de Religiosis præfatis non est plena, nec consultata juxta titulo, sed per eosdem per intrusionem triginta annos & amplius occupata, &c. Ad quem diem præceptum fuit Episcopo sicut pluries quod convocatis, &c. diligenter inquireret in forma prædicta. Et quid inde invenerit constare faceret hic à die Sancti Martini in quindecim dies proximo sequentes, &c. Ad quem diem Episcopus mandavit, quod prædicti Religiosi de Deulacres post mortem cujusdam Rogeri quondam personæ prædictæ Ecclesiæ qui obvinciones ejusdem Religiosis concessit tota vita sua pro sustentacione sua habenda in eadem demo, hucusque continnaverunt possessionem ejusdem Ecclesiæ, absque aliquo juxta titulo, propter quod idem Episcopus Ecclesiam illam vacantem de jure ac vacantem reputavit. Et quia idem Episcopus tunc non certificavit Justiciariis hic præcisè, si prædicta Ecclesia sit vacans, vel non? Ideo mandatum fuit ei sicut pluries quod convocatis, &c. diligenter inquireret, & constare faceret Justiciariis hic ad hunc diem expresse & præcisè, si prædicta Ecclesia sit vacans, vel non? Et Episcopus sic fecit, &c. Et modo venit prædictus Nicholaus, & similiter prædictus Abbas per Attornatos suos. Et Episcopus super hoc misit literas suas parentes certificaciones quæ testantur, quod cum idem Episcopus esset in exequendo mandatum Domini Regis, (sicut decuit) reberenter, porrecta fuit ei Inhibitio Offic. Curie Canthuarie per quendam Monachum prædictæ Abbatis, cujus prætextu ulterius non processit hucusque, sed supersedit propter Inhibitionem illam per prædictos Monachos ei delibetam, &c. Et quia prædictus Abbas allegavit, prædictam Ecclesiam plenam esse & consultam de ipso Abbate & Conventu suo, qui illam tenent in proprios usus; & hoc paratus fuit verificare coram loci Ordinario; Et idem Abbas per prædictam Inhibitionem ipso Episcopo porrectam, prætextu cujus idem Episcopus ad verificationem p[er] dictam procedere non potuit, liberabit, renuntiando verificati-onem super hacatione Ecclesie p[re]dictae, quam prius dixit. Consideratum est quod procedatur ad assisam, &c. Et dictum est p[re]dicto Abbati, quod dicat ad verifica-tionem Assise si sibi, &c. Et Abbas dicit, quod p[re]dictus haeres nihil Juris clmare potest in p[re]dicta Advocatione, quia dicit, Quod quidam Hugo antecessor p[re]dicti haeredit, & per medium cuius, &c. dedit, concessit, & Carta sua confirmavit Deo, & beatæ Maria, & Abbati & Conventui de Deulacres, totum Jus & Clameum quod habuit in Advocatione & Patronatu Ecclesie de Chetilton; & quod concessit, quod p[re]dicti Abbas & Conventus p[re]dictam Ecclesiam cum omnibus pertinentiis & libertatibus suis habeant & possideant, liberè & quierè, purè & pacificè, sicut ad Ecclesiam suam de Leks pertinentem. Et quod ipse & haeres sui warrantizab.

&c. Et profert quandam Cartam sub nomine p[re]dicti Hugonis, quæ hoc testatur.
Unde petit Judicium, &c.

Et Nicholaus petit, quod procedatur ad Assisam, secundum quod prius consideratum; quia dicit, non est suum respondere p[re]fata Cartæ, &c. Et p[re]dictus Abbas querit, si p[re]dictus Robertus de Chetilton antecessor p[re]dicti haeredit ultimo p[re]sentavit, &c. vel non? Dicit, quod ad hoc non vult respondere, &c. Ideo cap.
Assisa; sed ponitur in respectum usque à die Sancti Johannis Baptista in 15. dies, pro defectu recognitionis, quia nullus venit. Ideo Vicecomes habeat corpora, &c.

Postea ad diem illum venerunt partes, & similiter recogn. p[re]fata Assisa. Et eidem Abbati allocatis calumpniis suis versus quamplures Recogn. quæ fuerunt allocandæ, & quæ non per Sacramentum adnubilatæ; processum est ad Assisam, &c.

Juratores dicunt super Sacramentum suum, quod p[re]dictus Robertus de Chetel-ton, & antecessor p[re]dicti haeredit cuius, &c. tempore pacis, tempore p[re]dicti Domini 7. Regis, ultimo p[re]sentavit p[re]dictum Petrum Clericum suum, qui ad
p[re]sentationem suam fuit admissus & institutus, & ultimo obiit persona in eadem a patrono p[re]sentata. Et querit, quantum temporis lapsi sit post mortem ipsius Petri? Dicunt, quod decem anni, et amplius, &c. Et quia convictum est per assisam istam, quod p[re]dictus Robertus antecess. haeredit, &c. ultimo p[re]sentavit, ut superius patet; Consideratum est, quod p[re]dictus Custos nomine p[re]dicti haeredit recuperet p[re]sentationem suam ad p[re]dictam Ecclesiam. Et habeat Breve Episcopo Coventren. & Lychfeld. quod ad p[re]sentationem p[re]dicti Custodis, ad p[re]dictam Ecclesiam, idoneam personam admittat; Et Abbas in misericordia, &c.

By which case we may discern. First, how many unjust, fraudulent tricks and devises these pretended Religious Abbots and Monks then had, to deprive infants and others of their rights of patronage unto Churches, by intrusions and pretended appropriations; 2ly, what dilatory pleas and fraudulent inhibitions unbecoming Christians, much lesse religious Votaries, they used to prevent, retard their recovery of their rights by Legal suits and processe in the Kings Courts, when they could not ingrosse the consuance of them into their own Ecclesiastical Courts, as they frequently endeavoured; which would soon have deprived all Lay-Patrons of their Advours, had their Titles been never so clear or legal.

The Bishop of Rochester presenting and instituting Robert Espre the Kings Chaplain to the Church of Waldenham, then found to be void by Walter the Parsons entry into Religion in the Church of Rochester, which he exchanged for the Church of Henlee afterwards appropriated to the Bishop and his successors, the said Walter casting off his Monks habit, and vexing the said Robert so as he was in danger to lose the said Living;
the King thereupon writ to the present Bishop of Rochester to do him right against the said Walter, and to restore him to the Church out of which he had forcibly ejected him: whereupon the Bishop admonished Walter to remove the force out of the Church, and deliver the possession thereof to Robert Espre, excommunicating him for not doing it; who contemning his Mandate and Excommunication, procured an inhibition to him out of the Court of Canterbury to which he had appealed, not to act any thing to Walters prejudice pending his appeal: whereupon the Bishop made this Certificate to the King of his proceedings therein, desiring his Majesty

Venerabili in Christo patri Th. eadem gratia Roffen. Episcopo, salutem. Cum bonæ memoriæ nuper Episcopus Roffen. ultimus prædecessor vester ratione resignationis quam dilectus Capellanus noster Robertus de Efre in manus ipsius Episcopi fecit de Ecclesiæ de Henlee Lincoln. Dioc. ejus advocacionem idem prædecessor vester a dilecto Consanguineo & fidei nostro Edmundo Comite Cornub. sibi & suis successoribus adquisivit, Ecclesiæ de Wolacham vestre Diocesi vestri etiam patronatus, quæ tunc temporis vacasse dicebatur, pro eo * quod quidam Walterus, qui Ecclesiam illam tenuit, habitum Monachalem in vestra Ecclesiæ Roffen. susceperat, præsa-to Capellano nostro contulerit, et ipsum instruerit in eadem. Qui quidem Wal-terus postmodum spretu habitu suo prædicto, et ad statum rediens prædictum, præsa-tum Capellanium nostrum super Ecclesiâ multipliciter inquietabit, et adhuc inqui-etare non cessat; ita quod idem Capellanus noster in periculo perdendi illam Ecclesiam consistit, nisi sibi subveniatur celerius in hac parte. Paternitatem vestram affectuosè requirimus & rogamus, quatinus ad factum prædecessoris vestri prædicti in præmissis vestre considerationis intuitum dirigentes, illudque plenius advertentes, prædicto Capellano nostro de Ecclesiâ prædictâ vel alia favore Regio taliter provide-re, quod promotione suâ in hac parte nullatenus defraudetur. Scituri quod si sibi secus evenerit (quod nollemus) omittere non possumus sicut nec debemus, quin eidem Capellano nostro celeri juris remedio subveniamus in hac parte, prout me-lius viderimus faciendum. Quid autem duxeritis faciendum in hac parte, nobis per latorem præsentium litterarum rescribatis. Telle meipso apud Cusford quarto die Maii anno regni nostri vicesimo. Nos igitur hujusmodi mandato vestro promtissime ut debuimus obtemperare volentes, prædictum Walterum & omnes secum vi & armis dictam Ecclesiâ occupantes per litteras nostras sufficienter monuimus, et si monitis nostris contumaciter non parerent in scriptis excommunicabimus, ut infra certum diem in litteris nostris expressum, à dicta Ecclesiâ & Domibus ad eam pertinentibus omnino recederent, ut Dominum Robertum prædictum dicta Ecclesiâ & ejus pos-sessione cum omnibus juribus suis in pace gaudere permitterent; protestantes insuper, quod si idem Walterus, qui quod sibi in eadem Ecclesiâ competere asserit, bellè prosequi coram nobis, nos eundem in sua iustitia libentissime audiremus, et quod in hac parte justum foret et canonicum faceremus; Qui dictam monitionem nostram, et excommunicationis sententiam, qua ipsos innodabimus parvipendentes, dictam Ecclesiâ contra Deum et iustitiam et pacem vestram adhuc detinent et occupant bi et armus: procurantes nihilominus nobis per Dominum Offic. Curie Cantuariensis, cui per obedientiam subijcitur, districtius inhiberi, & pendente in eadem Curia cujusdam tuitoris appellacionis negotio, quam a nobis idem Walterus se asserit interposuisse, qui quam in ejus præjudicium attemperemus seu attemptari faciamus, quo minus hujusmodi negotium tuitorium prosequi valeat cum effectu. Et quia hujusmodi armorum violentiam spiritualis gladius à dicta Ecclesiâ non sufficit amobere, dominationi vestre quam intime supplicamus, quatinus prædictam vim et armatam violentiam per vestros Ministros amoveri faciaris ab eadem Ecclesiâ et Domibus memoratis, id quod ad Coronam et Dignitatem vestram in hac parte spectare dinoscitur, secundum Deum et iustitiam ulterius exercentes. Dignita-

The Chancellor employing one of his Clerks and Creatures to carry the Popes Bulls and Kings Writs into Ireland for levying a Disme and Quindism there for the King, he rendred this account to him of his voyage thither and proceedings there- in, by these Letters which I found in the White Tower, being blamed (as it seems) for his negligence in that affair.

Venerabili in Christo patri suoque charissimo Domino, suus Clericus quem crea-vit, salutem, & cum promptitudine servituti in servitute continua se paratum.
Eccē (amantissime Domine) quam gravis afflictio additur mihi afflictio, alia id quod nuperimē vobis scripsi; Statim siquidem postquam de vobis veni Bristol. & venis commoditatem perceperim cum Bullis quas traditas mihi didisti, ut eas perpetuari facerem, ne per mortem Regis, quæ tottalis contingeret, earum retardaretur prosecutio vel effectus; fere solus & nudus, quia navis quam pro me & familia mea conduxeram ex toto non exiit preparata, cum festinatione omnimoda versas Hiberniam properavi, spe credens firmissima indignationem Regis per hoc totaliter effugisse, et ex eo gratias reportasse. Verumptamen, quia quamplurima Brevia Decimam et Quintadecimam tangentia, una cum mea familia & aliis rebus meis post me transvehend. quamtocius ut sperabam, Bristol. dimisi; quæ omnia Brevia tam ex abrupto progrediens, mecum salbo ducere non valebam, nec ipsa sicut ceteras res meas nondum acceperim, nisi vestra benignitas me dignetur prospicere, in id inci-dere dubito quod plene credidi evasisse, & pro gratiis earum (quod absit) contrarium incursisse. Ne forsitan credatur & per ministros aliquos sibi illatos, nostro Domino Regi suggeratur, quod Quintadecimæ prosecutio sit neglecta, licet ipsa ut spero effectua-liter fuerit retardata. Expediens siquidem non speret, quod illud injunctum michi nun-cium inchoassem, donec quamplurimum Hibern. Incolarum in proterbitate induratos et inboluntarios animos ad majorem affectum versus Dominum Regem plus operibus necnon verbis attraxerim allectibus. Etiam & si Quintadecimam per se non bonorum suorum concesserint citra festum Purif. beatæ Mariæ, quæ quidem concessio citius fieri non possit de hujusmodi concessione Dom. noster Rex respectu lucrum modicum reportaret. Utile est hujus rei non inchoata dilatio me potius immunem debet à culpa servare, quam præcipitatio immatura culpam. Pie pater, quia Brevia suspecta & fere omnia bona mea dubito naufragio fore perditæ, Petrum de Abyndon latorem presentium vobis misi pro nobis Brevis inpetrandis, prout vobis si placet, sicut cetera metangentia dicit plene optinui. Et quia Dominus Robertus Bagot & quamplures alii de Consilio Regis, in Hibern. me rogantur pro eodem, quod sibi committerem custodiam Actulorum et Bre-vium Regis de Banco Dublin. asserentes me hoc facere posse, id tamen noli, vestris consensu & licentia irrequisitis; absit enim, quod absque vestro precepto, quid hujusmodi facerem vel aliud quodcunque, quod contra vestram cederet voluntatem. In veritate ipsum repeto discretum, fidelem, & valde prudentem, & talis laudabilis testimonio comprobatur. Altissimus vos in prosperitate continua semper salvet. Dat. apud Dub-

Quindena Sancti Hillar. ad quem Barones & Magnates Hibern. necnon fidelis com-munitas ejusdem, ipsis duntaxat qui sunt de libertatibus certis ex causis exceptis, apud Dublin. vocati extiterant, ipsorum majorum animis, ad obtemperand. in omnibus voluntati Domini nostri Regis prius inductis, eisdem Baronibus et Magnatibus, Militibus et ceteris de communitate tunc ibidem presentibus, nuncium exposuit de Quintadecima michi injunctum. Quo exposito, omnes Hiberniæ fere Majores ipsam Quintadecimam concesserunt in forma subscripta, videlicet, Quod à prestatione & taxatione ejusdem deducantur eorum Arma, Equitatura, genera cujuscunque U-tensilia, necnon eorum Thesauri & Garderoba. Ceteri vero de vulgo & plures Magnates post immensas altercationes habitas inter ipsos, asseruerunt se guerris quotidianis grabati, et ex eo, quamplurimum ire alieno. Propter quod nisi & ipsorum debita, quæ debent, similiter deducantur, vel in tantum exonerentur versus suos Creditores, quantum solvent de Debitis illis Quintadecima nomine, ipsam nullo modo prestabunt.
Gratanter etiam & unanimiter concedentes quod Quintadecimam de debitis qua-tis debentur persolvent. Quocirca paternitati vestra placeat (Reverende) istius concessionis formam exponere Domino nostro Regi, ut sua Excellentia michi libeat demandare, quid de promissis duxerit ordinand. De eo maxime, utrum sibi placeat, quod de istius Anni nunc bonis apparentibus Quintadecima persolvatur; an ipsius alio usque in Annum futurum proximo differatur, quod magis videtur meo iudicio expedire. E-

An. 20 E. 1. terminos ordinare quibus Quintadecima debet solvi. Afferunt enim prædicti Hiberni Incola, in concessione ejusdem Quintadecima, quod ipsam nisi diffusis terminis aliquantulum solvere non possunt propter duo : primum, quia pauperes, aliud, si ex præmatura et castræ exactione ejusdem pauperiores efficiantur, citius sui inimici infideles Hibernici eis assidue machinantes, subdolis furtibus ipsos foras inbadent, deprimunt et confundunt. Propter, negotia me plura tangentia Magister Henricus de Ragle lator præsentium vobis (si placet) referri viva voce : in quorum aliquibus diuicini manus correctionis apponere, & alius vestra benignitate auxilium impetrari. Scit vobis idem Magister referre qualiter & quomodo negotium de Decima Clericorum prædanda inchoabit, & quibus viris & diligentia tam prædictum negotium quam istud studio & insister ad effectum salicem perducere & optatum. Pro certo (reverende Pater) asserere poteris Domino nostro Regi, quod Dominus David de Elington bonus & fidus amicus hactenus à tempore adventus mei in Hibern. extitit in præmissis, necnon ceteris omnibus quæ sibi injuncti ex parte prædicti nostri Domini faciendæ ; set ultra omnes quos in Hibernia sum expertus, Archiepiscopus Cassell. et immensis fidelitate et affectione quas gerit erga Dominum nostrum Regem est merito commendandus. Quia, si placet, eidem nostro Domino referatis, ut prædictus Dominus David ab indignatione quam adhuc ignorat inturrisse mandetur ; & prædictus Archiepiscopus grates ex suis benemeritiis valeat reportare. Vos in prosperitate Altissimus semper servet.

In the same Bundle of Writs of Privy Seal and Letters this year, I finde this memorable case related in a Letter concerning a devise of a Messuage in London to a Chauntry, and the probat thereof in that age, with the opposition made against it by the heir who brought an Assise of Mortuance, because the Testator died before his Seal was put unto it ; which suit the Author of this Letter endeavoured to engage the Chancellor to supersede, and make the Will inviolable.

Litteræ &
brevia Regis
de privato sigillo, Anno 20 E. 1.

Salutem & sergitum. Quia Johannes de Hakeburn, quoddam Messagium cum perueniens in Civitate London. in Testamento suo legavit Johanna uxori suæ, tenendum ad vitam ipsius Johanna, ad sustentationem unius Capellani pro anima ipsius Johannis Divina celebrandæ ; et idem Testamentum tam coram Ordinariis quam in Hustengo London. legitime est probatum, quod Dominum nostrum Cancellarium credo non latere, eo quod relatam fuit michi London. quod idem Dominus noster Cancellarius pro eodem negotio fuit in Gildhalla London. & novit probationem ejusdem testamenti, vel ad probationem ejusdem procedere præcepit : propter quod, ut superius est expressum, legitime est probatum. Et quidam Johannes le Ironmonger, qui se dicit esse fratrem & heredem ejusdem Johannis, & unus est Executorum ipsius Johannis, & pars (ut executor) probationis Testamenti prædicti quandam Assisam mortis Antecessoris attam, coram Vicecom. London. de eodem Tenemento versus prædictam Johannam, in fraudem et elusionem Testamenti prædicti, maliciose & contra Deum & Justitiam, ut à multis fidedignis in Civitate prædicta intellexi. Dilectionem vestram de qua plene confido, affectuose requiro, quatinus negotium istud Domino nostro Cancellario, qui partem ejusdem novit (ut credo) & pro quo Dominus Hugo de Cressingham scribit eidem, ostendere, & partes vestras erga ipsum efficaciter interponere velitis amore mei, ut idem Dominus noster Cancellarius quandam Associationem de Domino Johanni de Meringham Custodi & Aldermannis dictæ Civitatis concedat, juxta tenorem Cedulae quam vobis mitto præsentibus interclusam ; quam tradidit michi prædictus Dominus Hugo. Ita tamen quod si correctione indigeat, de consilio vestro & aliorum sociorum vestrorum corrigatur. Et quia Testamentum prædictum legitime probatum est, nec aliud oppositum est eidem probationi, nisi quod post idem Testamentum editum, Signillum Testatoris eidem Testamento non erat appositum, eo quod ita festinanter obiret, quod post Testamentum prædictum editum ante ejus obitum apponi non poterit eidem ; Et ultima voluntas Testatoris, et non Signilli sui appositio, facit Testamentum ; si constet prædicto Domino nostro Cancellario de probatione prædicta, sicut prædictum est, sine præjudicio melioris sententiæ, juri congruit quod scribatur Custodi & Aldermannis prædictis, qui hujusmodi facti Recordum habent, executionem Testamenti prædicti, sicut probatum est fieri faciant ; & quod Vicecomites prædicti, qui eis sunt inferiores & sui Ministri, nec aliquod aliquod Recordum inde habent in præjudicium libertatis Civitatis prædictæ, quam habent de gratia Domini Regis & non aliunde de lege vel jure, ad captionem Assisæ prædictæ in præjudicium prædictæ Johanne contra formam Testamenti prædicti nullatenus procedant. Inaudient enim est, quod id quod coram Justic. actum est & approbatum, coram Vicecom. possit aut debeat infirmari. Unde vobis placeat de isto pegotio efficaciter inromittere, vps rogo quantum possum, ut effectum sortiari possit debitum. Maxima autem malitia persecuta est in hoc facto, propter quod prædictus Dominus noster Cancellar. in Gildhalla fuit personaliter, & Custodi & Aldermannis injunxit, quod propter Assisam prædictam non omitterent quin ad probationem Testamenti prædicti et executionem ejusdem procederent, et nichilominus impetratum est Breve de Cancellaria quod Vicecomites ad captionem ejusdem Assisæ procedant; quod non est valde honestum. Et hoc dicatis (si placet) Domino nostro prædicto. Ego vero sum London. pro negotiis Converforum, & ad vos ero quam citius ego potero ubicunque vos juvero, Domino concedente. Vale.

Upon the Liberties of the Kings and Subjects of Engl. & Irel. K. Edward 1.

vos conservet ad suum servitium & vestrorum regimen, per tempora longiora cum grata commemoratione Decanat. vestri. Dat. Paris. die Lunæ post Octab. festi Purificationis beatæ Mariæ. An. 20 E. 1.

I shall now crave liberty to insert into this year and Chapter, the most remarkable claims, declarations, demonstrations of King Edward the 1. his Sovereign Dominion over the Kingdom, Kings, Prelates, Nobles, Clergy and Commonalty of Scotland, as Superior Lord of Scotland; which hath then undeniably evidenced by antient Chronicles, Historians, the Homages, Oathes made to him and his Royal Predecessors by the Kings of Scotland in former ages; the unanimous confessions, Charters, Homages, Fealty of all the Competitors to the Crown of Scotland, after the death of King Alexander, and Queen Margaret his daughter without issue, before her intended marriage to Prince Edward his son; the surrender of the whole Kingdom, with the Castles and appurtenances thereof into his hands, as Superior Lord thereof, by the Guardians of Scotland, with the unanimous consent of the Nobility, Clergy, Commonalty of that Nation; by the memorable Petitions of all the pretenders to the right and descent of the Realm and Crown of Scotland to them, after Queen Margaret's decease; who set forth their respective Titles, and submitted them all to his absolute Judicature, as their Superior Lord; who thereupon after sundry deliberate, just, legal proceedings therein, and many hearings and interpleadings, by advice and consent of his Parliament, and of the Prelates, Earls, Nobles, and most eminent Lawyers of both Kingdoms, finally adjudged the right of the Crown of Scotland to John Baliol as next heir in Law; who thereupon swore Fealty and Homage to him as to the Sovereign Lord of Scotland, after his Coronation and restitution of the Kingdom and Castles to him by the Kings Writs; who frequently summoned him to his Court, Parliaments upon complaints & appeals, for his injustice, oppressions, treachery, and confederacies with the French King against his homage and allegiance: All which particulars being only briefly, yea very imperfectly related by <sup>a</sup> Mat. Westminster, <sup>b</sup> Thomas Walsingham, <sup>c</sup> Henry de Knyghton, and the rest of our Historians, I shall here present you with at large, (for the vindication of the antient right and Sovereign Dominion of our English Kings over that Realm and Church, against all claims of usurping Popes, or ingrate perfidious, rebellious Kings of Scotland) out of a most memorable irrefragable Record then made thereof by King Edwards special command, written by two sworn Notaries approved by the Pope in a very excellent fair hand, in sundry large Rolls of parchment, now remaining in the Tower of London; the truth of each particular therein contained, with all circumstances of time, place, and other emergencies, being attested by many Bishops, Earls, Nobles, and other persons of quality of the English and Scottish Nations, present at all the Transactions, and these two sworn Notaries: Which being thus recorded by King Edward in perpetuum remembrance, to all succeeding generations, and the exactest Narrative, Record both for History, judicial and legal proceedings, rare pleadings, Pedigrees of the Scottish Royal Line, the several Titles made to the Crown of Scotland, and the completest, uncontrollable evidence of our Kings Sovereign Jurisdiction and Lordship over Scotland, this day extant, most worthy publick view, though very long, reciting sundry Patents, Charters, Oathes both in French and Latine, for the reasons therein expressed.

tas eodem regno et ejus incolis permanent in futurum. Nec est etiam suæ intentionis quicquam indebite occupare, nec aliquos justitiam differre, aut libertates diminuire seu impedire; sed (ut p[er]mittitur) tanquam superior et directus Dominus regni Scotia, jure suo uti, et omnibus et singulis facere justitiam complementum. Et ut hæc deduci valeant commodius ad effectum, idem Dominus noster Rex vestrum super præmissis ex habundanti benivolum requirit assensum, et superioritatis et directi domini hujusmodi recognitionem; Volens in his & aliis omnibus, dictum regnum Scotia tangentibus, vestris uti consiliis opportunis.

Quibus per præfatum Dominum Rogerum (ut præmittitur) nomine dicti Domini Regi Angl. peroratis, & à præfatis Episcopis & aliis Prelatis Ecclesiasticis, Comitibus, Baronibus, Magnatibus, aliisque Nobilibus de Communitate dicti regni Scotiæ ibidem presentibus plenius intellectus, iidem Episcopi & alii Prelati Ecclesiastici, Comes, Barones dicti regni Scotiæ ibidem presentes, diem ad consulendum cum absentibus dicti regni Scotia Nobilibus & Prelatis, ac communitate, & deliberandum super requisitione prædicta ipsis ex parte Domini Regis facta, & ad respondendum eidem sibi concedi cum instantia petierunt. Habitaque super hac deliberatione aliquali (licet ipsi, quid idem Dominus Rex ipso die facere & dicere voluit, fuissent primis præmitti sufficienter) ex habundanti tamen fuit eis terminus per ipsum Dominum Regem proximus sequens dies assignatus, ad audiendum deliberationem Domini Regi super jam dictis inducitur petitis denegandis vel etiam concedendis. Apostolica approbatis, ea sciatim de verbo ad verbum nihil addens vel minuens,

In primis, qualiter sub temporibus Ely & Samuelis propheta vir quidam strenuus ac insignis, a Brutus nomine, de genere Trojanorum, post excidium urbis Trojæ, cum multis Nobilibus Trojanorum in quandam Insulam tunc Albion vocatam, à gigantibus inhabitaram; quibus sua & suorum devictis potentia & occisis, eam nomine suo Britanniam, sociosque suos Britones appellavit. Et adificavit Civitatem, quam Troino-vantium nuncupavit, qua modo Londonia appellatur. Et postea idem Brutus dictam Insulam in tres partes dividens, eam tribus suis filiis reliquit possidendam, Logrino videlicet, Albinacto, & Cambro: Logrino vero quia primogenito, illam partem Britanniæ, qua nunc Anglia vocatur, cum imperiaute et dominio partium aliarum; Albinacto vero secundo suo nato illam partem Britannicæ, qua tunc a nomine Albinacti Albinia dicta, nunc vero Scotia nuncupatur; Cambro vero tertio suo filio partem illam qua tunc suo nomine Cambria, nunc vero Wallia vocatur; relictam tamen Logrino sententi regis semper dignitate. Petebat enim Trojana consuetudo, quod dignitas hereditatis primogenito proveniret. Biennio vero post mortem Bruti applicuit in Albinia quidam Rex Humorum nomine Humber, & Albinactum fratrem Logrini occidit.
Quo audito Logrinus Rex Britannorum periculum est eum, qui fugiens submersus est in flumine quod de nomine suo Humber vocatur, & sic Albinia revertitur ad dictam Logrinum. Hoc autem in Historia Bruti. Item, in Chronicis Mariani Scoti, b Rogeri de Hoveden, & c Willielmi de Malmesbyr. (quorum compilationes & libri in diversis Monasteriis & locis aliis utriusque regni inveniuntur) inter cetera reperitur, Quod anno Domini 901. Edwardus Monarcha Angliæ cognomento senior filius, d Eluredi Scotorum, Humbrorum & Stregewallorum Reges, suæ ditioni subegit, et in veditionem recepit. Et quod anno Domini 911. Rex Scotorum cum tota gente, &
Reginaldus Rex Danorum, cum Danis & Anglis Northumbriam incolentibus, &
Rex etiam Stregewallorum cum suis, eundem Regem Edwardum Abi Imperatorem et Dominum elegerunt, armisque laevis cum eo pepigerunt. Item, quod anno Domini 914. idem Edwardus Rex Angliæ cum illis Britanniam incolentibus Anglorum, Scotorum, Cumbrorum, Danorum, & Britonum populo præfuit. Item, quod anno Domini 926. e Adelstanus filius & immediatus successor ejusdem Edwardi, Constanti-num Regem Scotorum, & Danorum Regem praelio vicit & fugavit, qui postmodum cum ipso factis pepigerunt, in loco qui dicitur Eموthe, quarto Idus Julii. Hoc autem invenitur in Chronicis Mariani Scoti & Rogeri de Hoveden in multis libris. Et in Chronicis Willielmi de Malmesbyr. Henr. de Huntingdon, & Radulphi de Diceto, inter cetera sic invenitur. Adelstanus Rex Angliæ Constantinum Regem Scotorum cedere regno compulsi, quem tamen postea regno Scotiæ privatum per ipsum sub se regnavit, sicut prius, gratiosus; dicens consilio suo remittens, Gloriosus est Regem facere quam esse. Item, anno Domini 934. idem Adelstanus Rex Angliæ eundem Constantinum Regem Scotorum rebellantem devicit et fugavit, & terram Scotiæ usque Dunfermelin vastavit. Qui Constantinus postea filium suum dicto Adelstano Regi cum dignis muneribus in obsidem tradidit, & sic pacificatus. Et hoc in Chronicis Mariani Scoti, Rogeri de Hoveden, Henrici de Huntingdon, & Radulphi de Diceto, in multis libris invenitur. Et in Chronicis Willielmi de Malmesbyr. in multis libris inter cetera reperitur, quod anno Domini 937. Eugenius Rex Cumbrorum, & Con-stantinus Rex Scotorum, in loco qui dicitur Dacorum venientes, se cum suis regibus eidem Adelstano Regi Angliæ dederunt; cujus patris gratia filium Constantini passum baptizari idem Adelstanus de sacro fonte suscepit. Item, anno Domini 940.
Adelstano prædicto defuncto, successit sibi in regnum Edmundus frater ejus, qui reg-navit septem annos sine rebellione Scotorum. Item, in Chronicis Mariani Scoti, f Wil-lielmi de Malmesbyr, & Henrici de Huntingdon in multis libris invenitur, quod anno Domini 947. Edredus frater Adelstani minor, dicto Edmundo fratri suo suc-cessit; qui Northumbriis devictis, in Scotiam vexilla direxit: Et Scoti nimio terrarum perculsi, sine bello se subdiderunt eidem, et fidelitatem Abi et Domino debitam iuraverunt; Quodam Rege, Yritio nomine, per ipsam super ipsos Scotos tunc statum.
Item, anno Domini 955. mortuo Rege Edredo prædicto, successit sibi Edwinus filius

dicti Edmundi fratris Edredi Regis, qui regnavit quatuor annis, cujus tempore Scoti non rebellaverunt. Item, in Chronica Mariani Scoti, Rogeri de Hoveden, b Willielmi de Malmesbyr. Henrici de Huntingdon, & Radulphi de Diceto, in multis libris invenitur, quod anno Domini 978. Edgarus Rex Angliæ, qui immediatus successit Edwino Regi fratri suo, Regem Scotorum Kinadium, Malcolmum Cumbrorem, & Marcum Regem plurimarum Insularum, aliosque quinque Subregulos ad Curiam suam coactos, uno et perpetuo sacramento sibi obligavit, adeo ut apud c Civitatem Legionum eidem ut mandatas occurrentes in pompam triumphi per flumen de Edene illos deduceret una in navis impositos prope proram sedens remigare cogeret, affectans per huc regalem suam magnificentiam, qui tot Regum potentiam sibi subiectam haberet distare. Dixit tunc demum, posse successores suos glorari, se Anglorum Reges esse, cum tanta honorum prerogativa fruerentur. Et quod in quodam convivio fama fuit dictum Regem Scotorum Kinadium ludibunde dixisse, mirum videri tot provincias subijci Edgardo tam vili homuncioni: Quod Edgarum postea non latuit; Qui statim dictam Kinadium accersivit, & quasi consulendi gratia longe in Sylvam ipsum deducens, unum e duobus cubus, quos secum attulit, eidem tradidit dicens, Nunc licebit tibi vires tuas experire, cum soli sumus, jam enim fac, ut appareat, quis alteri merito subijci debeat, turpe enim est Regem esse in convivio dicaculum nec esse in pralio promptum: Et confusus ille statim ad pedes Regis cecidit, simplicis sui vitii veniam precatus est, & confectus. Item, anno Dom. 985. successit Regi Edgardo Sanctus Edwardus Martyr, filius dicti Edgari, qui anno regni sui quarto sub noverca sua Altritha martyrium passus est, cujus tempore Scoti non rebellaverunt. Item, anno Domini 980. successit Sancto Edwardo Egelredus frater ejus, qui regnavit triginta annis, cujus tempore nihil invenitur de rebellione Scotorum. Item, anno Domini 1016. successit Egelredo Edmundus Ironside filius ejus, qui primo anno regni sui apud Oxoniam a filio Erici Ducis proditus se interfecit. Item, anno Domini 1017. Rex Kanutus Danus successit in regnum Angliæ, qui anno regni sui 15 Romam profectus est, & elemosinis peccata redimens eodem anno navigio in Angliam rediit; & mox Scotiam rebellantem Regemque ipsius Malcolmum expeditione illius educta parvo subegit negotio, subdicensq; est ex dictis Malcolmus Rex Scotorum, & alii duo Reges Melbrache & Gernake: & quod postmodum scriptum invenitur de eodem Knuto in Chronica Mariani Scoti, Willielmi de Malmesbir. Henr. de Huntingdon, & Radulphi de Diceto in multis libris; Grat Reg Knutus Dominus totius Dacie, totius Angliæ, totius Norwegiæ, et totius Scotiæ. Item, Anno Domini 1035. successit Regi Knuto Haraldus filius ejus, qui regnavit quatuor annis & quatuor mensibus, cujus tempore nihil invenitur de rebellione Scotorum. Item, Anno Domini 1040. Regi Haraldo successit Hardeknutus frater ejus, qui cum biennio præter decem dies regnasset, apud Lamehethe mortuus est, cujus tempore nihil invenitur de rebellione Scotorum. Item, in Chronica Mariani Scoti, Rogeri de Hoveden, Henr. de Huntingdon, Radulphi de Diceto, & Willielmi de Malmesbir. in multis libris, & etiam in Chronica Sancti Albani sic invenitur; Quod Anno Domini 1047. dicto Hardeknuto successit Edwardus, qui cognominatus est Justus, filius Egelredi Regis, cujus jussu Dux Northumbrorem cum Regi Scotorum Machiota prælum commisit, ipsumque vita et regno spoliavit, et Malcolmum filium Regis Cumbrorem jussu dicti Regis Edwardi Regem Scotorum constituit. Et alibi in eisdem Chronica Rex Edwardus cognomento Justus, dedit regnum Scotiæ Malcolmum filio Regis Cumbrorem de se tenendum. Item, Anno Domini 1066. Haraldus filius Godwinus Comes Cantuæ, electus fuit in Regem Angliæ, qui primo anno regni sui in bello contra Willielmum dictum Bastard. conquestorem occubuit. Item, in Chronica Mariani Scoti, Rogeri de Hoveden, & Henr. de Huntingdon invenitur, quod Anno Domini 1066. Willielmus dictus Bastard. Angliam est ingressus, & sexto anno regni sui, Malcolmum Rege Scotorum rebellante, per terram & mare exercitum duxit in Scotiam, & eidem Malcolmum in loco qui dicitur Abrenithy occurrat, & Malcolmus suus homo debetur. Et in Chronica Sancti Albani invenitur, quod Rex Willielmus dictus Bastardus, recepto a dicto Rege Scotorum Malcolmum homagio et obsequio, in Angliam est reversus. Item, in Chronica Mariani Scoti, & Rogeri de Hoveden. in multis libris invenitur;

An. 20 E. 1. Quod Anno Domini 1086. successit eidem Willielmo Bastard. Willielmus Ruffus filius ejus, qui anno 14. regni sui rebellavit Malcolmus Rex Scotorum & Northumbriam invadente, cum Roberto fratre suo acies in Scotiam direxit, cui Malcolmus occurrit, & pax inter eos facta est conditione tali, ut idem Malcolmus Rex Scotiarum eidem Willielmo Regi Angliæ, sicut patri suo fecerat, obediret. Et in Cronica Henrici de Huntingdon invenitur, quod Willielmo dicto Ruffo Rege Angliæ acies in Scotiam direxerat, Malcolmus Rex Scotorum nimio terrore perterritus, homo ipse Regis Willielmi effugit, et eidem juramento fidelitatis est subiectus. Item in Cronica Mariae Scoti, Rogeri de Hoveden, Willielmi de Malmesbur. & Henrici de Huntingdon in multis libris invenitur, Quod Anno Domini 1094. Malcolmus Rex Scotorum interfecit unum cum Edwardo primogenito in Northumbria per Morellum Militem strenuissimum, Scoti elegerunt Dovaldum fratrem ejusdem Malcolmus in Regem: Quo audito, Dancanus filius Malcolmus ad Regem Angliæ Willielmum, cuius tunc obses erat, accessit, et ut sibi patris sui concederet, postulavit, et etiam impetravit ab eodem, et sibi fidelitatem juravit, et sic ad Scotiam properavit, & Dovaldum patrem suum de regno Scotiarum expulit, & loco suo regnabit. Et anno sequenti dicto Dancano de loco perempto, dictus Dovaldus iterum regnum Scotiarum invasit; quem dictus Rex Willielmus de regno expulit, & Edgarum filium Malcolmus prædixi Regem Scotorum constituit. Item, in Cronica Henr. de Huntingdon in multis literis invenitur, Quod Anno Domini 1100. dicto Willielmo Ruffo Rege Angliæ successit Henr. senior frater ejus; Cujus regni anno septimo Edgarus Rex Scotiarum decessit: Cui successit Alexander frater ejusdem Edgarus de consensu Domini Regis Henrici. Item, in Cronica Mariae Scoti, Rogeri de Hoveden, & Henrici de Huntingdon invenitur, Quod anno Domini 1106. Rege Henr. seniore defuncto, successit eidem Rex Stephanus, cuius regni anno primo, cum à David tunc Rege Scotorum homagium peteret et fidelitatem, et ipse id ei facere recusavit, quia primus erat omnium Scotorum qui homagium et fidelitatem fecerat Matildi Imperatrici. Filius tamen ejusdem David Henr. nomine fecit homagium dicto Regi Stephano. Item, in Cronica Rogeri de Hoveden in multis libris invenitur, quod anno Domini 1154. Regi Stephano prædicto successit Henricus secundus filius Imperatricis, cuius anno regni sui 11. obiit Malcolmus Rex Scotorum, cui successit Willielmus frater ejus. Et anno dicti Regis Henrici vicesimo primo in crastino Coronationis Henrici filii sui fecit Rex Henr. pater Willielmum Regem Scotorum et David fratrem suum, et Comites et Barones regni Scotiarum debere homines filii sui Regis Angliæ, et jurare sibi fidelitatem contra omnes homines; solva tamen sibi fidelitatem suam, quam eidem prius juraverat. Item, anno Domini 1164. & regni dicti Henrici Regis patri vicesimo, dictus Willielmus Rex Scotorum rebellare incipiens venit in Northumbriam cum ingenti exercitu, & stragem magnam exercuit in populo; cui occurrentes Milites Comitatus Eborum apud Alnewyk ipsum ceperunt, & dicto Henrico Regi tradiderunt. Et anno Domini 1175. 15. Kal. Martii, Willielmus Rex Scotorum liber abire permittitur: & eodem anno trista die post assumptionem beate Mariæ Virginis, scilicet 17. Kal. Septembr. apud Eborum facta fuit hac conventio: & finis inter prædictum Henricum Regem Angliæ & prædictum Willielmum Regem Scotiarum. Cujus conventionis & finis in omnibus & per omnia tenor est talis.

Hæc est Conventio & Finis, quem Willielmus Rex Scotorum fecit cum Domino suo Domino Henrico Rege Angliæ filio Matildi Imperatricis. Willielmus Rex Scotorum devenit homo ligens Domino Regi Angliæ Henr. contra omnem hominem de Scotia & de omnibus aliis terris suis; & fidelitatem ei fecit ut ligio Domino suo, sicut alii homines sui ipsi facere solent. Et similiter fecit homagium Henrico Regi filio suo, salva fide Domino Regis patris sui. Omnes vero Episcopi et Abbates et Clerici terræ Regis Scotie et successores sui facient Domino Regi Angliæ sicut ligio Domino fidelitatem, de quibus habere voluerit, sicut alii Episcopi sui facere solent, et Henrico Regi filio suo et hæredibus suis. Concessit autem Rex Scotia, ut David frater ejus, & Barones, & alii homines sui Domino Regi Angliæ, Quod Ecclesia Scotiana totalem subjectionem amodo faceret Ecclesiæ Anglicanæ, qualem illi facere debet et solebat tempore Regum Angliæ prædecessorum suorum. Similiter Richardus Episcopus Sancti Andree, & Ricardus Episcopus Dunelm. & Galfridus Abbas de Dunfermelin. & Herbertus Prior de Goldingham concesserunt; Quod etiam Ecclesia Anglicana illud jus habeat in Ecclesia Scotiana, quod de jure habere debet; et et quod ipsi non erunt contra ius Ecclesie Anglicane. Et deficiunt ligiam fidelitatem Domino Regi Anglia & Henrico filio suo fecerunt, eos inde asscuraverunt. Hoc idem facient alii Episcopi et Clerus Scotia per conventionem inter Dominum Regem Anglia, et Regem Scotia, et David fratrem suum et Barones suos factam, Comites etiam & Barones et alii homines de terra Regis Scotia, de quibus Dominus Rex Anglia habere voluerit, facient ei homagium contra omnem hominem, et fidelitatem ut ligio Domino, sicut alii homines sui ei facere solent; & Henrico Regi filio suo et heredibus suis, salva fide Domini Regis patris sui. Similiter heredes Regis Scotia, et Baronum et hominum suorum homagium et ligeantiam facient heredibus Domini Regis Anglia contra omnem hominem. Præterea, Rex Scotia & homines sui nullum amodo fugitivum de terra Domini Regis Anglia pro feloniam receptabunt in Scotia vel in alia terra sua, nisi voluerit venire ad rectum in Curia Domini Regis Anglia, et stare iudicio Curie sue; sed Rex Scotia & homines sui quancumque poterunt eum capient, et Domino Regi Anglia reddent, vel Justiciariis aut Ballivis suis in Anglia. Si autem de terra Regis Scotia aliquis fugitivus fuerit pro feloniam in Anglia, nisi voluerit venire ad rectum in Curia Domini Regis Scotia, vel in Curia Domini Regis Anglia, et stare iudicio Curie, non receptabitur in terra Domini Regis Anglia, sed liberabitur hominibus Regis Scotia per Ballivos Domini Regis Anglia, ubi inventus fuerit. Præterea homines Domini Regis Anglia habebunt terras suas quas habebant, et habere debent de Domino Rege Anglia, & de Rege Scotia et de heredibus suis. Et homines Regis Scotia habebunt terras suas quas habebant & habere debent de Domino Rege Anglia & de hominibus suis. Pro ista vero conventionem et sine firmiter observanda Domino Henrico Regi Anglia et Henrico filio et heredibus suis à Rege Scotia et heredibus suis, liberavit idem Rex Scotia Domino Regi Anglia Castellum de Roxburgh, et Castellum de Berwyk, et Castellum de Jedburgh, et Castellum de Pothburgh, et Castellum de Striveling in misericordia Domini Regis Anglia; Et ad custodiendum castella illa assignavit Rex Scotia de redditu suo mensuraliter ad voluntatem Domini Regis Anglia. Præterea pro prædicta conventionem et sine exequenda, liberavit Rex Scotia Domino Regi Anglia David fratrem suum in obsidem et Comitem Dunelm, et Comitem Waldem, et Comitem Gilbertum, et Comitem de Argez, et Ricardum de Morvilla Constabularium et Neth. filium Willielmi, et Ricardum Comyn, et Walterum Corbet, et Walterum Olisard, et Johannem de Vaux, et Willielmum de Lyndesey, et Philippum de Colvill, et Philippum de Valognes, et Robertum Fremberd, et Robertum de Burneville, et Hugonem Giffard, et Hugonem Rydell, et Walterum de Bergh, et Willielmum de la Hage, et Willielmum de Mortimer. Quando vero Castella reddita fuerint, Willielmus Rex Scotia et David frater suus liberabuntur. Comites quidem et Barones prænominati unusquisque postquam liberaverit obsidem suum scilicet filium suum legitimum quem habuerit, et alii nepotes suos vel propinquiore sibi heredes, et Castellis (ut dictum est) redditis, liberabuntur. Præterea Rex Scotia et Barones sui prænominati asscuraverint, quod ipsi bona fide et sine malo ingenio sive occasione facient, quod Episcopi et Barones et homines terrarum suarum, qui non assuerint quando Rex Scotia cum Rege Anglia finivit, eandem ligeantiam et fidelitatem Domino Regi Anglia et Henr. filio suo facient quam ipsi fecerunt; Et quod Barones & homines qui assuerunt obsides liberabunt Domino Regi Anglia de quibus habere voluerit. Præterea Episcopi, Comites & Barones conventionaverunt dicto Regi Anglia & Henrico filio suo, Quod si Rex Scotia aliquo casu à fidelitate Domini Regis Anglia, & filii sui, & à Conventionem prædictam recederet, ipsi cum Domino Rege Anglia tenebunt sicut cum ligio Domino suo contra Regem Scotia, donec ipse ad fidelitatem Domini Regis Anglia redeat. Prædictam itaque conventionem firmiter observandam bona fide & sine malo ingenio Domino Regi Anglia & Henrico filio suo & heredibus suis à Willielmo Rege Scotia, & David fratre suo, & à Baronibus suis prædictis, & ab heredibus eorum asscuraverit ipse Rex Scotia David frater suus & omnes Barones sui prænominati deficiunt ligi homines Domini Regis Anglia contra omnem hominem, & Henrici filii sui, salva fidelitate Domini Regis patris sui. Huius itaque vocitatis in Ecclesia Sancti Petri Eborum coram praedictis Regibus Anglia, & etiam Rege Scotiz & David fratre suo, & universo populo, Episcopi, Comites, Barones et Milites de terra Regis Scotia iuraverunt Domino Regi Anglia et Henrico filio suo et heredibus eorum fidelitatem contra omnem hominem sicut ligetis Dominis suis. Item in Chronicis eiusdem Rogeri de Hoveden in multis libris invenitur, quod Anno Domini 1199. dicto Regi Ricardus successit Johannes frater eius, qui statim post Coronationem suam misit Philippum Dunolm. & Rogerum Bigod, & quosdam alios Nobiles ad dictum Willielmum Regem Scotorum cum literis Regis de salvo conductu, & statuit sibi diem veniendi apud Lincoln. in crastino Sancti Edmundi Regis. Quo die mensis videlicet Novembris, 8. Kal. Decembris, feria quinta, idem Rex Johannes Anglia & Willielmus Rex Scotiz conveniunt ad colloquium extra Civitatem Lincoln, super montem arduum, et ibi in conspectu omnis populi idem Willielmus Rex Scotorum debuit homo ligius praedicti Regis Anglia Johannis, et fidelitatem sibi iuravit super crucem Huberti Cantuar. Archiepiscopi de vita et membro et terreno honore contra omnes homines, et de pace servanda sibi et regno suo. Item in Chronicis Monasterii de Bridelington, & aliis quampluribus invenitur, quod Anno Domini 1209. mense Junii, apud Berewicum super Twedam idem Rex Anglia Johannes castrum construxit, & contra Willielmum Regem Scotorum exercitum suum copiosum congregavit ad bellandum eum pro eo, quod filiam suam desponsaverat Comiti Boloniæ præter assensum ipsius Regis Anglia Johannis. Et in Chronicis Monasterii de Kyngswede Wygorn. Dioc. invenitur, quod eodem anno pace inter ipsos Reges reformatæ, cito idem Rex revertebatur in Angliam, datus sibi duabus filiabus dicti Regis Willielmi in obsidibus. Item in Chronicis Monasterii Sancti Albani invenitur, quod Anno Domini 1216. dicto Regi Anglia Johanni successit Henricus filius suus, cuius regni anno tricesimo quinto, idem Rex Henricus cum Regina sua Anglia, & multitudine Prælatorum Anglia apud Ebor. congregati in festo Nativitatis Domini, tractarunt de Matrimonio contrahendo inter Alexandrum Regem Scotorum filium dicti Willielmi Regis, & Margaretam filiam dicti Regis Henrici. Et in die Sancti Stephani proximo sequente idem Rex Alexander dictam Margaretam solemniter desponsavit. Et eodem die fecit idem Alexander homagium dicto Regi Anglia Henr. Et commissæ est dicta Regina Scotiz tutela Roberti de Ros & Johannis de Balliolo, & etiam regnum Scotiz cum Rege Alexandro praedicto de consilio Magnatum utriusque regni. Item in quadam Charta Regis Scotiz Edgari filii Malcolmi facta Ecclesia Dunolm. inter cetera continetur: Quod idem Rex Edgarus recognoscit se possidere totam terram de Louneys et etiam Regnum Scotiz de dono Domini sui Willielmi Regis Angli. Et in carta Willielmi Regis Scotorum facta dicto Regi Anglia Johanni continetur: Quod idem Rex Willielmus concessit carissimo Domino suo Domino Johanni Regi Anglia, quod maritet dictum Alexandrum filium suum sicut hominem suum ligum, ubicunque deluerit ad fidem, ita quod non disparagatur. Item in quibusdam literis Apostolicis sub nomine felicis recordationis Domini quondam Honorii Papa tertii conceptis, & ipsius bulla plumbea more Romanz Curie pendens, bullatis, inter cetera continentur; Ad hac Regi Scotorum ipsum Regem Angliz Dominum suum nequiter impugnanti, ac propter hoc excommunicationis vinculo innodato, &c. Item, & in quibusdam aliis literis Papalibus sub nomine felicis recordationis Domini quondam Gregorii Papa noni conceptis, & bulla sua plumbea more Romanz Curie pendens, bullatis Regi Scotiz directis, similiter inter cetera continentur; Quod jamdudum inter clara memoria Henricum avum, & Johannem patrem Regis Angliz ultimi ex parte una, & Willielmum Regem Scotorum ex altera, Compositio amicabile intercessit, per quam ipse Willielmus predictis avo & patri & eidem Regi Angliz, ac Alexander Rex Scotiz filius ejusdem Willielmi Regibus Angliz Johanni & Henrico ligium homagium, et fidelitatem fecerunt, quz tenentur successores eorum et Comites et Barones Regni Scotiz ipsi et suis successoribus exhibere, ac Comites et Barones esse cum Regibus Angliz contra Reges Scotiz, si compositionem eandem fortitan non serbarent. Item, idem Gregorius similiter in suis literis sub nomine suo conceptis, & bulla sua plumbea more Romanz Curie pendens, bullatis, inter alia scribit Archiepiscopo Eborum, & Episcopo Carleolen. quod moneant et inducant dictum Regem Scotiz supradictam amicabilem Compositionem observare. Item, ad hac in aliis ejusdem Papa Gregorii noni literis dicto Regi Scotiz directis inter cetera continentur; Quod cum idem Rex Scotiz homo ligius sit ipsius Henrici Regis Angliz, et eidem fidelitatis preestiterit juramentum, quo se principaliter stringit, quod in ipsius Regis Angliz et regni sui detrimentum nihil penitus debeat attemptare, &c. Item, Clemens Papa scribens Henrico Regi Angliz pro Johanne Episcopo Sancti Andree expulso ab Episcopatu suo per Regem Scotiz, inter cetera sibi mandat, quod Willielmum Regem Scotiz moneat & inducat, et si necesse fuerit, districtione Megali, qua ei preeminet et concessa fuit Regis Celsitudinis potestate compellat, ut dicto Episcopo omnem rancorem remittat, ipsumque Episcopatum suum habere permittat in pace. Item, in quodam libro de vita & miraculis beati Johannis de Beverlaco, quz sunt per Romanam Curiam approbata, similiter inter cetera reperitur. Regnante incito Rege Adelstano viro Catholico qui Monarchiam totius Angliz tenuit, Scotorum Rex cum suis transito flumine qui dividit Angliz regnum a Scotia, capis depopulare villas, homines exterminare, agros aspradare, & (ut verum fatear) totam regionem in exterminium conabatur deducere in Septentrionali parte Angliz. Quod cum fama volente prefatus Rex compertisset, congregato exercitu statim (quam citius enim potuit) armata manu ei occurrere. Provisisque interim necessariis propositum carperet iter. Cumque in provincia Lincoln. devenisset, quidam evanescentes tam pauperes quam mediocres obvii sibi facti sunt; Quos cum interrogasset, qua esset causa tanti gaudii, & unde venirent? responderunt, quod de Beverlaco venirent, ubi sanctum Johannes Confessor quosdam ex eis variis infirmitatibus oppressos gratia Dei sanos effecerat, & hac erat causa tanta letitia. Et inde progrediens iterum alios catervatim venientes obvios habuit; quos cum similiter requisivisset, unde venirent? Illi vero responderunt, quod de Beverlaco ubi quosdam ex eis vel mutos, vel elandos, cecos vel surdos mira Deipotentia sanctus Dei Confessor sanaverat. Cumque Rex venerandum hunc Confessorem in tanta veneratione habitum, & per Deum tanta operari valuisse compertisset, habito consilio cum suis, dixit se debere talem patronum adire, ut sibi in instanti negotio subveniret. Transmisitque suum exercitum per occidentalem regionem versus Eborum, ut cum ibi prastolarentur, ipse vero transito flumine Humbre venit Beverlacum, procumbensque in oratione in Ecclesia coram Altare in presentia reliquiarum venerandi confessoris, devoto animo prolixius orabat. Exurgensque deinde ab oratione coram adstantibus tam Clericis quam Laicis & ascultantibus, talem orationem exorsus est, dicens. O gloriose Confessor Johannes qui tot virtutibus & signis refulges (ut fama refert) precor te ut mihi subvenire digneris per intercessionem tuam apud Deum in instanti negotio, ut inimicorum infestationem pernociam, te patrocinante, exsuperare queam. Et continuo extrahens cultellum suum de vagina posuit super altare, dicens; Ecce vadium meum coram te pono, quod te auxiliante vita comite rediens recipiam, ita quod Ecclesiam

An. 20 F. 1. Ecclesiam tuam honorificabo & redditibus augebo, si Dei nutu tuoque suffragio hostes debellare quivero. Custodes vero Ecclesia qui aderant, suggererant sibi, ne signum aliquod inde secum in monumentum asportaret. Et fecit quoddam vexillum sibi de eadem Ecclesia proferri, consignans se ad suum exercitum reversus est. Cumque Scoti audissent Anglorum exercitum advenire, non sunt ausi eos in finibus eorum expectare, nec campestri bello eis resistere, sed transfretaverunt Flumen quod dicitur Scotorum vadium, ut ibi infra proprios terminos securius se in bello ad resistendum parare possent. Rex vero Adalstanus cum omni exercitu Angliæ, cum ad Flumen pervenisset, edixit Scotos transisse, & praecepit suis super ripam fluminis sua tentoria figere, ibique aliquantulum pausare. Subsequentis nocte quiescentibus cunctis cum suo Rege, talis visio eidem Regi apparuit ceteris dormientibus, & omnino ignorantibus. **Videbatur enim ei, quod quidam Pontificali habitu indutus coram se adstaret, sibi que diceret; Adalstane Rex, fac tuos in crastinum præparari, ut transeant flumen illud ad debellandum contra Scotos. Cumque interrogaret Rex, Quisnam esset qui talia sibi diceret? Respondit qui astabat, quod ipse esset Johannes, eius precibus expetierat se protegi, cum Beverlaci in ejusdem Ecclesia oraret. Subinde statim intulit; Noli timere cum exercitu transire armato; nam debellabis eos; hoc enim tibi nunciare veni. Mane itaque facto curavit Rex suis visionem patifacere, & de victoria certificare. Qui latentes animati sunt ad certamen; & transfretare flumen. Scotos vero invenerunt cum suo Rege paratos ad resistendum. Commissoque gravi prælio, multi ex Scotis perierunt, vivus autem vix ipsorum Rex effugit ad totius regni confusionem & desolationem. Quo viso, Rex Angliæ laus effectus gratias Regis Deo, venerandoque Confessori, videlicet Johanni suo intercessori, totumque regnum continuo suo subjugavit imperio, continens & perlustrans cunctam illius terra provinciam, principes & præpositos urbium, indicens eis, ut tributa sibi suisque successoribus, scilicet Angliæ Regibus, ex debito persolverent. Septem etiam Insulas adiacentes etque vicinas sibi servire compulit; et tam diu in istis partibus commoratus est, quod jam tres anni finirentur. Jamque revertens per loca maritima juxta Danbar vidit Scopulos prominere. Aspexit, taliaque suspirans eloquia protulit, dicens; Si Deus, interveniente beato Johanne mihi aliquod signum evidens facere permittat, quatenus tam succedentes quam præsentis cognoscere possent Scotiam Anglorum regno jure subjugari utpote devictam ab Adalstano Rege, sibi que et suis successoribus tributum omni tempore debere persolvere, non immerito illi devotè gratias agerem. \ Extrahens gladium de vagina percussit in scilicem, qua adeo penetrabilis (Dei viriute agente) fuit gladio, quam si eadem hora lapis butyrum esset, vel molli glarea, qui lapis ad istum gladii ita concavatur, ut mensura ulna longitudine possit coaptari, et usque ad præsentem diem evidens signum patet, quod Scoti ab Angliis debiti et subjugati, monumento tali evidenter cunctis adeuntibus demonstrante. Item, de homagio Domino Regi Angliæ debito de terra Galwydiæ subscripta inveniantur; anno Domini 1185. mense Augusto apud Carleolum, Rolandus Galwydiæ Dominus, illic, ut jussu fuerat, Domino Regi occurrens, in deditionem sponte venit; veritatem tamen (ut creditur) exercitus multitudinem quam ad debellandum cum Rex ipse adduxerat, nisi maturius captam contumaciam reliquisset. Accepit itaque homagio ipsius Rolandi de Gawydia, simul et Comitibus David fratris Willielmi tunc Regis Scotiæ de omnibus terris, quæ tenebat, demisitque Rex exercitum suum & in Angliam cessavit. Anno regni Regis Henrici viceimo secundo Gilbertus filius Fergus princeps Galwennorum venit in Angliam in conductum Regis Scotiæ, et debent homo ligatus Henrici Regis patriæ, et fidelitatem sibi jurabit contra omnes homines. scripta organum suum constituens, prefatus Episcopus, Prælatique alii Ecclesiastici Comitibus, Baronibus & Nobilibus de communitate dicti regni Scotiæ destinavit. Qui cum ad ipsos venisset, statim quævisit ab eisdem nomine, et vice, ac de mandato speciali dicti Regis Angliæ, ut dicebat, quid jam super dilatione superscripta, quam alias, ut præmittitur, a dicto Domino Rege Angliæ petierant, et eisdem concessa fuere ut petebant per eundem, fecissent; & hoc vicibus iteratis, et an aliqua dicere, exhibere, proponere, vel etiam ostendere voluissent, quæ ipsum Dominum Regem Angliæ a jure Superioritatis et directi Domini regni Scotiæ, ejusque exercitio et executione excludere poterant et de jure debebant, et quod ea, secundum quod dies deliberabat, proponerent et etiam exhiberent, si sibi crederent expedire: protestans se peratum esse nomine dicti Regis Angliæ et velle ea benigne audire, et ipsa quatenus justum fuerit allocare, vel ea Domino Regi Angliæ suoque consilio referre; ut ipse super hiis, quid de jure faciendum fuerit, deliberare valeret, et facere, quod iustitia requirebat; Ipsique licet pluries super hoc requisiti, omnino tacentibus, nihilque dicentibus, exhibentibus, ostendentibus, vel etiam proponentibus, eisdem ex parte dicti Domini Regis Angliæ & ejus nomine, subscripta sibi injuncta dicenda (ut dicebat) organo vocis suæ (sermone tamen Gallico) dixit & exposuit, hunc tamen habentia sententialiter intellectum.

Excellentissimus Princeps & Dominus noster, Dominus Edwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ illustris, Superior et directus Dominus regni Scotiæ, desolatum statum ejusdem perpendens, & ex Principis sive Regis sui destitutione condolens, & pericula, quæ etiam regno huius diebus per dissensiones Magnatum ejusdem, quorum quilibet jus successionis sibi competere vendicat, & super hoc ad invicem contentiunt, provenire poterunt, considerans: ob affectionem zeli & desiderium boni, quod habebat & habet ad dictum regnum & incolas ejusdem, & præcipue ad ipsos quorum tutio & defensio ad eum spectare dinoscitur, & ut discordantes ad concordiam reducat, lites, quæstiones & jurgia, quæ inter Nobiles prædictos jus ad idem regnum sibi competere vendicantes, audiret & sine debito terminaret, & tranquillitatem & pacem in dicto regno conservaret, & unicuique petenti iustitiæ faceret complementum, nuper nonnullos regni Scotiæ Episcopos, Prælatosque alios, Comites, Barones, & Nobiles alios in multitudine copiosa convocavit; & per suas eorum tenoris literas mandavit eisdem, ut in quindena Pascha proximo præterit, apud North. Danelm. Dioc. in confinio Angliæ & Scotiæ regnorum convenirent cum ipso, super quibusdam ipsos & statum regni Scotiæ tangentibus tractaturi; ad quem locum in termino statuto se significabat personaliter declinaturum. Quo termino adveniente, ipsoque Domino nostro Rege in loco prædicto existente, vos Episcopi, Prælatique alii Ecclesiastici, Comites, Barones, & Nobiles alii dicti regni Scotiæ juxta formam & effectum mandati Domini Regis vobis directi ad eundem locum accedentes, requisitionem quandam recognitionis benivolæ juris sui Superioritatis et directi Domini regni Scotiæ, quod suum esse dicebat, et in cuius possessione, vel quasi progenitores sui Angliæ Reges, a tempore cuius contrarii memoria non extitit, fuerint, et adhuc ipse est, quod per nonnullas rationes evidentissimas et per scripturas antiquas approbatas, processus atque cronicas in diversis utriusque regni Monumentis compertas, certa que alia documenta ebidenter et sufficienter vobis ibidem ostendebat, et ostendere semper est paratus: tamen ex habundanti vos reconvulsit, ut ipsum superiorem et directum vestrum Dominum recognosceretis, et eisdem sicut antecessores et progenitores vestri suis antecessoribus et progenitoribus Angliæ Regibus fecerunt, pareretis, sicut decet; adjiciensque, quod si qua haberetis, quæ ipsum a jure suo prædicto Superioritatis et directi Domini hujusmodi exercitio seu executione ejusdem excludere de jure possent vel deberent, et rationes suas et documenta pro jure suo adducta per validiora et efficaciora enervare vel etiam infirmare, quod paratus erat ea benigne audire, admittere et approbare, quatenus de jure fuerant approbata et etiam allocanda; Quia requisitione vobis (ut præmittitur) facta, vos terminum sive diem sufficientem ad consulendum Episcopos aliosque Prælatos Ecclesiasticos, Comites, Barones, et alios Nobiles ac communitatem regni Scotiæ tunc absentes petebatis, et ad hoc faciendum, et ad exhibendum, ostendendum et proponendum munimenta vel scripta, seu alia quævis documenta si quæ haberetis, quæ ipsum Dominum nostrum Regem a jure suo prædicto repellere possent, et rationes et jura pro se adducta enervare, vel etiam per valida et efficacia infirmare, ad vestram instantem petitionem precise et prerenuunt obtinuisse, et diem hodiernum vobis ad hoc (ut permittitur) concessum, perpetuum et assignatum admittitis; Quosque iam in isto termino peremptorio plures nomine et vice ipsius Domini nostri Regis Anglia, et ex parte sua per nos Robertum Bathon. et Wellen. Episcopum requisiti, nihil omnino proponitis, nec ostenditis, nec aliquis vestrum contra premissa pro jure suo adducta et vobis ostensa proponit vel ostendit. Idcirco vobis omnibus et singulis tam Episcopis, Prelatisque obis Ecclesiasticis, quam Comitibus, Baronibus, Nobilibus et Magnatibus aliis de Communitate dicti regni Scotie his congregatis, idem Dominus noster Rex Anglia per nos Robertum Bathon. et Wellen. Episcopum insinuat et denunciat quod cum ex parte vestra per vos vel vestrum aliquem nihil sit propositum, exhibitum vel ostensum, quod Ius, executionem seu exercitum Juris sui iustissimi Superio-rioris et directi sui Domini predicti debeat aliquo modo impedire; Intentionis sue est jure suo predicto uti, et in ipso negotio inter contendentes de jure successionis regni Scotie procedere, ratione Superioritatis et directi Domini, quod est suum, ad cognoscendum, discutendum et diffiniendum singulariter de jure singulorum Ius ad dictum regnum Scotia sibi competere vendicantium, et eorum uni-cuique iustitiam facere complementum. Idcirco ex parte dicti Domini nostri Regis Anglia et de ipsius mandato speciali, incipiendo a vobis Domino Roberto de Brus Domino Vallis Anandie, qui inter alios jus succedendi in regnum Scotie sibi compe-tere vendicantes, jus vobis competere dicitis, interrogando quzimus hic in presentia istorum Prelatorum, Comitum, Baronum, et aliorum Nobilium utriusque regni hic existentium, an super petitione Juris vobis competentis ad dictum regnum belitis coram ipso Rege Anglia, utpote Superiore et directo vestro Domino regni Scotie, stare juri, et ab eo petere, respondere et recipere iustitiam complementum?

Qui statim publice, palam & expresse in presentia omnium & singulorum ibidem presentium, meique Notarii infrascripti respondens dixit organo vocis sue, nemine contradi-cente, vel reclamante, quod Dominum Regem Anglia recognovit Superiorem et directum Dominum dicti regni Scotie, et concessit se belle stare juri coram ipso super jure sibi competenti ad regnum prelatum, et ab ipso et coram ipso, utpote Superiore et directo Domino suo regni Scotie, petere, respondere et recipere in hac parte iustitiam complementum. Quo facto idem Pater Bathon. & Wellen. Episcopus, ad nobilem virum Dominum Florentium Comitem Hollandie se convertens, ab eodem nomine & mandato speciali ipsius Regis Anglia, ut supra a dicto Domino Roberto de Brus, & eodem modo quaesivit & etiam interrogavit; Qui sicut Dominus Robertus de Brus in omnibus et per omnia organo vocis sue statim respondit; ipsumque dictum Re-gem Anglia Superiorem et directum Dominum regni Scotie palam et expresse recognovit, et concessit se belle stare juri coram ipso, utpote coram Superiore et di-recto Domino Scotie, super jure sibi competenti ad regnum Scotie prelatum, et ab eo et coram eo petere, respondere et recipere in omnibus et per omnia, quod consideratum sibi fuerit in hac parte. Eodem modo idem Episcopus statim ibidem a nobili viro Domino Johanne de Hallinges nomine dicti Domini Regis Anglia, & de ipsius mandato speciali, ut supra, interrogando quaesivit ibidem, an ipse super jure sibi competenti ad ipsam regnum Scotie vellet stare juri coram dicto Domino Rege Anglia, ut Superiore et directo Domino regni Scotie, et ab ipso et coram ipso petere, respondere et recipere in omnibus, quod Curia sua consideraverit? Qui statim palam & expresse organo vocis sue recognovit eundem Regem Anglia Superiorem et di-rectum Dominum ipsius regni Scotie, et concessit se belle stare juri coram ipso super jure sibi competenti ad ipsum regnum, et ab ipso et coram ipso petere, respondere et recipere quod est iustum. Ad hac statim ibidem nobilis vir Dominus Patricius de Dunbar Comes de Marchia, & Nobiles viri Dominus Willielmus de Ros, & Dominus Walterus de Muntrecome Procur. seu Attornatus Domini Willielmi de Vesey pro ipso Domino Willielmo, Robertus de Pinkny, & Dominus Nicholaus de Coules Me-lites, eorum quilibet per se petit admitti in petitione juris, quod quilibet se habere debebat ad succedendum in ipsam regnum Scotie; Qui inquisiti ut supra, & interrogati per eundem Bathon. & Wellen. Episcopum, quilibet eorum singulatim per se, an vellet stare juri super petitione juris, quod se habere credebat in successione dicti regni Scotie, et petere, respondere et recipere coram ipso et ab ipso tanquam Superiore et directo suo Domino ipsius regni, quod consideratum sibi fuerit in ebe-

tu: responderunt palam & expresse singillatim, sicut interrogabantur, coram omnibus ibidem presentibus Nobilibus et Prelatis, nemine contradicente vel reclamante, quod ipsum Dominum Regem Angliæ superiorem et directum Dominum dicti regni Scotiæ recognoverit, et se velle stare juri coram eo super jure successoris, quod sibi competere credebant ad regnum prædictum, et ab ipso et coram ipso petere, respondere et recipere quod Curia sua eis considerare voluerit in euentu. Insuper Nobilis vir Dominus Thomas Ranulphi Miles, Domini Johannis de Balliolo absentiam Domini sui excusavit, & dixit, Dominum suum præfixionem seu assignationem illius diei ad faciendum ea quæ tunc fiebant totaliter ignorare; & dicitur, dictum Dominum suum in successione juris ad dictum regnum Scotiæ præ omnibus aliis petentibus pinguis jus habere, et petiit se admitti nomine Domini sui, et Dominum suum in personam suam ad petendum jus suum inter alios ibidem, et ipsum Dominum suum in crastino in personam propriam admitti, et audientiam debitam super jure sibi competenti ad idem regnum eidem concedi. Acta ex opposito Castri de Northm. ut præmittitur, anno, indictione, mense, die & loco proximo prænotatis. Presentibus venerabilibus in Christo patribus Dominis Deo gratia Antonio Dunelm. Willielmo Elien. Willielmo Sancti Andree, Roberto Glasuen. & Marco Soderensi Episcopis; ac Nobilibus viris Dominis Willielmo de Valenc. Penbrok. Henrico de Lacy Lincoln. Rogero Bigott Northfolch. & Mariscallo Angliæ, Dovenaldo de Mar, Gilberto de Anegoz, & Roberto de Brus de Caryk, Comitibus; ac venerabilibus & discretis viris Magistris Henr. Ebor. Johanne Lichf. Thoma Wellen. & Andree Exon. Ecclesiarum Decanis; Willielmo Ebor. Waltero Wellen. Petro Exon. Thom. Suthfolch. in Ecclesia Norwicen. Durando Stoneie in Ecclesia Lincoln. & Roberto Cestrix in Ecclesia Lich. Archidiaconis; ac Nobilibus viris Dominis Theobaldo de Verdon. Thom. de Berkle. Hugone le Despenfer, Waltero de Bello Campo, Willielmo de Sancto Claro, Patricio de Graham, Willielmo de Moravia, Ricardo Syward, Galfrido de Moubray, Mich. de Wymes, Waltero Curry, & Willielmo de Monte Revelli, Militibus; ac Magistro Johanne Erturi de Cadomo Notar. public. testibus ad præmissa vocatis specialiter et rogatis, cum aliis utriusque regni Nobilibus et Prelatis, militibus et Proceribus aliis, Clericis et Laicis in multitudine copiosa.

Anno Domini & Indictione prænotatis, dicti mensis Junii, die tertia, congregatis in loco proximo superscripto dicti regni Scotiæ Nobilibus & Prelatis, sicut die proximo præcedenti, accessit ad ipsos ex parte dicti Domini Regis Angliæ venerabilis pater Dominus Bathon. & Wellen. Episcopus, in cuius ora idem Rex (sicut alias) verba sua posuerat, ipsum organum suum constituens, eisdem eadem, qua die proximo præcedenti, nomine dicti Regis intimavit, & qua fiebant coram ipsis iterato recitavit per ordinem seriatim. Et quia Nobilis vir Dominus Johannes de Balliolo, qui alius diei hesternæ non interfuit, nunc præsens erat ibidem, et se dicebat præ omnibus aliis regnum Scotiæ petentibus pinguis jus habere, petens se cum effectu ad prosecutionem juris sui inter alios admitti, et audientiam debitam sibi concedi; ad interrogationem dicti patris sibi ex parte Domini Regis Angliæ factam, an vellet stare juri coram ipso Domino Rege, ut superiori et directo Domino regni Scotiæ, et ab ipso et coram ipso petere, respondere et recipere iustitiam complementum? Respondit sicut & ceteri Nobiles superscripti, recognoscens palam organo vocis suæ, dictum Dominum Regem Angliæ superiorem et directum esse Dominum dicti regni Scotiæ, et se velle coram ipso gratanter stare juri, et petere, respondere et recipere in omnibus ipsam tangentibus quod iustitia suaderet. Quibus sic factis, ex parte dicti Domini Regis idem Pater præcepit eisdem omnibus & singulis tam Nobilibus quam Prelatis, & aliis de Communitate regni Scotiæ ibidem congregatis, quod statim ad Ecclesiam parochialem de Northm. accederent, & coram Domino Rege convenirent, voluntatem suam audiri. Quibus coram ipso Domino Rege (ut præmittitur) in dicta Ecclesia parochiali de Northm. congregatis, venerabilis pater Dominus Bathon. & Wellen. Episcopus ibidem ex parte Domini Regis ipsiusque nomine, vice et mandato, eadem verba qua die prox. præcedenti coram ipsis recitavit (lingua tamen Gallica) hunc habentia sententialiter intellectum.

Serenissimus Princeps & Dominus noster Dominus Edwardus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ illustris, superior et directus Dominus regni Scotiæ, desolatum statum ejusdem perpendens, & ex principis destitutione turbatum considerans, & nonnulla

An. 20 E. 1. pericula quæ eidem regno per dissensiones Magnatum ejusdem, qui jus sibi vendicant successione ad illud, & etiam se habere contendunt, poterunt pervenire, ob affectionem & zelum quem habebit & habet erga dictum regnum & ipsius incolæ, & præcipue ad universos & singulos, quorum tutio & defensio ad eum spectare dinoscitur; & ad faciendum cuilibet petenti justitiæ complementum, & tranquillitatem & pacem inter regnicolas & Nobiles prædictos contententes conformandam, nuper nonnullos Episcopos, Prælatosque alios Ecclesiasticos, Comites, Barones & Nobiles dicti regni Scotia, (sicut pluries coram vobis recitavimus) ipsius nomine & pro ipso fecit per suas certi tenoris literas ad locum istum in confinio regnorum scituatum (ut vestris parceret laboribus & expensis) congregari, ibidemque suum Parliamentum statuit & indixit; ad quem locum in termino statuto sicut promisit personaliter declinavit, sicut nobis. Cumque inter alia in dicto Parlamento dicti, ex parte Domini nostri Regis petitio quædam vobis ex habundanti facta fuisset, de recognitione vestra benivolentia Superioritatis et directi Domini regni Scotia, quod suum est, sicut per nonnullas rationes manifestas et certa documenta et munimenta quamplura vobis ostendebat, in cujus possessione juris vel quasi progenitores sui Angl. Reges a tempore cuius contracti memoria non existit fuerint inconcussa. Ad quam petitionem respondere illa vice distulistis, petentes cum effectu diem vobis concedi ad deliberandum & consulendum cum absentibus dicti regni Nobilibus ac Prælati, ac Communitate ejusdem regni, super responsione facienda dictæ petitioni; ac ipse vestris precibus inclinatus diem hesternum, vobis concessit, statuit & præfixit ad tractandum, deliberandum & consulendum cum dictis absentibus Nobilibus & Prælati, ac Communitate prædicta super præmissis, & illo die præcisè & peremptoriè respondendum petitioni memorata, ulteriusque eodem die proponendum, exhibendum & ostendendum jura scripta, rationes, munimenta, & alia quævis documenta si quæ haberent, per quæ possent ipsum Dominum nostrum Regem a jure suo prædicto Superioritatis et directi Domini hujusmodi excludere, et rationes et jura pro se adducta per validiora infirmare; vosque in termino vobis ad præmissa statuto et prædicto hesternæ die videlicet, infirmul congregati, et per nos ex parte Domini nostri Regis, et de ipsis injuncto speciali vobis iteratis et hodie in eodem loco quo heri interrogati, quidnam super dicta dilatione quam petebatis fecissetis: et, an aliqua dicere, proponere vel erubere velletis, quæ ipsum Dominum nostrum a jure suo prædicto repellere possent, aut de jure deberent; nihil omnino dixistis, proposuistis vel exhibuistis. Quare idem Dominus noster Rex adhuc vobis omnibus et singulis hic præsentibus, sicut pluries per nos insinuari fecit et denunciari: ita in præsentiarum coram ipso vobis insinuat et denunciari, quod intentionis suæ est, dicto jure suo uti, et in ipso negotio inter contententes procedere jure Superioritatis et directi Domini hujusmodi quod est suum, ab cognoscendo, discutiendo et distinguendo de jure singulorum jus ad dictum regnum Scotia vendicantium. Et quia quidam dicti regni Nobiles, & etiam al unde de jure successionis hujusmodi contententes, hesternæ die & hodierna, per nos ex parte Domini nostri Regis, & de ipsius mandato speciali interrogati fuissent singillatim, eorum quilibet per se in præsentia Prælatorum et Nobilium virtutisque regni, et aliorum quamplurium de Communitate regni Scotia ibidem præsentium, an super jure successionis, quod se credebant habere ad dictum regnum Scotia, vellent stare juri coram Domino nostro Rege Anglia tanquam superiori et directo Domino ejusdem regni, et ab ipso et coram ipso petere, respondere et recipere quod justum fuerit in eventu; ac dicti Nobiles palam et expresse coram ipsis Nobilibus et Prælati, ac aliis de Communitate dicti regni Scotia, nemine contradicente vel reclamante, recognoverunt organo vobis dictum Regem Anglia superiorem et directum Dominum regni Scotia, et concesserunt, se velle gratanti animo stare juri coram ipso, uti ore superiori et directo Domino dicti regni Scotia, et ab eo et coram eo petere, respondere et recipere in omnibus et per omnia super jure sibi competenti ad dictum regnum quod justitia suaderet. Unde nos præmissa & eorum singula omnibus & singulis utriusque regni Nobilibus & Prælati, ac aliis hic præsentibus, ex parte ipsius Domini nostri Regis hic in sua præsentia & nomine suo dicimus, quod in summa, hoc est intentionis et voluntatis suæ stœdium, quod dissensionum et discordiarum omnimodarum sublatis mareritis, pax et tranquillitas in ipso regno vigeat, et ipsi incolæ omnino auxilio quod quævis ius superioritatis et directi Domini regni Scotia situum, et exer-

 citum seu executionem ejusdem spectet ad eum, propter hoc non intendit se a jure hereditario (si quod sibi competat) ad dictum regnum, quo ad proprietatem ipsius excludere, licet utatur iure suo superioritatis et directi domini sui pri-

 Ad hæc autem dictus Dominus Rex Anglia præmissa per præfatum Dominum Bathon, & Wellen, Episcopum, suo nomine (ut præmittitur) recitata & dicta, sermone Gallico ore proprio recitavit, dicens hæc verba vel huiusmodi hunc habentia senten-tialiter intellectum.

Nos Edwardus Dei gratia Rex Anglia, et superior Dominus regni Scotia, statum ejusdem solatum considerantes, & ex Principis seu Regis sui destitutione multipliciter contrabatum, & varia perplexitate depressum condolentes, & propter dissen-siones Magnatum ipsius ad dictum regnum se habere contendendum, ob affectionem & ætatem quam habuimus & habemus ad ipsum regnum & ipsius incolas (sicut dicitur Bathon, Episcopus coram vobis nostro nomine recitavit) & præcipue ad universos & singulos quorum iustitia & defensio ad nos spectare dicitur, ac etiam pro pace dicti regni & inhabitantium ejusdem, ad partes istas gressus nostros direximus, nostris non parcentes laboribus nec expensis. Cumque vos Episcopi alique Ecclesiarum Prelati, Conites, Badictis et etiam intellexistis vicibus iteratis. Ea propter, petimus sicut a vobis nomine nostro, quod nos superioritatem et directum Dominum nostrum dicti regni ex habundanti recognoscere, et nobis ut superiori Domino vestro (sicut iustum

 est) parere, adiacendo, quod si aliquid haberetis contra nos aut ius nostrum huiusmodi, quæ nos a jure nostro, exercitio seu executione iuris ejusdem excludere possent, et rationes et iura pro nobis et iura nostra huiusmodi adducta et facienda, per validiora et efficaciora infirmare; ea parati essemus quatenus iustum fuerit admittere et facere super his, quod secundum Deum et iustitiam fuerit faciendum, vos autem præmissis plenius intellectis, diem ad consulendum cum absenti-bus tunc Episcopis et aliis Ecclesiarum Prelatis ac Nobilibus, et Communitate dicti regni super responsione facienda dictæ nostræ requisitioni cum instantia petobatis et obtinistis ad interim consulendum cum absentibus, et deliberandum super præmissis, et respondendum, et ulterius precise et veremprose ostenden-dum, exhibendum et proponendum munimenta vel scripta, aut alia quibus documenta, si quæ haberetis, quæ nos a jure nostro huiusmodi excludere possent, et iura pro nobis adducta per validiora et efficaciora infirmare; ac vos in dicto termino, vobis ad hoc assignato, et per vos acceptato, convenientes, nihil contra propositum, nec adhuc proponitis; nec vestrum aliquis proposuit aut proponit, quod nos a jure nostro aut huiusmodi exercitio aut executione ejusdem excludere debeat vel poterit, ut refertur. Nobis omnibus et singulis de Communitate ipsius regni, sicut vestra de et hodierna per dictum Episcopum Bathon, notificari fecimus et denunciari nomine nostro, ita in presenti notificamus et denunciamus; Quod intentionis nostræ est uti jure nostro, et in negotiis inter contententes de iure successionis regni Scotia prælibati procedere jure superioritatis et directi domini huiusmodi, quod est nostrum, ad cognoscendum, discutendum et diffini-endum de jure singulorum ius ad regnum Scotia vendicantium quoquo modo.
 Cumque prænominati Nobiles ius ad dictum regnum vendicantes per præfatum Episco-pum Bathon, nostro nomine singillatim interrogati vicibus iteratis in præsentia Prelatorum,
